

Falling 137

Chapter 137

Elaina put away the phone and looked up at Jenica. "Who said I was texting him? How can I possibly date him?"

"Really? I thought you would be moved by his pursuit." Previously, Jenica did not like Jalen and felt that his behavior was outrageous.

But now, Jenica felt that Jalen was not bad. At least he admitted that he was wrong rather than being stubborn and arrogant. In this regard, he was much better than most men.

Of course, Elaina obviously did not think so.

Elaina said to Jenica disapprovingly, "He thought that as long as he apologized and spent some time chasing me, I would accept him. What does he think I am? A toy?"

"That's true. You are different from other women. You will definitely not be moved by Jalen's pursuit." Jenica felt that if she were Elaina, she might have been moved. After all, that was Jalen.

They spoke and soon arrived at the restaurant.

invited her, Elaina would not stand on ceremony. Elaina ordered a few dishes time, at

to him with a kind face, "Marcus, how have you been? I was too busy.

Marcus was shocked. Every time Alisha was so kind, he felt that something was he didn't know that his intuition was right and that the upcoming brother very well. This was darkened. He hated her so much, not angry anymore. She is Jalen's woman anyway. I can't afford feeling uncomfortable. When he was lying on another woman's bed, Elaina's face and figure would always you like her, I will get her for you." Alisha patted Marcus serious?" Marcus asked

"Of course!"

and continued, "Previously, because I liked Jalen, I did not want to have a conflict with him. But now things are different. You know that I am from his father. Although he did not agree, he did not know