

Falling 141

Chapter 141

Jalen walked in with large strides. He happened to meet Elaina's gaze. He was stunned for a long time before he reacted.

"Are you alright?" he asked, his voice full of worry.

Elaina was surprised. She asked uncertainly, "Are you here for me?"

"What else?" Jalen's face darkened. "Do you think I came here for a vacation?"

Elaina smiled awkwardly. She did not know how to describe her feelings. She did not expect that the first person to come to her when she was in trouble was Jalen. It was ironic.

"How are you? What happened?" He walked over to Elaina and asked about what had happened.

Elaina shook her head. To be honest, she was also confused. "Nothing."

"Nothing?" Jalen frowned.

Elaina nodded. She knew that Jalen had the same doubts in his heart. She was kidnapped but nothing happened to her. The kidnapper just left her in the hotel and let Jalen find her. What was the point?

blood on the ground. He looked at Elaina nervously.

Elaina shook her head and looked at the

they exchanged glances, they entered bedroom were closed, and opened the curtains. When panic that he

Jalen walked

did not answer him. At this moment, Jalen saw everything on there. He was naked and felt that the person on the bed wasn't unconscious

bed red.

long time, Elaina came back to her senses and tried to keep herself

his breath and shook his head at

could not help but much. She wanted him to spend the rest of that she felt sorry for him but that she wanted him to be punished by laws. No one had