

Falling 142

Chapter 142

The conversation between the two was not over yet when someone came in again, but this time, it was a group of people.

“We received a report that there was a murder here.” A police officer came over.

“When we came in, he was dead.” Elaina moved away and pointed at Marcus’ body.

The police officer ignored her. When he saw the corpse on the bed, he became serious and called his colleagues as if he had regarded the two people in the room as suspects.

Elaina and Jalen were taken to the police station, waiting for the interrogation.

At the same time, the news of Marcus’ death in the hotel spread throughout New York.

As the young master of the Lory family, many people paid attention to him.

to the police station were released with the news from the insiders. The news said that Marcus tried to harass Elaina, but he was stabbed to death by Elaina in her and he was found guilty, the police. would punish him and there die while others felt that Marcus didn’t deserve death and they wanted Elaina to pay the nothing about was being interrogated, and the atmosphere was serious. Elaina realized but according to the autopsy report, he died for more than an hour when the police arrived. In other words, you stayed was dead. You can check the surveillance camera did not convince the police officer. Instead, he said, “The surveillance camera was broken, so no one can confirm what you was not surprised. Since someone wanted to frame her, the mastermind wouldn’t give himself killed him, right?” Elaina asked. She felt police took out the evidence bag, also have a lot of blood on your clothes. At Fingerprints...