Chapter 145

Alisha felt Ernesto's gaze as soon as she came out of the interrogation room. Her heart suddenly thumped. What Elaina said just now must have made him suspicious.

"Dad, you don't believe that woman's words, do you? She is trying to sow discord between us," said Alisha. Whether Ernesto believed it or not, she had to say something.

Ernesto remained silent and did not answer, but his eyes fell on Alisha. He seemed to be pondering.

Seeing this, Alisha continued, "Dad, we are the only people left in the Lory family. We must work together for our family's development!"

Ernesto seemed to be convinced by her. After a while, he said in a low voice, "It's best if you have nothing to do with Marcus' death. If I find that you killed him..."

"I would rather donate the family property than give it to you!"

After saying that, Ernesto left. Alisha breathed a sigh of relief.
