Chapter 148

That night, Elaina slept very well.

But what she didn't know was that after she fell asleep, her news went viral on the Internet.

A marketing account revealed that Elaina, the murderer, came out of the police station. Everyone hadn't paid much attention to Elaina, but the account revealed that she was Jalen's ex-wife, and her news immediately went viral.

After all, Jalen's name was always on the trend topics and he was the dream lover of countless women.

The netizens loved gossip most, not to mention that it was Jalen's gossip.

The informant said that Elaina was the most suspected murderer, but because of Jalen, she came out of the police station unscathed.

The one who died this time was the son of the Lory family. In New York, the Lory family was a powerful family. Even such a family could not get justice. If it was an ordinary person...
