

Falling 157

Chapter 157

Peach Village, the village Elaina grew up in.

Since she had memories, she lived there. She was very familiar with everything in the village.

Elaina had started learning all kinds of skills since she was a child, but she did not go to school.

Instead, she learned from the teachers in the village. She always felt that they were excellent and knew everything.

When she was a child, she did not find it strange. She thought that the other villages were the same, and so were the other children.

Then she became an adult and came to New York for college. Many years later, she got her doctorate, entered the workplace, and then married Jalen. The more she knew, the more she felt that there was something wrong with Peach Village.

Every teacher in the village who taught her was outstanding. For example, Damon, who was clearly known by everyone in the outside world, stayed in the village to be her teacher. There must be a reason, but Elaina did not know.

Elaina had asked Dexter before, but Dexter did not answer her. He just told her not to think too much, and she would know when she needed to know.

“Ella?”

for Elaina to speak. Seeing that she was deep in thought, he could not help and said, “My grandfather has hired many teachers for me since I was young, so although I grew up in did not say it in detail. She did not want too many people to grandfather is very good to you.” To

“I only feel good when I grow up. When I was a child, that she lived a miserable life. Every day, she would go

she made a scene, but Dexter didn’t compromise. So it, Dexter

was also forced

and asked, “Really? I had

if it was the first time they

sound of knocking

over to open the door. She was not surprised to but he felt curious. "Is Mr. Halton and learned that Jalen was at Elaina's house. For this reason, he had specially

Graham saw Jalen in the living