

Falling 161

Chapter 161

Get Boys

At eight o'clock in the evening, Jalen came back from his company and saw Alisha standing outside the Halton's Residence.

"What are you doing here?" Jalen got out of his car and walked over with a complicated expression.

In fact, Jalen could more or less figure out the reason. The current situation of the Lory family was known to everyone in New York. There was only one reason why Alisha came.

At that moment, Alisha looked a little messy. Her eyes were red as she looked at Jalen who stood in front of her. "Jalen, could you help the Lory family for once?"

"Let's get in and talk." Jalen did not agree directly.

However, Alisha did not move. She stood where she was. "I won't go in. I came here today just to ask for your help."

Hearing that, Jalen did not insist. He looked at Alisha and said after a long time, "Sorry, Allie, I can't help you."

"Jalen, if you don't help the Lory family, my father will marry me to the Stein family and exchange my lifelong happiness for the cooperation between the two families. Even so, can't you help me once?"

looked at Jalen pleadingly, hoping that

"Don't worry, I will not let you marry into the Stein family, but he could help Alisha not marry into

it was not

stood in front

it was because Alisha had never did not find out anything about you, you and I both know why Marcus died. I have already done my best to not make a move against you." Jalen felt conflicted being put in a place where he had to make a choice between Elaina, someone he loved, and Alisha, his friend help Elaina. If he helped the not explain herself. She knew that the truth of Marcus' death could not be not do anything to her. So Alisha dared lowered her head

noticed but head and asked Jalen, "Jalen, actually, I have been wanting to ask that Jalen did not the perfect couple. At that time, you didn't refute it. I the wedding. At that