

Falling 164

Chapter 164

As an assistant, Graham could not help but shiver. Graham knew that his boss was angry.

Alisha raised her head. There was not much emotion on her face. Alisha said calmly, "I have no other choice. If I don't marry you, I can only marry that fatty from the Stein family."

"Do you think you can marry me like this?" Jalen sneered. Jalen did not know where Alisha's confidence came from.

What could two photos of them lying together prove? Jalen knew very well that nothing had happened to them.

"If there is a very rare possibility, I would go for it. If I don't do anything, nothing will be possible for me," Alisha said to Jalen. Alisha had already given up covering her goal.

Jalen was grim as he tried his best to restrain his urge to hit Alisha.

Alisha did not care. Alisha smiled and said to Jalen, "Even if you don't marry me, I believe that Elaina will not be with you when she sees the news. Instead, Elaina will hate you even more."

In an instant, Jalen exploded and pinched Alisha's lower jaw. "Is this your real purpose?"

Alisha did not speak, which could be considered that Alisha admitted it tacitly.
