

Falling 167

Chapter 167

When Jalen arrived at the Halton's residence, Takvor had already been waiting at the entrance for a long time. Takvor hurriedly walked to Jalen. "Mr. Jalen, welcome back home. Mr. Nitzan has been waiting for you for a long time."

"Grandpa..." Jalen frowned and got anxious, "What does he look like?"

Jalen nodded and walked to the study on the second floor.

He knocked on the door and then entered the study. The room was in dark. There was only a light that was turned on on the table. An elderly man with white hair sat there, looking a little lonely from a far.

"Grandpa," Jalen spoke and walked to Nitzan.

Hearing it, Nitzan looked up at Jalen who was walking over. He stared firmly at Jalen and kept silent for a long time.

Jalen just stood there silently.

After a long time, Nitzan sighed. "Tell me, what happened between you and Alisha?"

did not keep it a secret from Nitzan and

I

Nitzan asked seriously, "if you could make it, why would going

"I would never allow her to marry into good relationship. So when Nitzan heard about the rumor, he was by what Nitzan said. Jalen smiled helplessly, "Of course not. I thought you

Alisha, it would somehow harm

as my only granddaughter-in-law. I will not accept was allowed to marry into the Halton family, would she lead a peaceful life in the family? Nitzan feelings. He felt

"Is Elaina such a good girl? You love her so match for you." Nitzan was sure about Nitzan because Nitzan said that he could accept no one but Elaina as his one hand, he knew that Nitzan would not explain, and it was useless for him to ask about it. On the other hand, he

