

Falling 172

Chapter 172

The food in this meal was hard for Elaina to swallow, especially when she saw Alisha, who was sitting opposite her, constantly putting food onto Jalen's plate and talking intimately to him. Elaina regretted that she had promised to come over for dinner tonight.

Elaina could not help but look at Jalen and found that Jalen did not respond to or refuse Alisha's actions. He looked like a jerk.

While Elaina was complaining in her heart, Jalen suddenly looked up and met her gaze. Elaina felt that she was caught peeping. She quickly looked away and pretended that nothing had happened.

Nitzan did not care about the strange atmosphere at the table. Instead, he looked at Elaina. "Ella, are you free tomorrow? Why don't you go climbing with me?"

"Mr. Nitzan, I'm afraid I can't make it tomorrow." Elaina put down the fork. "The hospital sent me to the countryside to do volunteer medical work. It might take a few months before I come back."

"How long will you be in the countryside?" Nitzan was surprised and couldn't help but look at Jalen.

came back to his senses. "Dr. Gainsford is really kind. Is there a need for a famous doctor like you to a doctor like Elaina leaving for a few months was a major loss for the hospital not. If public welfare has to

to Jalen. Since Elaina was with Nitzan, to say that he valued profits most, and he

I have not paid much attention to the Northwestern Memorial Hospital, it is best not to interfere with the internal affairs of the hospital. After all, you do the fork. His cold

In front of Nitzan, Jalen didn't dare to hurt

coughed to stop situation was awkward and interrupted, "Ella is right. Volunteer medical work is a good

ask them to increase the charity fund this