

Falling 32

Chapter 32

“Yes...”

Jalen answered with great difficulty. He felt that he was about to be drowned in darkness, and the hand that Elaina held was like his only salvation.

“My cell phone’s battery has run down. Where is your cell phone?” Elaina asked as she supported Jalen.

She felt that Jalen was trembling more and more violently. If this continued, she was afraid that Jalen would faint in the elevator.

Say something, or I will take it myself.” When Elaina finished speaking, she reached out in Jalen’s direction.

She had no other thoughts. She just wanted to find Jalen’s cell phone to call the property management office as soon as possible, but...

In the darkness, her hands could only grope around randomly.

Her slender fingers touched Jalen’s solid pectoral muscles. And further down, there were obvious abdominal muscles.

surprised

are you touching?” Jalen gritted his teeth. His already trembling voice carried a bit of coldness moment.

laughed with suppressed his fear, took out his cell

office’s number. Call any more time. She quickly dialed Graham’s number and told Graham what had happened. After that, turned on the flashlight on Jalen’s cell phone. The faint light seemed to work. At least Jalen tremble so much.

spatial claustrophobia?” Elaina asked while trying to Jalen shook his head.

As a doctor, Elaina
in his eyes. He said, "It has nothing to do

Elaina didn't say anything.

She was speechless.

been worried about the latter

1/2

Get Bo

so far away from me?" The light on the cell phone was very weak. After Elaina moved away.

over. The darkness over there was like a huge abyss to him. If he dared approach, he thought that the abyss would swallow

Elaina said without

wanted to force himself to stand up, but he found that he could not do it at all. "Come over

Elaina refused, "No."