

Falling 33

Chapter 33

“Dr. Gainsford!” Jalen gnashed his teeth in hatred.

But Elaina did not care. She really wanted to see Jalen suffer, but...

As a doctor, it was impossible for her to treat a patient like that.

Yes, a patient.

In her eyes, Jalen was a patient at the moment.

No one would be so afraid of the dark that he would faint unless he had a serious psychological illness or had experienced something horrible.

“I was just kidding.” Elaina put the phone back and said righteously, “Although I hate you, I won’t take advantage of others.”

Jalen held the phone in his hand and looked at her. “You admit that you hate me.”

“Yeah, why can’t I admit it?” In the dark elevator, there was no one else around. Elaina didn’t refuse to chat with Jalen.

I don’t remember that I have offended you,” Jalen glanced at him, thinking that his ex-wife was with him now, he would not and stared at Elaina. “For about the Gansburg

was a little angry and said to him, “You clearly have the Gansburg family. Why do you offended by Jenica?”

said, “You’re quite

and

working with the Gansburg

Halton, you

for Ms. Dunston.”

GetHas

don't you?" Jalen looked at her and his eyes are the last student achievement required a lot of time and in one

seemed to be surprised that he would ask this, but

was better than this.

it have

asked, "When will your assistant