The next day, at Northwestern Memorial Hospital, Elaina received a call from Andrew as soon as she finished her surgery.

“Someone is looking for your information. They seem very powerful. I’m afraid you won’t be able to hide your domestic information for long,” he said.

Elaina was surprised when she heard it but soon returned to normal. “It’s okay, Andrew.

So what if they find out? I have nothing to hide.”

“Well, I thought you didn’t want Jalen to know your identity.” Andrew teased.

Elaina smiled and didn’t care much. “I don’t care. If he knows, it’s okay. If he doesn’t know, I won’t talk about it.”

Hearing Andrew’s words, she suspected that it was Jalen who investigated her. Elaina thought about it and felt that it was possible.

“Are you busy recently? It seems that you have an operation every day.” Andrew asked.

He was abroad recently, so he could not come to Elaina.

“When I’m busy, I won’t think too much,” she said.
