

Falling 41

Chapter 41

Get Bonus

The discussion continued, and many people began to look for information about Elaina. They thought they were performing righteous acts.

However, Elaina did not know what was happening outside. At this moment, she was concentrating on the operation.

Looking at the young man on the operating table, who was only sixteen years old but facing death, Elaina gritted her teeth and was determined to cure him.

The sky gradually darkened. Looking at the time, Jalen realized that it was already ten o'clock at night. The operation had been going on for seven hours, and it wouldn't seem to end soon.

can Elaina do was thinking about it, the lights in the operating room suddenly were turned off. A nurse walked my son dead?" The woman asked anxiously. Her words made the nurse frown slightly. The nurse wondered can go to register for hospitalization and pay the to roll on the ground. "I have no operation, she

son

about shirking responsibility. I am telling you that my son was harmed by you. You must be responsible." Seeing Elaina come out, the woman immediately got up from the ground and son's medical expenses, as well as mental damage compensation. Otherwise, time, Elaina seemed to have figured out what

Chapter 41

that the woman would harm her son had not even eaten dinner. Elaina already had stomach problems, and she began to feel a to leave, but she was pulled by the woman and couldn't leave. Elaina felt dizzy and was about almost fell, someone suddenly supported turned around and was surprised to see Jalen. “Haven’t you