Chapter 42

However, Elaina only glanced at him before she turned on her phone and saw the trending topic about her.

Elaina scrolled through the comments and got a general idea of what had happened.

“Don’t be sad. Those netizens don’t know the truth at all. They are manipulated by public opinion.” Jalen looked at her with some concern.

Elaina put away her phone and said calmly, “Don’t worry. I’m not that vulnerable.”

If some random comments from the outside world could harm her, she would not have made it to where she was today.

After calming herself, Elaina looked at the woman with interest and was about to ask her what exactly she wanted to do. Unfortunately, before Elaina could speak, a group of reporters with cameras and microphones ran toward her and besieged her.
