Chapter 53

At six o'clock in the afternoon, it was rare for Elaina to get off work at the right time.

Elaina was just thinking about inviting Jenica to have a meal and asking about the current situation of the Gansburg family. However, before Elaina could make a call, a red sports car stopped in front of her.

The car window rolled down, and Saul's handsome face appeared in front of Elaina.

"Dr. Gainsford, you should have time to have dinner with me today, right?" Saul smiled, but Elaina could feel the strong aura coming from him. Elaina knew that Saul didn't want to see her refuse him.

Elaina was helpless. She thought that Saul was so impatient that he asked her to fulfill what she had promised yesterday.

After thinking about it, Elaina felt that it was not a good thing to owe this favor. It was better to settle it early.

"Get in the car."

They went to Supreme Restaurant, a famous restaurant that was good at cooking spicy food in New York.

Elaina thought of the takeout that Saul had ordered for her last night and asked casually, "You seem to like spicy food."

"Yes, you don't like it?" Saul turned around and asked Elaina.
