Chapter 64

The next day, Jenica invited Elaina to dinner and apologized for not showing up yesterday.

“You were sloppy. It’s surprising to see you work so hard now.” Elaina drank the juice and quipped.

Since the Gansburg family almost went bankrupt, Jenica officially got into the Gansburg Group to work. Recently, they had not seen each other because Jenica was busy getting to know her work and had no time to ask Elaina out.

Jenica sighed and said, “I have no choice. I am the only daughter of my father. If I don’t take over the Gansburg Group, he will have to sell the company.”

“I think this is good. It’s about self-realization.” Except for the two years of marriage, Elaina had hardly rested.

Her dream was to realize her life values.

Jenica could not understand her thoughts. She was upset. “A workaholic like you can’t understand me.”

“Well, how are you and Jalen?” She looked at her with a gossipy face.

Elaina rolled her eyes at her. “Could anything happen between us? At most, he knows that I am his ex-wife.”

“So, he knew?”
