Chapter 68

In an instant, Elaina's eyes turned cold. She looked at Jack who was walking towards her, a blade in her hand. She only needed to wait for Jack to come closer, and she would be able to kill him in one blow.

At this time, something happened. Niko, who was standing guard at the door, suddenly shouted, "Arthur, a car is coming."

As soon as Niko finished speaking, Arthur and Jack in the warehouse had not reacted. A red sports car rushed straight into the warehouse, followed by a black car.

Saul and Jalen got out of the car. Their eyes were cold as they looked at the three people.

"Who are you?" Arthur called Jack and Niko to come over and put a knife on Elaina's neck. He looked at Saul
