Chapter 81

"It's my pleasure to be friends with Ms. Lory." Elaina smiled and watched the two leave.

After they left, the smile on Elaina's face disappeared. Jalen looked at her and shook his head helplessly. "You obviously don't like her. Why do you say yes?"

"She already asked. If I don't agree, doesn't it make me seem very petty?" Elaina glanced at him, then stood up and walked out of the restaurant.

Jalen followed behind her quietly. Anyway, he didn't know women.

Jalen asked, "Where are you going? I'll give you a ride."

"Don't bother, Mr. Halton. Someone's picking me up." As she spoke, a white sports car had already stopped in front of Elaina.

The moment Saul appeared, Jalen became so grim. He stood at the side coldly.

"Did you change your car?" Elaina was surprised. She remembered that Saul had driven a red sports car before.

"Didn't you tell me to lower my profile? Is this low enough?" He pointed to the limited-edition sports car in front of him and asked Elaina.

Elaina was speechless. From the color, it looked low-key, but in fact, it was more high-profile than before.
