Chapter 84

Jalen looked at the living room. He didn't know if it was his illusion, but it seemed that this place hadn't changed much over the two years.

He looked at Linda and asked, "The mansion has not been renovated in the past two years?"

"No," Linda replied, "Mr. Halton called to say that Mrs. Halton could..."

Linda paused for a moment, and then remembered that Jalen and Elaina had divorced. She changed the way she addressed Elaina and said, "Mr. Halton said that Ms. Gainsford could decorate the house as she wanted, but Ms. Gainsford didn't do anything

Jalen's face darkened slightly. He knew the reasons why Elaina did nothing.

Because Elaina was like him. She was also dragged into this marriage. From the beginning, she had never thought that the marriage would last, so she naturally would not waste time renovating the house.

"What has she been doing for the past two years?" Jalen suddenly wanted to know about Elaina's past.

Linda stole a glance at Jalen. She didn't understand why he still asked about Elaina when they were divorced. However, she didn't dare to ask. She could only answer truthfully, "Ms. Gainsford's daily life is very simple. She was usually taking care of the flowers and reading. And sometimes she went shopping. Nothing else."

Linda used to persuade Elaina to meet Jalen. She thought that wife and husband couldn't keep avoiding seeing each other like that.
