Chapter 86

The news, that the Dunston family went bankrupt and the Dunston Group was annexed, quickly spread throughout New York. Many people were taken aback.

Was the Dunston family that had a close relationship with Jalen damaged just like that?

After everyone recovered from the shock, they were curious about the cause. Some people said that the Dunston family had offended some big shot, and some others said that the person offended was Jalen. Anyway, people talked.

However, someone soon discovered that the Dunston Group was annexed by Theodore's Clouds Group, which made everyone even more gossipy.

When Elaina saw the news, her expression was calm. The Dunston family originally had a lot of problems, and in addition to the materials that she provided to Theodore, no wonder the Dunston family would have gone bankrupt.

Elaina just did not expect Theodore to take action so quickly. She had thought it would take some time.
