Chapter 95

After saying goodbye, Elaina felt that she should move, lest she would always meet Jalen.

On the other hand, Jalen called Saul directly.

“Mr. Halton, it’s late. Don’t tell me you want to talk to me about old stuff.” They had nothing to talk about.

Jalen gripped his phone tightly. “I warned you to stay away from Elaina. It seems that you don’t take my words to heart, right?”

“Jalen, who do you think you are? Why would I take your words to heart?” Saul sneered. He felt that Jalen was really interesting.

“You haven’t had a good time these past few days, have you?” Jalen said, “The Judson family is eager to find trouble with you. Now that the opportunity has come, they won’t let you go easily.”

Saul was silent and gritting his teeth.

The Halton family was indeed the number one family in New York. When Jalen said that he wanted to deal with the Judson family, Saul did not take it seriously and felt that the Judson family was not inferior to the Halton family.

However, after the Halton family took action, Saul realized that there was still a huge gap the two families.

For example, because of Jalen’s interference, Saul lost several of his cooperation in a row, which instantly caused the other members of the Judson family to be dissatisfied.
