

Falling 96

Chapter 96

That night, Jalen did not sleep well.

He had a dream. In the dream, he returned to the day when he got his marriage certificate with Elaina.

However, this time, it was no longer his grandfather who arranged it. Instead, he went to City Hall personally to get the marriage certificate with Elaina.

At that time, he met Elaina. It was not like he had not seen her for two years in real life. After that, everything was different.

However, when he woke up, he realized that it was just a dream.

In the hospital, Elaina conducted an operation in the morning. She was relatively free in the afternoon. Elaina was in the office sorting out the medical records.

It was at this time that she received a call from Nitzan, who invited her to the birthday party.

“Ella, I only celebrate my birthday once every ten years. You will come, won’t you?” Nitzan asked.

Elaina replied, “Nitzan, I will be there on time.”

“That’s good.” Nitzan hung up the phone in satisfaction, looking forward to the meeting between his grandson and Elaina.

met Elaina, he would definitely fall in love

this moment, Nitzan did not know that Jalen had already met Elaina on the second day of the divorce and that Jalen had a good impression of her without knowing that hanging up the phone, Elaina was about to continue working when someone knocked on the

and saw that it was you here?” She looked you like your dress,” Saul smiled. He thought that he had to catch the moment because he just made Jalen unhappy last thought of the dress that Saul chose. It looked good, but it was a gift, so Elaina was not picky. “It’s pretty good. How much is it? I’ll transfer the outsider.” Saul was unhappy. He always felt that no matter what he

“No, I just...”

for being my female companion. You won’t refuse it, will you?” Saul had no choice but to he had already said so, Elaina naturally could not a better mood. He held his chin and leaned against

“If you have something to say, just say it. If you look at me missed you and that it was gross, especially Elaina felt very uncomfortable.

was too obvious. Saul felt a little apologetic. “Looks like you don’t