

Chapter 1031: The Leng Family

As soon as Leng Piaoxue's name was mentioned, Gong Tianhao was stunned.

"Leng Piaoxue?!" Gong Tianhao was a little surprised by this name.

Li Yuanhang handed another document to Gong Tianhao and said, "Tianhao, I'm sure you didn't expect that Weng Jingjing and Leng Piaoxue would be good friends!"

Gong Tianhao seemed to have expected this result, but it was also unexpected.

Earlier, Bai Shanshan had undergone plastic surgery to look like Weng Jingjing, and the person behind the scenes was Leng Piaoxue.

Moreover, Bai Shanshan's every move and action was very similar to Leng Piaoxue. If it wasn't for someone who knew Weng Jingjing very well, it would have been impossible to do it.

At that time, Weng Jingjing had never appeared in person, and Bai Shanshan had never come into contact with Weng Jingjing in person. But, Bai Shanshan, who was pretending to be Weng Jingjing, had undergone plastic surgery to look like Weng Jingjing and imitate her. The person behind the scene must know Weng Jingjing very well.

The person who changed Bai Shanshan into Weng Jingjing was Leng Piaoxue.

Previously, Leng Piaoxue had a red rope from the jade pendant in her hand. She had benefited from it and could turn invisible. However, when she turned invisible and killed someone, she used a spell and suffered a backlash. She became bald and disfigured, and then she left the country.

Leng Piaoxue did not have the red rope in her hands, so she was no longer a threat to Xiao Lingyu and Gong Tianhao. However, Gong Tianhao still sent people to monitor her until she left the country.

Now that he suddenly heard the words 'Leng Piaoxue', Gong Tianhao was a little surprised. The corner of his mouth curled into a cold smile as he said calmly, "Leng Piaoxue? I didn't expect her to come out again so soon."

After hearing Gong Tianhao's words, Li Yuanhang was a little surprised and puzzled.

He asked, "Tianhao, does Leng Piaoxue have a grudge against Lingyu? Why doesn't she let her go?"

At this point, he suddenly guessed, "Could it be that Leng Piaoxue is like that Qin Yan? She is madly in love with you, so in order to get you, she targeted Xiao Lingyu?"

At this point, Li Yuanhang paused for a moment, and a hint of ridicule appeared on his face as he said with a smile, "Tianhao, you really have a lot of romantic issues. Moreover, every woman loves you so crazily. Don't you feel very proud?"

Hearing Li Yuanhang's words, Gong Tianhao rolled his eyes indecently and said in a bad mood, "Only you can joke with me like this. If it were someone else, do you think I would let them go?"

Li Yuanhang curled his lips and said with a smile, "That's why of all the classmates, only I can be your friend for so many years. This is the difference!"

At this point, he immediately paused and went back to the main topic. He immediately said seriously, "Tianhao, what's wrong with this Leng Piaoxue? Is she really targeting your wife because she adores you? But this isn't right. Weng Jingjing is your first love. It's impossible for a woman who adores you to be good friends with your first love, right?"

Gong Tianhao glanced at him and said, "I can only tell you that you're thinking too much. There is no love between Weng Jingjing and me. Also, the man that Leng Piaoxue likes isn't me."

Li Yuanhang asked in confusion, "If the man that Leng Piaoxue likes is not you, then why would she suddenly target your wife?"

Gong Tianhao said to Li Yuanhang in a bad mood, "I can only tell you that you are thinking too much. The man that Leng Piaoxue likes is not me."

"Is it really not you?" Li Yuanhang looked at Gong Tianhao suspiciously. "Then why does she only target your wife? It can't be for no reason, right?"

Gong Tianhao said, "Leng Piaoxue is a lunatic. The same can be said of Weng Jingjing."

Gong Tianhao could not tell Li Yuanhang that Leng Piaoxue liked Jiang Tao, but Jiang Tao liked Xiao Lingyu.

Li Yuanhang knew that Gong Tianhao would not tell him, so he did not ask any more questions. He only asked in a serious tone, "This time, Weng Jingjing and Leng Piaoxue are the masterminds. How do you plan to deal with them?"

A cold smile appeared on Gong Tianhao's cold face as he said coldly, "How else can I deal with them? I just said that I would make whoever bullies my wife pay back double. Whether it's the Royal Forest Group or the Leng family, I will make them bleed. And those two women, of course, I want them to pay too!"

When Li Yuanhang heard that, he frowned and asked, "Tianhao, let's forget about the Royal Forest group for now. Are you planning to touch the Leng Family?"

The Leng family was not an ordinary family.

Once Gong Tianhao touched the Leng family, some forces in the capital might have to do something.

The Leng family had a good relationship with the Gong family.

Gong Tianhao seemed to see Li Yuanhang's dilemma. He said coldly, "I warned the Leng family earlier, but they didn't seem to take it seriously. Since they don't know how to teach their daughter, I will help them."

Chapter 1032: Two Women

There was a high-end club in the capital city.

To enter this club, one had to have a membership card, and the minimum value of the membership card was five million!

In a dim private room in this club, there were two women.

Even in the dim light, one could vaguely see that these two women had good facial features and were beautiful.

One of the women said with a smug and vindictive smile on her face, "Xiao Lingyu has become a rat on the street. Everyone is crying out to have her head. We have made her into a mistress. I believe that in a short while, both her person and her career will be completely destroyed." She paused and said, "I don't believe that a woman whose career has been destroyed will be able to endure for a few more days."

Men were all concerned about their reputations. His wife's reputation and career had been destroyed. Such a wife had already made him lose face. If he continued to maintain the relationship between husband and wife, his career would also be affected.

When a man made a choice between a woman and his career, successful men would choose their career.

Because a man who had a career would have all kinds of women.

But a man who chose a woman might have nothing.

Gong Tianhao was one of the most successful men in the world. Naturally, he would not give up his career. Therefore, the only person he could give up was his wife, Xiao Lingyu.

When the other woman heard her words, she frowned slightly and revealed a worried expression. She said, "Piaoxue, don't you feel that our plan is going too smoothly?"

However, Leng Piaoxue didn't care at all. She smiled and said, "Hehe, it's good that it's going smoothly. I'm afraid that it won't! We've bribed all the necessary parties. With the power behind me and the interference of the Royal Forest Group, Xiao Lingyu, this village girl, doesn't have any ability to resist." Saying this, she paused for a moment and asked directly, "Jingjing, what are you worried about?" She then comforted her, "Xiao Lingyu is a woman who has a company worth hundreds of billions. However, she has Gong Tianhao backing her up. Without Gong Tianhao, she is nothing. So, you don't have to worry!"

However, Weng Jingjing did not feel comforted at all. She frowned and thought for a while, "But, Piaoxue, I am worried! I feel that things are going too smoothly. Moreover, Xiao Lingyu is scolded so badly on the Internet, but Xiao Lingyu seems to be too calm and doesn't respond at all. Don't you think this is strange? And..."

She looked directly at Leng Piaoxue and said doubtfully, "Based on my understanding of Gong Tianhao, he can't just sit by and watch his wife being bullied, right?"

Leng Piaoxue thought for a moment and said, "That's not strange at all. Gong Tianhao doesn't care about this matter because you're his first love, and he still has deep feelings for you.

"He must need a reason to get together with you.

“With his current status, it’s impossible for him to abandon his wife and children so easily. Therefore, he is relying on our cyber violence. Gong Tianhao married Xiao Lingyu in the image of a victim and a responsible man. This did not do any harm to Gong Tianhao.

“Soon, Gong Tianhao could use a legitimate reason to directly abandon Xiao Lingyu and her son, and then marry you.” At this point, Leng Piao xue raised her wine cup towards Weng Jingjing and said with a smile, “Jingjing, in the future, you will be Gong Tianhao’s wife and become the young madam of the Imperial Group! As for Xiao Lingyu...” As she said this, a cold smile appeared on her face as she said, “At that time, she will be a wife who has been disgraced. Moreover, she will be a woman whose reputation will be ruined, and her image and career will be completely ruined. She will definitely live in great pain.”

After hearing Leng Piao xue’s words, Weng Jingjing’s eyes immediately lit up, and the expression on her face also flickered.

Ever since she knew Gong Tianhao’s true identity as the crown prince in the capital, she had been looking forward to getting back together with Gong Tianhao. But at that time, she had already chosen to leave the country. Therefore, she decided to make use of her time to better herself so that when she returned, she would be more compatible with Gong Tianhao.

Before leaving the country, she left a letter for Gong Tianhao, hoping that Gong Tianhao could wait for her for two years.

However, Gong Tianhao did not read the letter and threw it away.

For Gong Tianhao, Weng Jingjing chose to betray him in order to leave the country and be with another man.

This was an insult to his memory of his memory. Naturally, his feelings for Weng Jingjing disappeared. As for the letter that was left behind, there was no need for Gong Tianhao to read it anymore.

It was just that Weng Jingjing did not know the truth behind Gong Tianhao’s interest in her. She had always thought that Gong Tianhao loved her. That was why he chose to drink himself to death after she left the country.

Therefore, when someone came to her and said that they could help her take back Gong Tianhao, she was excited and excited.

The position of the woman beside Gong Tianhao, the young madam of the Imperial Group, and the mistress of the Gong family was hers, to begin with.

So it was only natural for her to take it back, wasn’t it?

Chapter 1033: Friends

“Don’t worry!” Leng Piao xue immediately comforted her, “First love is the most unforgettable, especially when Gong Tianhao was the one who pursued you. Later on, you only chose to study abroad in order to be worthy of him. He definitely won’t blame you, and his affection for you will definitely still be there.

“Otherwise, with his ability and power, long before the matter developed, he could have completely suppressed the scandal about Xiao Lingyu. Why would he wait?”

After listening to Leng Piao xue’s words, Weng Jingjing thought for a moment and felt that it was indeed true. Her expression immediately relaxed.

Leng Piao xue continued, “I think that after you came back, Gong Tianhao was also looking for an opportunity, right?”

Weng Jingjing didn’t react for a moment. She asked, “Opportunity? What opportunity?”

Leng Piao xue smiled and said, “Of course, it’s to find a suitable reason to abandon his wife and children and marry his old lover without harming his reputation and interests! Jingjing, when you become Madam Gong Tianhao and the mistress of the family, you can’t forget about me, your best friend!”

Weng Jingjing immediately covered her mouth and laughed, “Piao xue, what are you talking about? I will never forget you. Besides, if this really works, you will be a great contributor. To me, this is a great favor. How can I dare to forget my great benefactor?”

Hearing this, Leng Piao xue also said happily, “Yes, that’s right. If you and Gong Tianhao end up together in the future, my contribution will be the greatest. No matter what kind of status we have in the future, we will still be good besties!”

“Yes, we are good friends!”

They met when they were studying abroad and later became good friends.

When Weng Jingjing was abroad, she had looks and talent, while Leng Piao xue had looks and a family background. There were indeed many men who pursued them.

During this period, they also dated a few boyfriends, but none of them were satisfactory.

Weng Jingjing could never forget how blind she was when she chose to abandon a truly powerful crown prince and choose a nouveau riche son to study abroad. Later on, she picked her boyfriend according to Gong Tianhao’s standards, and she was never satisfied.

A man with a body and looks did not have a certain amount of power. For a man with a certain amount of power, Weng Jingjing was a plaything in their eyes. How could they treat a plaything with sincerity?

Therefore, Weng Jingjing’s boyfriends changed one after another, but none of them won her heart.

As for Leng Piao xue, she had looks and family background. Ordinary men would not dare to provoke her. However, the person she had liked since she was young was Jiang Tao. She still valued her innocence. Therefore, most of the so-called boyfriends she found were just for fun.

After two years abroad, she returned directly to the country, wanting to get close to Jiang Tao.

But who would have thought that she would unintentionally know that Jiang Tao had a woman in his heart?

At that moment, her jealous face was twisted and filled with hatred.

Of course, what she hated was the woman who occupied a position in Jiang Tao's heart.

Even after she got engaged to Jiang Tao, her hatred didn't decrease at all. Instead, it was even more intense.

She wanted to kill the woman who occupied Jiang Tao's heart.

However, it was very difficult for her to do so.

That was because that woman had attached herself to Gong Tianhao.

If she wanted to touch her, it would be no different from courting death.

Leng Piao xue was a person who cherished her life very much. Of course, she did not want to die in Gong Tianhao's hands.

Xiao Lingyu was someone that Gong Tianhao protected. No matter what she did, Gong Tianhao would not let her off.

Luckily, she had a divine weapon with an immortal living inside. He taught her an immortal spell that allowed her to become invisible.

The moment she became invisible, she wanted to kill that bitch immediately.

However, after a while, she calmed down.

She felt that she could not kill that woman directly. That would be too easy for that woman.

She wanted that woman to die in pain and despair. Hence, she thought of a plan that she thought was brilliant.

Everything that Xiao Lingyu had now came from Gong Tianhao's love.

What if she lost Gong Tianhao's love? What would happen to her then? She wanted to make Xiao Lingyu suffer as much as possible.

She knew Weng Jingjing and some of her love history. After learning that Weng Jingjing had dated Gong Tianhao, she immediately had a plan in mind.

Chapter 1034: Not Enough Benefits

Just in case, she secretly asked someone to investigate the matter between Weng Jingjing and Gong Tianhao. The result of the investigation showed that Weng Jingjing and Gong Tianhao had indeed been in a relationship.

However, what surprised her was that it was Gong Tianhao who pursued Weng Jingjing. Although Weng Jingjing didn't refuse at first, she didn't accept it either. It wasn't until one time when Weng Jingjing was tricked by someone, and Gong Tianhao immediately saved her that she accepted him. Those who participated in the prank were either notified by the school and punished or they were expelled from the school for various reasons, especially the culprit. The culprit was exposed for sleeping with a man.

Her naked photos were leaked. Her reputation plummeted, and her reputation was ruined. She had no choice but to leave the school.

As for the punishment or expulsion of these people, many students did not know the truth, but they vaguely knew that these people were the ones who had participated in teaching Weng Jingjing a lesson.

They all knew that Gong Tianhao might have taught these people a lesson, but what they did not understand was that Gong Tianhao was obviously just a poor man with no background. Where did he get such the ability to punish these fair, rich, and beautiful women? Could it be that he was relying on Li Yuanhang, the president of the Student Union?

This was simply impossible.

Although Li Yuanhang was the president of the student union, with his ability, he could only handle some school matters. It was impossible for him to do something like this.

It was even more impossible to say that Li Yuanhang had a certain background. Everyone knew that Li Yuanhang's family was just an ordinary well-to-do family.

Just as all the students were puzzled, Weng Jingjing suddenly agreed to Gong Tianhao's pursuit. The two of them seemed to have become a true couple.

After Leng Piao xue investigated the situation, her heart was full of joy and excitement.

As long as she could make good use of this matter, she would definitely be able to separate Xiao Lingyu and Gong Tianhao.

Without Gong Tianhao's protection and protection, killing Xiao Lingyu was as easy as stepping on an ant.

Using their previous relationship to separate Gong Tianhao and Xiao Lingyu was the most suitable.

Leng Piao xue directly conspired with Weng Jingjing.

Weng Jingjing regretted her choice back then.

Fortunately, after being separated for so many years, she heard that Gong Tianhao didn't get married and that he didn't have a woman by his side. He was very clean. Weng Jingjing thought that Gong Tianhao was waiting for her to come back.

That was until she received a phone call from Leng Piao xue telling her that Gong Tianhao was already married. Not only was he married, he even had a child.

When she received the news, she couldn't believe her ears.

She had always thought that Gong Tianhao was waiting for her, and she was preparing to return to the country, wanting to get back together with Gong Tianhao.

Now that she had such a piece of news, it was an important blow. It meant that the riches that she thought were hers had disappeared.

However, those things were clearly hers. How could she be willing to let other women take advantage of them just like that?

Hence, after learning of Leng Piao xue's plan, she only thought for a moment before agreeing to it.

This matter was beneficial to her. Furthermore, the one who broke up with Gong Tianhao and his wife was not her in person.

At that time, the fake Weng Jingjing would break up the couple. As long as Gong Tianhao still had feelings for her, she would be able to appear in front of him in person.

Therefore, when she saw Bai Shanshan having plastic surgery to look like her, although it was a little disgusting, for the sake of the future, she endured nausea and trained Bai Shanshan to imitate her every move. She even told her some things.

However, neither she nor Leng Piao xue expected that Bai Shanshan was really useless.

She had just revealed her face, and she was already exposed. She did not have the time to do anything, let alone break up the couple.

What was worse was that Gong Tianhao directly suspected that there was someone behind this. In order to prevent being exposed, Leng Piao xue directly ordered people to assassinate Bai Shanshan and directly blamed it on Gong Tianhao and Xiao Lingyu.

However, Gong Tianhao was not an ordinary person. He quickly found out the truth.

Chapter 1035: Orders

What made them even more shocked was that Gong Tianhao had dealt with all the people who might cause trouble to Xiao Lingyu when she entered the Gong Family.

When she learned of this situation, Weng Jingjing felt extremely uncomfortable and unwilling.

All of this should have been hers. How could it be enjoyed by another woman?

But in this situation, there was nothing she could do. She could only watch as another woman enjoyed the man and glory that she deserved.

After the fake Weng Jingjing was exposed, Leng Piao xue immediately killed her to silence her. However, Gong Tianhao still found out the truth. However, Gong Tianhao didn't seem to want to pursue the matter because of the Leng family.

However, something happened to Leng Piao xue after that and she left the country. After that, the two of them didn't have much contact.

But, she didn't expect that when the two of them contacted each other again, it would be three years later.

The change in Leng Piao xue made Weng Jingjing unable to believe it.

Not only did her appearance change, but even her personality also changed a lot.

In the past, Leng Piao xue gave her the impression of being noble and elegant, but now, Leng Piao xue was extremely cruel.

Weng Jingjing was shocked by Leng Piaoxue's change. Even as a friend, she didn't dare to ask about Leng Piaoxue's change.

However, Weng Jingjing noticed that when she mentioned Gong Tianhao and Xiao Lingyu, her expression was extremely twisted and ferocious. Her eyes were bursting with anger and hatred.

She didn't know what had happened to Leng Piaoxue, but she was sure that her change had something to do with Gong Tianhao and Xiao Lingyu.

When the two of them joined hands, they had a common goal, which was to directly destroy Xiao Lingyu, and then Weng Jingjing would be Gong Tianhao's wife. Without Xiao Lingyu, Leng Piaoxue would marry Jiang Tao sooner or later.

After being excited about a while, Weng Jingjing calmed down and said directly, "But, Piaoxue, I'm still a little uneasy. There won't be any accidents, right?"

Leng Piaoxue glanced at her and sneered, "Don't worry, I've already made the arrangements. Let's just wait for a good show. When Xiao Lingyu is abandoned by Gong Tianhao and trampled by everyone, I'll definitely watch that bitch live a life worse than death." The last sentence was obviously filled with great hatred.

After hearing Leng Piaoxue's words, Weng Jingjing could only put her unease aside.

She knew that she was actually taking a gamble. If she succeeded, she would be rich and powerful.

If she failed, at worst, she could just leave. Everything she fought for was still overseas.

The two of them were waiting in the private room for Xiao Lingyu to lose her reputation. Little did they know that their plan had already been known by Gong Tianhao.

Li Yuanhang took a look at the investigation data and couldn't help but say to Gong Tianhao, "Tianhao, take a look. Are these the things you want?"

Gong Tianhao took it and flipped through it. He nodded and said, "Yes."

After flipping through it, he passed the data to Li Yuanhang and said, "Put these things away first and use them at a critical moment. The effect will be doubled!"

Li Yuanhang smiled and said, "I know. However, I didn't expect that you were waiting to use your big move."

Gong Tianhao sneered and said, "Hmph, they bullied my wife. How can I not do anything in return? The reason why I'm holding back now is that I want to take them down from the ivory tower in one fell swoop."

He paused for a moment, "Leng Piaoxue has provoked Yu 'Er and me time and time again. She even wants to destroy Yu 'Er's reputation and her life. Let's see if she has the ability and capability. If the Leng family does not support her, she will go to hell!"

After Li Yuanhang heard this, he thought for a moment and asked, "But Tianhao, is it possible for the Leng family not to support her?"

After all, Leng Piauxue was the beloved daughter of the Leng family, especially Old Master Leng. They would never give up on Leng Piauxue.

Gong Tianhao sneered and said, "We'll see when this affects the interest of the Leng Family."

Hearing this, Li Yuanhang immediately smiled and said, "That's true!" Then, he asked, "Tianhao, are you planning to go to the Leng Family?"

Gong Tianhao shook his head and said, "No! I'm waiting for the Leng family to come to us!"

Then, he immediately ordered seriously, "Assistant Li, tell them to stop all business with the Leng family from now on and stop the funding for the Leng family's charity foundation. Also..."

Gong Tianhao gave a series of orders!

Chapter 1036: Shooting Yourself in the Foot

At Royal Forest headquarters, once again, Macon saw the results reported by the various branches. The expression on his face paused for a moment before he quickly restrained his anger, "What's going on? After so much effort, the total sales of these branches are still declining? And it's even declining this much?"

He had been paying attention to the news about China's Green Fresh group and Xiao Lingyu, and his subordinates had been following up and reporting to him.

He knew that Xiao Lingyu was now notorious in China. She had become a mistress that everyone wanted to beat up. Everyone criticized her, and many people even went straight to the headquarters to cause trouble. Xiao Lingyu had no choice but to shut down her business.

Xiao Lingyu's reputation had been ruined, and her company's image had naturally plummeted as well.

Whether it was the tourist farms or the supermarket stores, they had all closed down, so there would definitely be a lot of goods piled up.

Things like peanuts and soybeans that were easy to preserve were still okay, but those vegetables and fruits that were easy to rot would rot once they were piled up. Once they rotted, it would be a huge loss.

The Green Fresh Group had closed down, so the number of goods accumulated could be imagined. It was unknown how much the Green Fresh Group would lose. It was believed that it would not be long before it went bankrupt.

If the Green Fresh Group went bankrupt, then their business would naturally return to normal.

But what Macon never expected was that the sales performance of the branches in various places was still declining.

"What the hell is going on?" Macon asked angrily again.

He was angry and anxious. This was totally different from what he had expected.

He didn't know what had gone wrong, but he was eager to find out what the problem was.

He knew that if he didn't solve the problem, the Royal Forest group industry would definitely be reduced to a second-rate brand company.

Listening to Macon's stern questioning, the branch managers looked at each other and felt that something was wrong.

The president of the country R branch stood out and braced himself to say, "Mr. Macon, the green fresh group snatches our business very badly."

With the first to speak, a few other branch presidents added, "Mr. Macon, it's very strange. As long as the green fresh group appears, our high-end market will definitely be shaken. Moreover, those top-tier celebrity families will immediately sign a cooperation agreement with the Green Fresh Group!"

"Almost all of us have encountered such a problem!"

"Our current high-end market has already been snatched by the Green Fresh Group. The business that we can do now is only the middle-tier and below market."

Listening to his subordinates' reports, the veins on Macon's forehead popped up. He wished he could cover his ears or give each of them a big slap.

The head office had already made a move against the green fresh group and Xiao Lingyu.

The current situation of Xiao Lingyu and the green fresh group was what they wanted to see.

However, their branch company's business was still declining. It was not what they wanted to see at all.

"Shut up, shut up! All of you, shut up!" Macon shouted angrily.

The branch company's presidents immediately shut up.

They were only reporting the situation truthfully. If their business was not good and their sales were declining, Macon would definitely be angry.

"You bunch of useless things!" Macon scolded loudly. "All of you only know how to shirk responsibility! You don't know how to solve problems on your own. The greenish group stole our business. Don't tell me you don't know how to steal it back?"

The moment his voice sounded, the president of a branch company immediately said with some grievance, "But the green fresh group has been snatched away all the business from us."

The moment his voice sounded, the entire meeting room appeared somewhat quiet.

Macon's ugly expression became even uglier.

His sharp gaze shot towards the person who had spoken, and then he said in a very angry manner, "So what? In the business world, everyone relies on their own abilities. You fail to keep the business and that is a problem with your own abilities. Your own abilities are flawed, yet you still dare to complain here. Who gave you the courage?"

Chapter 1037: Shooting Yourself in the Foot

After hearing what Macon said, the expressions of the branch company's presidents turned ugly. Their faces were red and green. They were angry and embarrassed.

One of them stood out and said sharply with an angry expression, "Mr. Macon, we don't agree with what you said. This is not a problem of our ability at all. It is clearly a problem with product quality.

"Green fresh group snatches not just one or two business,. Wherever Green Fresh Group goes, our Group's business will definitely be snatched. This is an indisputable fact. If it's just one or two businesses being snatched, I have nothing to say if it's just one or two branches! The problem now is that all the branch company's business has been snatched. That's basically a problem of the head office!"

These branch companies' presidents were actually quite aggrieved.

In the past, the Royal Forest Group relied on its century-old reputation and its reputation as the number one brand in the industry. Wherever it went, it would always be full of vigor. Those top-tier nobles and celebrities would rush to work with them. They did not need to worry about the number of businesses and the total sales.

But now, ever since the appearance of the green fresh group, they had begged their former customers not to stop working with them. But it was all useless.

The biggest reason why they could maintain their existing customers and business was not that the green fresh group could not snatch them away, but that the green fresh group did not have so many sources of goods. Naturally, they did not need so many customers.

The president of another branch also stood out and said angrily and doubtfully, "In the past, the Green Fresh Group snatched our business only to compete for the high-end market. I heard that their supply is limited. Although our losses are huge, at least we can still preserve the middle-end market and some high-end market customers.

"However, since last week, for some reason, the green fresh group, which has always been short of supply, increased its supply. Not only did it steal most of the high-end market customers, but it also stole the middle-end market customers.

"Therefore, the business of Royal Frest Group is simply on a downward trend!"

"What did you say just now? The green fresh group has always been short of supply, so they only compete with us for the high-end market?" When Macon asked this question, a bad premonition suddenly rose in his heart.

"That's right!" The president of the country Y company nodded with some doubt.

Macon looked at the others and continued to ask, "What about your side?"

The presidents of the other branches all nodded and said, "It's the same."

Then, someone said, "Just like what Ming Wei said, from last week, green fresh group suddenly increased their supply, which led to them competing with us for the middle-end market. Now, not only are we going to lose the high-end market, but I'm afraid we're going to lose the middle market as well."

Hearing their words, Macon's pupils suddenly constricted, and he asked in a somewhat anxious tone, "Are you sure it started last week?"

Last week, wasn't that when Green Fresh Group's nationwide supermarket shutdown started?

Before this, he had been gloating over the green fresh group's nationwide store shutdown, which would definitely cause a backlog of products. Once a backlog of products was built up, it would cause great losses, especially for these fruits and vegetables. They were not easy to preserve and were easy to rot.

Hearing the tone of Macon's voice, the branch presidents looked at each other again, not knowing what Macon was thinking.

Everyone nodded unanimously and said, "We are very sure that from last week onwards, the green fresh group suddenly increased the supply of goods. With sufficient supply, our mid-market will be greatly threatened!"

Hearing their answers, Macon seemed to have suffered a huge blow and sat back in his chair. The expression on his face changed unpredictably, and he found it difficult to speak.

"Is that so?"

He seemed to have only reacted now.

Looking at Macon's dejected look, these branch company presidents suddenly became even more puzzled and strange. He seemed to have suffered a huge blow all of a sudden.

However, he was clearly fine just now. Why did he suddenly suffer a huge blow?

Then, someone carefully asked, "Mr. Macon, are you alright?"

Macon didn't say anything. He just looked coldly at the person who asked the question. Then, he waved his hand and said, "I'm fine. All of you leave now. I want to calm down for a while!"

Hearing Macon's words, these subordinates felt even more strange and puzzled.

They had never thought that Macon was a boss who was easy to talk to. So why did he suddenly stop the lecture and chase them out?

Most importantly, looking at his appearance, it seemed that he had been hit hard.

Now, the question came. They had been talking normally before, but why had he suddenly been hit hard?

Although they had these questions, they were very sure that Macon would not answer them, so they took these questions and went out.

When these people went out, the veins on Macon's face kept moving as if they were crawling green insects, looking very ferocious and terrifying.

He was so angry that his entire face was distorted. His hands gripped the armrest of the chair tightly, and his fingers were about to sink into the real leather. His fingertips were faintly white.

After a moment, he cursed angrily, "Damn it! Bastard!..." a series of curses came out of his mouth. There was no one else in the office, and no one knew who he was scolding.

However, he could not shut his mouth and curse. He suddenly stood up and pushed the tea set, phone, and stack of documents on the table that had just been replaced. All of them were pushed down at once.

Clang!

Crack!

Bang!

All sorts of things were smashed!

The subordinates who hadn't gone far heard the commotion and felt even more strange.

They all whispered, "Macon is angry again, but what's strange is that this time, he's not targeting anyone!"

"Yeah, he actually chased us away. Don't you guys think it's too strange!"

"Yeah, I think it's too strange. Previously, when Macon suddenly asked us to come out, I thought it was strange."

"But, why did Macon suddenly become so strange?" Someone asked in puzzlement. "Just a moment ago, he was clearly angry at us!"

"Oh, right, I remember now. It seems that this happened after Macon asked us about the increase in Green Fresh Group's supply last week. After he heard last week, his expression suddenly changed, right?"

"Yes, it seems so. When he heard the word 'last week', his expression immediately changed."

"This is strange. At this time last week, is there anything wrong?"

"Who knows!" Someone shrugged and said with some curiosity, "Last week, the Green Fresh Group suddenly increased its supply and started to compete with us for the mid-market."

At this point, this person said with puzzlement, "Didn't I hear that the green fresh group's supply has always been low? Why did they suddenly increase their supply last week?"

"Yeah, I also feel that it's a little strange. I heard that Green Fresh Group started off in the high-end market. Why would they suddenly compete with us for the middle-end market?"

No matter how his subordinates outside guessed, Macon was enraged.

He never expected that what he thought was a perfect plan would actually have such a big drawback to them.

He had shot himself in the foot!

Macon was remorseful!

Chapter 1038: The Plan must be Terminated!

The perfect plan to destroy Xiao Lingyu's reputation and cause serious damage to the green fresh group looked ridiculous at this moment.

That's right.

Because of Xiao Lingyu's reputation, the green fresh group was also severely affected. Faced with a critical moment, they could only close all the farms and shops across the country and suspend business.

But the problem was that the shops that she closed were only in China. The branches in the foreign market were not affected by the domestic scandals, so of course, there was no need to close or suspend their business.

Previously, he thought that Xiao Lingyu would naturally cause a cease on the products if she closed all the shops across the country. It was a huge loss for the products that were not easy to preserve and were perishable.

In the end, as soon as they turned their heads, she shipped all the products that were in the backlog to their global branches.

In this way, how could there be a product backlog?

Instead, it was the branches of the Royal Forest group that had the product backlog.

Previously, the product sales route of the Green Fresh Group was only that of the high-end aristocrats, causing the Royal Forest group to lose a large portion of the high-end market. The losses were also huge. However, fortunately, their middle-end market sales occupied most of the market, and it was not to the extent of causing the Royal forest group to suffer heavy losses.

But now, the Green Fresh Group was fighting for the middle-end market. Based on his past experience, what advantages did they have to maintain and fight for? It was a fact that their business was snatched away.

According to the information that he had investigated, the Green Fresh Group's products sold in their home country were cheap. However, the prices of the products sold in the high-end markets abroad were ridiculously expensive.

Of course, the prices and values of the products sold in the noble markets had to match those of the noble celebrities. The prices of the products sold in the high-end markets of Royal Forest Group were not inferior.

However, the competition between the Green Fresh Group and Royal Forest Group for the high-end markets was not a price war. On the contrary, the prices of their products were higher than the prices of Royal Forest group's products. However, their products were more favored by the nobles. Naturally, the Royal Forest group had no advantage.

Because of this, the high-end market was occupied so severely, causing the Royal Forest group to suffer heavy losses. Only then that the headquarters thought of bringing down Xiao Lingyu and the green fresh group.

Only by bringing down the green fresh group could Royal Forest group regain its high-end market and regain its glory.

The news he received from China was that Xiao Lingyu's reputation had almost been destroyed. The green fresh group was severely affected, and all the shops in the country were temporarily closed. If this continued, the green fresh group would not be far from bankruptcy.

However, what he did not consider was that if the green fresh group closed down the shops in China, what about the foreign branches?

These branches were not affected by the various scandals in the country at all. They would continue to operate in the same way as before. No, it would actually increase the operating market — the middle-end market!

Any market that Green Fresh Group wanted to seize, Royal Forest group would definitely be greatly affected.

What made him even more angry and aggrieved was that Green Fresh Group was the most affected in China. However, Royal Forest Group had already withdrawn from the market in China. They couldn't take advantage.

After Macon flew into a rage in the office, his expression immediately became anxious as he said, "No, we can't continue like this. The plan must be stopped immediately! Otherwise, if we continue to wait like this, the mid-market of Royal Forest Group will be completely taken over by Green Fresh Group. When that time comes, royal forest group will really be reduced from a first-rate brand to a third-rate brand."

Thinking of this, he immediately got up from the ground and hurriedly walked back to his desk. Just as he was about to make a call, he realized that he had smashed his phone and cell phone.

He immediately called his secretary in loudly.

The Secretary walked into Macon's office and saw the messy office again. Without even frowning, she respectfully and dutifully asked, "Mr. Macon, what are your orders?"

Macon reached out his hand and said anxiously, "Hurry up and give me your phone!"

The secretary didn't say anything and directly gave it to Macon.

Then, she saw Macon quickly make a call. After the other party picked up, he said loudly and urgently, "Quickly contact the Chinese side and stop all plans immediately."

The person on the phone seemed to have some doubts. "Why?"

Chapter 1039: The Plan must be Terminated!

“No reason!” Macon said loudly, “All plans must be terminated immediately!”

Then, he hung up the phone.

The Secretary looked at Macon. Although she was full of questions, it was her duty as a secretary to shut up!

After taking the phone back from Macon, the secretary asked dutifully, “Mr. Macon, do you have any other orders?”

Macon didn't even look at her. He directly waved his hand and said with a stern expression, “You can leave first. If I have something to do, so I will definitely give you an order!”

“Alright then, Mr. Macon. I'll leave first!” Then the secretary turned around and left.

After the Secretary left, Macon sat on the chair with a dispirited look on his face. His expression was indescribable.

He had already given the order to stop the plan. Now, he could only wait for feedback from the Chinese side.

However, Macon did not know that at this moment, this plan was not something that he could stop just because he said so.

If he only worked with Weng Jingjing, Weng Jingjing had no power and was powerless. It would not be easy to order and control her.

However, he was still working with another person, and that was Leng Piaoxue.

Leng Piaoxue had a family behind her. She had status, power, and influence in China. Moreover, her position in the family was not something that a small CEO of the Royal Forest Group, Macon, could order around.

The reason why she cooperated with CEO Macon was that she hated Xiao Lingyu and Gong Tianhao. She hated Xiao Lingyu so much that she wanted to tear Xiao Lingyu into pieces so that she could vent her hatred.

Now that she had the opportunity to get rid of Xiao Lingyu, how could she let go of this opportunity?

When Leng Piaoxue received the call, she laughed coldly, “Who does he think I am? A tool that he can use? Help me pass this message to your master. Since you have already started this plan, I will decide when to stop it. If you are not convinced, just tell your master to come to China to look for me!”

After saying that, she did not wait for any response from the other side and directly hung up the phone.

Then, a mocking expression appeared on her face, “Does Royal Forest really think they can order me around? If I didn't want to deal with Xiao Lingyu myself, would I have agreed to cooperate with them? Now that the plan is working, how can I stop the plan just like that?”

Weng Jingjing also picked up the phone. She rejected it tactfully.

Back then, the Royal Forest group came to her for cooperation to deal with Xiao Lingyu. From the beginning, they had her as a weakness. Little did she know that even if the Royal Forest group didn't come to her, she was prepared to return to the country and try to snatch everything back from Xiao Lingyu.

When the Royal Forest group came to her, it was a perfect chance. Moreover, if she cooperated with them, she would also have a force supporting her. Then, she would be able to snatch everything back even more smoothly.

However, what Weng Jingjing didn't expect was that the Royal Forest group not only came to her but also not Leng Piao xue.

She was well aware of Leng Piao xue's family background.

The two of them were good friends abroad. Now that they had the same person and purpose, their cooperation would naturally be more pleasant.

Now that they were about to see Xiao Lingyu's tragic end and achieve their goal, the Royal Forest group suddenly called and asked them to stop the plan. This was simply impossible.

Weng Jingjing did not have the confidence to directly reject the Royal Forest group. She could only say tactfully, "I'm sorry, this plan is no longer something that I can stop."

However, Leng Piao xue was different. She was very confident and could naturally reject the Royal Forest group's request.

Weng Jingjing looked at Leng Piao xue and asked worriedly, "Piao xue, if we directly reject the Royal Forest group, it would be equivalent to cutting off our cooperation with them. Is this really good? They won't cause trouble, right?"

Leng Piao xue said arrogantly, "Humph, what are you afraid of? This is China, it's my territory. If the Royal Forest Group is capable, they can come to China to find me. I'm not afraid of them!" She paused and said arrogantly, "What do they really think of us? Are they using us as a tool? Haha, Am I that easy to use?"

Then, Leng Piao xue Glanced at Weng Jingjing and comforted her, "Jingjing, don't worry. I will take care of everything! With me around, that Royal Forest group won't dare to find trouble with you."

Hearing this, Weng Jingjing immediately put aside her worries. Then, she smiled and said, "Well, thank you, Piao xue!"

Speaking up to this point, she looked at Leng Piao xue seriously and said with a sincere expression, "Piao xue, it is my honor to be able to know you and become your good friend and confidant!"

In fact, Weng Jingjing's luck in making friends was not bad.

She was an ordinary girl. To be able to have a relationship with both Gong Tianhao and Leng Piao xue was not a matter of ability, but a matter of luck.

It was just that her ambition and foresight did not match, greatly limiting her future.

Otherwise, even if she could not become Mrs. Gong today, her position in Gong Tianhao's heart would definitely not be low.

She was just an ordinary woman. If she had Gong Tianhao's support, she would have risen to the top. It was very likely that she would have entered the upper-class circle of the capital and enjoyed the glory and wealth brought by fame.

However, she had missed out on everything!

So, she now wanted to take back everything.

But, could she take back what she had lost? Moreover, what she wanted to take back wasn't something, but his feelings.

Right now, Weng Jingjing did not want to think about the wrong choice she made back then. She only wanted the glory and wealth brought by power and influence.

After Leng Piao xue heard Weng Jingjing's words, an unnoticeable sneer appeared on her face. Then, she said with a friendly smile, "Jingjing, look at what you are saying. We are good friends and close friends. If I don't help you, who else can I help?"

She paused and winked at Weng Jingjing. She smiled and said, "But, Jingjing, if you really become Madam Gong and the mistress of the Gong family in the future, just don't forget about me as your close friend!"

Weng Jingjing smiled helplessly at Leng Piao xue's reminder, "Piao xue, see what you're saying. Even if I become Madam Gong and the mistress of the Gong family in the future, the person I need to rely on is still you!"

If Leng Piao xue could marry Jiang Tao, then she would be madam Jiang, the mistress of the Jiang family. Her other identity would still be the eldest daughter of the Leng family.

Leng Piao xue had two big forces behind her. Even if Weng Jingjing became the mistress of the Gong family, she would not dare to underestimate her.

Leng Piao xue was very pleased with Weng Jingjing's compliment.

Then, she sat beside Weng Jingjing and held her hand. She patted the back of her hand and said seriously, "Don't worry, Jingjing. This time, I will help you snatch Gong Tianhao back from Xiao Lingyu's hands. Then, I will wait for Gong Tianhao to marry you into his family.

"As for Xiao Lingyu, she will have to return what she has stolen. Moreover, she will definitely suffer retribution. Her ending will be miserable. Now, let's just wait for her to be abandoned by Gong Tianhao!"

As she said this, her eyes were filled with sharp viciousness and cruelty. She then said, "These days won't be long!"

Weng Jingjing nodded and said, "Yes!"

Although Weng Jingjing responded this way, for some reason, she still felt uneasy.

She had a feeling that something was not right.

Suddenly, she thought of something and asked, "Oh, right, Piaoxue, do you know why Royal Forest Group suddenly asked us to stop the plan?"

Chapter 1040: When is the Time

Xiao Lingyun knocked on the door. When the person inside answered, her expression immediately lifted, and the smile on her face never stopped.

Seeing Xiao Lingyun enter with a smile on her face, Xiao Lingyu asked in amusement, "Manager Xiao, is there something good going on?"

At this point, her eyes deliberately glanced at Xiao Lingyun's stomach.

Seeing Xiao Lingyu's gaze, Xiao Lingyun was shocked and immediately explained, "Hey, where are you looking?"

Xiao Lingyu blinked and said, "When will I have a little nephew or niece again?"

Xiao Lingyun's face immediately turned red. Her expression was a little shy as she stomped her feet and said, "Sis, if you want to have children, you can have them yourself. Why are you staring at my stomach all day? I already have two daughters now. I don't want to have another one and let them suffer!"

Xiao Lingyu shook her head and said with a smile, "Alright. If you want to have children, then have them. If you don't want to have children, then don't have them. But Yun 'Er, whether you want to have a child or not, you have to discuss it with Yinxiong. He really loves you, but you can't rely on his love and not consider his feelings!"

Gong Yinxiong loved Xiao Lingyun very much. This was something that anyone with eyes could see.

But everyone knew that he hoped to have a child with Xiao Lingyun.

Xiao Lingyun thought for a moment and nodded very seriously. "Yes, Sis, I will consider it!"

"By the way, manager Xiao, what's the matter that makes you so happy?" Xiao Lingyu asked.

Returning to the main topic, Xiao Lingyun's eyebrows flew up again. She smiled and said, "President Xiao, I've received a report that we originally only took the noble high-end boutique route and seized the high-end market of Royal Forest Group.

"Who would have thought that due to the sudden increase in the supply of our global branches, even the middle-end market began to take hold? In this way, not only did we seize the high-end market, but we also seized the middle-end market of Royal Forest Group.

"This is Great. Royal Forest group wants to deal with us, but in the end, they're shooting themselves in the foot. What's even more ridiculous is that the Royal Forest group has branches all over the world, but they don't have any branches in China.

“Our local stores in China are all temporarily closed. This is a big chance for the other Chinese companies to rise, but they can only watch.”

Xiao Lingyu had long received this news. She also revealed a smile and said, “Haha, they set a trap for us in the front and wanted to frame us. We dragged them into the trap. I think they must be regretting it now!”

They made up a story to slander her. They used scheming methods on Gong Tianhao. Weng Jingjing’s appearance made her into a mistress that everyone was cursing. She was at the forefront of the Internet storm.

That’s right, all of this had a great impact on her business in China. However, it didn’t affect her business overseas. Her branches continued to operate as usual.

Moreover, the sales routes of her branches overseas were all the highest-end aristocratic routes. In the eyes of ordinary people, the prices of these products were naturally exorbitant.

As a businessman in China, she could consider the interests of the people of China. The products she sold could be bought by ordinary people.

However, she was completely a businessman when it came to business abroad. After all, businessmen were primarily interested in profits.

The quality of her products was the best. The taste and efficacy of the products were the best. Those top-tier celebrities and aristocrats did not lack money. If they could make better choices, they would definitely choose the good products that they could enjoy more.

In comparison, the Royal Forest group did not have any advantage in this aspect.

Originally, she only planned to walk the high-end route and only compete with the Royal Forest group for the high-end market.

But who would have thought that the Royal Forest group would be so despicable in order to get rid of her green fresh group?

Since that was the case, she naturally had to repay them.

She remembered that the Royal Forest group had a large share of the mid-market. Naturally, she had to take a good share of the mid-market as well.

As a result, the stores in China were closed for business, so all the goods that were supposed to be in backlog were shipped overseas. Although it increased the cost, the profits were also very large. Moreover, compared to selling them in China, the profits were even greater.
