

Chapter 541: Xiao Tong's Reincarnation

The Shan family's first elder flew up to the roof and shouted, "Who are you? Who told you to come and frame the Shan Family?"

He wanted to blur the focus of the crowd and confuse them. He stretched out his hand, and a water pillar shot out. It quickly turned into a water dragon and headed straight for Shi Letong.

These water columns were not for bathing. They were rapid enough to kill people. Churning water was strong enough to cut through flesh.

"This first elder of the Shan family is too ruthless. He wants to take the young man's life with a single move. That's the signature spell of the Shan Family."

"The young man deliberately came to provoke the Shan Family. Naturally, the first elder has to go for the kill!"

"The Shan family is really ruthless. Then again, their ancestor was called the Great Demon King. As a descendant of the Shan family, they must have inherited the evil character of their ancestor."

"By the way, who exactly is this young man?" Someone asked doubtfully, "He keeps saying that he is here to avenge his mother, but who exactly is his mother? What is her relationship with the Shan family?"

At this moment, someone beside him lowered his head and whispered to him, "Didn't the eldest young master of the Shan family marry a common girl 14 years ago? Later, the girl hooked up with a random man and ran away with Shan Lingfei's child. Based on this youth's age, I believe he's that child."

"Hmm? But that's unconfirmed yet. Wasn't there a rumor that the girl ran away because she was carrying another man's child?"

"Wait. The child isn't Shan Lingfei's at all?"

"That's right! I heard that this matter has heavily impacted Shan Lingfei. He didn't practice anymore and turned to alcohol. Even more unbelievable was the fact that Shan Lingfei started to like men after that! He was kicked out because he flirted with eldest young master Leng, so the latter crippled Shan Lingfei's spirit root."

"Really?" The crowd was surprised.

"But I heard a different version. I heard that Shan Lingfei's wife was framed by the Shan family. After Shan Lingfei learned the truth, he set up a trap. He pretended to destroy his spirit root so that he'd be kicked out of the Shan family. His real purpose was to find his missing wife and child."

"If that's true, the Shan family is really too despicable! Then again, every big family has its own scandals and filth.

"You really can't trust a family's reputation these days. Probably the Shan family did do those horrible things."

...

“You old fart, you actually used a strong water spirit spell on a child like me. You’re really too shameless!” When Shi Letong saw the water dragon, he hurriedly dodged and fled. As he fled, he cursed loudly, “Shameless old fart, I’m going to show you what I can do too. Otherwise, people will think I’m afraid of you!”

He channeled a spell. “Water spirit spell!” Then, a water dragon more imposing than the first elder’s raged from behind the youth.

“Huh? This young man knows the water spirit technique!”

Both the Shan Family people and the crowd were shocked. The water spirit technique was unique to the Shan family. Only members of the Shan Family would know about it. If they were not members of the Shan Family, even if they possessed the water spirit root, without the technique, the spirit root was equal to trash. Therefore, to master this technique, those with water spirit roots had to join the Shan family and work hard for the Shan family.

This was common in this world. Every large family and sect had exclusivity on certain schools of techniques and spells. If one wanted to learn them, one had to join a sect or clan.

However, this youth could easily cast the water spirit spell.

“Look!”

“Oh my God, the young man’s water dragon seems to be swallowing the Shan family’s first elder’s water dragon!”

“How... How is this possible? How old is this young man? He looks like he’s only a teenager. How can he have the ability to swallow the water dragon of an aurous core cultivator? This is too unbelievable!”

“This means that the young man’s cultivation level is higher than the first elder!”

“How is this possible?”

“Look. The young man’s water dragon devoured the first elder’s water dragon, and it’s still heading for the first elder. Does the youth want to kill the first elder?”

“How is that possible? The Shan family’s great elder is at the peak of the aurous core stage. How could he be killed by a child?”

“Yes. The child might know the water spirit spell, but it doesn’t mean he can kill the first elder of the Shan family.”

Before these people could finish their words, Shi Letong shouted, “I’ll return your spell to you. Enjoy it!” The water dragon surrounded the first elder and it bound tighter and tighter.

The first elder of the Shan family shouted angrily, “Bastard, how dare you!”

When he said this, cold sweat broke out on his forehead because he was simply unable to break free from the water dragon.

What did this mean?

It meant that the youth's cultivation level was higher than his!

This was too terrifying.

If this youth was really the vile spawn in Shi Xiaohe's stomach, then how old was he? Thirteen or fourteen.

He was only 13 or 14 but he was already at the peak of the aurous core stage. It was impossible to even think about it.

But the first elder really couldn't break free from the water dragon.

Shi Letong smiled and said, "Old Bastard, why wouldn't I dare? If you have the ability, then get rid of this water dragon. If you can't, then you're going to experience the taste of drowning. But don't worry. I won't let you die easily. I still want to have more fun!"

The hair of the people in the crowd stood on ends and waves of chills ran down their spines.

This youth was really too terrifying!

The two elders were trapped by Shi Letong's water dragon.

The water dragons bound around them like ropes, but for the time being, the dragons didn't attack. No one knew what the youth was up to.

Shi Letong held a whip and said arrogantly, "Hmph, who else wants to come up and taste the feeling of being trapped by a Water Dragon!"

The first elder was trapped. The other six elders had a lower cultivation level than the first elder. They did not dare to make any reckless moves. They also did not dare to look down on this youth anymore.

The Shan family was shocked by Shi Letong's talent.

He was able to cast the water spirit technique, and he was the bitch, Shi Xiaohe's vile spawn. He was part of the Shan Family.

They were now faintly regretful.

If they had known earlier that this child's talent was so good, they would have kept him back then. If they nurtured him well, he would be better than Shan Lingfei!

The third elder thought for a moment before standing up and speaking very politely, "Child, this is a misunderstanding. We are all one family. We shouldn't be talking about fighting and killing.

"Child, as long as you're willing to return to the Shan family, the Shan family will agree to any request you make, okay?"

"You'll return as the most honorable young master of the Shan family, and you'll even be the heir of the Shan family in the future."

Shi Letong tilted his head, crossed his arms with one hand, and rested his chin on the other hand. He seemed to be thinking.

The Shan family members secretly heaved a sigh of relief. This offer seemed to be able to move him.

That was good.

Once the boy entered the Shan family, they could easily control him.

After a moment, Shi Letong said in disdain and anger,

“Misunderstanding? Back then, you bullied my mother, locked her up in the courtyard, and eventually killed my mother. Now, you’re telling me that all of this is a misunderstanding?”

“Do you have any shame? Don’t think that I’m easy to fool just because I’m a child! You bunch of old farts!”

The Shan family, especially the elders, were so angry that their faces turned red and white. They were exceptionally ugly.

The Shan family’s second elder had a fiery temper. He pointed angrily at Xiao Tong and cursed loudly, “You vile spawn, I wish that we had kicked you to death when you were in that bitch’s stomach. Then, you wouldn’t be here to disrespect us!”

Shi Letong placed his hands on his hips and immediately shouted angrily, “Didn’t you people do something similar? When I was still in my mother’s stomach, you forced her to drink a bowl of abortion medicine. You did want to kill me.

“If not for my mother and my luck, I would be dead already. So I’m here to avenge my mother and me!”

He was furious!

Chapter 542: Xiao Tong’s Reincarnation

“How did you know that? Who told you?” The third elder was surprised when he heard this. Then, he looked like he was in pain. “Child, no matter who told you, this person has evil intentions and is trying to sow discord between us!”

“Haha. I’ve seen shameless people before, but you’re really at the top of the list!” Shi Letong laughed and said sarcastically, “My mother told me those things herself. How can she be wrong? You people really think too highly of yourselves!”

“That bit... I mean, your mother, Shi Xiaohu, bore a heavy grudge against us.” The third elder argued, “However, we have already agreed to allow her into the Shan family, but she is not a proper woman. When Lingfei was not home, she immediately went to find another man. She...”

“Shut up! Who are you to slander my mother?” Shi Letong was so angry that his little face turned green. “You people took advantage of Shan Lingfei’s departure to pour aphrodisiac into my mother’s medicine and framed her.

“Now, you’re blaming it on her? You are really despicable and shameless. I am here today to seek justice for my mother. Stop wasting time and come at once!”

“What an arrogant brat!” Shi Letong’s words angered the others. Since they could not rope him in, they would just destroy him.

Otherwise, when Shi Letong became stronger, the Shan family would have a bigger problem!

The six elders looked at each other. After making eye contact, the six of them flew up and surrounded Shi Letong on all sides, giving him nowhere to run.

Shi Letong flew up into the air and shouted, “Wow. You people are really shameless.

“It’s one thing to bully the young, but you’re actually going to bully me with the advantage of numbers.

“So many of you have gathered to bully a child like me. Shameless!” He made a face at the old men.

“Shameless! Everyone comes over and takes a look. Look at these old farts of the Shan family. They are actually ganging up to bullying a young man like me!” Shi Letong imbued his voice with Qi, so it traveled all over the imperial capital.

“Tsk Tsk, the Shan family is still as shameless as ever.”

“Hehe, seven or eight elders above the golden core stage actually ganged up on a ten-year-old child. Even if they won, they still wouldn’t have any face.”

“Haha. They can’t afford to keep their face now. This child’s talent is astonishing. He is a genius of a generation. If he is given time to fully mature, then the Shan family will have a powerful enemy in the future. So, they have to kill him now so that he wouldn’t pose a bigger threat to the Shan family in the future.”

Then, the man paused and looked at Shi Letong. He said regretfully, “What a pity. With his talent, given more time, he will be able to take revenge in the future. It’s a pity that he has exposed himself now. The Shan family will never let him live.”

“But, what cultivation level is the boy at now anyway? I can’t see it.”

“I can’t see it either!”

“There are only two reasons for not that. One is he’s using a powerful magical artifact to cover it up. Two is his cultivation level is higher than us.”

“It has to be the first reason.”

“However, he is already able to use the water spirit technique. He must be at least at the eighth level of the Qi cultivation stage. He is only thirteen or fourteen years old, but he is already at the eighth level of the Qi cultivation stage. He is a true genius.

“If this child is really a descendant of the Shan family, then the Shan family really has a great loss. The child’s talent is even greater than Shan Lingfei.”

“Why do you think the Shan family is so stupid? They specialize in kicking their talents out. It happened with Shan Lingfei and now this child.”

“Hehe, no wonder the Shan family is getting weaker. It turns out that they don’t allow geniuses in the family.”

“Haha, you’re right!”

Hearing the discussions around them, the Shan family members’ faces turned red and white. They were both embarrassed and angry.

Especially the head of the Shan family.

Was this their fault?

How could they have thought that a child born from the union of an ordinary commoner and a cultivator would be a genius?

If they had known earlier, they would have protected this child no matter what.

With respect to Shan Lingfei, he was the one who tricked the family.

But now, the Shan family had become a laughingstock.

Seeing the kid jumping up and down on the roof, fury spurted out of the family head’s eyes.

It was this vile spawn who had ruined the reputation of the Shan family the moment he arrived. Since he was unable to rope him into the Shan family, then he could only kill him to vent the hatred in his heart.

The family head looked at Shan Lingfei who was standing at the side and staring at the child on the roof. The family head said, “Fei ‘Er, go and kill this vile spawn for me.”

The family head had planned everything.

Shi Xiaohe had clearly told the bastard everything, so he knew that Shan Lingfei was his father. He wouldn’t have the heart to kill his father.

On the contrary, Shan Lingfei had been brainwashed for so long. He believed that Shi Xiaohe had cheated on him and given birth to a bastard. Naturally, he would hate the bastard child.

When Shan Lingfei heard his father’s order, his cold and sharp eyes swept across the expression of the Shan family head. He clenched his fist and said, “Okay!”

With that, he flew up.

However, he surprised everyone and made the Shan family furious.

“Shan Lingfei, what are you doing?” The third elder shouted angrily.

As soon as Shan Lingfei flew up to the roof, he used the water spirit technique to quickly trap the third elder and the fifth elder. He did not give them any time to react at all.

The Shan family members did not expect that the Shan family’s heir would attack the Shan family members.

“Big Brother, what are you doing?” Shan Lingyu said indignantly, “You are the Shan family’s heir. How can you attack the Elders?”

The head of the Shan family was livid with anger. He had never expected that Shan Lingfei would do such a thing when he asked Shan Lingfei to help him kill that vile spawn.

The head of the Shan family shouted sternly, “Shan Lingfei, quickly release the elders and kill the vile spawn. You will still be the heir of the Dan family. Otherwise, I will kill you as well!”

Shan Lingfei used his body to block the Xerox boy behind him. He said with a sneer, “Father, what kind of grandfather are you that you’d order me to kill my own son?” After saying that, he looked around sharply and said coldly, “If I don’t protect my son, do you expect me to protect the enemies who killed my wife?”

“Wait! What did he say?”

“The Shan family killed his wife?”

“The Shan family has turned against each other. This will be a good show!”

“Shut up!” The head of the Shan family was so angry that his face was green and white. He said loudly, “That bitch was not worthy of being your wife at all!”

“The one who is not worthy is Shan Lingfei!” Xiao Letong poked his head out from behind Shan Lingfei and said loudly, “Do you know who my mother is? Do you know who my grandfather is?”

“If my mother hadn’t fallen in love with Shan Lingfei at first sight, she would have continued to live her life as heaven’s favored daughter. She wouldn’t have to lower herself to be a slave in the Shan family!”

Shi Letong naturally protected his mother.

Everyone was shocked when they heard that. Could it be that this child’s mother had another identity?

Hearing this, the Shan family members furrowed their brows tightly.

Could it be that that slut Shi Xiaohe really had another identity? Wasn’t she an ordinary common girl? Was she the daughter of a large family or a disciple of a large sect?

But that didn’t sound right. If she had such an identity, why would she hide it? If she had such an identity, the Shan family would definitely welcome her.

The first elder asked calmly, “What is your mother’s real identity?”

“She is Shi Tianyun’s daughter!” A voice sounded.

Then, a figure floated over!

Chapter 543: Xiao Tong’s Reincarnation

Everyone’s eyebrows jumped when they saw the eighth elder of the Heavenly Gate Sect.

“That’s Shi Tianyuan, the eighth elder of the Heavenly Gate Sect, right?”

“Yes, you’re right!”

"I remember that the eighth elder's daughter is called Shi Yingying. Shi Yingying has a singular fire spirit root and is extremely talented."

"No wonder his son said that his mother is a favored daughter of the heavens."

"It's a shame that she has lowered herself for the sake of love."

"No. I heard that the Heavenly Gate Sect and the Shan family are nemeses. How did the two fall in love?"

"Didn't the child say that his mother married Shan Lingfei under a disguise?"

...

The Shan family had no idea that the unremarkable bitch was actually Heavenly Gate's Shi Yingying. In terms of status, Shan Lingfei was indeed not worthy of her. After all, the Heavenly Gate Sect was now the biggest sect in the Nine Heavens Continent, while the Shan Family only had their former glory. The Shan family was now a third-rate family.

However, when the head of the Shan family thought about how his family had welcomed the daughter of their nemesis into the Shan family... His face darkened further.

"Grandpa, why are you here?" Shi Letong asked nervously when he saw his grandfather. He was supposed to do his trial, but he came to seek vengeance alone.

Eighth Elder glared at him and said sternly, "Shi Letong, you sure are reckless. How can you come alone to take revenge? Don't you know how dangerous it is?"

Shi Letong curled his lips and said, "These are all old artifacts. It's not like I can't beat them. What's there to be afraid of?!"

Everyone, "..."

What an arrogant kid!

"Shut up! How dare you talk back to me?" Eighth Elder shouted sternly. "Even if they're old, their cultivation levels are higher than yours."

Shi Letong said, "But they framed and killed my mother fourteen years ago. As her son, I definitely have to avenge her. Otherwise, I'm not worthy of being her son!"

Eighth Elder was silent for a moment and said, "But you could have told me about that."

Shi Letong said with some sadness. "The sect and the Shan family have a deep grudge. I'm afraid that if I tell everyone I have the blood of the Shan family in me, the masters and grandfather won't like me anymore."

The eighth elder, "...". So that's why. No wonder the child has been paying attention to the movements of the Shan family.

At first, they thought it was because of the grudge between the two families. They didn't think that the reason was actually so personal.

Eighth elder sighed lightly and said, "Tong 'Er, you've suffered too much!"

'It looks like Tong 'Er had known about his background a long time ago, but he hid it very well. He played and laughed like he was the happiest kid in the world.'

Shi Letong looked at his grandfather and asked carefully and softly, "Grandfather, do you still like me?"

"Of course!" At this moment, the first elder flew over and said, "Child, the Shan family is the Shan family, and you are you. Plus, you also have the blood of the Heavenly Gate Sect. You are a member of our Heavenly Gate sect, and you are our good grandson."

"Child, you are still young. Why worry your mind over things like this?" The third elder comforted.

"Why did you hide such a huge thing in your heart? Why didn't you tell your grandfather?" The sixth elder said with a heartache, "We would have understood."

"Third grandfather, sixth grandfather..." Shi Letong began to cry.

It was a cry of relief and gratitude.

"Child, you must have faced a lot on your own!"

From their conversation, Shan Lingfei also understood that his son had known his true identity all these years, but he had kept it a secret. He had born all the grievances silently.

At the thought of this, Shan Lingfei's eyes burned with anger, and his sharp gaze shot toward the person who had hurt his wife and son. With anger, he asked sharply, "Elders, do you still think that Xiaohe is not good enough for me?"

The Elders' faces were red, and they were both embarrassed and angry.

With Shi Yingying's identity, of course, she was good enough for Shan Lingfei.

The fifth elder of the Shan family snorted and said, "So what? Have you forgotten that the bitch..."

"You old fart. You're still insulting my mother?! Go to hell!" Shi Letong was furious when he heard this.

With that, a ball of flame emerged from his palm. The ball of flame turned into a fire dragon and flew directly toward the fifth elder of the Shan family.

"Fire Dragon Technique? Does this mean the child has a double spirit root?"

"Double spirit root? But can they be cultivated together? Fire and water are incompatible."

"But is there really someone who can cultivate with double spirit root? That's impossible, right?"

People couldn't believe what they saw.

When the fifth elder of the Shan family saw the fire dragon, he was stunned for a moment. Then, a disdainful and sarcastic look appeared on his face. "Brat, don't you know that water can restrain fire?"

Then, he used the water spirit spell to extinguish the fire dragon.

However, to everyone's surprise, the fire dragon did not get extinguished. Instead, the fire dragon overwhelmed the water dragon. The fire dragon trapped the fifth elder.

Shi Letong said proudly, "Isn't water supposed to restrain fire? Try to extinguish it then!"

His actions shocked everyone. As real cultivators, they knew what had happened. This young man's cultivation level was higher than the elders. It was why he was able to use his fire dragon to overwhelm the elder's water dragon.

"How... How is this possible? How old is this child? His cultivation level is already above the aurous core stage?"

"No wonder he came to take revenge."

"But... he has a double spirit root, right? How did he manage to cultivate above aurous core stage when normally, people with double spirit roots are trash?"

The surrounding people were all shocked by the young man's cultivation, and the Shan family members were even more so.

A genius, this was a true genius. He managed to cultivate to the aurous core stage at the mere age of 13. What kind of genius was this? A genius like this wouldn't appear for 100,000 years!

The last true genius of the Nine Heavens Continents was Shan Feiyu from 10,000 years ago. However, when Shan Feiyu was in his teens, he was only in his Qi cultivation stage. So this young man was even more talented than Shan Feiyu.

The Shan family was shocked by Shi Letong's talent and talent. At this moment, they were truly regretting it.

If they had known earlier...

They should have let the bitch give birth to the child and then decided on his future after testing his aptitude. They could kill the mother and keep the child. But now, they had offended their Shan Family's real genius.

The head of the Shan family could not stand such humiliation. He was so angry that he spat out a mouthful of blood on the spot.

"The head of the Shan Family appears to have vomited blood from anger."

"How could he not?" Someone mocked. "They were so blind to kick their genius out of the door. If I were in his shoes, I'd vomit blood too."

"It's worse than that. They have made this rare genius the mortal enemy of the Shan family."

"Haha, what a joke."

Everyone was mocking the Shan family.

After the Shan family head spat out a mouthful of blood, he shouted at Shan Lingfei, “Shan Lingfei, you bastard, are you going to stand and watch as this vile spawn attacks us?” The old man was so shameless. The eight elders of the Shan family had already tried to kill the child, and now they were asking the child’s father to kill his own son?

All of them revealed looks of disdain and contempt towards the Shan family head.

Shan Lingfei stood in front of the child and looked at his father with an ice-cold gaze as he said coldly, “Father, the vile spawn that you speak of is Xiaohe and my biological son. Do you want me to kill my son? Have you lost your mind?”

“Bullshit! He’s not your son. He’s the vile spawn Shi Xiaohe gave birth to with someone else!” Master Shan was furious when he heard Shan Lingfei’s words. “Shan Lingfei, don’t be fooled by him!” Even now, he was trying to deceive Shan Lingfei.

“Old Man, you’re the vile spawn!” Shi Lingfei cursed

Chapter 544: Xiao Tong’s Reincarnation

Shi Letong did not have a good impression of this selfish, despicable, and shameless grandfather.

Even now, this old man actually wanted to slander his mother’s innocence.

Shi Letong pointed at the Shan family head and said, “You are the vile spawn. All of the Shan Family are vile spawns!”

The corners of everyone’s mouths twitched, and they were a little speechless. ‘Child, you’re also a member of the Shan family. Is it good for you to scold them like that? Plus, your father is from the Shan family.’ But no one said anything.

The head of the Shan family was scolded by the brat, who was his grandson. His pale face became even more unsightly.

“Shan Lingfei, are you going to let this little bastard scold your father?” The head of the Shan family said furiously.

Shan Lingfei said coldly, “Father, you said he’s a vile spawn, so he’s not wrong he calls you a vile spawn. We’re a family, after all.”

As soon as he said this, someone laughed out loud.

Shan Lingfei’s words were really interesting.

The head of the Shan family was so angry that he took a deep breath and shouted angrily, “He’s not part of the family.”

“If I say he is, then he is!” Shan Lingfei said with a very determined expression.

“Don’t think I’ll acknowledge you because you said things like that!” Shi Letong rolled his eyes and said coldly. “I have told you some time ago. I’m here to take revenge on the Shan family.

"I won't forgive anyone who bullied my mother back then, including your father. If you want to stop me, I won't let you off either!"

Shi Letong's words were really impolite and cold.

Shan Lingfei felt a pain in his chest as he looked at Shi Letong, "Tong 'Er, I'm not trying to stop you. It's just that you're still young, and your hands shouldn't be stained by these evil debts!"

"A tooth for a tooth. Even now, they haven't admitted their mistakes. They're still slandering my mother's innocence.

"As her biological son, how can I tolerate it? Do you know how my mom gave birth to me?" Shi Letong's cold eyes stared at him sharply, causing Shan Lingfei's pupils to constrict.

The boy pointed at Madam Shan, who was beside the Shan family head, and said coldly, "When my mother was seven months pregnant with me, this woman made a bowl of abortion medicine and wanted to pour it down my mother's throat. My mother resisted desperately, and that bowl of abortion medicine was shattered.

"However, during that struggle, my mother weakened, and I was born ahead of time.

"When my mother was giving birth, the entire Shan family could hear her pain. However, because of this poisonous woman's order, no one was allowed to come to the courtyard to have a look.

"My mother was tortured for so long before she gave birth to me. After that, my mother lost her energy.

"But my umbilical cord hadn't been cut yet. It was my mother who broke the bowl and used the fragments to cut the umbilical cord.

"There were pools of blood on the ground. My mother was bleeding profusely! Not long after, she died."

Madam Shan, who was insulted, immediately defended loudly, "Your mother died of bleeding. What does that have to do with us?"

"Plus, based on your story, she died because of you. You little bastard!"

"What a vicious woman!" Xiao Tong's grandfather shouted with a cold expression. "You've caused my daughter's death and yet you still refuse to admit it. You even want to push the blame onto Tong 'Er and accuse him of killing his mother. Madam Shan's insidious and vicious nature is indeed worthy of her reputation!"

The eight elder of the Heavenly Gate Sect doted on Tong 'Er. Now that Madam Shan wanted to make Xiao Tong bear the crime of Shi Yingying's death, she had truly angered him.

The eighth elder said loudly, "Today, I also want to seek justice for my daughter. I will not harm the innocent. I will only target the people who hurt my daughter in the past!"

But, the people who hurt Shi Xiaohe in the past were from the upper echelons of the Shan family. They were not easy to deal with.

At this moment, Shi Letong said, "The people who were involved in framing my mother back then were all these old farts!" Shi Letong pointed them out.

The eyes of those people who were watching the show shone.

They did not expect that the elders of the Shan family were all involved in the murder of a young daughter-in-law.

Shi Letong said, "I have always repaid kindness with kindness, and revenge with revenge!

"Back then, didn't you all look down on my mother because she was an ordinary person? I'll have you have a taste of being an ordinary person. How about that?"

All the people were shocked.

What was he trying to do?

Was he going to cripple these people's cultivation?

"Today, I'll cripple your spiritual roots, and then you'll be common people!" Xiao Tong's expression was cold and serious.

Most of the people present were stunned for a moment before they burst into laughter.

"Haha..."

The young man was funny. He was young but arrogant. He actually wanted to cripple the cultivation of the golden core stage elders of the Shan family. It was too funny.

Some people could not help but burst into tears.

This was the funniest joke they had ever heard.

Even if this youth had the cultivation of the aurous core stage, it was impossible for him to cripple everyone in the Shan family unless he was already in the nascent soul stage.

The Shan family head was first stunned, then he pointed at him and shouted sternly, "What an arrogant brat. You haven't even grown hair yet, but you want to cripple the cultivation of the Shan family.

"Let me tell you. Even if Heavenly Sect's nascent soul Grandmaster came, he wouldn't dare to boast shamelessly about crippling the cultivation of the Shan family."

Madam Shan's venomous gaze shot straight at the youth as she spoke with great resentment, "I blame myself for not forcing the bowl of medicine down the bitch's throat. Then, you wouldn't be here today.

"Little vile spawn, you better pray that you don't fall into my hands. Otherwise, I'll make your life a living hell!"

This was the first time in her life Madam Shan was so insulted. She would pay back the humiliation a thousand times.

Shi Letong sneered and said, "Let's wait and see!"

Then he said loudly, "Gold Spirit, Wood Spirit, Water Spirit, Fire Spirit, Earth Spirit, come out now. Let's show them what we can do."

Five little people appeared above his head. They were only the size of a thumb and were shining.

“What are these?”

“We’ve never seen them before!”

The moment the five spirits appeared, everyone present was very surprised.

However, when the expert cultivators saw these, their eyes shook.

“Those... are elemental spirits!”

“Yes. They are the legendary five elemental spirits!” An Elder’s expression was abnormally excited, and his eyes shone with greed.

“What is an elemental spirit?”

“Master, what is an elemental spirit?” The young disciple asked the elder beside him.

“The cultivation of the nine heavens continent relies on spiritual energy. That’s why you can cultivate faster at places with abundant spiritual energy.

“Spiritual energy can be delineated into five types, metal, wood, water, fire, and earth. Every type of spiritual root that we cultivate corresponds to one element. For example, the water spiritual root corresponds to the water element.

“But according to the legends, there are five types of elemental spirits that create these elements. If one is favored by these legendary elemental spirits, one’s cultivation will improve greatly.

“According to the legends, ten thousand years ago, Shan Yufei, the ancestor of the Shan family, fell off a cliff and obtained the help of the water elemental spirit from Death Valley.

“The water elemental spirit helped him to repair his damaged water spiritual root. Then, his cultivation surged forward without any bottlenecks until he reached the peak of the aurous core stage.”

As he said this, his eyes were burning with greed as he stared at the five treasures above the Shi Letong’s head.

No wonder this young man had cultivated to such a high cultivation level of the aurous core stage at such a young age.

So it was because he had obtained the legendary treasures.

If the elder could get the gold elemental spirit, then he could break through to the peak of the aurous core stage and directly advance to the nascent soul stage. Then, his ascension would be just around the corner.

The survival of the fittest. It was common for murder to happen for the sake of treasures.

When the crowd heard that the elemental spirits could help greatly in cultivation, their blood boiled.

All eyes were fixed on Shi Letong.

When the elders of the Heavenly Gate sect saw Shi Letong reveal the five elemental spirits, they knew things were bad.

The child was too impulsive.

Chapter 545: Xiao Tong's Reincarnation

Seeing the greed in these people's eyes, the Heavenly Gate Sect elders and Shan Lingfei immediately moved to protect Shi Letong.

However, Shi Letong didn't seem to notice the danger. He commanded the five spirits. "Cripple the spirit roots and cultivation of the Shan family members!"

"Yes, Master!" Five spirits' clear and crisp voices answered.

Then, under everyone's stunned gazes, they shot out in streams of light. They cut through the Shan family members.

Not long after, someone screamed, "Ah!"

"Sixth elder, what happened to you?"

Then, people began to scream one after another.

What made the onlookers' hair stand on end was that these screams came from the golden core experts of the Shan family.

"Ah, my cultivation!" Madam Shan shouted in horror, "My cultivation..."

Everyone looked at Madam Shan and then noticed that her cultivation had decreased.

Madam Shan was about to go crazy. She glared at the Shi Letong and screamed, "You Little Bastard, I'm going to kill you."

For a cultivator, being crippled was worse than death.

Madam Shan's talent in cultivation was not bad. She had just broken through to the aurous core stage not long ago.

However, her cultivation was crippled instantly. How could she not be furious?

Shi Letong said calmly. "Old witch, if you have the power, come and kill me!"

Shi Letong pointed at Master Shan and the other elders. "And you people. Don't you want to kill me? Come and get me then! Do you think I'm afraid of you?"

When everyone heard this, the corners of their mouths could not help but twitch.

Shi Letong taunted these people right after he had crippled their cultivation. No one would attack him now unless they had a death wish.

"Vile spawn, you will suffer retribution." The water dragon around the first elder disappeared. However, his face was pale, his expression was furious, and his gaze was vicious. If his gaze could kill, he would have cut Shi Letong into a thousand pieces.

However, Shi Letong replied indifferently, "I don't know if I will suffer retribution. But your retribution has arrived." Then, he looked at the other elders of the Shan family. "I won't kill you, so enjoy your lives as a commoner." Then, he looked at Shan Lingfei and asked, "Are you satisfied with this result?"

The only active cultivation master the Shan Family had now was Shan Lingfei. In the future, he would control the Shan family. But whether he could protect the Shan family was not Shi Letong's business.

This could be considered a gift from Shi Letong to Shan Lingfei, his biological father.

Shan Lingfei smiled bitterly and said, "Tong 'Er, no matter what you want to do, I will support you. But I am really grateful that you didn't kill your grandparents." No matter what, they were Shi Letong's grandparents. If Shi Letong wanted to kill his grandparents, Shan Lingfei would stop him and kill them himself. He didn't want his son's hands to get dirty.

However, he didn't expect that his son would obtain the favor of the five elemental spirits. In the blink of an eye, he crippled the cultivation and spiritual roots of the Shan family members.

But this was good too. Shan Lingfei would keep these people around. After all, these people had once forced his wife to her death. He didn't have the heart to harm his parents, but his son had helped him with it.

Shi Letong looked coldly at Shan Lingfei and said coldly, "Although mother loves you very much and you also love her very much, you've failed as a husband and father. You didn't protect your wife and child. This is your greatest failure.

"Since you didn't stop me from taking revenge, I'll not harm you. But this is the end of our relationship as father and son. In the future, we'll go our separate ways. We will not interfere with each other!"

Shan Lingfei's face instantly turned pale. He carefully asked, "Then, can I go to Sky Mountain to see you in the future?"

"Up to you!" Shi Letong said coldly. "Provided that they let you enter."

Shan Lingfei's eyes lit up. But when he heard the second half of the sentence, his eyes quickly darkened again.

However, he said firmly, "Okay, I will definitely find my way into the Heavenly Gate sect!" The ten-thousand-year-old feud between the Sky Mountain sect and the Shan family was not so easy to reconcile.

Shi Letong ignored him. Instead, he looked around with a sharp gaze. His small face was solemn and confident as he said, "I know that many of you are interested in my five spirits. Come and get them if you are not afraid of ending up like the Shan family."

Shi Letong stopped hiding his cultivation level.

Then...

"Ah, it's nascent soul cultivation!"

"Ah, what did you say? Nascent soul cultivation? What kind of joke is this?"

A 14-year-old nascent soul stage cultivator, this was simply heaven-defying.

“How can he be a nascent soul stage cultivator?” The elders at the peak of the aurous core stage widened their eyes in shock.

“How is this possible? It must be fake. It must be fake!”

A young man had already reached the nascent soul stage, but these elders who had lived for thousands of years were still in the aurous core stage.

However, the one who suffered the greatest blow was definitely the Shan family. They had mocked the young man for being arrogant, but their cultivation was crippled instantly.

They swore to take revenge for this. They still had a nascent soul grandmaster who was in secluded cultivation. Once this grandmaster exited his cultivation, they would have him go and kill this vile spawn to take revenge.

However, when they saw the kid also had nascent soul cultivation like their grandmaster, the fury in their eyes immediately dimmed.

If Shi Letong was only in the aurous core stage, even with the help of the five elemental spirits, the Shan clan’s grandmaster could still kill him.

However, Shi Letong was in the nascent soul stage. With the help of the five spirits, if the Shan clan’s nascent soul Grandmaster went up to him, it would be a one-sided slaughter!

For the Shan family, they couldn’t lose their grandmaster, or the legacy of the Shan family would really perish. So they had to stomach this humiliation and loss!

They had thousands of years to come up with a revenge plan.

Shi Letong’s nascent soul cultivation immediately stopped the others from having any greedy thoughts. The five spirits were great treasures, but so were their lives.

They were just aurous core cultivators. How could they win Shi Letong?

...

Shi Letong soon left. He came and did what he promised to do.

He only wanted to seek revenge on those who bullied his mother back then. He would never hurt an innocent person.

However, he had left behind a legend. People knew that he came from the Heavenly Gate sect. Many young people wanted to enter the Heavenly Gate Sect. They worshiped the nascent soul stage grandmasters who were not even fifteen years old.

The Heavenly Gate sect suddenly became the number one sect in the nine heavens continent.

“Grandpas, are you angry again?” As soon as they returned to the Heavenly Gate sect, Shi Letong ran after the grandfathers. “And first Grandpa, Second Grandpa... Are you angry?”

The elders’ faces were sour, and their voices were cold.

They said, "No. How would we have the courage to be angry at a nascent soul stage cultivator?"

They had been on tenterhooks when they saw Shi Letong show the five elemental spirits. But the child that they thought needed their protection didn't need it at all.

At the same time, they were sad. Shi Letong had already broken through to the nascent soul stage. Why would he hide it from them? Was it to guard against them?

Shi Letong looked at their expressions and knew that they were still angry. Shi Letong coaxed his grandfathers, the sect leader, and master who had been kept in the dark.

"Grandpas, master, I didn't mean to hide it from you. I just, just..."

Everyone in the main hall stared at him. "Just what?"

Shi Letong said seriously, "I just wanted to give you a surprise!"

Everyone, "..."

Chapter 546: Xiao Tong's Reincarnation

Xiao Tong woke up in a pool of warm water. He heard a loud shout outside. "Ah, it's time to give birth. It's time to go to the hospital!"

Xiao Tong was shocked. "This... This is Grandma's voice."

Yes, this voice was so familiar. Even after thousands of years, he could not forget it. Had he returned to her mother's stomach?

Xiao Tong said quietly, "Mother, I choose to split open the space-time tunnel and return to your stomach. This time, will you love me?"

...

Shi Letong from the Nine Heavens Continent had outstanding talent and amazing talent. In addition to his good fortune, he cultivated to the nascent soul stage at fourteen, shocking the entire continent.

Therefore, everyone thought that this genius would be the second Shan Feiyu and would ascend very soon.

After all, he had five elemental spirits that could help him cultivate.

Shan Feiyu's secret was that he had been favored by the water spirit. He only had the help of one spirit, and he had already ascended. Therefore, many people thought Shi Letong would soon ascend too.

However, many people were shocked when they found out Shi Letong was still in the nascent soul stage after two thousand years. He didn't break through to the Mahayana realm. It was not for lack of trying. He had a bottleneck due to his mental demon.

Cultivators with mental demons often fell into the devil's path.

When the elders of the Heavenly Gate sect heard about this, they studied for a long time and finally came up with a solution to help Xiao Tong.

“Tong ‘Er, your grandfather and the other masters have come up with a way to solve your inner demons,” said the sect leader in the main hall.

Shi Letong was no longer a kid. He had become steady and mature.

He asked respectfully, “Please speak, sect master!”

The sect master said, “We’ll combine all of our power to open the space-time tunnel and send you back to your previous life!”

“What?” Shi Letong widened his eyes and gasped, “Open the space-time tunnel?”

The sect master said, “Legend has it that once someone has reached the Mahayana stage, one will have the ability to open the space-time tunnel to visit any dimension one wishes.

“There are thousands of worlds in the Heavenly Dao. With the space-time tunnel, one will be able to traverse the universe.”

Shi Letong was tempted. “But master, you said it yourself. The person has to reach the Mahayana stage to open the tunnel. There is no ascended in the entire nine heavens continents. All of them have already ascended. This is simply an unsolvable problem!”

The sect master shook his head and said, “Tong ‘Er, that is true, but the elders can combine our powers.”

Shi Letong was confused. “What does that mean?”

“The few elders will combine our cultivation and transfer it to you. Then, you’ll break through to the Mahayana stage. Through the space-time tunnel, you can go back to your previous life and solve your mental demon.”

Shi Letong immediately disagreed. “No. After you’ve transferred your cultivation to me, what about you? All the elders have aged already. Without your cultivation, you’ll instantly perish and die. If that’s the price to pay, I will never agree. I’d rather stay like this and continue to find other methods.”

The sect master frowned. He said sternly, “Tong ‘Er, we’ve spent several hundred years before we came up with this solution.”

Shi Letong said loudly, “I don’t care. If the price is your life and cultivation, then I’d rather stay in Heavenly Gate Sect forever!” Since his birth, he had already spent two thousand years in the Heavenly Gate sect. He was happy and carefree here. His masters and grandfathers loved him very much. Therefore, he would never allow them to sacrifice themselves in order to solve his inner demons.

The sect leader wanted to persuade him again, but Shi Letong said firmly, “Master, I will never allow you to sacrifice yourself for me.” He paused for a moment. His gaze swept over the elders who had always loved him and continued to say, “If you do this, I’ll most likely emerge with a new inner demon. Without your guidance, what would I do then?”

The sect leader and the others were shocked.

A new inner demon? This was something they had never thought of before.

The sect leader sighed and said, "Alright, let's think about it some more!"

After Shi Letong left, everyone was silent for a moment.

The first elder said, "Master, what should we do?"

The master frowned and said somewhat helplessly, "Tong 'Er has always valued emotions. In cultivation, one must cut off all emotional ties, but Tong 'Er is the most emotionally invested person I know. It is the reason for his inner demon."

They didn't find it strange. Shi Letong was reincarnated from a parallel world. Apparently, the other world was a world of peace. The people there valued emotions and bonds. Even though Tong 'Er only spent five years there, he had left behind immense bonds. Even after thousands of years, he couldn't forget about them. Therefore, to solve this problem, they had to resolve his emotional ties.

"But what can we do now?" The third elder was anxious. "Tong 'Er is very stubborn. We can't do anything if he disagrees, or he'd form a new inner demon!"

Xiao Tong was right. Once they transferred their cultivation to Xiao Tong, they would die instantly. The others went silent.

...

Shi Letong walked out of the main hall with his hands tightly clenched into fists.

He had to find a way to solve these inner demons as soon as possible. He could not let his Masters worry anymore.

He returned to his own courtyard, and five spirits flew out of his head.

Water Spirit said, "Master, Grandpas are right. Sending you back to another dimension is the best way to solve the inner demons!"

Shi Letong said somewhat irritably, "But that will drain them of their cultivation and life. I won't allow it!"

Gold Spirit said, "Master, then what should we do?"

Shi Letong shook his head and said, "I don't know either. If I do, would I need to wait until now?"

Fire Spirit suddenly jumped up and said, "I've thought of a way."

The other four spirits immediately surrounded Fire Spirit and asked, "What idea have you come up with? Tell us quickly."

"Yes, tell us quickly. Can't you see that everyone is very anxious?"

The four spirits urged Fire Spirit to tell them quickly.

Fire Spirit thought for a moment and said, "Master, the reason why you don't agree is that you're afraid that Grandpas will lose their lives and their souls will be scattered, right?"

Shi Letong rolled his eyes and said, "Isn't that obvious?"

Fire Spirit tilted his head and said, "What if we can protect their souls?"

Shi Letong instantly asked in confusion, "Fire Spirit, what do you mean by that?"

Fire Spirit explained, "I mean, what if we have the ability to protect their souls from scattering?"

Shi Letong frowned. "What about their cultivation?"

Fire Spirit rolled his eyes. "Master, you're normally so smart. If we can preserve their souls, one day, they'll regain their cultivation."

Shi Letong said sharply, "Do you know how difficult it is for someone cultivate to the golden core stage or even the nascent soul stage? That's thousands of years of precipitation!"

Water Spirit said in puzzlement, "Master, why are you being so dumb? Have you forgotten about us?"

Shi Letong, "...". He really did forget.

Gold Spirit jumped on the table and said excitedly, "That's right. If we can preserve their souls, with our help, they can easily cultivate back to their current stage. Plus, I'm sure the grandfathers will be happy to be young again."

"Wait." Shi Letong stopped them. "You said you could preserve their souls, but what about their bodies?"

The five spirits rolled their eyes at him and said in unison. "Master, why are you being so dense? We can always find a fresh body for them."

Shi Letong, "...".

Chapter 547: Biological Father?!

Therefore, under the joint efforts of his master, and five Spirits, Shi Letong had opened up a space-time tunnel.

However, he did not expect that he would return to his mother's stomach. The moment he woke up, he heard his grandmother's voice.

"Grandma!" The child who was still in his mother's stomach could not help but cry when he heard his dearest grandmother's voice.

No matter how many thousands of years had passed, he still remembered his grandmother's voice, her smile, and his grandfather's amiability.

At the time, Xiao Tong didn't know how kind his grandparents were to him. He was only a few years old and did not know anything.

However, in the cultivation world, he had seen couples turning against each other, father and son becoming enemies, and brothers killing each other. He deeply understood the preciousness of true love.

His grandparents loved him as if their lives depended on it, and they would not let anyone bully him.

He was born weak and sick, and it was common for him to have a fever or cold. Whenever he was sick, his grandparents would immediately send him to the hospital, even if it was in bone-chilling winter.

When he was feeling fussy, it was his grandparents who coaxed him to eat.

There were many more moments like that...

Xiao Tong realized that his memories of his grandparents were fresh even after thousands of years.

With tears in his eyes, he said quietly, "Grandpa, Grandma, Xiao Tong is back. And Mom, will you love me in this life?"

Xiao Tong suddenly felt a wave of pressure pressing down on him. He immediately remembered what his grandmother had said earlier. He knew that he was being born.

Therefore, he immediately adjusted his posture and exerted all his strength to squeeze towards the exit.

At the same time, he could hear the voices outside clearly.

When he heard a man's voice calling his mother his wife, he was instantly stunned.

'What is happening? Have I returned to the stomach of the wrong pregnant woman? I remember I don't have a father in this life!'

Although his grandparents often told him that his father had gone to a faraway place, he knew from the people in the village that he had never had a father.

He was simply a wild child with an unknown father.

However, he was very smart. He never complained to his grandparents and blamed them for lying to him.

But now, a man had appeared beside Xiao Tong's mother. Based on his tone, it sounded like he was very worried about Xiao Tong's mother. Xiao Tong was very confused.

Feeling the pressure, he shook his head. 'O well. I better get born first.

'But what if I landed in the wrong family and became someone else's son?'

Therefore, Xiao Tong was born frowning. When the nurse saw him, she burst out laughing. "Haha. The baby is so cute frowning so deeply!"

"Let me see!" The other nurses came forward.

"Haha. He's really frowning." The young nurses said in surprise, "Wow, what a beautiful baby. There are no wrinkles at all. He's clean and beautiful."

Xiao Lingyu was very tired after giving birth, but when she heard the nurses say that the baby was beautiful, she could not help but ask curiously, "Is it true? I want to take a look!"

When Xiao Tong heard her voice, his heart jolted.

It was his mother, Xiao Lingyu!

He remembered her voice.

At that moment, Doctor Qin said very seriously, "The child is very beautiful, but don't you people notice the problem?"

"Ah, Doctor Qin, what's the problem?"

"The child isn't crying!"

"Oh. That's right!" A child was normally born into this world with loud cries.

When Xiao Tong heard that, he shivered. He immediately opened his throat and cried.

"He's crying. The baby is crying!" The nurses laughed. "This child is really smart. He must have heard us say that he's not crying and that's why he responded to us. If not, we would have to spank his buttocks already!"

Xiao Tong, "...". She is not wrong. But I didn't know my buttocks were in danger!

"Lingyu, how are you feeling?" Doctor Qin asked with concern.

Xiao Lingyu nodded. "I'm fine!"

"Yes, then you should rest well. After we give the child an injection and put some clothes on him, we'll bring him to see the people waiting outside. They must be worried sick. Then, we'll bring him back to you," Doctor Qin said.

Xiao Lingyu nodded and said gratefully, "Thank you, Doctor Qin!"

After Xiao Tong was carried outside the ward, he opened his eyes and immediately saw a few familiar figures. His little eyebrows twitched slightly.

These were his grandparents.

There were also a few strangers that he had never seen before.

Most importantly, there was a man. This man was the man who had called his mother his wife just now.

Xiao Tong was shocked. 'What is going on? What went wrong?'

However, Xiao Tong was still a baby. No matter how smart he was, he needed to follow the natural laws of development.

Therefore, no matter how many doubts he had, he could not ask them now.

He thought for a while and thought, 'O well. I'll know the man's real identity sooner or later. Now that I'm back, there's no hurry. Ah. Why is it so tiring being a baby? I'm going to sleep!'

When Xiao Tong woke up next, he was sure that this tall man was his biological father.

He had his father's nose and face and his mother's eyes and mouth. So this man was really his biological father. And his father and mother were married.

He went from a bastard child who didn't have his parents' love to a child who had a complete family. Xiao Tong's nose soured. This was great. Everything was perfect in this life!

He finally had a father and a mother who loved him.

He was no longer the child who lacked a father or a mother.

Now, he didn't regret coming back at all.

He had paid the price for returning to this time and space, but with the five Spirits, he would definitely make up for it with his masters.

Xiao Tong thought for a while and felt tired again.

Suddenly, someone moved him. He opened his tired eyes and realized that his biological father seemed to want to sleep next to his mother, so he moved Xiao Tong away. Xiao Tong saw the man stretch out his arm to hug his mother and sleep beside her.

Instantly, the alarm in Xiao Tong's head went off. 'This man is here to steal mother from me! No, I won't allow that!'

In order to stop him, Xiaotong suddenly burst into tears. Then, the man turned to pick up Xiao Tong. Xiao Tong cried even louder.

Gong Tianhao,"..."

At first, everyone thought that it was just a coincidence.

Then, every time Gong Tianhao wanted to sleep next to his wife or hug his wife, the child would burst into tears.

Seeing the helpless look on the man's face, Xiao Tong was pleased with himself. 'I came back to get my mother's love, and you want to stop me? Hmph! How is the taste of my pee?'

Then, one day, the man whispered something in Xiao Tong's ears that shocked Xiao Tong to the core. "I know you've reincarnated. If you want people to discover that, then keep on acting up."

Xiao Tong was stunned. 'What does he mean? How did he know about my reincarnation?' Xiao Tong was puzzled, but he was just a newborn baby now and couldn't speak at all. So, even if he had doubts, he could only suppress them in his heart.

In any case, after Xiao Tong was given the warning, he started to cooperate with this man— his biological father.

Fortunately, after he was discharged from the hospital, Xiao Tong was mostly in the care of his grandmother. As for his father, he was too busy looking after his wife.

Xiao Tong had to watch this man take advantage of his mother and even gave him a smug and provocative smile.

Xiao Tong grumbled to himself, 'When I can talk and move, I'll have to teach that man a lesson!'

'How can a cultivator like me lose to a mortal like him?'

Chapter 548: High-Level Space

However, Xiao Tong didn't expect the man who identified as his father to run into a car accident on the second day Xiao Tong was born.

Xiao Tong was a cultivator in his previous life, but he was now a mortal. He didn't have the power to stop this and could only watch helplessly.

However, he was keenly aware of the presence of spiritual energy. He was now in a mortal world, so why was there spiritual energy?

He was a newborn child. No matter how sorrowful Grandma and the others were, they did not carry the child to the scene of the car accident. They were afraid of scaring the child. After all, the scene was covered in blood.

He was still a newborn baby. His vision was still blurry. However, after thousands of years of cultivation, his soul had become very powerful.

He used his soul to examine the crime scene and noticed that his father's wounds had been washed by spiritual water. He suddenly understood something. His mother was either a cultivator or had a cultivator's treasure!

In the cultivation world, having a cultivation space was not uncommon. A good cultivator would purchase a cultivation space that existed in their rings or necklaces. These spaces were delineated into high-grade or low-grade spaces. The low-grade spaces were basically storage.

High-level spaces were different. In addition to storing things, they could form a living space where living organisms could live.

Legend had it that an immortal who had reached the immortal realm had his own space in another world, and he was the ruler of that world.

Normal cultivators would only have low-level spaces, while expert cultivators would have high-level spaces.

His mother... since her space could emit spiritual energy, it must be a high-level space. This was because low-level spaces only had storage functions, and the things inside could only be dead things.

But high-level space needed spiritual energy to sustain living organisms inside it. Therefore, Xiao Tong was certain that his mother owned a high-level space.

But Xiao Tong was confused. Why would his mother, a normal human, own a high-level space?

Did his mother experience reincarnation like he did?

Xiao Tong was full of questions, but at this moment, he couldn't do anything.

He glanced at the man. His life was no longer in danger, so Xiao Tong went to sleep. He was really hungry for sleep. Xiao Tong had no idea why babies needed to sleep so much.

He slept all day long.

He would only open his eyes once in a while to take a look.

How wonderful!

He was back.

He saw his grandparents!

He saw his mother.

His mother in this life was clearly different from his previous life.

In his previous life, Xiao Lingyu did not love him at all. She wasn't even willing to hug him.

But in this life, Xiao Lingyu welcomed his arrival with a smile. She even hugged him in her embrace with her maternal love. Her actions were very gentle and delicate as she touched his face, and she also carefully fed him milk.

The motherly love that he did not receive in the two lives was completely received in this life. The regret he had from missing his mother's hug was rectified too. He was also no longer a bastard. He had gained a tall and handsome father who loved his mother very much.

In this life, he had grandparents, a father, and a mother, so he was happy.

He was very happy!

But...

Why does everyone like to take advantage of him so much?

They would hug him, touch him, pinch him. Couldn't they see that his cheeks were red?

And the dirty children liked to dirty his clothes by touching him.

'Grandma, don't you see all these?'

Xiao Tong had no choice but to pretend to cry to grab his grandmother's attention.

"Oh, Xiao Tong is crying. Are you hungry? Or do you need to have your diaper changed?" Auntie Zhou said with a smile, "Qiuying, your grandson is really sensible and well-behaved. He doesn't cry usually. He only cries when he's hungry and needs his diaper changed. How convenient."

Mother Xiao checked the child's diaper while laughing happily, "The child is indeed very clever. He is even more obedient and well-behaved than his mother and uncle when they were young. He doesn't worry us at all.

Auntie Zhou smiled and said, "He also cries when someone he doesn't like touches him. It's quite funny."

Mother Xiao checked the diaper and said, "The diaper is still dry. That means he is hungry. I will carry him back now and let his mother feed him."

"Alright!" Auntie Zhou said with a smile. Then she asked, "What has Lingyu been busy with recently? Why don't I see her anymore?"

Mother Xiao said with a smile, "She's preparing to open a shop in City Z, so she has been very busy."

Auntie Zhou said with concern. "It hasn't been 120 days since her birth. Tell her to take care of her body. She still can't be exposed to the wind."

Qiuying nodded and said, "I'm already doing that every morning."

"Sigh, the child is so stubborn..." Auntie Zhou sighed.

Mother Xiao smiled and said, "Okay, I can't talk to you anymore. The child is still waiting to be fed."

"Oh, yes. Hurry up and go back!"

...

Mother Xiao carried the child to Xiao Lingyu's room and said to her, "The child is hungry. You need to feed him. I need to go to the kitchen."

Xiao Lingyu took the child and nodded. "Okay, Mom!"

After Mother Xiao left, Xiao Lingyu lifted her clothes and fed the child. She stared at the child's beautiful and cute little face and said, "I'm going to see your father in two days."

Xiao Tong, who was drinking his breast milk, paused for a moment before he returned to normal. His eyes darted about, but Xiao Lingyu didn't notice. 'Is Mommy going to see that man? I want to go too. But she sure won't bring me because I'm too young.'

Recently, Xiao Tong had been drinking spiritual water. His body had been cultivating. Even though he had not cultivated any Qi, his senses had become more sensitive than others.

He wanted to go see that man and see if he could help him or not.

But...

Xiao Tong thought of it. His mother had a high-level space. As long as the man kept eating the things she gave, he would soon recover.

'O well. I don't think I can go with Mommy. She'll go alone.'

Xiao Tong knew that his mother must miss his father very much.

He was now very grateful that his mother had a high-level space. Otherwise, with that man's injury, he would die.

However, the things grown in his mother's high-level space were imbued with Qi. They were good for both mortals and cultivators.

It would eventually be exposed. Therefore, Xiao Tong had to get strong as soon as possible. But he needed Qi for his cultivation training. So, how could he get into his mother's cultivation space? That was a problem.

Xiao Lingyu looked at the child who was eating with relish and said with a smile, "Xiao Tong, your father really loves us. You also want him to wake up early, right?"

Xiao Tong thought to himself, 'That man can keep on sleeping since he's only here to steal Mommy from me.' Of course, he was only thinking that. If the man continued to slumber, his mother would keep on crying. Xiao Tong didn't have the heart to see his mother like that.

In this life, Xiao Tong was very happy... minus the accident with that man. However, he would one day wake up.

Xiao Tong thought about things and slumbered.

Before he closed his eyes, he was still thinking, 'Mommy, bring me into your space.' In this mortal way, he didn't need to become an expert cultivator. He only needed to reach the Qi cultivating layer.

At that time, he could truly protect his mother!

Chapter 549: Xiao Lingyu Goes to See Gong Tianhao

A small helicopter flew over from somewhere and stopped at the rooftop of the hospital under the Gong group.

The cabin door opened and a woman wearing a black hat, black mask, and a black windbreaker came out.

Situ Xing saw Xiao Lingyu come down and immediately went forward to help her carry two buckets of water.

Other than their plane and the people from the Dragon organization, there was no one else on the rooftop.

The two of them did not speak. Situ Xing led them to the ward.

The entire floor was cleared out. The doctors and nurses did not dare to come to Situ Xing's floor without orders. Situ Xing, the Ghost Doctor, had a bad temper.

Even though Xiao Lingyu was wearing a mask, her eyes under the brim looked very anxious.

She wanted to see Gong Tianhao and tell him how much she missed him.

When she arrived at the ward, she saw Old Master Gong sitting beside Gong Tianhao's bed.

"Grandfather!" When she saw Old Master Gong and then looked at the slightly pale Gong Tianhao on the bed, Xiao Lingyu called out with red eyes.

Old Master Gong stood up from his seat and said excitedly, "Yu 'Er, you're here!"

"Grandfather, yes, I'm here." Xiao Lingyu went forward to hug Old Master Gong and said excitedly, "Grandfather, I miss you very much. Xiao Tong also misses you very much. Our entire family misses you very much!"

Old Master Gong patted Xiao Lingyu's shoulder and said emotionally, "I also miss all of you. I miss my great-grandson, and I also miss the dishes that Qiuying cooks..."

Situ Xing, who was standing at the side, pursed his lips tightly. However, after a while, he had no choice but to remind them, "Old master, sister-in-law, there's not much time left."

Old Master Gong nodded his head and said, "Let Yu 'Er talk to Hao 'Er. They've been separated for more than three months, so they must have a lot to talk about. Xing 'Er, let's wait outside!"

Situ Xing replied respectfully, "Yes, old master!"

Old Master Gong and Situ Xing quickly walked out of the ward and closed the door. Then, they sat on the chairs in the corridor and waited. Both of them were silent with serious expressions.

In the ward, Xiao Lingyu sat by the bed and held Gong Tianhao's hand. When she saw that he was covered in tubes and needles, her heart ached.

She stared at Gong Tianhao and said softly, "Hubby, I haven't seen you for three months. Are you alright? Our son and I are doing well. But I don't think you're doing well. You've lost weight, and your face is pale.

"Hubby, I miss you very much. Do you know that?"

"I'm already used to the days when you're by my side. So when you're gone, I'm having a hard time. I sleep with my head under the quilt. The next morning, the quilt and pillow will be all wet.

"I miss you so much that I'd cry in my dreams. I want to stay by your side and take care of you. However, I can not be so selfish and bring danger to my family.

"I'm sorry, Tianhao. As a wife, I can not take care of you by your side. However, I know that you can recover without me, right? I'm really lonely without you!

"Hurry up and get better!"

...

Time passed in a flash as Xiao Lingyu reminisced and talked.

Situ Xing raised his hand to look at the time. His expression was silent, and his eyes were filled with helplessness.

Old Master Gong asked, "Xing 'Er, is it time?"

Situ Xing nodded truthfully. "Yes, grandfather!"

Old Master Gong sighed and said, "Go and call Yu 'Er. When it's time, it's time."

Situ Xing advised, "Old Master, don't worry. When Tianhao wakes up, it'll be time for your family to reunite. No one will break up the family then."

Old Master Gong nodded and said, "You're right. We don't need to wait long for that day." After saying this, he looked a little sad, but he still said, "Go and get Yu 'Er."

Situ Xing nodded and said, "Okay!"

When Situ Xing walked into the ward, he heard Xiao Lingyu saying, "Tianhao, our son is already three months old. He's very cute. You'll definitely like him."

Situ Xing couldn't bear it, but he still had to intervene, "Sister-in-law, it's time. We have to go!"

Xiao Lingyu was stunned and couldn't help but ask, "So soon?" Then, without waiting for Situ Xing's response, she held Gong Tianhao's hand tightly and put it on her face. She touched Gong Tianhao's face with one hand, and there were some sparkling tears in the corner of her eyes. She said, "Tianhao, it's time. I'm leaving. I'll visit you again next time!"

With that, she put down Gong Tianhao's hand and stood up. She wiped the corners of her eyes and said, "Let's go!"

With that, she walked towards the door, her footsteps heavy and determined.

If she didn't leave now, she might not be able to leave ever.

"Grandfather, take care!" Xiao Lingyu said goodbye to Old Master Gong.

Old Master Gong nodded and said, "Yu 'Er, you have to take care too, understand?"

When Situ Xing sent Xiao Lingyu onto the plane, Xiao Lingyu said to him, "Situ, thank you so much!"

Situ Xing shook his head and said, "Sister-in-law, you are too polite to me."

Before Xiao Lingyu boarded the plane, she asked with a hesitant expression, "Situ, can I come and see Tianhao again in the future?"

Situ Xing nodded and said, "Yes, as long as we make the necessary arrangements!"

Xiao Lingyu immediately heaved a sigh of relief and said gratefully, "Thank you so much." It would take a lot of effort to get her to meet Gong Tianhao without anyone in the capital noticing.

Looking at the distant plane, Situ Xing raised his head and stared in that direction as if he was thinking.

At first, when he found out that Gong Tianhao liked an ordinary woman like Xiao Lingyu, he was really a little surprised.

However, because of Gong Tianhao's personality, he naturally did not say anything. He only thought that she was a rather beautiful woman.

However, later on, he found out that she was not only a bit beautiful but also really stunning. She had a unique charm of self-confidence that she exuded from the inside out.

Even after she knew Gong Tianhao's true identity, she was neither arrogant nor impatient, neither servile nor overbearing. She was just his lover who loved him.

When the Gong family offered a sky-high betrothal gift, the Xiao family refused to accept it. Xiao Lingyu herself also refused to accept it.

This showed that their family was not after the money.

Situ Xing immediately admired them from the bottom of his heart.

Not everyone had the courage to refuse this hundred billion betrothal gift. This was a hundred billion, not ten million!

Before Gong Tianhao's accident, Xiao Lingyu had developed a reliance on Gong Tianhao. However, after his accident, she quickly became independent. She did not cry all day long, and she did not wail that the world was ending. Her eyes would redden when she thought of Gong Tianhao, and that was all.

Then, Situ Xing's eyes darkened. 'This is all the fault of the Qin family. It's not over simply because Qin Yan has paid the price.

'Why would Qin Yan do such crazy things? It was because the Qin family gave her confidence. The power of the Qin family and the wealth of the Qin family was all to support Qin Yan's crazy confidence.

'Therefore, the Qin family has to pay the price too. I will make the Qin family disappear from the capital!'

...

Father Xiao and Mother Xiao did not sleep.

They wore big cotton-padded jackets and waited in the living room.

They knew that Xiao Lingyu had gone to see Gong Tianhao today.

Hearing the roar of the plane, the couple left the house and ran out.

After Xiao Lingyu got off the plane, her mother immediately asked anxiously, "Yu 'Er, how is Tianhao's recovery? Is he okay?"

Xiao Lingyu said, "Mom, let's go inside and talk."

The three of them quickly entered the house.

Xiao Lingyu said, "Dad, Mom, Tianhao is fine. Don't worry. Situ said Tianhao had entered a stage of full recovery. However, the medical technology is more advanced overseas, so he might have to transfer overseas for treatment."

In the capital, many eyes and ears were watching. Every move was being monitored.

With Xiao Lingyu's spring water, Situ Xing had confidence he could heal Gong Tianhao. It was too dangerous to work with the spring water in the capital. Therefore, they decided to transfer Gong Tianhao to a secret overseas manor for treatment. It would be safe there.

Hearing what Xiao Lingyu said, Mother Xiao and father Xiao were slightly relieved.

They knew that Gong Tianhao would recover, but they still worried. Their daughter had comforted them with her words.

Chapter 550: Xiao Tong Can't Speak!

Xiao Tong was now a baby. For an old monster... I mean, expert cultivator, who had lived for thousands of years, he was very good at acting. Xiao Tong had fully adapted to the life of a baby. He would only need to sleep, shit, eat and sleep again.

Whenever he saw someone he liked, he would ask for a hug. He was very good at winning people's hearts.

When people saw him, they would gasp. "Wow. He is so cute and beautiful!"

However, Xiao Tong didn't like it when they called him beautiful. He was a boy. He was handsome, not beautiful. Unfortunately, no one could understand his protest so his personal opinion was ignored.

"Hmm. Tong Tong, what's wrong?" Grandma Xiao saw her grandson's wrinkled face and asked curiously, "Why are you so unhappy? Who provoked you?"

Tong Tong's hands and feet moved randomly, and his mouth made a babbling sound.

When Mother Xiao saw this, she touched his little face with her hand and said with a smile, "Haha. It really looks like Tong Tong is not happy." Mother Xiao couldn't read mind so she didn't know what Xiao Tong was unhappy about.

Just as Mother Xiao was comforting the child, Father Xiao walked over.

"Qiuying, the store in City Z is opening tomorrow. I'm going to the fields to take a look," Father Xiao said.

The vegetables that were sent to the store had to be the freshest.

Mother Xiao nodded and said, "Well, it's quite cold in the fields. Put on more clothes."

Father Xiao nodded and said, "Okay!" Then, Papa Xiao looked at Xiao Tong and said with a smile, "Tong Tong, be good at home. Grandpa has to go to work."

Xiao Tong wanted to say that he wanted to go too.

However, he could only make a mumbling sound.

"Tong Tong doesn't want Grandpa to leave, is it?" Father Xiao took the child from Mother Xiao and said, "Let Grandpa hug our Tong Tong. He's so clever!" Father Xiao held the child for a while and then handed the child back to Mother Xiao. Then, he saw Xiao Lingyu dressed in simple clothes. He frowned slightly and asked, "Yu 'Er, are you going to the fields too?"

Xiao Lingyu smiled and said, "Papa, I'm going to the fields first. Then, I'm going to the tofu products company to check out the goods that are going to be delivered tomorrow."

Mother Xiao said, "Yu'er, put on your clothes and hat. You haven't reached a full 120 days yet. You shan't expose yourself to the winds."

Xiao Lingyu said helplessly, "Mom, it's only five or six days away. Is this really necessary?"

Mother Xiao said very seriously, "Yes. It's necessary even if it's just one day away, much less five or six days. Plus, you are still nursing, so you have to be careful. Otherwise, if you catch a cold, your son will suffer."

A nursing mother had to watch her health. If they were sick, the children would be affected. The adults might not be so ill, but the children would be.

Xiao Lingyu knew her mother's concern, so she said, "Okay. I'll pay more attention."

Father Xiao had already taken her hat out of the house and handed it to her daughter. He said, "I don't know why you don't like wearing hats."

Xiao Lingyu took the hat and put it on. She said, "I feel very clumsy wearing a hat." The hats were thick knitted wool hats. They were not that fashionable. However, Xiao Lingyu still loved them because they were hand-knitted by Mother Xiao. However, Xiao Lingyu would feel her head being cooped up wearing the hats. Therefore, Xiao Lingyu did not like wearing hats.

Mother Xiao glanced at her and said, "It doesn't matter. You have to wear the hat. It's such a cold day. If you're not careful, you might get a migraine."

Xiao Lingyu smiled and said, "Alright, Mom, I'll put it on. Dad, let's go together. Mom, we're going." Then, she turned and pinched Xiao Tong's cheek. She said with a smile, "Baby, mom is leaving. Listen to Grandma and be good, okay?"

'I want to go. I want to go play too!' Xiao Tong said. But he was only babbling.

Xiao Lingyu smiled and said, "I know baby doesn't want Mommy to leave but Mommy has to go work. Be good."

Xiao Tong, "...". He felt like dying. Xiao Tong couldn't communicate with babbling. Xiao Tong realized he needed to learn how to speak as soon as possible.

When he was in the other world, the extremely talented children were born with the ability to speak. Xiao Tong was the same.

He was very young when his mother died and he was brought to an unfamiliar place. He was frightened. Then, he burst into tears and said, "Where am I? I'm so scared!"

When he said the first sentence, all the elders of the Heavenly Gate Sect were stunned at first, but then their faces became excited and happy.

"Haha, this child can speak from birth, so he must have outstanding talent. We should test his aptitude."

"No, he's still too young for a test. We need to wait until he's two or three."

Therefore, because of that, Xiao Tong lived happily on Sky Mountain.

However, it was different in this life. This was an ordinary world. Most children had to learn how to talk around the age of one. The earliest was ten months. However, there were geniuses who could talk within a few months. Xiao Tong decided he'd be those kind of geniuses. That way, he could communicate easier with the adults.

For now, he could only watch helplessly as his mother and grandfather leave the house.

Xiao Tong was not cold despite the water. He was cultivating so his body was always warm.

Mother Xiao saw the unhappy Xiao Tong and she smiled, "Tong 'Er wants to go out and play too? Then, Grandma will bring you out on a walk." Then, she went into the house to grab baby clothes.

Xiao Tong, "...". Really, I'm not cold. So, don't give me so many layers. I can't even move anymore.

However, Xiao Tong had no idea there was something called, Grandma thinks you're cold and Grandma thinks you're hungry.

...

Xiao Lingyu and Father Xiao came to the foot of the mountain.

Although the winter had passed, the weather was still gloomy and cold. When the wind blew, it felt bone-chilling.

Therefore, all the vegetables were planted in greenhouses.

Xiao Lingyu hired a professional to help her manage these greenhouses. As for the spring water, she secretly poured them into the cisterns used by the greenhouses. No one doubted anything.

As for the vegetables she moved out of the farming space, they were managed by Mother Xiao and Father Xiao in the past. However, after Xiao Lingyu's birth, that plot of land was managed by Father Xiao, Grandmother Xiao and Grandfather Xiao. The plot was close to a pool filled with spring water. Of course, Grandma and Grandpa Xiao didn't know about the secret. They only knew that the vegetables planted on these six Mus of land were more valuable than the other vegetables. So they managed the land themselves.

They would only hire people to help harvesting and planting. They were worried about outsiders. In any case, six Mus of land were not that big.

Xiao Lingyu walked into the greenhouse and saw that the vegetables were lush and green. They were not affected by the weather.

Father Xiao looked at the vegetables and asked, "Yu 'Er, how many vegetables should we pick on the first day of opening?"

Before this, the sales volume was two to three thousand catties for shop in Xing Yin County, five thousand catties for Zeng Family's vegetable shop and one thousand five hundred catties for Jun Hao Hotel.

The daily sales volume was also about 10,000 catties.

Now, they were opening a big shop with three floors and 1,600 square meters in City Z? How much vegetables were needed to fill up the shop?

Father Xiao didn't know about the market in City Z so he asked his daughter.

Xiao Lingyu explained, "Our supermarket will sell three levels of vegetables. The villagers' vegetables is one level. I've already booked more than 10,000 catties from them.

"The second-grade and first-grade vegetables are from our own farms. The second-grade crops are around 10,000 catties and the first-grade will be around 3,000 catties. With the peanuts, red beans, sweet potatoes, and so on, we'll have around 2,000 more catties. That is all we need for the first day. We'll make adjustments based on the response."
