

Chapter 651: Conflicted Feelings

After Xiao Lingyu received the call from the old master, she held her phone and fell silent!

The old master on the other end of the phone said in an imposing manner, “Yu ‘Er, don’t worry. This old man will only acknowledge you as my granddaughter-in-law. Xiao Tong is my great-grandson, the sole heir of the Gong family!”

Gong Tianhao’s memory loss was both within and without everyone’s expectations!

When Old Master Gong learned from Situ Xing that Gong Tianhao had really lost his memory, even though he was mentally prepared, it was unexpected and uncomfortable!

Old Master Gong cursed loudly, “Why is that Brat so useless? It was just a car accident. He had laid in bed for two years, and now he has lost his memory! And he only loses his memory of his wife and son?! When he recovers his memory, there’s going to be hell to pay!”

Of course, Old Master Gong still had to comfort his granddaughter-in-law, Xiao Lingyu, as soon as possible!

If the brat lost such a good wife, he’d live to regret it!

Old Master Gong said with a smile, “Yu ‘Er, since that Brat has woken up, I’ll return to Taoyuan Village immediately. I miss my precious great-grandson so much!”

Old Master Gong had only seen his great-grandson once when the child was born, but from then on, he could only see him on video! He was cute and beautiful, looking almost the same as Gong Tianhao when he was young. Every time he looked at this little face, Old Master Gong’s cold heart couldn’t help but soften!

He wanted to hug his great-grandson with his own hands every day!

Now that his Brat has woken up, he would have this wish! If the brat hadn’t lost his memory, the Gong Family could reveal Xiao Lingyu and Xiao Letong’s identities!

But now...

Old Master Gong sighed lightly. ‘It has to be delayed again.’

Xiao Lingyu said with a smile, “Grandfather, we’ve expected Tianhao to lose his memory. You have to apologize to me. We’re family! Furthermore, I’ve already said that if Tianhao really lost his memory, this time, I’ll pursue him instead. It’ll be fun to fall in love again.”

“Haha. Okay then! If that brat dares to bully you, just tell Grandpa, and Grandpa will teach him a lesson for you!” Old Master Gong said happily!

Xiao Lingyu smiled and said, “Alright then, Grandpa. I’ll take you up on your offer.”

...

Situ Xing took out a few photos and asked anxiously, "Boss, look at them again. Do you really not remember them? They are your wife and son."

Gong Tianhao looked at the photos and frowned. Then, faint anger appeared on his face as he said sternly, "Situ Xing, are you joking with me? How can I get married and have a child? Did you find a random woman and get her pregnant in vitro when I was unconscious for two years?"

He had sworn in the past that he would not get married. In that case, where would he get a son?

Situ Xing scratched his head and explained anxiously with a strange expression, "Boss, they really are your wife and child! Can't you see how much this child resembles you? Also, about sister-in-law, do you know that you used to..."

Situ Xing wanted to continue speaking, but Gong Tianhao put on a distracted expression and said, "Alright, that's enough! Even if you bring a mountain of evidence, I won't believe it. Leave. I'm tired and want to rest."

"..." Situ Xing sighed softly and said, "Alright then. Boss, you should rest."

After leaving the ward, Situ Xing was full of doubts, "In the past, boss loved sister-in-law very much. However, once he loses his memory, it's like he's a different person. When he faced his wife and son's pictures, his expression was calm. No, there was even disgust!

"This wouldn't have happened in the past! Strange. Why would this happen? According to medical reasoning, one would subconsciously recognize and instinctively acknowledge the people, things, and things that they were extremely familiar with! Moreover, Boss's love for Xiao Lingyu is carved into his bones. Even if he forgot about her, the love should still be there. However, Boss is clearly averse to Xiao Lingyu now. Why is that?"

Situ Xing thought for a moment and called a friend. That friend was a psychiatrist!

Since there was nothing wrong with Gong Tianhao physically, then the problem might be psychological.

After Situ Xing hung up the phone with his psychiatrist friend, his face was silent and serious!

He thought for a moment and gave Xiao Lingyu a call.

After Xiao Lingyu heard Situ Xing's question, she revealed a very surprised expression. Then, she lowered her eyes and thought for a moment before saying, "Nothing happened that day. Other than the car accident that caught everyone off guard, nothing else happened."

Situ Xing said very seriously, "Sister-in-law, think about it. Is there anything that you overlooked?"

Xiao Lingyu thought for a while and said, "Other than the accident, I really can't remember what else happened!"

Situ Xing was silent for a moment and said, "Sister-in-law, you have to think about it! Maybe this is the key to recalling Boss's memory!"

"Okay!"

Chapter 652: Lover!

“Well, the training is almost done. We can carry out the mission now!” A middle-aged man in a tuxedo said expressionlessly in a dignified and gorgeous manor in country M!

A woman in front of him asked carefully with a slightly fearful expression, “Butler Li, is this really okay?” She felt very uneasy about the mission she was about to carry out and the target of the mission. Her expression also revealed some confusion and fear!

Butler Li saw the woman’s appearance and frowned slightly. He was slightly dissatisfied! ‘Even with all the training, she’s still not good enough. Can this woman really complete the task?’

Butler Li thought for a moment and ran to the side to make a phone call!

“Eldest miss, this woman...” he reported the results of the training to the person, “We don’t have the time to continue the training or seek a new candidate. Eldest miss, this...”

The woman on the other end thought for a moment and said, “Let her go! If she fails, you know what to do! I don’t want him to know about this!”

Butler Li’s eyes lit up, and then he replied very seriously, “Please rest assured, eldest miss. I know what to do!” Then, butler Li added, “I wish eldest miss all the best!”

...

Since Gong Tianhao had already woken up, even if he didn’t remember her, she still wanted to visit him as soon as possible!

At the same time, she had to win his heart!

Since Gong Tianhao didn’t remember them, Xiao Lingyu still had to hide her identity when she went to visit him!

“Mommy, why can’t I go with you to see that man?” Xiao Letong asked unhappily with his small face wrinkled like a bun!

Xiao Lingyu immediately said seriously, “Xiao Letong, that’s your biological father. You should call him father or dad, but definitely, not that man. Also, why are you so dissatisfied with your father?” Xiao Lingyu sighed. Her son was very obedient. But he was very stubborn when it came to Gong Tianhao. He refused to admit him as his father.

Xiao Lingyu had explained to him many times. It was not that his father did not want them, but that he was seriously ill!

The child only nodded silently after hearing it.

Xiao Lingyu sighed softly and said to Xiao Letong, “Son, I know that you still have some complaints about your father, but I’m sure he’ll come and explain everything to you.”

Xiao Letong said with a slightly aggrieved tone, “But why can’t I go with you to see him now? In that case, I don’t want you to go either!”

Xiao Lingyu hugged her son in her arms and said with great heartache, "Son, be good. You're still too young. You can't go with me. Stay at home and wait for your mother to come back, okay? I promise you that I'll be back very soon!"

...

In Country M's Chinatown, an outstanding-looking woman was on the phone with someone. In front of her, men kept coming over to talk to her, but they were all rejected!

This woman was carrying a customized fruit basket and bouquet as she walked toward country M's Royal Hospital!

When she reached the hospital entrance, she was stopped.

"Hello, Miss, who are you looking for?"

"I'm looking for Gong Tianhao!"

"May I ask who you are?"

"I'm his lover!"

Chapter 653: Ambush

When Xiao Lingyu was walking to the airport with her luggage, she was bumped by someone who was holding a cup of coffee. A cup of coffee was poured onto her clothes!

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I didn't do it on purpose! I've dirtied your clothes. I'll compensate you!" This was a young girl of about 15 or 16 years old. When she saw that she had dirtied someone's clothes, her face was full of apology.

Xiao Lingyu looked at the beige suit that had been dirtied and frowned. She glanced at the time. It was too late to change and board the plane. So it was better to change on the plane!

Xiao Lingyu said, "Forget it, you don't have to compensate me! Watch where you're going in the future!" With that, she carried her suitcase and left!

As soon as Xiao Lingyu left, the girl said into her earpiece, "The first step of the plan has succeeded. The second team, be ready!"

Xiao Lingyu's hearing was extremely sensitive. Even in such a bustling international airport, she could hear the girl's voice clearly!

She suddenly paused. She immediately understood that the girl did not pour the coffee unintentionally but on purpose! She had been targeted.

However, she came directly from Taoyuan Village. The only people who knew that she was going to country M were her family!

So, who leaked her movement? Plus, was she targeted because of her or because of Gong Tianhao?

Xiao Lingyu looked around and immediately noticed a few different gazes!

She lowered her head and pondered for a moment. Then, she carried her luggage and turned a corner, heading towards the bathroom!

The person who had been watching her from the shadows saw this and immediately informed his companions!

Xiao Lingyu hid in a corner. Just as she had guessed, someone immediately came over!

The person looked around at the fork, but she couldn't see anyone. She frowned and mumbled, "Where is she? How did she disappear?"

Then, Xiao Lingyu appeared in front of her and asked in a cold voice, "So it's you! Are you looking for me?" This person was the girl who had bumped into Xiao Lingyu!

Ruan Xiangya was shocked when she saw Xiao Lingyu suddenly appear in front of her. However, she quickly reacted and nodded, "Yes, sister, I'm looking for you. I wanted to apologize for dirtying your clothes. When I saw you coming to the bathroom, I followed you. I wanted to pay you some money. Or you can give me your clothes, and I'll return them to you after I've cleaned them!" She sounded sincere. If Xiao Lingyu hadn't heard her earlier, she might have believed her!

Xiao Lingyu was in a hurry, so she didn't have time to waste with her. She asked directly, "Who are you guys? Why are you stopping me from getting on the plane?"

Ruan Xiangya's expression froze, and she pretended to be innocent as she explained, "Sister, you misunderstood me! I'm really here to apologize to you!"

Xiao Lingyu frowned and said, "Since you don't want to tell me, I'll call the police!"

Clearly, this girl was stalling for time! Ruan Xiangya suddenly smiled and said, "Then call the police! After all, I did nothing but spill coffee on you! However, will you be able to get on the plane after getting the police involved? Fine, I'll tell you the truth. My goal is to prevent you from getting on the plane!"

Xiao Lingyu lowered her eyes slightly as if she was thinking. In fact, she was talking to Xiao Ling. "Xiao Ling, is there a way to mark this person so that we can find her identity more easily in the future?"

Xiao Ling thought for a moment and said, "I'm too powerless to do that. I'm just a relic spirit." But the little master would be able to do it!

Xiao Lingyu frowned. "Then what should we do now?"

Xiao Ling thought for a moment, and his eyes suddenly lit up. He said, "I got it, Master!"

"Hurry up and say it!"

"You can knock her unconscious, and I'll inject some Qi into her body. Then, we can use that Qi to find her in the future!"

Xiao Lingyu said decisively. "Okay, let's do it!"

Xiao Lingyu asked Ruan Xiangya seriously, "Then, can you tell me why you're doing this?" The hand on her back clenched into a fist as she stepped forward!

Ruan Xiangya sneered, "With your lowly status, you don't have the right to know!"

Xiao Lingyu's expression changed, "How is it possible that I don't have the right to know when you've openly attacked me?"

"Then..." Before Ruan Xiangya could even finish her sentence when she was knocked unconscious by Xiao Lingyu's fist!

Then, Xiao Lingyu put her finger on the girl's wrist. Soon, Xiao Lingyu stood up.

At this moment, Xiao Ling asked with confusion, "Master, why is there a strange smell on your clothes?"

Xiao Lingyu raised her arm to sniff and explained, "It's probably the smell of coffee!"

"No, other than the smell of coffee, there's another strange smell," Xiao Ling said with certainty.

Xiao Lingyu frowned, "Are you sure?"

Xiao Ling thought for a moment and said, "Master, while the girl is unconscious, you better let me cleanse you. Then, you need to rush to get on the plane!"

"Okay!"

...

When Situ Xing heard the report from the guard, he thought that the lover at the door was Xiao Lingyu, so he had the guards let her in.

Situ Xing thought about it and decided to fetch Xiao Lingyu in person. Now that Gong Tianhao had lost his memory, it was better to explain some things to her first!

As Situ Xing walked downstairs, a woman took the elevator upstairs!

Situ Xing walked to the entrance, but he saw no one. He asked the guard, "Where is she?"

The guard asked in confusion, "Who?"

"The Chinese woman at the door just now. A very beautiful woman!"

"Oh, she has already gone up! Didn't you meet her on your way down, Doctor Situ?"

Chapter 654: Ex-girlfriend

Situ Xing immediately ran to the 18th floor. Just as he ran out of the elevator, he received a phone call.

"What? Are you not here yet?" Situ Xing held his phone and looked surprised. "You were stopped at the airport and your flight was delayed?!"

If Xiao Lingyu wasn't here, then who was the woman who went to Gong Tianhao's ward?

Situ Xing hung up after talking to Xiao Lingyu for a while.

A serious look appeared on his face, and then he quickly ran into the ward.

He was careless. He did not confirm the identity of the person who came. He thought that it was Xiao Lingyu. He hoped that the woman, who was let in, would not pose any danger to Gong Tianhao.

Just as Situ Xing walked to the door of the ward, he heard an angry roar from the ward, "What are you doing here? Get out!"

Hearing Gong Tianhao's angry roar, Situ Xing heaved a sigh of relief.

Then, he heard a beautiful, gentle, and slightly aggrieved voice explain, "Tianhao, you misunderstood me. At the time... I didn't leave you because I wanted to go abroad to continue my studies. I got a terminal illness at that time. I... I was afraid that you would be sad, so I found an excuse to leave you."

When Situ Xing heard these words, he immediately knew who this woman was.

It was Gong Tianhao's first girlfriend.

At that time, Gong Tianhao went to school under a false identity. When he was in university, he fell in love with the school Belle. In the end, that woman abandoned Gong Tianhao just for a chance to study abroad.

Now, she had the face to appear in front of him again.

This woman's skin was really thick!

However, why would this woman appear when Gong Tianhao lost his memory of his wife? Situ Xing was worried. He was afraid that Gong Tianhao would be soft-hearted to this woman. Therefore, no matter what, Situ Xing had to protect his sister-in-law and stop other woman from stealing Gong Tianhao away.

Situ Xing was about to step into the ward when he heard Gong Tianhao's impatient voice, "Weng Jingjing, I don't care how wronged and innocent you were in the past. It has nothing to do with me now. Now, please get out immediately. Otherwise, I will ask someone to kick you out!" Gong Tianhao said coldly and in disgust.

Gong Tianhao did not show any mercy towards the woman who had betrayed him.

Weng Jingjing's expression did not change, as if she was not the one being chased out.

However, her clenched fists betrayed her nervousness and fear. Her body was still trembling. This was like a human's instinctive reaction.

She opened her mouth and was about to say something, but she pretended to be calm and endured it.

She took a deep breath. When Situ Xing pushed the door open and walked in, he saw this woman wearing a white dress. Her long hair fluttered in the wind and her facial features were exquisite.

Situ Xing raised his eyebrows and looked at this woman. He chased her away with a smile that was not a smile, "Lady, didn't you hear my boss? How thick-skinned you must be to still be staying here? Get lost!"

Weng Jingjing's pupils suddenly shrank and revealed a frightened and uneasy expression. She seemed to be greatly frightened and humiliated.

But she still nodded expressionlessly and said, "Alright, I'll go. Tianhao, I'll come to see you next time!"

After saying that, she turned to leave. She seemed impatient. However, at that moment, Situ Xing suddenly stopped her. "Wait!"

Weng Jingjing turned her head and looked at Situ Xing with some confusion.

"Take these fruit baskets and flowers away. My sister-in-law will be sad with she comes and see them. She'd think my boss has betrayed her," Situ Xing said with his lips curved.

Weng Jingjing's eyes revealed a shocked and incredulous expression.

She looked at Gong Tianhao in disbelief. Gong Tianhao was expressionless and he didn't say anything. 'How can this be? Gong Tianhao is married?! How come no one knows about it?'

Before she could think further, Situ Xing said impatiently, "What are you doing? Hurry up and take your things and get lost! Otherwise, don't blame me for being rude!"

Whether it was Gong Tianhao or Situ Xing, they both treated such a beautiful woman mercilessly.

As soon as Weng Jingjing left, Situ Xing immediately checked the ward with a serious expression.

Gong Tianhao frowned and asked in confusion, "What are you looking for?"

Situ Xing said, "I'm looking for the video surveillance equipment!"

"What?" Gong Tianhao was confused.

After looking through the ward, Situ Xing immediately asked, "Tianhao, didn't you notice?"

Gong Tianhao asked curiously, "What do you mean?"

Situ Xing shook his head and said, "Your ex-girlfriend has gone under the knife. And it wasn't a small surgery either. Basically her whole face has been replaced!" He paused and asked curiously, "Boss, is this really your ex-girlfriend?"

They had only heard of Boss' ex-girlfriend, but they had never seen her before. Naturally, they didn't know what Weng Jingjing looked like.

Gong Tianhao furrowed his brows and asked, "What do you mean?"

Situ Xing smiled and said seriously, "What do I mean? Someone is using your ex-girlfriend's identity to get close to you. And this person is very powerful." Speaking up to this point, Situ Xing paused for a moment and continued, "Just now, I received a call from my sister-in-law saying that she was being targeted. She was stopped at the airport because the people there said there was a problem with her passport. Then, this woman suddenly appeared. Clearly, something is at work here. But we still have no idea what they're after."

Gong Tianhao was silent for a moment before saying, "Ol' Seven, get someone to investigate."

Situ Xing nodded and said, "Yes, definitely!"

At this moment, Gong Tianhao asked with a slightly awkward expression, "You mean that... that person didn't come?"

Situ Xing raised his eyebrows and asked with a puzzled expression, "Boss, which person do you mean?"

Gong Tianhao's face immediately darkened and he shouted sternly, "Get out!"

Situ Xing, "... Just say that you care about sister-in-law. Why do you have to act so childish? What a strange man!

But Situ Xing suddenly said seriously, "Boss, if I'm not wrong, sister-in-law might be targeted by someone. Although I don't know who is targeting her, sister-in-law and young master might be in danger. We have to send people to protect them now."

Gong Tianhao's face immediately turned dark as he said sternly, "Situ Xing, I told you before that I don't have a wife and children. How many times do I have to tell you? If you mention them again in front of me, you will go to Africa from tomorrow onwards!"

"..." Situ Xing's forehead was full of black lines. The moment he brought up Xiao Letong and Xiao Lingyu, his boss would explode.

Situ Xing said very seriously, "Boss, you are now my patient. I will be wherever you are!"

Gong Tianhao, "... This Situ Xing has gotten bolder to talk back to me like this.

"Get out!" Gong Tianhao shouted sharply again.

Situ Xing pursed his lips and didn't say anything.

After Situ Xing walked out of the ward, he immediately gave Gong Yinxiong a call.

"Sister-in-law has been targeted. Pay attention and protect their safety!"

...

"Pa!" A woman wearing a butterfly mask slapped Ruan Xiangya's face. "Useless things. What purpose do I have raising you? You can't even detain a woman and was knocked unconscious," the masked woman said coldly.

Ruan Xiangya knelt on the ground. Her hair was messy, and the right side of her face was swollen from the slap, but she did not dare to show any dissatisfaction.

There was some fear on her face, and she kept apologizing and begging, "Master, I was careless. I was wrong. I didn't know that Xiao Lingyu could knock me out with one punch!"

Their investigation of Xiao Lingyu showed that she was an ordinary woman. She shouldn't be capable enough to know Ruan Xiangya out with a single punch.

The masked woman snorted, "Xiao Lingyu was able to discover us even though we have been so secretive. How can you be so careless around her? Why do I need to keep you around anymore?"

Ruan Xiangyu's expression changed drastically. She kowtowed and said, "Master, please spare my life. Please give me another chance. Master, please spare my life!"

The masked woman thought for a moment and said, "Alright, I'll give you another chance! If you don't seize this chance, then don't blame me."

"Yes, Master!"

Chapter 655: Stubborn Child

"Yu 'Er, what happened? Why are you back already?" Seeing her daughter return with her suitcase, mother Xiao, who was washing vegetables in the yard, was shocked. "Did something happen?"

Xiao Lingyu did not want her family to worry, so she shook her head and said, "It's nothing. It's just that my passport is missing."

"You lost your passport?!" Mother Xiao immediately said with some reproach, "The passport is such an important thing. How did you lose it?"

Xiao Lingyu said with some helplessness, "During the inspection, a person rushed over and bumped into me. Then, our passports fell to the ground. Who would have thought that our passports would have been exchanged?" The fact was it wasn't an accident. The other party purposely grabbed her passport and left behind a fake one. The fake passport looked just like Xiao Lingyu's real passport. Therefore, when she tried to board the plane, she was immediately taken away for investigation.

Xiao Lingyu knew that the people who targeted her had made all the preparation. Therefore, she wouldn't be able to leave the interrogation room so on. Plus, she didn't have any connections in Shanghai.

Xiao Lingyu had no choice but to call Gong Yinxiong to inform him.

Not long after, the airport inspection bureau found out the truth. Xiao Lingyu had been the victim of a scam.

Mother Xiao said, "In the end, you were careless! If you were careful, would this have happened?"

Xiao Lingyu, "... Her mother was right. However, at the time, she was pondering who had targeted her. She was too distracted to realize the trap was not yet over.

Mother Xiao muttered a few words and asked, "Then, when will you go again?"

Xiao Lingyu thought for a moment and said, "In two days!" She was still unsure of the purpose of the person who was spying on her. If it was to target Gong Tianhao, she couldn't bring the danger to him.

Although Gong Tianhao was awake now, he had been lying in bed for two years. Even with the effect of the spring water, his muscles had atrophied. He had to undergo some training. This was a moment of weakness for Gong Tianhao. Situ Xing had done everything to protect Gong Tianhao, but one couldn't be too careful.

Therefore, Xiao Lingyu asked Gong Yinxiong to investigate this matter. Also, the girl had been injected with Qi. Xiao Ling could use it to trace her. According to Xiao Ling, the girl was in the capital. She had to bring Xiao Ling to the capital to find her.

Just as Xiao Lingyu was in deep thought, Xiao Letong's cheerful voice came from outside. "Mommy, did you come back from country M already?" Xiao Letong asked, slightly puzzled. 'Could be that the amnesiac man has kicked mother back?' That was his guess. He looked angry.

Xiao Letong asked loudly, "Mommy, did that... person chase you back?"

Xiao Lingyu rubbed her forehead, feeling a headache.

The child was still unwilling to call Gong Tianhao father. This was a long and troublesome problem.

She had already lectured and reprimanded him. Was she really going to hit the child? Of course not.

Xiao Letong was a sensible and polite child. He was beautiful and cute. He was loved by everyone. He was raised very well.

However, the child was very stubborn with regard to his father. Xiao Lingyu could not help but think, 'Could they be nemesis in their previous lives?'

Xiao Lingyu looked at his son's angry little face and patted his little head twice. He smiled and said, "What are you thinking about? Why would your father chase me back?"

Xiao Letong immediately showed a suspicious look, "Then why did you come back so soon?"

Xiao Lingyu explained, "I ran into an accident at the airport and lost my passport. Without my passport, I was unable to get on the plane. So I plan to get a replacement passport and try again in two days."

Xiao Letong's little head nodded and said, "Oh."

Xiao Lingyu then said seriously, "Son, you can't accuse people without knowing the truth, do you understand? You've wronged your father's character. He'll be so sad when he knows that! When you were still in mommy's stomach, your father talked to you daily and swore to protect you."

Xiao Letong's eyes flashed, and he immediately admitted his mistake. "Mommy, I know I'm wrong! I'm sorry!"

Xiao Lingyu smoothed out the few strands of hair on his head and smiled. "It's great that you know your mistake. You're a good child, but..." Xiao Lingyu changed the topic and said very seriously, "Son, the person you should apologize to is your biological father, not me. Do you understand?"

Xiao Letong's little face became conflicted, and he frowned. In the end, he nodded seriously and said, "Yes, I understand. I will definitely apologize to him in the future!" As for when he would apologize, it would depend on Gong Tianhao's performance.

If he continued to ignore them and abandon them, Xiao Letong would never forgive, much less apologize to him.

Xiao Lingyu saw the change in her son's expression and heaved a sigh of relief. 'As long as Tong Tong can see the better side of his father. Or else I really don't know what to do.'

However, Xiao Lingyu relaxed too early.

Xiao Letong raised his innocent face and looked at Xiao Lingyu, his eyes shining brightly.

Then, he said, "Mommy, I found a few matchmaking partners on the Internet that fit your criteria."

Everyone looked at the mother and son, "..."

Xiao Lingyu, "..."

Had the child been addicted to being a matchmaker? Every day, he wanted to replace his father with a new man. They really didn't understand why the child had such deep resentments towards his father. It had been almost a year since he started finding a new candidate to be his mother's husband.

Xiao Lingyu's expression changed, and then she gritted her teeth and asked with a smile, "Do these men all look similar to you?"

Xiao Letong hesitated for a moment and nodded. "Yes, yes!" Well, most of them were only two or three percent similar. But that was still similar, right?

Xiao Lingyu asked again, "Are they worth hundreds of billions of dollars, unmarried and around 30 years old?"

Xiao Letong's expression changed, and he became even more hesitant.

He thought for a while and said, "Based on their looks, I can say for sure that they will be worth more than 100 billion in the future!" Not every man was as rich as Gong Tianhao.

Some of them would become millionaires based on Xiao Letong's ability to read people's fortunes. But this meant that for now, they were... penniless.

Xiao Lingyu raised her eyebrows, and the smile on her face was sinister. She asked, "In other words, they don't have any money at the moment, right?"

Xiao Letong pursed his lips and did not say anything.

Xiao Lingyu looked at her son's expression, feeling both angry and amused.

Then she said, "Son, how many men are like your father in this world? He's young, handsome, rich and kind, and considerate to his family. Your mother can't bear to part with your father and live with a poor man."

It was not that she valued money, but her son was very stubborn. She allowed him to continue this matchmaking journey, but it didn't mean that she'd cooperate. She already had the best husband in the world. Why would she abandon him?

Xiao Letong hesitated for a moment and said stubbornly, "But... but hasn't he forgotten about us?" His small face was filled with anger and resentment.

Xiao Lingyu was stunned for a moment, then she came back to her senses and asked with some doubt, "So, Tong Tong, is this your way to take revenge on him?"

The others' expressions changed as well.

Xiao Letong pursed his lips tightly and silently agreed with Xiao Lingyu.

Xiao Lingyu's heart ached. She held her child in her arms and said, "Silly child, you've been wronged. Your father was only injured, and his brain was hurt. His amnesia is temporary.

"Believe Mommy. He'll soon remember us. But to do that, we have to work hard too. Son, trust me. When your father remembers us, you'll be the happiest child in the world!"

When Xiao Letong heard this, his tears immediately fell.

He had always had a knot in his heart. He wanted the love of his parents.

After returning to his previous life, he felt his mother's love.

In these two to three years, he fully experienced the sweet happiness of having his mother's love.

He wanted to monopolize his mother's love, but he found that his father occupied a very important position in his mother's heart.

He suddenly didn't want this father's love at all because it would make him feel like he would lose his mother's love to this man.

Gong Tianhao's memory loss made him feel confused and a little panicked.

He did not know whether he should be happy or angry.

Xiao Letong nodded and said, "Alright, we'll wait for him to remember us! If he can't, then I'll find myself a stepfather!"

Xiao Lingyu didn't know whether to laugh or cry as she replied, "Okay!"

Chapter 656: Going Back to China!

"Boss, it seems that the people working in the dark are quite capable. Our people couldn't find out the background of your ex-girlfriend at all. Now, they only found out that she lives in a slum." Situ Xing raised his eyebrows slightly and continued to say with some interest, "Interesting. You just woke up, but someone has already sent someone over to probe. It seems that there's something wrong with our defenses!"

Of course, it wasn't necessarily one of their own. After all, the people who protected Gong Tianhao were all brothers of the Dragon Organization.

If they weren't one of their own, then there must be something wrong with the hospital.

Gong Tianhao furrowed his brows and remained expressionless.

At this moment, Situ Xing continued, "However, the woman is rich enough to undergo a full plastic surgery... but she lives in the slums? Do they really think we're such fools?" Furthermore, it would be impossible for such a beautiful woman to survive safely in the slums.

Gong Tianhao said calmly, "Situ Xing, arrange for me to return to the country!"

Situ Xing was surprised. "Return to China?"

Gong Tianhao looked at him sharply and narrowed his eyes. He said calmly, "Why? Is there a problem?" His body was completely fine now. It was just that his leg had some muscle atrophy because he had slept for two years. However, this could be recovered through rehabilitation.

He could do that anywhere. Furthermore, Situ Xing would come with him.

Situ Xing quickly reacted. He immediately nodded and said, "Of course, there's no problem. I'll make the arrangements immediately!" Then, Situ Xing asked like he was gossiping, "Boss, are you worried about sister-in-law's safety?"

Gong Tianhao's sharp eyes glanced at him coldly and said sternly, "If you say one more word, I'll get someone to sew your mouth shut!"

"Alright, alright." He mimicked zipping his mouth with his fingers. Then, he turned around and left the ward.

Standing outside the ward, Situ Xing's lips curled up in a good mood.

Even though his boss had lost his memory, and he acted annoyed on the surface, he subconsciously wanted to protect his wife and son.

It seemed that there was a great chance for his boss to regain his memory.

Situ Xing quickly arranged Gong Tianhao's return to the country.

Situ Xing informed Old Master Gong.

When Old Master Gong heard that Gong Tianhao was returning to the country, he was very happy.

He said directly, "That's great. It's good that he's coming back. After the brat returns, I'll move to Taoyuan Village immediately. I'll stay with my great-grandson and granddaughter-in-law. I'll let that Brat stay in the capital by himself."

Old Master Gong's mood became very good. Gong Tianhao was the head of the Gong family. Since he had woken up safe and sound, those who had been watching and waiting for the Gong Family to fall would give up soon.

Even though Gong Tianhao was unconscious for two years, things went relatively smoothly.

During the two years that Gong Tianhao had been in a coma, the Gong Group's business and stocks didn't have much of a commotion with the help of Li Yuanhang, Dragon Organization, and Jiang Tao.

Old Master Gong also ensured that the ghosts and ghouls wouldn't dare to attack the Gong Family openly. Even the second branch and the Bai Family didn't dare to do anything. Instead, they still relied on their old tactics of appealing to Old Master Gong's emotions.

However, Old Master Gong didn't fall for that anymore. The main family was no longer alone. They had a new mistress and a new heir. Gong Tianhao would no longer be alone.

Hence, Old Master Gong couldn't be bothered to deal with his brother, who was rushing over to curry favor with him and the Bai family.

Old Master Gong shut his doors and refused to let anyone visit him.

Furthermore, Gong Tianhao had woken up. Other than the selective amnesia, he was fine. He was still the ruthless King of Business and the head of the Gong Family. Only those who wanted to die would come and provoke him.

Therefore, when Gong Tianhao returned to the country, Old Master Gong could return to Taoyuan Village without any worries or burdens.

When Situ Xing heard this, the corners of his mouth could not help but twitch. Old Master Gong had suffered a lot for the past two years.

In order to not draw attention to Xiao Lingyu and her family, Old Master Gong had never left the capital during these two years, not to mention going to Taoyuan Village.

Now that Gong Tianhao had woken up, Old Master Gong did not have any burdens anymore. He could go wherever he wanted.

Xiao Lingyu had gained Old Master Gong's approval, and Gong Tianhao wouldn't let anything happen to her. Of course, he was still unwilling to admit that he was married.

The old man said with a smile, "I'll tell Yu 'Er later that the brat is coming back, and I'll be returning to Taoyuan Village." At this point, the old man paused for a moment and sighed, "It's been more than two years. Other than the photos and the video of my chubby and cute grandson, I've never seen him in real life. Now I can finally hug him."

Situ Xing was silent for a moment before saying, "Old master, you can spend as much time with your great-grandson as you want in the future. I think the child will definitely like you as his great-grandfather."

Old Master Gong was in his 80s, and he had endured the past three years waiting for this moment.

Old Master Gong said, "Haha, why wouldn't my great-grandson like a lovable grandfather like me?"

"..." Situ Xing smiled and echoed, "Yes, old master, you're indeed very lovable."

Old Master Gong nodded. "Alright, I'll hang up now. I'll call Yu 'Er and inform her of my imminent return."

...

Xiao Lingyu was about to go to the capital when she suddenly received a call from grandfather Gong, "What, grandfather, you're coming back to the village?"

"Yes, the brat is coming back to China. When he does, I don't need to worry about the things in the capital anymore. Of course, I'm going back to Taoyuan Village. I miss brother Xiao."

Xiao Lingyu suppressed the excitement and joy in her heart and said with a smile, "My grandfather misses you too."

At this moment, Grandpa Xiao was very happy, and his expression was also very excited. He said loudly into the phone, "Brother Gong, I really miss you too. Come back, and let's have a drink together."

“Okay!” Grandfather Gong replied happily.

After that, the two families chatted about their daily life for the past two years.

Because Gong Tianhao was safe and sound, Grandpa Gong didn’t have any worries anymore.

At that time, Gong Tianhao would be in the capital, and Gong Zhen would be in Taoyuan Village. He’d see who dared to lay their hands on the young master of the Gong family.

Situ Xing called Xiao Lingyu several times, but the line was busy. He curled his lips and immediately knew that it was definitely Old Master Gong on the phone.

Situ Xing thought for a moment and walked into the ward.

However, Situ Xing didn’t tell Gong Tianhao that Old Master Gong was going back to Taoyuan Village. Gong Tianhao was still averse to Xiao Lingyu. Situ Xing couldn’t guarantee that Gong Tianhao wouldn’t stop his grandfather from moving when he heard the news. Then again, with Gong Tianhao’s filial piety, he wouldn’t stop his grandfather.

Once Xiao Lingyu ended the call with Old Master Gong, she called Situ Xing.

After confirming that Gong Tianhao was about to return to the country, she felt more at ease.

After Gong Tianhao returned to the country, she would go to the capital to visit him.

Gong Tianhao might not like to see her, but their love story had to restart somewhere.

“Is Tianhao really coming back to the country?” Mother Xiao asked excitedly.

Xiao Lingyu nodded and said, “Yes, Tianhao has almost recovered. He has only slept for two years, and his legs are slightly atrophied. It is not convenient for him to walk, and he needs to strengthen his training. But he can do that safely in the country.”

Mother Xiao nodded and said, “That’s good!” At this point, Mother Xiao’s voice was a little choked up, and her eyes were a little red, “It’s been more than two years. Our family can finally be reunited.”

The others felt the same. They also nodded and said, “Yes, the family can finally be reunited!”

Chapter 657: Unfilial Descendants who Abandoned His Wife and Child

After Gong Tianhao returned to the capital, he did not see his grandfather, whom he had not seen for two years. Thus, he asked the butler in puzzlement, “Uncle Gong, where is grandfather?”

The Butler shook his head and said, “Eldest young master, I don’t know either. However, eldest young master, don’t worry. With Xiao Wang and Xiao Zhang by old master’s side, he is very safe.”

Gong Tianhao frowned. Of course, he knew that his grandfather was very safe. However, his grandfather hadn’t seen him for two years. Shouldn’t they have a touching reunion? But he came home, and his grandfather was gone.

“Cough cough...” Situ Xing, who was at the side, clenched his fist and coughed twice. “I think I know where the old master is.”

Gong Tianhao glared at him sharply and said sternly, "Then hurry up and tell me!"

Situ Xing looked around and lowered his head slightly. He said to Gong Tianhao, who was sitting in the wheelchair, "Boss, if I'm not wrong, the old master has probably gone to..." he did not say it directly. He pointed in a certain direction with his finger.

Gong Tianhao's face darkened when he heard that. He said unhappily, "Why is grandfather in such a hurry? Are they more important than his grandson?"

'Of course, they are!' Situ Xing thought to himself. But he didn't say that out loud. He did not want to upset his boss anymore. If Gong Tianhao was unhappy, he might really send Situ Xing to Africa.

After a moment of silence, Gong Tianhao ordered Situ Xing, "Situ Xing, I need to recover as soon as possible. Otherwise, you can go to Africa."

'All these threats...' Situ Xing said helplessly, "Boss, even if you send me to Africa this time, I can't do much. The recovery of the body must be made step by step. There is no shortcut."

The Butler said with a smile, "Young Master Situ, before the Old Master left, he asked me to give you something."

Situ Xing immediately asked curiously, "What is it?"

Butler Gong said, "The master didn't explain it to me. He just told me that you would understand once I bring it to you. Mr. Situ, please wait for a moment. I will bring it to you immediately."

Situ Xing nodded and said, "Oh. I'll have to trouble Uncle Gong."

A moment later, Situ Xing saw Butler Gong carrying two buckets of water over. His eyes immediately lit up, and he quickly ran over to take the water from the butler. He smiled and said, "Thank you, Uncle Gong!"

Butler Gong was puzzled as to why the two buckets of water were so valued by the old master and Situ Xing. The old master had given him a glass of this water to drink before. It was unusually sweet and refreshing.

Furthermore, he also realized that after drinking the water, he realized that his body was getting healthier. However, he had never asked about the water.

Situ Xing smiled so much that his eyes became two lines. He hugged the two buckets of water as if they were his precious treasures. He was very touched as he said, "The old master is really my soulmate. He actually left this for me."

Ever since Gong Tianhao woke up and learned that Gong Tianhao had really lost his memory, Situ Xing had never fed Gong Tianhao this water again. He only continued to give him the medicine.

Gong Tianhao looked at Situ Xing's silly smile and said somewhat speechlessly, "Isn't this just ordinary water? Look at how happy you are. You look like a fool."

Situ Xing shook his head and said, "Boss, you wouldn't understand even if I told you. It's because you've lost your memory. Uncle Gong, does the old master have anything else to say?"

Butler Gong said very seriously, "Yes, yes. The old master said he's not going to see the eldest young master before he regains his memory. He said that he doesn't have such an unfilial grandson who abandoned his wife and children."

Gong Tianhao, "..."

"Huh?!" Situ Xing was a little surprised. Then, he nodded and said very seriously, "Yes, in order to help the family reunite, I'll do my best to help the young master recover his memory."

Butler Gong smiled and said, "Then, thank you very much, young master Situ!"

Gong Tianhao, "... All of them have turned against me for the sake of one woman. But I have no memory of that woman at all. I know I wouldn't like any strange woman. But this woman is not simple. She has easily bought everyone around me.

Situ Xing then smiled and said to Butler Gong, "Uncle Gong, please push boss into the room. I will treat boss properly."

"Okay, Young Master Situ!" Butler Gong said with a smile.

After Butler Gong pushed Gong Tianhao into the rehabilitation room, Butler Gong left and closed the door.

Gong Tianhao glanced at Situ Xing, who was holding two buckets of water as if they were his precious treasures, and said calmly, "Tell me, what's with the water?"

Situ Xing was stunned for a moment and said, "What do you mean?"

Gong Tianhao said unhappily, "Situ Xing, you're still playing dumb. You know what I'm asking."

"Sigh." Situ Xing put the two buckets of water in his arms away, and his expression became serious. He said, "Boss, because you lost your memory, I can't tell you what's going on.

"But don't worry, this water is not ordinary water. It's celestial water. If you want to recover as soon as possible, you have to drink this water every day."

Gong Tianhao frowned and asked with some doubt, "So, this water is related to that woman, isn't it?"

Whether it was Situ Xing or his grandfather, they would only become more cautious when it was related to Xiao Lingyu.

Situ Xing remained silent.

This meant that it was indeed related to that woman.

Situ Xing sighed and said, "Boss, we shouldn't be the ones to tell you this secret. You'll either remember the secret, or sister-in-law will tell you again personally. Actually, even I can't tell you much because I don't know her secret."

Gong Tianhao immediately fell silent.

He felt as if his surroundings were under some kind of spell. Everywhere he went, there was Xiao Lingyu, that woman.

Situ Xing studied Gong Tianhao and said nothing. He took out a transparent crystal cup from his medicine box.

Then, he opened one of the buckets and filled the cup.

Situ Xing walked up to Gong Tianhao and handed the cup to him. "Boss, drink it first. After you drink it, you'll know more."

During Gong Tianhao's two years in country M, someone would send water over every once in a while. The transporter was definitely someone trusted by Old Master Gong.

Other than Situ Xing, no one knew Gong Tianhao's recovery had everything to do with this water. As for the aides that delivered the water, even though they were curious, they were trained not to ask too many questions.

Gong Tianhao looked at the water in the crystal cup. It was obviously no different from normal water, so why did Situ Xing and his grandfather treat it so special?

Gong Tianhao took the cup with a puzzled and curious heart and took a sip. Then, his eyes lit up, and he looked at Situ Xing in disbelief, "This water..."

As soon as he drank the water, he knew how special the water was.

Normal water was a colorless, tasteless, and transparent liquid.

However, this water was fresh and sweet. It also had a refreshing fragrance.

Situ Xing looked at Gong Tianhao and said very seriously, "Boss, you can recover from your vegetative state so quickly because of this water. This water can strengthen your body and cure all diseases. It even has the miraculous effect of rejuvenating your youth."

Gong Tianhao's pupils constricted. He could not help but reveal a shocked and incredulous expression.

Then, Situ Xing continued, "And only sister-in-law has this water." As for why Xiao Lingyu had it, Situ Xing didn't know. This was a secret that belonged to Xiao Lingyu.

Situ Xing thought for a moment and said, "Boss, do you think sister-in-law will still be safe if this kind of water is exposed?"

Gong Tianhao's pupils constricted again. The hand holding the cup trembled.

"So, sister-in-law needs a strong rock. That way, even if the secret is exposed, she'll still be safe." Situ Xing said this as he watched Gong Tianhao's expression change.

Gong Tianhao, "... Am I supposed to be that rock?"

Chapter 658: Welcome Back!

When Old Master Gong, Xiao Wang, and Xiao Zhang returned to Xing Yin County, Old Master Gong asked incredulously, "Xiao Wang, is this really Xing Yin County? Are you sure?"

"I clearly remember that two years ago, the roads in Xing Yin County weren't this wide, there weren't so many tall buildings, and there weren't so many pedestrians on both sides of the street. In short, I remember that Xing Yin County wasn't this bustling, right?"

Xiao Wang smiled and replied, "Old Master, this is Xing Yin County."

Old Master Gong said in surprise, "How can the place change so fast in two years?"

Xiao Zhang smiled and said, "Old Master, the reason why this place developed so quickly is all thanks to young madam. The rural tourism in the Taoyuan Village that she started is now popular all over the country.

"Every day, tourists from all over the country would visit the Taoyuan Village. Sometimes, there were as many as 200,000 to 300,000 people. Do you think that a small Taoyuan village can receive so many tourists?"

"Naturally, many of those tourists who came from afar chose to stay in the county hotel or stay in the nearby lodgings.

"As soon as the wave of visitors came, the county realized the roads weren't wide enough, and they didn't have enough hotels and restaurants. These were all business opportunities.

"So it was a rural village that has brought this change! Our Young Madam is really too capable."

Old Master Gong was very happy when he heard this.

He smiled very happily and said, "Haha, I knew that Yu 'Er was very capable, but I didn't expect her to be so capable. Not only did she become rich, but she also brought many people to become rich." He was happy to hear others praise his granddaughter-in-law.

"Xiao Lv, drive faster. I want to see what Taoyuan Village looks like now," Old Master Gong said happily.

"The village has changed greatly," Xiao Wang said. "In the past, Taoyuan Village was the poorest mountain village in the entire county, no, in the entire southern province.

"Now, Taoyuan Village is the richest village in the province!"

"Every family in Taoyuan Village has a new house. Many people have bought cars and have savings in the bank. Those young people who have gone out have returned to their villages to work."

Xiao Zhang echoed, "If they can earn money at home, who would be willing to leave their parents and children?"

Old Master Gong nodded, "That makes sense! Other than business owners, most people would definitely be willing to come home to accompany their parents and children. Moreover, the money earned in the village right now is no less than the money earned by working outside."

The few of them chatted all the way from Xing Yin County to Xing An town.

The old master looked outside and said with a sigh, "Xing An Town has changed even more."

“Of course. Xing An town is adjacent to Taoyuan Village. The closer the place is to Taoyuan Village, the bigger the change.”

“Not only Xing An Town but also a few villagers near Taoyuan Village have benefitted. Many tourists came to visit the other villages after seeing Taoyuan Village. So many villagers opened shop to sell local specialties.”

The more Old Master Gong heard, the happier he became. He kept nodding and saying, “Not bad, not bad!”

Xiao Wang and Xiao Zhang knew their old master was praising the young madam.

After all, all of this was thanks to the young madam.

“Old Master, look, we are almost at Taoyuan Village. There are so many people.” Xiao Wang looked ahead and couldn’t help but feel a little excited.

Two years ago, he followed the old master to Taoyuan Village and lived a very comfortable life. Mother Xiao’s cooking was amazing. And his old master’s health also got better. He became as energetic as a young man.

Xiao Zhang looked at the familiar road in front of him and the peach trees that had grown up on both sides, and his mood could not help but become excited.

“There are so many cars driving into the village. Is there a parking lot inside?” Xiao Zhang said with some confusion.

“There probably is. I remember that the wedding venue of the eldest young master was quite big. It can definitely be made into a parking lot.”

“Then let’s drive in and take a look first,” said Xiao Wang.

Xiao Zhang said somewhat speechlessly, “We can park in the Gong Family home. Why do you need to use the parking lot?”

Xiao Wang patted his head and said, “Hehe, how can I forget about that?” His eyes suddenly lit up. He pointed to the stone sign in front of the village and said excitedly, “Xiao Zhang, look, is that young madam and Auntie?”

Xiao Zhang looked and said excitedly, “It’s them, it’s young Madam and the others. Old Master, Young Madam and Auntie must be here to welcome you.”

Although Old Master Gong was already in his eighties, he drank spiritual spring water every day, ate well, slept soundly, and was in good health. His eyes weren’t blurry and his ears weren’t deaf.

Naturally, he saw the Xiao family waiting for him at the village entrance.

Everyone from the Xiao family was there. Old Master Gong was touched and grateful. He felt that no matter how great his achievements were on the battlefield, he was not as touched as he was now.

The closer the car got, the clearer he could see.

“Ah, is that the little young master?” Xiao Wang pointed at the child in Xiao Lingyu’s arms and said excitedly, “The little young master looks like the eldest young master!”

Xiao Zhang rolled his eyes and said somewhat speechlessly, “They are father and son, so it’s not strange that they look alike! However, the little young master looks fair and tender. He’s really beautiful and cute!”

“Yes, yes, the little young master is really beautiful and cute,” Xiao Wang echoed.

Old Master Gong looked at the child in Xiao Lingyu’s hands and couldn’t even blink.

This child... was his favorite great-grandson.

It had been more than two years, and now they could finally meet and even hug each other.

...

“Yu ‘Er, why isn’t the elder here yet? It was almost five o’clock.” Mother Xiao was obviously anxious. “Did something happen to them on the way?”

“Qiuying, don’t jinx it!” Grandma Xiao said seriously.

“Mom, I’m sorry!” Mother Xiao said sincerely.

Xiao Lingyu was sharp-eyed. She said, “Mom, they are already here. They are almost at the entrance of the village.”

“Is that true? That’s great. Zhengyang, quickly evacuate the tourists and hang up the firecrackers. We will welcome the in-laws back with a bang!” Grandma Xiao immediately ordered.

“Okay!”

Chapter 659: Grandfather and Grandson Meet!

“They’re coming,” everyone said excitedly when they finally saw Old Master Gong sitting in the car. “We can light the firecrackers now.”

Then, crackling sounds suddenly sounded at the intersection, stirring up the intense and exciting atmosphere.

The surrounding tourists were very curious when they heard the sudden firecrackers. Most of them stopped to watch and asked in puzzlement, “What kind of activity is going on here? It’s so lively.”

“I don’t know. But I’ve never heard of any project activity being added.”

“It seems like they’re welcoming a certain person.”

“It seems like it. Could it be that a big shot? Look at that beautiful woman carrying a child. I heard that she’s the big boss of the Peach Blossom Village!”

“Even the boss has come out to welcome them. It must be a big shot then.”

“Haha, then let’s go meet a big shot.”

Gong Zhen was indeed a big shot, but no one present knew much about him.

...

The Xiao Family didn't announce their plan to welcome Old Master Gong to the public. They didn't hide it either.

When someone asked, mother Xiao and grandmother Xiao directly said they were going to welcome their in-laws.

Wasn't their in-law Old Master Gong?

Old Master Gong was Taoyuan Village's benefactor.

Two years ago, because of young master Gong's car accident, Old Master Gong had left in a hurry. The villagers knew nothing beyond that.

When they heard that Old Master Gong was returning, other than being a little surprised at first, everyone quickly became excited and happy.

"Elder Gong is back. Let's go and welcome him together!"

After all, Elder Gong was a great benefactor to the villagers. The Gong family repaired the roads, and Xiao Lingyu was now the daughter-in-law of the Gong Family. The villagers had witnessed how wealthy the Gong family was. The wedding scene between Gong Tianhao and Xiao Lingyu was really shocking. Helicopters were flying above, scattering fresh flowers. There were many scenes that they had never seen before.

The villagers had a good life. They were even more unwilling to offend the wealthy Gong family.

Hence, apart from the Xiao family, there were also the villagers of Taoyuan Village who came to welcome Old Master Gong.

There were almost 200 households in peach blossom village. The welcoming party had reached over 1000 people. There were also many young people who had returned to the village. Most of the villagers had come to welcome Old Master Gong. Some didn't come because they really couldn't step away from their work.

Those tourists were really too curious.

Who was this person that could make the entire village come over to welcome him?

"Qiuying, is Master Gong really back?"

"Yes, that's right!" Mother Xiao replied with a smile. "Then did Young Master Gong come back with him?" Although Xiao Lingyu and Gong Tianhao were married, the villagers were still used to calling him Young Master Gong.

Mother Xiao shook her head and said, "Tianhao is still recovering from his injuries." Mother Xiao couldn't tell anyone that Gong Tianhao had lost his memory and had forgotten about Xiao Lingyu and her son.

“Oh, I see.” The villagers knew that Gong Tianhao was severely injured in the car accident. As for how he was severely injured and where he was treated, the villagers weren’t too sure.

“In any case, it’s great that Young Master Gong is fine now.”

“Yes, Tianhao is awake now. As long as he recuperates for a period of time, his body will recover,” Mother Xiao said with a smile.

“There’s only up from now. Young Master Gong will definitely have good fortune after surviving a great disaster.”

...

“He’s coming, he’s coming, the elder is coming.”

The black car approached. Those with sharp eyes could see the people in the car.

“Grandpa, the villagers of Taoyuan Village are here too.” Xiao Wang saw the villagers standing on both sides, obviously welcoming them. His heart was filled with unspeakable gratitude.

“The villagers are really too enthusiastic,” Xiao Zhang said.

Grandpa Gong looked at the scene outside and immediately warned, “Xiao Lv, drive slowly in case any child suddenly runs into the middle of the road.”

“Alright, Old Master!” Xiao Lv replied respectfully.

Soon, the car arrived at the village entrance and stopped.

The sound of firecrackers crackled outside.

Xiao Wang and Xiao Zhang got out of the car and then stood on both sides respectfully to help Old master out.

“Old Master, we’re here!”

Old Master Gong was sitting in the car with a walking stick in his hand. He looked very calm, but the hand holding the walking stick was clearly nervous and anxious.

At this moment, other than the sound of firecrackers that had just been extinguished, there was also the lingering smoke after the firecrackers. It was very quiet. Even the surrounding tourists seemed to be affected by this joyous and dense atmosphere. Everyone silently looked at the black car parked in the middle. People were curious, but they made sure to keep their questions to a whisper.

The Xiao family members stood two to three meters away from the car and looked at it with excitement. There were even some people whose eyes were sparkling with tears.

“Old Master!” Xiao Wang called out softly.

Old master Gong got out of the car with Xiao Wang’s help.

The moment Old Master Gong got out of the car, he looked around and then fixed his gaze on the Xiao family members. Most importantly, he fixed his gaze on the child in Xiao Lingyu’s hands.

The Xiao family walked over after elder Gong got out of the car.

Xiao Lingyu carried the child to Elder Gong and called out, "Grandfather!"

"Aye!" Old Master Gong nodded happily before turning his gaze to the child in Xiao Lingyu's arms.

Xiao Lingyu instructed his son, "Baby, greet your great-grandfather."

Xiao Letong looked at Old Master Gong with his big round eyes, but he revealed a puzzled and confused expression. He then called out happily, "Great-grandfather, give me a hug!"

After saying this, he opened his arms and asked Old Master Gong to hug him.

Grandfather Gong immediately responded excitedly and happily, "Aye, Tong Tong is really obedient. Come, let grandfather hug him!" After saying this, he released his walking stick and opened his arms, wanting to bring the child into his embrace.

Xiao Lingyu said, "Grandfather, Tong Tong is very heavy, you..." you should be careful.

Old Master Gong shook his head and said, "My body is still healthy, and I still have some strength. I can carry Tong Tong."

This was a descendant of the gong family and his great-grandson. However, as his great-grandfather, he had only hugged the child once after he was born and had never hugged him again. For the past two years, he had been thinking of hugging this child all the time.

Xiao Lingyu handed the child to grandfather gong and instructed the child, "Tong Tong, you have to be obedient and not move around carelessly. Great-grandfather is old and can't endure your struggles!"

Xiao Letong nodded obediently and said, "Yes. Great-grandfather, I'm very obedient and will definitely not move around carelessly."

"Haha, good!" Grandfather Gong laughed happily and said, "I know that Tong Tong is very obedient. Come, let great-grandfather hug you."

After saying this, Old Master Gong reached out and took Xiao Lingyu from Xiao Lingyu's hands. Looking at Xiao Tong's cute and fair little face, which was almost exactly the same as Gong Tianhao's when he was young, Old Master Gong was overjoyed.

Old Master Gong gently pinched Xiao Letong's little face and said with a smile, "Tong Tong, how old are you this year?"

Xiao Letong said with a smile, "Great-grandfather, I'm two years and three months old today."

"Oh, you're very clever," Old Master Gong said with a smile. "Does Xiao Tong listen to his seniors?"

Xiao Letong tilted his little head and looked at Old Master Gong seriously as he said, "Great-grandfather, you've already said that I'm the most obedient, so of course, I listen to my seniors."

"Haha..."

Old Master Gong hugged Xiao Tong for a moment before he felt that his arm was a little tired. However, he couldn't bear to let go of Xiao Tong.

Xiao Lingyu noticed grandfather Gong's discomfort, so she took Xiao Tong over and said, "Grandfather, you must be tired. Let me carry the child. There's plenty of time in the future. In the future, you and Xiao Tong will spend more and more time together."

"Hehe, Yu 'Er is right!" Old Master Gong immediately let go. "Come, Tong Tong, let your Mommy carry you."

Xiao Letong shook his head and said, "Great-grandfather, I'm already grown up. I don't need an adult to carry me. I can walk on my own."

Old Master Gong looked at the crowd and said worriedly, "But there are so many people here, and you're still so young..."

Xiao Letong said, "Great-grandfather, I will be careful. Don't worry. I can do it on my own."

Xiao Lingyu also said, "Grandfather, it's fine."

Old Master Gong directly placed Xiao Tong on the ground.

"In-law, you're finally here!" Soon after, the Xiao family members greeted Old Master Gong one by one. Many villagers also continuously greeted Old Master Gong.

The surrounding tourists, "..."

He was indeed a big shot. So he was the in-laws of the Big Boss.

Chapter 660: Xiao Lingyu

"Old Master, it's good that you're back!" The villagers said excitedly and enthusiastically.

Although they didn't know Old Master Gong's real identity, the helicopters that came and went in the past showed that the Gong Family's identity wasn't simple. Furthermore, they heard that he was from the capital. He was someone for them to look up to. Plus, Old Master Gong was someone who was truly worthy of respect.

Old Master Gong had done many things for Taoyuan Village, and the villagers were all grateful.

"Hello, everyone!" Old Master Gong greeted each and every one of these villagers.

"Brother Daguang, I remember that your granddaughter-in-law is pregnant. Did she give birth to a big boy?" The person called Brother Daguang said with a smile, "Brother Gong, I'm not as lucky as you. Lingyu gave birth to a grandson for you, but I have a little girl."

"Regardless of the gender, as long as they are born safely and grow up healthily, it's good enough," Elder Gong said with a smile.

"You're right. My great-granddaughter is now the light of my life." Brother Daguang said with a proud smile. "And there's another child coming!"

"Congratulations. That's a great blessing!" Old Master Gong said sincerely.

For the older generation, the more grandchildren they had, the better. However, for Old Master Gong, it didn't matter if they were boys or girls, as long as they were safe and healthy!

“Old brother Zhong, I remember that your family raised a few puppies. I even went to pick one up to raise. Where are the puppies now?” Old Master Gong asked with a smile.

Brother Zhong asked with a smile, “They’ve all been given away. I wanted to give one to you back then, but I thought that it wouldn’t be convenient for you to have a newborn child and a puppy at the same time. Brother Gong, you won’t blame me, right?”

Elder Gong shook his head with a smile and said, “You’re so considerate, so how can I blame you? But if your dog has another batch of puppies, this time, you must save one for me.”

“Of course, of course,” brother Zhong said with a smile. “No matter how many puppies you need, I’ll keep them for you!”

...

Just like that, on the way back to the Gong family, Old master Gong chatted with the villagers. He held a cane in one hand and his great-grandson in the other. Beside him were Xiao Lingyu, grandfather Xiao, and the others.

Old Master Gong looked at the scenery in the village and sighed. “Our village has changed a lot!”

Grandpa Xiao nodded, “It’s now a tourist destination, so how can it not change? Look at these houses, row after row. They’re all new houses that have been built. Many people have even bought houses in the city. Also, many people have bought cars.”

Old Master Gong smiled and said, “Everyone’s days are really getting better and better!”

“It’s all thanks to you, Elder Gong!” Many people immediately replied, “Our village has started to change ever since you came!”

In the eyes of many villagers, the Gong family was a wealthy family. When Xiao Lingyu married into it, she became the young mistress of a wealthy family.

If it weren’t for the car accident with Gong Tianhao, Xiao Lingyu might have already taken her son to the capital to live.

However, Xiao Lingyu’s stay in the Taoyuan Village had also helped the entire village become rich. Everyone was very grateful to Xiao Lingyu.

At the same time, she was the daughter-in-law of the Gong family. Naturally, they were also grateful to the Gong Family.

Old Master Gong smiled, “No, this is the result of everyone’s hard work.”

Old Master Gong suddenly stood still and looked around. He seemed to be deeply moved as he exclaimed, “Our village is becoming more and more beautiful. It has truly become a paradise.”

Thinking back, when he first came to Taoyuan Village, he saw many old houses and dilapidated houses. There were also villagers wearing all kinds of patched clothes.

The scenery of Taoyuan village was beautiful, but the villagers who lived in the village were the most primitive and simple.

Now, the old houses and dilapidated houses had all been repaired.

Some of them retained their old houses because it was a farm attraction. It allowed those who came from the big cities to see the simple old houses in the countryside.

The new houses were also built in a very simple style. Although there weren't carved railings or painted buildings, they were made of green bricks, glazed tiles, and red lacquered pillars. They fit the name of Taoyuan Village very well.

Old Master Gong asked in surprise, "What about the new design?"

The village chief said, "These houses were all built based on Lingyu's suggestion. She was the one who got people to design the houses, and she was also the one who got people to build them. That's why everyone's houses look so good. Moreover, these houses are integrated with the scenery of our village, making a good impression on the tourists."

The village chief was actually praising Xiao Lingyu in disguise.

Old Master Gong was even happier when he heard this. He did not hesitate to praise his granddaughter-in-law. "Yu 'Er has always considered the bigger picture when she does things."

Old Master Gong was most satisfied with the fact that he had gotten a granddaughter-in-law like Xiao Lingyu when he moved to Taoyuan Village.

A sensible, smart, and beautiful daughter-in-law who even managed to make his grandson fall in love with her.

Even though that Brat had lost his memory, Old Master Gong believed he would regain the memory soon. Otherwise... Old Master Gong would rather have a granddaughter-in-law and great-grandson over a grandson.

As for that grandson, he could do whatever he wanted.

Old Master Gong did not hide his love and satisfaction for Xiao Lingyu. Many villagers noted this and kept saying good things about Xiao Lingyu. Of course, they didn't lie.

The Gong family had done the villagers a favor, and Xiao Lingyu had done them a favor.

If not for Xiao Lingyu, would Taoyuan Village have become so rich? It would probably still be the poorest village.

When the Xiao family heard the villagers and Old Master Gong praising Xiao Lingyu, they felt very proud and honored to have a daughter like Xiao Lingyu.

Xiao Lingyu couldn't help but blush from the praise from the group. She said humbly, "Everyone is responsible for their own life. At most, I am just a guide."

Even the laziest family in the village would make some special products to sell in the scenic spots.

Every day, they would clean up the rooms that were given to the tourists so that they could live comfortably.

Now that the villagers were living better lives, they became more diligent.

After Taoyuan village was successfully developed, business was booming, and the number of tourists increased day by day.

In the second year, the entire village received dividends.

The village chief and Zhou Chengbang's family, who invested the most, received the most dividends. Each family received a dividend of 300,000. At first, they only invested 70,000 RMB.

Other than the land rent, they took out all of their family savings and bought shares from other villagers.

But now, the dividends had increased by several times. This was the first year, and there would be dividends every year in the future. Thinking of this, many people felt regretful.

Thankfully, most villagers had chosen to invest in the shares back then. Only a few people were too narrow-minded. They were constrained by their current interests and were hesitant to invest, so they chose to give up.

Therefore, when they saw the villagers who had invested got dividends of tens of thousands, they felt regretful.

But it was useless. They had sold their shares to others, and they had signed a contract.

Even if they wanted to get back those shares, it was unlikely. The future was filled with uncertainty. How could a person not take risks but expect to enjoy the fruits?

However, some people still had thick skin. They went to make a scene.

In the end, Xiao Lingyu and the village committee came together. If these people continued to make a scene, they would be evicted from Taoyuan Village. They would have nothing to do with Taoyuan Village anymore. That finally quieted the troublemakers.

Xiao Lingyu would often bring everyone to get rich with her. Of course, it was also to facilitate the expansion of her own business.

If she was the only rich person in the village, other people would get jealous. Jealousy could push people to do crazy things. What was more frightening was that jealousy would often produce a devil.

In order to prevent those devils from causing trouble, Xiao Lingyu was willing to lead the villagers to earn more money together.

Of course, she only provided the opportunity. Whether they would grab the opportunity was not her problem. Everyone was given the same chance.

Therefore, Xiao Lingyu would not be merciful and forgiving to the villagers who did not cherish the opportunity and tried to vent their anger on her.

Her principle was always: If you don't offend me, I won't offend you!

She had always been very strict with the villagers who caused trouble. From the time she had called the police to arrest Zhang Xiaolan for setting the fire to the time she had called the police to arrest Zhang

Chunjiao, it was clear that she was not a soft-hearted person. These people pleaded with Xiao Lingyu to return the shares to them. It was simply impossible!

Of course, they could buy the shares back from her. However, it was at the current market price. Due to the successful development of the Taoyuan Village, the value had soared, reaching 200,000 to 300,000 per share. So, as long as they took out the money, she would sell them the shares back.

Obviously, the villagers didn't have that much money. Therefore, they could only focus on their small businesses. Of course, even small businesses would earn a few thousand every month.

That was still better than being chased out of the village.

Therefore, the troublemakers could only settle down quietly.

Xiao Lingyu played a huge part in the harmony of the village. Xiao Lingyu was very loyal, but she was no fool. It was unclear when the villagers became afraid of Xiao Lingyu.

Were they intimidated by her?

Actually, to most of the villagers, Xiao Lingyu had become the leader of the entire village. The majority respected her from the bottom of their hearts.

Therefore, everyone would carry out the orders given by Xiao Lingyu. Not many people dared to do things behind her back anymore.

Old Master Gong turned to look at Xiao Lingyu and said very kindly with a heartache, "Yu 'Er, it's been hard on you these two years!"

She had to endure the pain of not seeing her husband, and she had to work with so many troubling people and develop a whole village.

She was not defeated by difficulties and setbacks, and she became stronger because of them.
