

Chapter 791: Background

“Director Zhang, director Zhang, the person-in-charge of Taoyuan Farm, Xiao Lingyu, has brought people here again,” the Secretary reported to Director Zhang.

When director Zhang heard Xiao Lingyu’s name, his face burned with anger. He shouted, “Tell her to scram! Tell her that even if our Phoenix farm villa declares bankruptcy, we will never sell it to her!”

When the secretary heard that, he did not leave. Instead, he looked hesitantly at Chairman Zhang, who did not speak.

Chairman Zhang nodded and said, “Yes, let them in!”

“Dad!” Zhang Yunkui cried out in surprise.

Chairman Zhang’s sharp eyes swept over him indifferently. With a slightly displeased expression, he said, “Zhang Yunkui, don’t tell me that you still can’t see the big picture?”

Zhang Yunkui immediately frowned and asked in surprise, “Father, don’t tell me that you really want to sell Phoenix villa to Taoyuan Village? You must know that if it weren’t for Taoyuan Village, we wouldn’t be in this state at all.”

“So?” Zhang Da’s face was expressionless as he asked indifferently, “You wouldn’t sell this place to her even if you were to lose one to two hundred million?”

Zhang Yunkui opened his mouth, not knowing how to retort.

“So, Zhang Yunkui, do you have a grudge against the Taoyuan village or the more than ten shareholders of Phoenix Villa, or do you have a grudge against money?” Chairman Zhang asked sharply, “Hmph, let me tell you, at this point, other than the Taoyuan Village, I’m afraid no one would be interested in Phoenix Villa.”

Zhang Yunkui, “...” He hated Taoyuan Village with all his heart. Even if Phoenix Villa were to rot in his hands, he wouldn’t give it to his enemy.

“Moreover, the Phoenix Villa is on the verge of bankruptcy and has no choice but to sell it. A large part of the responsibility lies in poor management.” Chairman Zhang suddenly criticized sharply, “Phoenix Farm Villa has been established for twelve years. Four years ago, it was still the number one farm in the country. It enjoyed a huge reputation and passenger flow. Its turnover reached tens of millions in a day. The company made a lot of money, and all the shareholders were laughing with joy.

“However, after you took over the resort, for the first year, we have a 10 to 20 percent increase in profit. However, this doesn’t come from an increased customer flow. Instead, it is a tightening of costs, such as reducing employees’ salaries and raising the price of the tickets.”

Zhang Yunkui’s face turned pale. With a fearful and nervous expression, he called out, “Dad!”

Chairman Zhang waved his hand and continued, "However, business is war. When the Taoyuan Village came into being, it exposed the holes in your management model. This caused the reputation of the Phoenix farm villa to quickly decline. At this time, not only did you not reflect on yourself, but you also pushed the responsibility to the Taoyuan Village and even thought of that dirty trick.

"Zhang Yunkui, you asked for this to happen.

"Ever since we released our intention to sell this place, many big bosses had taken a liking to this land. However, the prices offered are extremely low. They want to buy this land which is worth 100 to 200 million for 10 million. It's funny."

When Zhang Yunkui heard this, he opened his mouth and asked with an extremely pale face, "Dad, you clearly know that my management style was wrong. Why didn't you correct me?" His heart was already trembling with fear.

Chairman Zhang looked at him coldly, "Don't call me that. I'm not your dad."

Zhang Yunkui's expression immediately changed, and then he nervously and uneasily shouted, "No, you're my dad!"

"Hmph, you're just a bastard!" Chairman Zhang suddenly changed his face and said, "You're just a bastard who came when your mother slept with your uncle."

Zhang Yunkui was instantly stunned.

He had never expected that his most respected father would suddenly turn against him. What made him most terrified and afraid was the sudden exposure to his background.

Chairman Zhang looked at Zhang Yunkui, who looked as if he had suffered a great blow. He sneered and said, "They betrayed me, but they want me to raise their son for them. I certainly did a good job. He is arrogant and ambitious and easily offends others. Such a son will sooner or later commit a crime. When that time comes, I want to see what that adulterous couple will do. I want them to live their lives in regret."

Zhang Yunkui's face was pale, and his entire body instantly collapsed to the ground.

He did not expect that he would have such an unknown background.

He finally understood why his father was so distant whenever he called him dad when he was growing up.

Zhang Yunkui had suffered too much shock. He did not even know when Xiao Lingyu had entered the chairman's office. He just sat on the ground in a daze.

...

Xiao Lingyu had sharp ears and sharp eyes. Even when she was tens of meters away, she had accidentally heard about the legendary life of the general manager of Phoenix Resort.

However, she was here today to discuss matters, not to meddle in other people's business.

When Xiao Lingyu walked into the office, Chairman Zhang was stunned by her beauty and figure, as well as her imposing manner.

He had always heard that the general manager of Taoyuan Village was a very beautiful woman. Now that he had seen her, he was still shocked.

He quickly reacted. He stretched out his hand and said with a smile, "Director Xiao, it's nice to meet you!"

Chapter 792: Revenge on the Spot!

Xiao Lingyu had come to the Phoenix villa to look for the managers. She had never expected to hear such a melodramatic story here.

Previously, she had asked someone to contact the manager, Zhang Yunkui, but he had rejected her. This time, she had come personally.

"150 million. On behalf of all the shareholders, I agree to sell Phoenix Villa to you!" Chairman Zhang said with a smile like an old fox.

Xiao Lingyu said with a smile, "Chairman Zhang, as expected of a businessman. You won't suffer any losses."

After that, the two of them bargained over the price. In the end, Xiao Lingyu took down Phoenix Villa for 120 million. Actually, Phoenix Villa was worth about that much in its current state.

Chairman Zhang had another request, and that was to try to keep the old employees of the resort. Some of the old employees had been with the villa from the very beginning. They had worked here for decades.

Those people were already used to working at Phoenix Villa, and they were also very conscientious in their work.

Xiao Lingyu smiled and said, "Chairman Zhang, don't worry. As long as these employees have good character, I will definitely keep them."

The first thing she looked for in hiring people was the character. These people stayed loyal to Phoenix Villa from the start to the end, so their character shouldn't be a big problem.

Of course, she couldn't rule out the possibility that there were only one or two bad apples. She would have to go and appraise them.

Chairman Zhang's expression relaxed a little. He said, "I've always heard that when Green Fresh recruits people, the first thing they look at is the character."

Xiao Lingyu nodded.

Chairman Zhang then said, "Don't worry, director Xiao. These old employees have no problems with their character. Of course, director Xiao can also go and investigate on her own. If there's anything that requires our cooperation, just let us know!"

.....

“Thank you, Chairman Zhang!” Xiao Lingyu smiled and thanked him.

Zhang Yunkui, who had been sitting on the ground listening to their discussion, had a stunned expression on his face. He was in a daze as if he had received a huge blow and shock.

Well, he had never expected that the father he had called for more than 30 years was actually not his biological father but the product of his mother’s infidelity. And she had to cheat on his uncle!

To his father, this was a huge betrayal and a huge injury. If it were any other man, he would probably have collapsed.

However, Chairman Zhang was vicious. Instead, he took revenge slowly. He raised a useless son as an act of revenge instead.

Zhang Yunkui cried and laughed.

Xiao Lingyu, who was about to leave, saw this and asked Chairman Zhang, “Chairman Zhang, is he alright?”

She used to think that Zhang Yunkui was arrogant and annoying. However, he was not someone she was close to, and she did not have much interaction with him. Naturally, she did not pay much attention to him.

Now that she had heard the man’s melodramatic background, she felt a little sympathy for the man.

Chairman Zhang coldly glanced at Zhang Yunkui and said expressionlessly, “It’s fine. Sorry for letting President Xiao see this.”

Xiao Lingyu did not want to meddle in other people’s business. She said to chairman Zhang, “Chairman Zhang, I still have something to do. I’ll be leaving first!”

Chairman Zhang invited, “President Xiao came from afar. I should welcome you and treat you to a meal.”

Xiao Lingyu shook her head and said, “No need, Chairman Zhang. I really have something important to do. Next time, I’ll treat Chairman Zhang to a meal!”

“Alright then!” Chairman Zhang said with a smile.

Xiao Lingyu left the office with her secretary.

At this moment, Zhang Yunkui, who was sitting on the ground, suddenly stood up and rushed towards Xiao Lingyu like a madman. His voice was filled with madness and despair as he shouted, “Damn woman, go to hell!”

The secretary was stunned and could not react at all.

Chairman Zhang reacted, but it was too late. He could not stop Zhang Yunkui from rushing toward Xiao Lingyu.

Xiao Lingyu was now a person with special abilities. When Zhang Yunkui shouted and rushed towards her, she had already sensed the direction of the wind. All she had to do was to avoid the blow.

Zhang Yunkui wanted to assault Xiao Lingyu. Zhang Yunkui was a 160-to 70-pound man. He was also angry and ruthless. He planned to smash Xiao Lingyu's head to the ground. This would lead to severe concussions. He meant to injure or even kill Xiao Lingyu.

"Bitch, go to hell!" Zhang Yunkui roared again.

Seeing that he was about to hit Xiao Lingyu, the secretary cried out in shock, "Ah!"

However, no one expected Xiao Lingyu would easily dodge it.

Zhang Yunkui charged forward. He was propelled forward by inertia. Xiao Lingyu sidestepped the man easily. Zhang Yunkui was unable to stop because of inertia. The force of the impact made him continue charging forward. Then, with a bang, his head hit the wall.

His head immediately cracked, and blood flowed out. There was also a swollen bump.

His body staggered, and he fell to the ground. He saw stars, and his head was dizzy.

"President Xiao, are you okay?" Xiao Lingyu's secretary finally reacted and immediately supported Xiao Lingyu and asked with concern.

Xiao Lingyu touched her shoulder, shook her head, and said, "I'm fine."

Seeing that Xiao Lingyu was really fine, the secretary let out a deep breath. Then, she scolded Zhang Yunkui angrily, "Zhang Yunkui, are you crazy? Our president Xiao has no grudges against you. Why do you want to hurt her?"

Zhang Yunkui's head was hurt by the impact. Waves of dizziness and pain came. He could only hear the buzzing in his ears and not the secretary's scolding.

At this moment, Chairman Zhang angrily raised his hand and slapped Zhang Yunkui's face. He shouted coldly and angrily, "Bastard!"

Zhang Yunkui's eyes were sparkling from the slap, and his head felt even dizzier.

At this moment, Xiao Lingyu said, "Chairman Zhang, director Zhang's behavior is a crime of intentional injury, right?"

Although she wasn't hurt, his motive for hurting her was clear.

"That's right!" Chairman Zhang nodded.

"Then I'll call the police. Chairman Zhang shouldn't have any objections, right?" Xiao Lingyu asked sharply. Xiao Lingyu only retaliated when someone offended her.

He and Zhang Yunkui only had a small business dispute and didn't have any deep enmity. However, this person wanted to kill her.

Did she look like she was so easy to bully?

Chairman Zhang was slightly stunned. Then, he nodded and said, "No problem!"

After Xiao Lingyu called the police, Zhang Yunkui was taken away on the spot. With Chairman Zhang as a witness, the police department did not care whether the victim was hurt or not. They just took the culprit away.

As for Zhang Yunkui's outcome... With Xiao Lingyu's husband watching over the scene, he wouldn't be seeing the sun any time soon.

Chapter 793: Spending Money Like Water!

After the Phoenix Villa was taken over by Xiao Lingyu, she immediately changed its name to Phoenix Ridge Green Fresh Farm.

The place was named according to its location just like Taoyuan Village.

After changing its name, Phoenix Farm immediately carried out a reform. Back then, the Phoenix Villa had bought two mountains to use as tourist attractions. The Phoenix Villa had been in the business for more than a decade. Therefore, the area it occupied was not less than that of Taoyuan village. Xiao Lingyu felt that there was no need to expand.

However, there were not enough mountains. The two existing mountains were used as tourist destinations. Xiao Lingyu needed more mountains to plant fruit trees.

Xiao Lingyu sent Xiang Guohua, Zhang Lele, and others to investigate the surrounding geographical environment.

Phoenix Ridge Farm was undergoing changes in an orderly manner.

At the same time, the public relations department of the Taoyuan Village Green Fresh group released relevant information, announcing that Phoenix Villa had been acquired by Taoyuan Village and was now a branch of the farm. At the same time, it was renamed Phoenix Ridge Green Fresh Farm. Phoenix Ridge Green Fresh Farm was now undergoing a comprehensive transformation. It would open for business at 8:08 on March 16th.

Once this news was released, it caused a huge sensation in the tourism industry.

"Damn. Phoenix Villa has been sold to Taoyuan Village Green Fresh Group. Is this news true?"

"It must be true. Didn't you see that this news was officially released by the Taoyuan Village Green Fresh Group?"

"Fate is really fickle. Phoenix Villa used to be the number one farm in the country. But now it has been acquired."

"This is their own doing. Ever since Taoyuan Village appeared, Phoenix Villa's business had dropped. However, they were still able to survive. But, they wanted to go and frame Taoyuan Village. They used despicable methods to try to bring down the other party, but in the end, they were the ones who were being bought out. This is really funny. This is a typical case of shooting yourself in the foot."

"I wonder how Phoenix Villa will change. Will it be like Taoyuan Village?"

“This shouldn’t be too different. Taoyuan Village’s Farm is famous for its paradise view. Could Phoenix Ridge Farm end up as another paradise?”

“Why not? It’d be run by the same company.”

“I heard that they will plant lychees in Phoenix Ridge Farm and will probably grow a large number of lychee trees. Green Fresh Group has already sent people to prepare for it.”

“Wow. Lychee flowers might not be as pretty as peach blossoms, but they are extremely fragrant.”

“Now, I’m getting interested.”

The netizens on the internet were discussing fervently on the forums. On this side, Xiang Guohua and Zhang Lele reported the situation to Xiao Lingyu.

“President Xiao, this is the report!” Xiang Guohua reported very seriously.

After Xiao Lingyu heard their report, he asked them directly, “Which mountains do you think have development value?”

Xiang Guohua and Zhang Lele were shocked. They immediately understood that Xiao Lingyu was testing their ability and boldness.

After Xiang Guohua and Zhang Lele looked at each other, Xiang Guohua took out a simple map and pointed it out one by one. He said very seriously, “These mountains are all surrounding Phoenix Ridge in the form of natural protection. Phoenix Ridge Farm will follow the model of Taoyuan Village. Therefore, these mountains mustn’t be too far away, or the tourists wouldn’t be able to visit all of them in a day...” Xiang Guohua explained the various reasons for choosing these few mountains.

Xiao Lingyu nodded and said with some satisfaction, “You did a good job this time.”

Xiang Guohua’s eyes lit up, and he said humbly, “Thank you for your praise, President Xiao. I’m just learning from the seniors in the company.”

They had been in the Peach Blossom Village’s Green Fresh Group for a long time. Since President Xiao had handed this job to them, it was obvious that she wanted to promote and nurture them.

If they didn’t even have the ability, Xiao Lingyu would probably send them back to their original posts.

Xiao Lingyu smiled and said, “You’re quite humble. Not bad, keep it up!”

Following that, they discussed the rental of these few mountains and the migration of the villagers.

Of course, the matter of these few mountains probably wouldn’t be as smooth as Taoyuan village. Taoyuan Village was Xiao Lingyu’s hometown after all, and most of the villagers trusted Xiao Lingyu.

But it was different here. Green Fresh Group was quite famous, but not every villager knew about it.

Therefore, the matter of moving the villagers near the foot of the mountain became the most troublesome and time-consuming matter.

Xiao Lingyu's plan was to plant all kinds of plants on the original farmland in Phoenix Ridge. The original Phoenix Villa was slightly smaller than the Taoyuan Village. It occupied about 200 hectares, which was equivalent to about 3,000 mu of land.

After that, Xiao Lingyu asked people to plan out the land for planting crops. Then, she immediately asked people to plant vegetables, potatoes, and other crops.

The fertilizer used to irrigate this land was barrels of transparent liquid transported from the Taoyuan Village. It was said that the vegetables grown in the Taoyuan village relied on these things.

No one doubted it!

The vegetables and fruits produced in the Taoyuan Village were all well-known throughout the country. They were truly the fruits and vegetables of the nobility. Not only were they expensive, but they also sold very well. There were nearly 50 chain stores in the country.

These 50 chain stores were all located in big cities.

All kinds of seeds were transported from Taoyuan Village.

There were also all kinds of technicians who were also sent over.

"This liquid is prepared in proportion. One kilogram of liquid is mixed with 300 kilograms of water," the technician said to the worker very seriously.

When the worker heard this, he was a little dumbfounded. He asked in a daze, "Does that mean we have to mix it every time we need to irrigate a new land? But there are so many plots to irrigate!"

"..." The technician said, "There is no need to do that. The pool we designed and built has water lines. You just need to follow them accurately. Plus, there are specialized personnels who will check this regularly. You don't have to worry about it."

When the worker heard that, he immediately replied, "Oh, is that so?"

Then, someone asked curiously, "Master Li, what exactly is this transparent liquid? Why is it so mysterious?"

The technician glanced at him and said indifferently, "This is a trade secret. Don't ask." He didn't know the answer either. He did what the higher-ups ordered him to do. But he knew that this transparent liquid was the most important reason why the vegetables and fruits tasted so good.

Because Phoenix Ridge Farm was the first farm Xiao Lingyu contracted outside of Xing An Town, she supervised it personally with the help of Xiang Guohua and Zhang Lele. She spent most of her time following the process at the farm.

She also had to secure more farms in the other six regions in China.

Since she planned to have farms in different regions, then she would open more supermarket chains.

Xiao Lingyu was so busy.

She was a decisive person. Since she already had a strategic plan, she had to implement and develop it as soon as possible.

She bought the Phoenix Villa with 120 million. Then, she spent 500 to 600 million in one go on all sorts of renovation measures, including renting the mountain, moving the villagers, renting the shops, and so on. The money flowed like water. She spent even more money to establish Green Fresh farms all over the country.

Even though she had a daily profit of 15 million a day, her expenditure was very high.

The Taoyuan Village Green Fresh Group had enough funds on its own and didn't owe the bank a loan or anything.

The finance director reported to Xiao Lingyu, "CEO Xiao, there's only 1.5 billion left on the books."

Xiao Lingyu flipped through the books and sighed, "Only 1.5 billion left. Okay, I got it. You can leave now."

The finance director opened her mouth, wanting to say something, but in the end, she only said one word, "Okay!"

After the finance director left, Xiao Lingyu gave a wry smile.

"It seems that no matter how much money there is, it will run out eventually." One changed their targets based on one's financial situation.

In the past, her simplest wish was to study hard, enter university, find a good job, and share the burden with her parents.

Later, her wish became to farm and sell vegetables and set up a vegetable farm.

Later, her wish became to sell her vegetables and fruits all over the country.

However, people were never satisfied.

The more they earned, the more they felt like they needed money.

There was another billion in the account, but at the rate she was spending money, she would probably spend it in less than a month.

'Perhaps it's time to borrow some money.'

Chapter 794: Kindergarten

In just half a year, Xiao Lingyu built a farm in seven regions of China. Every farm had its own characteristics.

Of course, other than being a tourist attraction, these farms were used to grow vegetables, grains, and fruits.

Xiao Lingyu's investment in these farms had already reached tens of billions.

After all, not every place had ready-made conditions like Phoenix Ridge. The other farms needed to be built from the ground up. It required time, effort, and cost.

However, this also meant that they were relatively remote. The cost of buying land or renting land was a lot less than that of the city. The compensation given to the farmers for their relocation was much lesser than otherwise. Of course, Xiao Lingyu didn't take advantage of anyone. She was merely paying according to the market price.

Xiao Lingyu was a merchant. She wasn't to go around printing money to give the locals as compensation for relocating.

To put it bluntly, she wasn't a saint. Why would she give them so much money? Was it because they were poor?

Of course, there were many disputes during the construction process, especially when the villagers felt that the compensation was too little.

Of course, unless these matters could not be resolved, Xiao Lingyu would leave it to the person in charge to handle them.

If she handled everything on her own, why would she hire so many people at her company?

The farms were built. As for the planting, the spring water and seeds were transported from Taoyuan Village. Even if many people had doubts, they knew that this was a trade secret.

They guessed that this transparent liquid was the secret that made these vegetables and fruits taste unique. However, they had no way of knowing what this transparent liquid was.

Perhaps one day, this secret would be exposed, but when that day came, Xiao Lingyu would have made a fortune already.

.....

Once the farms were ready for the harvest, it was time to sell. Each fruit and vegetable had its production cycles.

Even if the growth cycle could be shortened due to the effect of the spiritual spring water, it would still take at least two to three months to produce a large number of them.

In this buffer period of two to three months, it was time to choose the location of the supermarkets.

Xiao Lingyu chose to open the chains in big cities close to the farms. No matter how poor the county was, there would be rich people.

Xiao Lingyu's goal was to open a supermarket chain in every city. Therefore, she was not opening one or two chains but more than a hundred of them. Naturally, this would require a large sum of money.

However, whether it was buying or renting, the cost of opening a supermarket store was much lower compared to investing in a farm. The biggest problem was the recruitment of employees.

Green Fresh Supermarket always looked for employees with good character and ability. However, it was hard to tell a person's character in a short amount of time.

Due to Taoyuan Village and Green Fresh's reputation, many people queued up to apply when they heard the news. Whether it was for ordinary employees or high-level executives, many people came to apply.

Some of them just came for food.

After all, they had heard about how delicious the things in the supermarkets were. However, the stock at the supermarket was not cheap. The rich and powerful could afford to buy them daily but not the normal citizens. Therefore, if they wanted to eat them daily, the best solution was to become an employee there. This was because the supermarkets had their own canteens. The canteens provided food cooked with vegetables sourced from the supermarkets. To have this delicious food daily, even if the salary was lower, they were willing. Furthermore, Green Fresh was famous for its good treatment and benefits for its employees.

The basic salary and commission of the ordinary employees of the supermarket reached four to five thousand a month, which was almost double the salary of other supermarket employees.

Also, the Taoyuan Village Green Fresh supermarket's employees had shorter working shifts than other supermarkets. It went from six-thirty in the morning to one-thirty in the afternoon, seven hours per day.

Who wouldn't want to go to a place that had fewer working hours, good pay, and high wages?

Of course, Green Fresh wouldn't hire people casually. It was very good to get a job at the supermarkets.

Many people were lucky enough to get in, but after a period of time, they might be fired.

Then, everyone in the industry would know that these people had bad morals. The employees at Green Fresh would be given a chance if they made a technical mistake. However, they would be fired instantly if they had bad characters. As for the standard used by Green Fresh for hiring and firing people, only the people in charge would know.

"President Xiao, the general managers of the supermarkets have reported the recruitment situation." Xiao Lingyu's secretary gave the report to Xiao Lingyu.

Xiao Lingyu quickly flipped through the report, then nodded and said, "Yes, you did very well. Pass the message on and train these employees as soon as possible."

"Yes, President Xiao!" The Secretary replied.

The Secretary had just reached the door when she saw Gong Tianhao coming in. Her body trembled for a moment, then she called out very respectfully, "Mr. Gong!"

Gong Tianhao only nodded slightly and walked straight to the office.

When Xiao Lingyu saw Gong Tianhao come in, her eyes lit up, and she said happily, "Hubby, why are you here?"

Gong Tianhao smiled and said, "I haven't seen my wife for a long time. Is it not okay for me to come to see my wife?"

After saying that, he walked behind Xiao Lingyu and extended his broad hands to her shoulders. Then, he massaged her skillfully.

He looked at the fatigue on Xiao Lingyu's face and said with heartache, "Yu 'Er, I know you're very busy, but you have to rest. Look, your eyelids are turning blue. How much sleep are you getting every day?" At this point, he did not wait for Xiao Lingyu's reply and said, "No, it looks like I have to come back and supervise you every day. Otherwise, you'll work yourself to death!"

Xiao Lingyu leaned back in her chair and closed her eyes to enjoy the massage from her husband. She smiled and said, "You call me every night from nine o'clock and video calls me to supervise me to rest. How is it possible that I don't have enough sleep?"

Gong Tianhao said, "You clearly don't notice your dark circles. It's obviously caused by lack of sleep."

Xiao Lingyu took a small mirror from the drawer in her office and opened it. She looked at it and touched the spot where the dark circles were. She smiled helplessly and said, "They are really heavy."

"..." Gong Tianhao said with heartache, "Yu 'Er, you can take things one step at a time. There's no need to work so hard. You're doing very well now. In just three to four years, you've grown from a small and unremarkable company to a large company worth ten billion. That's already very impressive."

Xiao Lingyu said with a smile, "I have a secret space and a rich husband. If I don't have the results I have today, I would be a very useless person."

Gong Tianhao, "..."

"Oh, right, hubby, why did you come back all of a sudden?" Xiao Lingyu asked.

Gong Tianhao stopped what he was doing. He said helplessly, "This afternoon is our son's kindergarten parent-child activity day. We need to participate in it. Did you forget?"

Xiao Lingyu rubbed her forehead when she heard that. She said with some self-blame, "Oh, right. I almost forgot if you didn't mention it. Our son even reminded me in the morning. Both parents need to be there." She sighed again. "Time really flies. In the blink of an eye, our son and Ling 'Er have entered kindergarten for almost a semester already. Do you still remember the scene of our son entering kindergarten on his first day?"

...

After the new year, Xiao Letong and Xiao Ling would be three years old and could meet the conditions to enter kindergarten. After some discussion, the family felt that it was better to send the two children to kindergarten.

Although Tong Tong was a child prodigy and could read and write expertly, he would find his company in kindergarten.

Tong Tong seemed to be sensible and obedient, but he still needed a happy childhood, and kindergarten was the source of happiness.

"I'm not going!" Xiao Letong refused to go to kindergarten.

He was not a real child but an old monster who had lived for thousands of years.

He felt goosebumps all over his body just thinking about playing with a group of little kids who could only cry and yell and look for their parents.

No, he didn't want to play with a group of little kids.

No matter how the adults tried to persuade him, Xiao Letong refused.

But...

"Brother, I want to go to kindergarten." Xiao Ling carefully pulled Xiao Letong's sleeve and said in a low voice, "I want to play with the children!"

Xiao Ling and Xiao Letong were at the opposite age of maturity.

Xiao Ling could now return to the appearance of a teenager, but his mind was still as pure as a child's. When he heard that he could play with many children at the kindergarten, he was immediately intrigued.

Xiao Letong looked at his little brother, who was looking at him with hope. He could only sigh softly and smile, "Okay. I'll go with you."

Xiao Ling was too innocent. If he didn't follow him, he wouldn't be at ease.

All the adults, "..."

They had been trying their best to persuade him for a few days, but it was not as good as Xiao Ling's words.

If they had known earlier, they would have just let Xiao Ling persuade Tong Tong.

Later on, the two children happily went to kindergarten.

Chapter 795: Kindergarten

"Our son is really different from the rest." Xiao Lingyu leaned against Gong Tianhao's chest and thought about the first day when she sent her two children to kindergarten.

"The other children were all crying. They really didn't want to part with their parents and family," Xiao Lingyu said with a smile, "Our Tong Tong stands out among a group of children. He looks at these children with a cold and arrogant expression. The kindergarten teacher asked him curiously, 'Why aren't you crying?' He only replied indifferently, 'Childish!...'"

At this point, Xiao Lingyu suddenly thought of something and said, "Speaking of which, grandfather said that you were almost the same when you entered kindergarten for the first day."

Gong Tianhao smiled and said, "We are father and son. Isn't it normal for the son to resemble his father?"

Xiao Lingyu nodded and then frowned slightly. She asked with a slightly puzzled expression, "Tianhao, don't you think that our son is a little too sensible and too clever for his age?"

Only now did Xiao Lingyu realize that her son, Xiao Letong, seemed to be a little different from the rest.

When he was just born, other than urinating and pooping when he was hungry, he would only mumble a few words. Usually, he would not cry or shout.

Moreover, he had his own system to notify others of his condition. He would make one 'mm' sound if he was hungry, two 'mm' sound if he wanted to pee, and three 'mm' sound if he wanted to poop. Through that, he could communicate with his family.

After three to four months, he seemed to be very resistant to breast milk. He preferred milk powder and supplementary food. However, the elderly believed that breast milk was better than milk powder. Even if Tong Tong did not want to eat it, he had to eat at least one meal a day.

Now that Xiao Lingyu thought about it, she seemed to see slight helplessness in her son's expression back then.

Later on, the older her son was, the more abnormal his behavior became. He could speak at six months, run at ten months, read and read at one year old, and then display extraordinary talent. He had a photographic memory and was good at handling interpersonal relationships.

Thinking about it now, Xiao Lingyu realized that her son was not ordinary.

In her previous life, although she did not spend a day with her son, she knew from her parents that although Tong Tong was a little smarter than his peers, he was only a little smarter. He was not a heaven-defying genius.

.....

But the current Tong Tong seemed to have a mystery that she could not see through.

All of a sudden, Xiao Lingyu started to panic.

She was worried that this Tong Tong was not the same as the Tong Tong from her previous life...

Gong Tianhao saw the change in his wife's expression and immediately held her hands. He comforted her, "Yu 'Er, Tong Tong is extremely smart. However, no matter how talented he is, he is still our son."

From the first day Tong Tong was born, he realized that his son was different. He seemed to reject him as a father and was even more attached to his mother.

At that time, he guessed that Tong Tong might have been reborn. He tried to probe, and he realized his guess was correct. However, before he could figure out how to deal with it, he was separated from his son for a few years due to a car accident.

When he saw his son grow up, he wanted to communicate with him, but...

Xiao Lingyu nodded, "I know that Tong Tong is our son. However, I..."

Gong Tianhao immediately placed his mouth on her lips and said truthfully, "Yu 'Er, listen to me. Actually, Tong Tong... is the same as you. He is reborn too."

"What?" Xiao Lingyu's eyes widened, and she was extremely shocked. She said in disbelief, "How... is that possible?"

Gong Tianhao said, "When he was born, I felt that there was something different about him. After that, I tested him and confirmed the result. However, before I could continue to communicate with him and tell you about it, the car accident happened."

Xiao Lingyu was stunned!

Chapter 796: Aloof and Imposing Children

Xiao Letong and Xiao Ling were in the same kindergarten and the same class.

But Xiao Letong and Xiao Ling were relatively tall and big compared to other children in the kindergarten. People who didn't know them would think that they are in primary school, not just three-year-old children.

Therefore, when the two of them stood together with the other children in the kindergarten, they stood out from the crowd.

However, plus, the two had extraordinary temperaments. In less than a day, all the kids seemed to agree to follow their lead, especially Xiao Letong.

On the first day of school, Xiao Letong stood out from the crowd of children.

When he saw those children who were not even shoulder-high cry for their parents with snot and tears in their eyes, he frowned and then shouted in annoyance, "Shush!"

The scene immediately quieted down.

Then, the group of children looked at him in a daze. There was a timid look in their eyes, and their expressions were filled with fear and respect.

'This little brother is so scary!'

However, these kids were pampered at home. The adults hadn't left yet. When they heard a child being so aggressive and fierce toward their own child, they immediately did not feel good.

A woman in her twenties, who was dressed fashionably, immediately shouted in dissatisfaction, "Why is this child so unruly? Even if my child is crying, it has nothing to do with you! I have never scolded him before, but you are so fierce to him. You have a bad upbringing!"

Xiao Letong immediately retorted, "Auntie, you're the one with a bad upbringing to scold a child like this. Don't you know that your child's crying has already affected the others? I merely told him to shush and stop crying. What's wrong with that?"

When the bystanders heard Xiao Letong's words, they were stunned.

How could these words come from the mouth of a young child?

The woman who had been reprimanded immediately said with an unpleasant expression, "You..."

Xiao Letong immediately waved his hand and said, "If you really can't bear to see your little emperor suffer here and be scolded by others, you'd better bring him back as soon as possible.

“But every child here is a little prince and princess. No parent is willing to have them suffer.

“However, we’re not at home. This is a place where children learn to play and socialize. There is no servant to attend to them. This is where they will learn to live in society. You can’t shield them from the world forever unless they plan to lock them up at home for the rest of their lives. No one here will dote on them because of their unique status because everyone is equal here.”

All the parents and kindergarten teachers present opened their mouths wide and looked at the child in surprise.

The fashionable woman was silenced by the rebuttal.

Immediately, Xiao Letong looked at the crying children with serious expressions and said sternly, “You are all big children, and you can be on your own. Look at the friends around you. You get to play with them in the future. You should be happy. Besides, the adults are all very busy. They work very hard. So, we have to be good children who are obedient and sensible so that the adults won’t worry, right?”

“Yes, I want to be a good child!”

“Right, be a good child. I won’t cry anymore!”

“Dad, Mom, I want to be a good child. You guys go back first. I want to play with the others.”

Parents, “...”

Chapter 797: Beautiful Mother

When Xiao Lingyu and Gong Tianhao arrived at the kindergarten, the children were surrounding the two boys. “Tong Tong, Xiao Ling, when will your parents arrive?”

Xiao Letong did not answer them. Instead, Xiao Ling smiled and said, “I don’t know. However, our parents promised to come.”

Then, one of the children’s eyes lit up and said innocently and curiously, “Xiao Ling, I heard that your mother is very beautiful. She is the most beautiful mother, isn’t that right?”

Children were naturally naive and cute. They were very curious about everything.

Xiao Ling nodded and said, “Yes, yes. Our mother is the most beautiful mother in the world!” But every child’s mother was the most beautiful mother to them.

In today’s age, people had fewer children. The parents spoiled the children. Therefore, many children developed vanity at a young age. They liked to compare stuff, like who had the most beautiful clothes and who had the best toy.

At every parent-child event, the kids would compete to see whose mother was the most beautiful.

However, ever since Xiao Lingyu appeared, the entire kindergarten knew that Xiao Letong and Xiao Ling’s mother were the most beautiful.

Now, many children were looking forward to seeing this beautiful aunt.

One child held his chin and said thoughtfully, “When will I have such a beautiful mother?”

Xiao Letong glanced at him and snorted coldly, "Hmph, your mother is already very beautiful. Why would you want a different mother? Even if you have a prettier mother, how will that help you?" Speaking up to this point, Xiao Letong thought for a while and said, "If you want a more beautiful mother, then you will very likely lose your current mother. When that time comes, your father will marry another woman to be your mother. The new mother will be beautiful, but she will scold you, beat you, and stab you with needles..."

Before Xiao Letong could finish speaking, the child suddenly widened his eyes and revealed a frightened and uneasy expression. His face turned slightly pale as he shook his head and said, "No, no, I don't want another beautiful mother. I want my own mother."

Xiao Letong, "... Why are kids so easily scared?

Xiao Letong didn't mean any harm. He merely thought that the boy's way of thinking was not right. If he really went home and told his parents that he wanted a more beautiful mother, his mother's heart would be broken.

It just so happened that the boy's mother came at that moment. When she saw that her son was crying, her expression immediately changed. She asked worriedly, "Son, why are you crying? Did someone bully you? Tell mummy."

Xiao Letong, "... This sounds like trouble.

The child cried as he said loudly, "Mom, I will never tell dad to marry a beautiful mother again. I want you. The new, beautiful mother is a bad person."

The child's mother, "..."

She first looked at her son in confusion, then looked at Xiao Letong. She had some doubts.

Xiao Letong shrugged and said, "I only told him that if his father married a new beautiful mother, that beautiful mother would beat him, scold him, and even stab him with a needle. Then, he started to cry."

The child's mother, "..."

The other parents, "..."

Xiao Lingyu and Gong Tianhao, "..."

Chapter 798: Surname

When Xiao Lingyu and Gong Tianhao arrived at the kindergarten, the male parent was staring at Xiao Lingyu's face in a daze, while the female parent was staring at Gong Tianhao's handsome face in a daze.

"How beautiful!"

"How handsome!"

"They are the parents of Xiao Letong and Xiao Ling, right?"

"I think so. I saw them at the last parent-child event."

“No. Xiao Letong and Xiao Ling seemed to follow their mother’s surname. Why?”

“Yeah,” a parent responded, “Don’t children usually follow their father’s surname? Why would they follow their mother’s surname? Did the man marry into her family?” Someone was confused.

“That’s impossible. This man looks good and has an extraordinary temperament. He looks like he’s from a rich family.”

“You shouldn’t judge a book by its cover. Xiao Letong’s name is Xiao Lingyu. Who doesn’t know her at Xing An Town? Do you know how rich she is? Green Fresh Group’s asset is more than ten billion.” Someone said with envy, “For a rich woman like her, there are many men who want to marry into her family. Her husband looks extraordinary now, but that can be built with money.”

“That’s not right. I remember that Xiao Letong’s father’s surname is Gong, right?” Someone who had a close relationship with Taoyuan Village said, “I heard from a friend in Taoyuan Village that a Gong Family moved there a few years ago. The Gong Family is very rich. On the first day he came to Taoyuan Village, he started to repair the road leading directly to the town. Moreover, the Gong Family’s house in Taoyuan Village is beautiful and luxurious. Mr. Gong pursued Xiao Lingyu before her company was a thing.”

“Oh, that means Mr. Gong is a very rich person. He wouldn’t marry into her family.”

“That’s not necessarily the case. Can’t you see how beautiful Xiao Lingyu is? Perhaps that’s the reason why he married into her family.” Someone said disdainfully. “Didn’t you see that both of the children have the surname Xiao?”

Xiao Lingyu, who had sharp ears, “...” What this their business?

However, Xiao Lingyu glanced at Gong Tianhao. ‘Perhaps I should change the kids’ surname.’

“Mommy, Daddy, you guys are here.” Xiao Ling ran over happily.

Gong Tianhao picked Xiao Ling up and asked with a smile, “Ling ‘Er, are you happy in kindergarten?”

“Yes!” Xiao Ling nodded happily and said, “There are so many children here that we can play together. It’s so happy.”

The corners of Gong Tianhao’s mouth curled up. He patted his little head with one hand and said, “Yes, as long as Ling ‘Er is happy!”

Xiao Letong walked over and shouted happily with his little face, “Mommy, daddy!”

Xiao Lingyu patted his head and asked with a smile, “Are you happy in kindergarten?”

Xiao Letong nodded and said, “Yes!” He felt like a dummy playing with a group of kindergarten children. But there was nothing he could do. Xiao Ling was happy, so he had no choice but to accompany him. Xiao Ling was such an innocent person, so Xiao Letong had to look after him.

Gong Tianhao looked at him suspiciously.

Xiao Letong looked at Gong Tianhao and said again, “Mommy, Daddy, I’m really happy!”

Xiao Letong remembered that his daddy had suspected his identity since the first day he was born.

After he returned, he hadn’t brought up that issue again. Xiao Letong hoped that he had forgotten about it after the car accident.

Xiao Lingyu laughed and said, “Okay, as long as Tong Tong is happy!”

Chapter 799: Family Time

Xiao Letong and Xiao Ling were in the same class. During the parent-child activity, the family of four played together.

The content of the activity was actually a very old-fashioned game. Parents and children would tie one foot together and then run away. Whoever reached the finish line the fastest would be the winner.

“Come on!”

Xiao Letong was in a small class. There were a total of 30 children in the class. There were five people in a group, a total of six groups!

Xiao Letong was in the second group with her father, Gong Tianhao.

Xiao Ling was in the fifth group with Xiao Lingyu.

When someone was competing, the other children were constantly cheering.

When it was Xiao Letong and her father’s turn, Xiao Lingyu and Xiao Ling were cheering from the side.

“Son, Hubby, come on, you guys are the best!” She cheered.

The father and son smiled and said, “Yes, we will definitely be the first to reach the finish line.”

In the entire kindergarten, only Xiao Letong was the tallest. During the competition, he naturally had the advantage.

However, the most important thing in this kind of competition was the tacit understanding between the children and their parents.

After everyone was ready, the teacher looked at the five pairs of participants who were preparing for the competition. He readied his whistle and asked loudly, “Children, parents, are you ready?”

“Yes!”

“Get ready...”

“Go!”

“Tong Tong, Tianhao, Go!”

“Tong Tong, Go!”

“You can do it, Tong Tong!”

Unexpectedly, everyone cheered for Xiao Letong.

Xiao Lingyu shouted excitedly, "Son, you can do it!" Then, she asked Xiao Ling in a low voice, "Ling 'Er, is Tong Tong so popular in your class?"

Xiao Ling said, "Not only is brother popular in the entire class, but he's also very popular in the entire kindergarten. Look, when it's brother's turn, everyone came to cheer him."

Xiao Lingyu looked at the crowd of people at the competition venue and listened to the fierce shouts of cheers for Xiao Letong. She knew that Xiao Ling was telling the truth.

Xiao Lingyu was rather speechless that her son was so popular.

The race track was only thirty meters long. Xiao Letong and Gong Tianhao had long bodies and long legs. It was expected that they would take first place in the group.

"Son, you're so good!" As soon as they got off the stage, Xiao Lingyu picked Xiao Letong up and kissed his cheek.

Xiao Letong's face was red. It was unknown whether he was blushing or he had just finished a race. He smiled and said, "Thank you, Mommy."

The family of four watched the competition from the side. Not long after, it was Xiao Lingyu's turn. Xiao Lingyu had a nearly psychic connection with Xiao Ling. They didn't even need to say anything. They could sync their movements perfectly.

"Xiao Ling, you can do it!"

"Xiao Ling and his mom have such a good understanding of each other. Their actions are so in sync!"

"They are so fast!"

Not long after, Xiao Ling and Xiao Ling quickly reached the finish line and took first place in the group.

"Ling 'Er is great!" Gong Tianhao did not hesitate to praise Xiao Ling. Compared to Xiao Letong, Xiao Ling was a real child.

Xiao Ling smiled widely and said excitedly and happily, "Thank you, daddy!"

After everyone finished the competition, Xiao Letong and Gong Tianhao were first, while Xiao Ling and Xiao Lingyu were second.

"Let's go back and celebrate!" Xiao Lingyu held the prize and said happily.

"Okay, let's go!"

The family of four held hands and left happily.

Chapter 800: Fun

When Xiao Lingyu learned from Gong Tianhao that Xiao Letong was most likely a reborn child, her heart was filled with shock and excitement. She understood that her son was still her son, and she had reunited with him.

However, after attending the parent-child event, Xiao Lingyu did not ask Xiao Letong for confirmation.

Her son was a smart and sensible child. He naturally had his reasons for not telling her. In the future, all she had to do was to love him.

At this moment, the resourceful Xiao Letong did not know that his secret was out.

Xiao Letong held Xiao Lingyu's hand and said with a very happy smile, "Mommy, you are the most beautiful mother in our entire kindergarten. For this reason, many children ask their fathers to marry another beautiful wife."

Xiao Lingyu, "... " What are these kids thinking?

Xiao Lingyu thought of the scene that happened in kindergarten. She smiled and said, "Yes, son, you did a great job. Those children are so young and want to compare everything with each other. They even want to change their mother. You did good warning them."

These kids were only three or four years old. They came from good families and were very spoiled. They were very vain.

Xiao Letong curled his lips and said in a very mature manner, "Those kids are spoiled. However, they are still young, and their thoughts are still very simple. As long as we scare them a little, they will know that they are wrong. No one in their family will educate them, so I'll be the bad guy."

Xiao Lingyu's eyes flashed. After exchanging a glance with Gong Tianhao, she gave him a thumbs up and said with a smile, "Yes, Tongtong is right!" She finally noticed how precocious Tong Tong was. However, no matter what, he was still her son.

In order to celebrate, Xiao Lingyu and Gong Tianhao specially set aside half a day to play with the two children.

After lunch, Xiao Lingyu specially asked, "Tong Tong, Ling 'Er, Mommy and Daddy will accompany you in the afternoon. Do you want to go somewhere to play?"

Xiao Letong's eyes immediately lit up. He glanced at Gong Tianhao and said loudly, "Mommy, is what you said true? Can we go to the amusement park?"

Originally, no one would invest in the construction of an amusement park in a small, remote county like Xing Yin County.

However, because of the development of the Taoyuan Village Village, Xing Yin County developed rapidly. In just a few years, Xing Yin County had become the largest county in City Z. Some people noticed this and set their sights on the construction of the amusement park.

It had been less than a year since the amusement park was built, but it still enjoyed good tourist flow.

"Alright, let's go to the amusement park and have some fun!" Xiao Lingyu waved her hand and started to set off, completely ignoring her husband's pale face.

Soon, the family drove to the county's amusement park.

Before they entered the amusement park, they heard waves of piercing screams coming from inside.

Gong Tianhao's face turned slightly pale again.

Xiao Letong raised his eyebrows and asked curiously, "Daddy, What's wrong? Why do you look so pale? Are you afraid?"

It seemed that riding the Ferris wheel last time had left a shadow in his heart.

But that was why Xiao Letong decided to come here. He wanted to trick his father.

Gong Tianhao pulled his face and said with a smile, "I... I'm not afraid!"

"Then, let's go in and party!" Xiao Letong said with a smile.
