

Chapter 891: Kidnapping

Peter suppressed his anger and said through gritted teeth, "Contact him again and tell him that I'm the one who invited him!"

"..." Walter thought for a moment and said, "Boss, isn't this a bit much? Why would you lower yourself for someone like Bruce?"

In the past, Peter and Bruce were competitors. They had fought tooth and nail for promotions. Neither of their statuses was superior to the other. But that was then, and this was now.

Peter had now replaced Bruce as the President of the Chinese Branch. Bruce had been directly fired by the head office.

Therefore, in the eyes of everyone in the Royal Forest Group, Bruce, who had been fired, was far inferior to Peter.

Peter's eyes were deep and sharp as he stared at his subordinate. He asked coldly, "If I didn't lower my status, how else do you think we could have invited him?"

Walter thought for a moment and said, "Boss, why don't we just kidnap him?" Bruce was just an ordinary person anyway, and he didn't have any bodyguards around him. It would be very easy to kidnap him.

Peter thought for a moment and said, "Okay. I'll leave this matter to you!"

Rather than lowering his status, he might as well use some means to bring Bruce to him.

In the past, Peter was not able to compete with Bruce. But now, Bruce was being trampled by him. That was something to show off.

Walter immediately nodded and said, "Don't worry, Boss. I'll get it done!"

Kidnapping someone was much more convenient than inviting someone.

At night, when Bruce returned to his villa to sleep, he heard a commotion outside. He heard his nanny screaming in panic, "Who are you? What do you want?"

.....

However, the workload recently was so heavy that he was too tired to care. Plus, there were many servants at home.

However, what Bruce did not expect was that the other party had come prepared.

The other party had come with even more people. These people were strong and skilled.

Five or six big men quickly knocked open Bruce's door, and Bruce immediately woke up. He glanced at these black-clothed bodyguards and then looked at the person in the lead.

Bruce suppressed his anger and asked, "Walter, what are you trying to do by bringing people into my house in the middle of the night?"

Walter sneered and said, "Mr. Bruce, I've repeatedly sent you an invitation, but you've rejected it. I had no choice but to use extreme measures."

Bruce asked with a dark expression, "I'm no longer in the Royal Forest. What do you want? Let me tell you. You've broken into my house. This is considered trespassing. I can call the police."

Walter said without fear, "Mr. Bruce, do you have to be so angry? Mr. Peter wants to see you. Please come with us."

"Peter?" Bruce asked with a puzzled expression, "Why would he want to see him? Oh, is he here to laugh at me? Then please tell him that he can laugh if he wants to. However, I will not lose to him easily."

Walter's face darkened when he heard that. He said with a stern voice, "Bruce, please, don't make us use force!"

Bruce, "..."

Chapter 892: Saving People

Xiao Lingyu received a message in the middle of the night. She opened it, and a ruthless light flashed in her eyes.

When Gong Tianhao saw that his wife had woken up in the middle and that her expression was dark, he immediately asked, "Wife, who is it? Who is sending you a message in the middle of the night?"

Xiao Lingyu said, "It's Bruce. He has been kidnapped!"

Gong Tianhao was startled and immediately sat up. "Someone kidnapped Bruce? Who is so bold?"

According to what he knew, Bruce did not lack money. He would have bodyguards at home to protect him.

How could he be kidnapped?

Gong Tianhao asked, "How can he send messages when he has been kidnapped? Who kidnapped him? Isn't that too unprofessional?"

Xiao Lingyu shook her head and said, "I don't know either. I'm worried. I'll go take a look now!"

"Then I'll go with you!" Gong Tianhao said without hesitation.

The two quickly packed up and walked out.

As soon as they left home, the door of the other room immediately opened.

Xiao Ling asked in puzzlement, "Brother, uncle Bruce has been kidnapped. Should we go and save him?"

Xiao Letong closed his eyes and opened them. "No need. Let's go back to sleep!" Bruce wouldn't be in any great danger. There was no need to save him.

.....

“...” Xiao Ling said, “Oh.”

Then, the two of them climbed onto their small bed.

The two of them didn't actually need to sleep. Their so-called sleep was to meditate and cultivate.

Xiao Lingyu and Gong Tianhao did not bring their bodyguards with them. They went straight to Bruce's villa.

When they arrived, Bruce had already been taken away, leaving behind anxious servants and bodyguards. They did not know what to do. Should they ask for help or call the police?

However, they were just servants. They did not have any connections. Who could they ask for help from?

However, if they were to call the police rashly, would it bring danger to Bruce?

While they were in a dilemma, Xiao Lingyu and Gong Tianhao rushed over.

Xiao Lingyu first introduced her identity and asked directly, “Do you know who took Mr. Bruce away?”

At this moment, a bodyguard stood up and said, “I heard their conversation. They said that a person named Peter wanted to see him.”

“Peter?” Xiao Lingyu frowned slightly. “The CEO of Royal Forest in China? That Peter? Are you sure?”

The bodyguard said, “My ears have always been more sensitive than ordinary people. I definitely didn't hear wrongly.”

Xiao Lingyu nodded and said, “Okay, I understand. I'll go and bring Bruce back now. Don't worry!”

When the bodyguards and servants heard Xiao Lingyu's words, they glanced at the delicate woman in front of them and the man next to her. Their eyes were filled with suspicion. It was obvious that they did not believe that the two of them could save their master.

The bodyguard immediately said, “President Xiao, how about we go with you?”

Xiao Lingyu looked at him and thought for a moment. She nodded and said, “Alright!”

Bruce was brought directly to Peter's Villa.

The moment he saw Peter, Bruce said with a provocative look on his face, “Peter, you don't have to use such a method to see me, do you? Don't you know that this way of inviting people is very scary? Fortunately, I'm brave enough not to be scared by you.”

Peter looked at Bruce's expression and somehow felt a surge of anger in his heart. He said coldly, “Who asked you to refuse my kind invitations? This is not my fault.”

Bruce waved his hand and said, “Let's not waste time on nonsense. Why did you invite me here?”

Peter, “...”

Chapter 893: Name Your Conditions

Peter's expression twisted for a moment before he said, "Bruce, I heard that you've joined Green Fresh Group?"

Bruce spread his hands and said with a smile, "There's nothing I can do. You've taken my position, and Macon has banned me from the industry. Fortunately, President Xiao, the boss of China's Green Fresh Group, appreciates me and welcomes her to join her!"

"..." Peter's face darkened. He didn't want to waste any more time. He said, "Now there's a chance for you to return to Royal Forest Group."

Bruce immediately asked with interest, "So, do you want me to return to be the president of Royal Forest's China Branch?"

Peter's face froze, and his expression twisted again. Then, he calmed down and said, "You can be the vice president!" What Peter meant was that he would still be the president. Peter finally had Bruce under his feet. Why would he have Bruce return and suppress him again? Besides, if Bruce returned to be the president, then what would he be? He was not so stupid as to hand this position over to someone else.

After hearing Peter's words, Bruce curled his lips and said disinterestedly, "The vice president, you say? In other words, I'll have to obey your orders. I have no interest at all. Unless..."

Peter narrowed his eyes and asked, "Unless what?"

"Unless I can return to be the branch president, and you'll be my vice, or you go on back to Country F!" Bruce said.

Peter's face immediately turned green with anger. He gritted his teeth and snorted coldly, "Bruce, don't push it!"

Bruce shrugged his shoulders and said indifferently, "You can just reject me. Why are you so angry?"

Peter, "..." He took a deep breath and tried to calm himself down. Then he said, "Bruce, other than the position of president, what other conditions do you have?"

When Bruce heard that, he narrowed his eyes and said, "Peter, why are you suddenly so generous? I can't help but feel that there's a conspiracy going on." Then, he gasped as if he had just realized it. "Actually, why did you suddenly ask me to kidnap you today? What's your motive?"

Peter, "..." Are you only realizing that now?

Peter immediately said with a serious expression, "Bruce, you're now working at Green Fresh. Then you..."

Peter directly told him his motive.

After listening, Bruce's expression was complicated.

This made him think of the three questions that Xiao Lingyu had asked him back then. One of them was that when his family and friends were threatened, what should he do?

He had no idea if Xiao Lingyu was a jinx or a soothsayer. He had only been working with her for a short while before he was kidnapped by Peter.

Peter then offered, "Bruce, as long as you agree to it, you can name any conditions. For example, money and beauty. Even if you want my position as president, I will give it to you directly after the matter is settled. I will also report your contributions to the head office. What do you think?"

Such conditions were very tempting. Peter was very confident that anyone would agree to it.

Bruce, "..."

"Peter..." just as Bruce was about to say something, there was a sudden noise from the door. Then, the door was violently kicked open.

A young man and a woman walked in. The man was handsome, and the woman was beautiful. Anyone who knew how to read financial or entertainment news should be able to recognize them.

When Peter saw Xiao Lingyu and Gong Tianhao, who had barged in, his face immediately darkened. He asked sternly, "Who are you? How did you get in?"

There were so many bodyguards in his house. How did these two get in?

He was about to make a phone call and scold the person in charge of the bodyguards.

However, before he could pick up the phone, Xiao Lingyu clapped her hands and said with a smile, "We've walked in with our two feet."

Peter's expression changed instantly. Then, he shouted, "Chris, Chris..." he called out to the captain of the bodyguards. "Throw these two out!"

As he shouted, the captain of the bodyguards called Chris held his swollen head and limped in slowly.

When Peter saw this, his pupils constricted. He immediately asked, "Chris, what happened to you?"

Chris covered half of his face with one hand and pointed at Xiao Lingyu with the other. He mumbled, "It was her." Then, he pointed at Gong Tianhao and said, "These two had all of us beaten."

Peter's expression changed immediately. He glanced at Xiao Lingyu and Gong Tianhao and said in disbelief, "How is this possible?"

His bodyguards were all brought back from country F and were hired by the Royal Forest team. But they couldn't defeat two people?

Chris lowered his head. Perhaps he was humiliated, or he just didn't want to be scolded by Peter.

Peter asked again, "Where are the guns? Don't you have guns?"

Chris said softly, "They were too fast. They disarmed everyone before we could pull out our guns."

Peter, "..."

His expression was extremely ugly.

He looked at Xiao Lingyu and her husband. He questioned, "Who are you? You injured my bodyguard for no reason and broke into my house. What is your purpose?"

Xiao Lingyu laughed coldly in a low voice. "Peter, you sent your guards to take my people away in the middle of the night. Can't I barge into your house to take him back?"

"Your people?" Peter did not react for a moment. Then, he looked at Bruce, who was sitting there comfortably. "You mean Bruce?"

Xiao Lingyu nodded and said, "Of course. He's with me now. You've kidnapped him, so shouldn't I bring him back?"

Gong Tianhao corrected her in jealousy, "Honey, I'm your people. Bruce is just one of your employees. You have to be clear about that. Otherwise, it will be easy for people to misunderstand."

Xiao Lingyu, "..."

Peter, "..."

"..." Bruce nodded and said, "That's right, that's right. But even if I'm just an employee, I'm still president Xiao's employee!"

Gong Tianhao glanced at him coldly and said, "You're already so troublesome before you have started to contribute to the company!"

He seemed to be dissatisfied with his wife having to come to save Bruce in the middle of the night.

Of course, he couldn't blame his wife. He could only vent his anger on Bruce. It was because of this person that his wife couldn't sleep properly.

Bruce felt a chill down his spine. He pointed at Peter and said, "You can't blame me for this. I was sleeping well at home, but I was kidnapped and brought here by his people."

Having stayed in China for so long, he had naturally heard of Gong Tianhao. He was also afraid, so he could only push the blame.

However, Gong Tianhao said, "He kidnapped you because you didn't take care of your own matters properly!"

"..." Bruce, who was rendered speechless, could only ask Xiao Lingyu for help. He said, "President Xiao, I didn't expect this person to kidnap me. This is not my fault."

Xiao Lingyu looked at Peter coldly and said, "Mr. Peter, why did you kidnap Bruce?"

Peter did not know Xiao Lingyu's identity at first, but from their conversation, he immediately understood that the woman who came was Bruce's boss, also the boss of the Green Fresh Group.

Thinking of this, Peter's face turned green and white.

What he did not understand was how this woman had received the news and rushed over so soon.

Chapter 894: Rescue

Fortunately, Peter was not too stupid. He did not know how Xiao Lingyu got the news, but someone must have informed her.

And the only people who could inform her were Bruce and the group of helpers in Bruce's family.

Thinking of this, Peter was filled with anger.

It seemed that he had been played by Bruce.

But now was not the time to be angry. He took a deep breath and said with a smile, "Oh, so you are the famous female boss of the Green Fresh Group, Xiao Lingyu. I've heard plenty about you since the first day I came to China. Now that I have seen it with my own eyes, you really live up to your name. You are really a beautiful lady. I am the President of Royal Forest's China Branch, Peter. Nice to meet you!"

After saying that, he extended his right hand and waited for a handshake.

Xiao Lingyu didn't reach for his hand. Instead, Gong Tianhao said coldly, "My wife doesn't like to shake hands with strange men!"

Peter, "..."

For a moment, he felt embarrassed. There was faint anger on his face, but he had no choice but to endure it.

He retracted his hand and said with a slightly sarcastic expression, "Oh, is that so? It seems that a married woman in China really needs to keep a distance from other men."

Anyone could hear the sarcasm in his words.

He was mocking Xiao Lingyu. Even if she was the big boss of the Green Fresh Enterprise, she was fearful of her husband.

Xiao Lingyu did not get angry when she heard this. She only smiled and said, "I'm sorry, Mr. Peter. My husband is afraid of dirt on other men. I'm such a delicate person. I'm afraid of getting sick."

.....

When Peter heard this, his expression immediately turned ugly.

This was directly saying that he was dirty.

Peter said again, "President Xiao, why do you have to say such harsh words? In the future, we will be in the same industry. We might see each other again."

"Mr. Peter, you were the one who started it. I was just retaliating!" Xiao Lingyu said calmly.

Mr. Peter did not expect that such a beautiful woman would have such a harsh tongue.

Xiao Lingyu did not care about his reaction. She immediately asked sharply, "Mr. Peter, may I know what is so important that you need to kidnap my subordinate from his home to come here in the middle of the night?"

Peter's mouth twitched, and he said, "Bruce and I used to be colleagues and friends. I just invited an old friend over to reminisce about old times. Besides, I just came to China not long ago and am not familiar with China. I would like to ask my old friend Bruce for advice on many things. Is that wrong?"

Xiao Lingyu raised the corner of her mouth and looked at him with a smile that was not a smile. "So, kidnapping someone is how you get your old friend to meet with you? Can't you just invite Bruce normally? Or did Bruce not agree to meet you?"

Bruce immediately said, "I definitely didn't agree to meet him."

Peter's mouth twitched again, and his sharp eyes shot at Bruce fiercely. His expression became ugly again.

Xiao Lingyu nodded and asked again, "So, Mr. Peter, what else do you have to say? According to the laws of China, this is a pure kidnapping. I can call the police now!" Xiao Lingyu's expression immediately became serious.

Peter's expression turned ugly as he said, "President Xiao, you're being too serious. Although my way of inviting people was a little reckless, I didn't mean any harm. We're just old friends catching up."

Xiao Lingyu continued, "Mr. Peter, I don't care about your old relationship with Bruce. This is a country of law. I don't care how powerful you are in your country, but you're now at a place where the law shall be heeded."

Peter's expression twitched, and he held back the anger in his eyes. He took a deep breath and lowered his head to apologize, "Okay, I will pay more attention in the future!"

This woman was not scary, but what was scary was the man behind him, Gong Tianhao.

Gong Tianhao was a name that was well-known not only in China but also all over the world. He was an important figure that could not be ignored.

Although Peter had only been in China for a short while, he had already investigated deep into Green Fresh. It was why he hadn't done anything, even though Green Fresh had stolen plenty of their business. He was afraid that he would accidentally anger this man.

Royal Forest group was an international brand in the industry. However, they were ranked in the top 100 to 500 internationally.

However, the company behind Gong Tianhao, the Imperial Palace Group, was one of the top five companies in the world.

With such a comparison, it was obvious who was stronger and who was weaker.

He had heard that Gong Tianhao was famous for loving his wife.

Peter had no confidence that he could take down Gong Tianhao, so he hadn't made any move toward Green Fresh. Therefore, he knew when to wait and when to strike. This war was still long. And there was always a chance to recover his lost dignity.

Xiao Lingyu was a little dissatisfied with Peter's apology. She said, "Mr. Peter, the person you should apologize to is not me, but Mr. Bruce!" She paused for a moment before continuing, "Mr. Bruce was to rest, but you suddenly tied him up and brought him here to reminisce about old times, scaring your old friend. Shouldn't you compensate him for some mental damage?"

When Peter heard this, his expression twisted ferociously. The anger that he was suppressing in his heart wanted to burst out, but fortunately, his rationality was still there.

Peter immediately smiled and said to Bruce through gritted teeth, "Old friend, I'm sorry to have used such a method to invite you over. Regarding the shock you received, I'll compensate you with 500,000 RMB. How about that?" He was really angry and aggrieved. He originally thought that he could bully Bruce once Bruce left Royal Forest. But Bruce's luck was so good that he met another boss who was willing to stand up for him.

Bruce smiled and said, "Alright, for the sake of our boss, I'll accept this 500,000 RMB as compensation. In the future, if you want to catch up, just give me a call to invite me directly. There's no need to do something like this, right?"

Peter, "... Have I not done that? You simply refused to accept my invitations.

Peter smiled and said, "Alright, I'll definitely call to invite you next time! We had a good chat tonight, and I hope that it'll be more enjoyable next time!"

This was a reminder for Bruce.

Bruce raised his eyebrows and said with a smile, "Alright, I hope so!"

Chapter 895: Abandoned Bruce

Xiao Lingyu and Gong Tianhao had just walked out of Peter's house when they heard a series of crashing sounds from behind. Then, they heard him berate angrily, "Useless! There's a bunch of you, but you can't even stop two of them!"

Originally, he did not want to meet Xiao Lingyu so quickly. But through Bruce, their meeting was pushed forward.

A woman who founded the Fresh Green Group alone would definitely not be so simple. As expected, she easily beat him during their first meeting.

However, Bruce didn't seem surprised when Xiao Lingyu arrived. It was obvious that Bruce was the one who called her over. This meant that Bruce must have sent her a message when his people were not paying attention.

Thinking of this, Peter's face turned green with anger. He asked sternly, "Where's Walter?"

Walter didn't do his job properly, so Bruce had the chance to contact Xiao Lingyu. It was really infuriating. Now, he definitely had to give Walter a good scolding.

Chris touched his swollen face and pointed. "Mr. Walter is there."

Peter looked in the direction he was pointing and was instantly enraged.

Walter was actually hiding in a corner.

Peter roared, "Walter! You bastard!"

Xiao Lingyu and the other two walked out of Peter's Villa and got into the car together.

Xiao Lingyu asked directly, "What's going on?"

Bruce did not hide anything and said, "When Peter heard that I was working at the Green Fresh group, he wanted to bribe me to become a commercial spy and find out the secrets of the group's products!"

Xiao Lingyu, "... How despicable.

Bruce immediately clarified, "President Xiao, since I've become a member of Green Fresh, of course, I'll be loyal to the company. I definitely won't betray Green Fresh. Don't worry."

When he said that, although Bruce looked relaxed on the surface, he was actually extremely nervous in his heart.

After all, with such a sudden incident, he was really afraid that Xiao Lingyu would suspect his motive for joining Green Fresh. Suspicion couldn't be dispelled with just a few words.

Xiao Lingyu nodded and said, "I won't hire people who I don't believe in. Bruce, I believe in you since I've decided to hire you."

Bruce had been the president of the China Branch of Royal Forest for years. When Green Fresh rose to fame, he didn't use any underhanded methods to suppress them. That showed his good character.

When Bruce heard that, he immediately patted his chest and said, "You scared me to death. I thought you wouldn't believe me! Now that you've said that, I feel much more at ease."

However, Xiao Lingyu said, "Since Peter has found you and wants you to be a spy, it means that he has already determined to come after us. Even if not through you, he'll find someone else to infiltrate Green Fresh."

When Bruce heard this, his expression instantly became serious, and then he said, "Indeed. Based on my understanding of him, Peter has always been scheming. In order to achieve his goals, he has always been unscrupulous. Green Fresh has snatched away most of Royal Forest's customers, and he won't be happy about that."

He knew Peter too well. The two of them joined Royal Forest together and climbed the corporate ladder side by side. They were always in a competitive relationship.

However, Peter was more cunning than him and would secretly use some despicable methods to trip Bruce.

Moreover, Peter was not only like this to him. He would use despicable means against anyone who threatened his interests, such as business rivals and so on.

The reason why he came to China now was that Royal Forest's business in China had plummeted, and the loss of customers was serious.

Therefore, Peter would definitely use all kinds of methods to win back customers for Royal Forest.

Chapter 896: Abandoned Bruce

The fact that they kidnapped Bruce was proof.

Xiao Lingyu smiled and said calmly, "Once Royal Forest starts to do something unsightly, we will stop them."

In the competition in the business world, other than integrity, a big company needed protection. Otherwise, one would be suppressed by the big companies in the same industry.

Green Fresh was indeed a little smaller compared to some of the big international companies. However, Green Fresh group had a strong backer in their home country. It would not be easy for an outsider to defeat Green Fresh in its home territory.

Bruce heard this, and he was still worried, "That's true. Green Fresh has the home advantage in China, but what about when we want to advance beyond China? I fear Green Fresh will be suppressed before we even have the chance to shine. After all, Royal Forest wasn't built over a day. Royal Forest is a big brand recognized by the rich and powerful!"

Royal Forest brand was an old brand that had been established for a hundred years.

In comparison, Green Fresh was a small bean. A small company that could be squashed at any time.

The imperial group was indeed quite powerful in the world, but their market was the public. But Royal Forest catered mainly to the rich and powerful.

If Royal Forest really wanted to fight with Imperial Palace, they would rely on their customers. As long as these people worked together, Imperial Palace would have a hard time too.

Bruce was very worried.

Right now, they hadn't even started to enter the foreign market, but they were already going up against Royal Forest. Royal Forest couldn't do anything to Green Fresh in China, but they would have an easier time crushing Green Fresh on the global market. This meant that their expansion in the future would be much more difficult.

Xiao Lingyu did not have a negative and pessimistic attitude. She smiled and said, "Bruce, you don't have to worry. To borrow an English saying, when there's a will, there's a way. What has always been the principle of our company? We rely on good quality and taste.

"The reason why the rich and powerful are willing to cooperate with Royal Forest is because of their products. These powerful noble want and require the best service and enjoyment. What if we can offer them a better alternative?"

Bruce's eyes lit up, and then he agreed, "Yes, you're right."

Xiao Lingyu continued, "So before we deal with Royal Forest, can't we sway a few of the nobles to our side?"

Bruce narrowed his eyes, and his eyes shone. He suddenly laughed and said loudly to Xiao Lingyu, "That's brilliant! President Xiao, you're too smart!"

Finding a few strong backers might be difficult for others, but for Xiao Lingyu, it was much easier.

Because she had a strong backer behind her.

Xiao Lingyu smiled and said, "It's not that I'm smart, but I'm well-connected." As she said this, she hugged Gong Tianhao's arm with one hand and rested her head on his shoulder. She smiled and asked, "Hubby, don't you think so?"

Gong Tianhao patted her head and said with a doting expression, "Yes, as long as my wife needs me, I will always be your strongest backing."

Bruce was almost blinded by their love.

He shouted, "Don't show off like that. You're bullying me because my wife is not with me. This is impolite, don't you know that?"

Gong Tianhao's face darkened, and he said coldly, "Get out of the car!"

Chapter 897: Abandoned Bruce

Bruce was stunned. "Get out of the car?"

Then, he looked out of the window and said in disbelief, "This place is 30 to 40 miles away from my house. There are no cars around. Most importantly, we are not even that far from Peter's place. Aren't you afraid that I will be captured by them again?"

Gong Tianhao looked at Bruce with a sharp and cold gaze and said coldly again, "Don't make me say it a third time. Get out of the car!" How dare this man complain about my wife and me showing off our love?

Bruce had no choice but to ask Xiao Lingyu for help. He said loudly, "Xiao Lingyu, hurry up and persuade your husband. If you kick me out of the car now, aren't you afraid that I will be captured by them again and betray Green Fresh for this?"

Without waiting for Xiao Lingyu to speak, Gong Tianhao said sternly, "You can try!"

Bruce met his gaze, and his entire body shrank. His back felt a little cold.

Xiao Lingyu spread her hands and said with a smile, "Didn't Peter say that you're good friends with him? Why don't you ask him to send you back? After all, he was the one who captured you."

Bruce, "... I shouldn't have asked Xiao Lingyu for help. They're now both bullying me.

Bruce was chased out of the car. Seeing the car speed away, his face was full of disbelief. They really left him behind, right near Peter's door, whom he had just been kidnapped by.

Most importantly, Bruce's house was miles away. How could he go back? He didn't have a cell phone.

Bruce looked annoyed. He had no other choice.

"Yo, Bruce, did those two people leave you behind?" After Peter received the news, the first thing he did was to get his people to bring Bruce back. As soon as they met, he ridiculed Bruce, "It seems that your boss doesn't treat you that well, huh? Leaving you in front of the enemy's house and letting you die on your own."

Bruce snorted coldly at him, then raised his head and said disdainfully, "Hmph, it's none of your business!"

Peter's face darkened, and he said coldly to Bruce, "It is indeed none of my business. However, your villa should be 30 to 40 miles away from here. Are you planning to walk back? There are no cars around here."

Bruce didn't say anything.

Peter suddenly asked, "How did you send them a message?"

Bruce was stunned and asked, "What message?"

Peter said angrily, "Don't play dumb. You know what I mean. If you didn't send them a message, how did your boss rush over to save you so quickly?"

When Bruce heard that, he suddenly understood and said, "Oh, so that's what you're talking about."

This was infuriating for Peter.

"Why should I tell you?" Bruce said. But in his heart, he thought to himself, 'Hmph, do you think your group of foolish goons can stop me?'

When Peter heard Bruce's infuriating words, he took a deep breath and comforted himself in his heart, 'Don't be angry. Don't be angry. Hold it in!' After calming his breath, Peter smiled and said, "Bruce, to be honest, I think you should consider what I've offered. This is a win-win situation for both of us, isn't it?"

After listening to him, Bruce said seriously, "Okay, send someone to send me back now. After that, I'll think about it. How about it?"

Peter's eyes lit up. He said with a slightly happy expression, "Really? Will you really think about it?"

To them, Bruce was the best candidate to be their corporate spy. Plus, if Bruce agreed, they wouldn't need to find another spy.

Bruce's attitude was somewhat perfunctory. He nodded and said, "Of course it's true. But, Peter, what you need to do now is to arrange a car to send me back." As he said this, he yawned, patted his mouth with his hand, and said, "You disturb me in the middle of the night. I haven't settled the score with you yet. Now hurry up and get someone to send me back so that I can go back and continue to rest. Perhaps, when I wake up, I'll agree to your offer."

“Okay, I’ll get someone to send you back right now!” Peter replied in a seemingly straightforward manner.

After his subordinate left with Bruce, Walter covered half of his face that had been slapped and asked suspiciously, “Boss, do you really believe that he would consider this?”

Peter glanced at him with a cold gaze and said coldly, “Do you think that I’m a three-year-old child?”

Walter said in surprise, “If you don’t believe it. Why...” why did he agree to help Bruce?

Peter didn’t respond. He just snorted coldly and went straight back into the house.

Then, he left Walter there, puzzled.

Chapter 898: Amaze the World

Peter knew that the kidnapping of Bruce had alerted Xiao Lingyu. Therefore, sending someone into the Green Fresh Corporation would be very hard. He had to select the candidate carefully. Otherwise, with Xiao Lingyu’s intelligence and cunning, she would probably be able to see through him very quickly.

Bruce was the perfect candidate. Xiao Lingyu literally appeared at his house to save Bruce, so it was clear that she valued him. Therefore, if Bruce agreed to be their spy, they would have the perfect inside man.

Most importantly, Bruce was once the President of Royal Forest in China. Due to his position, he had customer connections in China.

But now, Bruce was working for the enemy...

When he thought of this, Peter’s head hurt faintly.

For the first time, he realized that perhaps the head company, Mr. Macon, was too ruthless. He had sent Bruce over to join the enemy, and he had to come over to clean up the mess. For a moment, Peter felt like giving up.

However, he had fought for so many years at Royal Forest, and it was not easy for him to get to this point. If he let it go, it would naturally make the head office people question his ability.

Once he was questioned, his future prospects would be ruined. Therefore, Peter had to move on.

Peter rubbed his aching head and then began to curse in the room, calling Bruce an ungrateful bastard.

He also cursed his men. If they had been more alert and didn’t allow Bruce the chance to send out an SOS message, Xiao Lingyu and her husband wouldn’t have come. With some coercion, they could have gotten Bruce to submit to them.

On the other hand, Bruce was quite excited. He was excited about the challenging future.

He liked to do those challenging and difficult jobs so that he would have a rush and motivation.

All the markets in China had been developed. Xiao Lingyu's vision and energy were naturally focused on the overseas markets.

In terms of developing the market business, be it Bruce or Zeng Yaozu, they were more experienced than her. Naturally, she handed the work over to them.

What she needed to do now was to find one or two backers for herself in the overseas market.

Since she was going to go to the premium high-end market, she was aiming for the market currently occupied by Royal Forest. This was a very hard challenge. After all, Royal Forest had been serving these rich and noble for hundreds of years. To have them suddenly change to favor new products was not going to be easy.

However, no matter how difficult it was, Xiao Lingyu felt that she had to do it.

Gong Tianhao said, "Yu 'Er, I'll bring you to visit the powerful nobles in a few countries."

Xiao Lingyu waved her hand and said with some disapproval, "It doesn't seem very appropriate to visit for something as small as this."

Bruce said, "President Xiao, then what is your plan?"

Xiao Lingyu said, "I'm waiting for a chance."

Gong Tianhao frowned slightly and asked curiously, "Chance? What chance?"

"A chance to amaze the world!" Xiao Lingyu said with a smile.

Bruce looked a little puzzled.

Gong Tianhao immediately understood Xiao Lingyu's meaning. He nodded and said, "Okay, I'm on it!"

Bruce, "... So, what kind of charade are they playing?"

Chapter 899: Poison

Peter was holding the phone. He looked anxious but also a little helpless.

He said, "Mr. Macon, Green Fresh is a local company, but they have stolen many of our customers. No, this is true. There's nothing wrong with our products, but the customers have abandoned us and started fighting for their products like crazy. No, Mr. Macon, I'm not looking for an excuse. It's true. Okay. I will do my best to win back our customers."

Peter wiped the cold sweat on his forehead as he spoke, then continued, "Also, Mr. Macon, let me report one more thing to you. Bruce has joined our rival, and he still has a lot of our customer connections. Yes, in China. He is taking our clients to our rival.

"Okay, I know. I will definitely, I will try my best!"

Then, after talking for a long time, the phone was finally hung up.

Peter took out an embroidered handkerchief from the pocket of his suit on his chest and wiped the cold sweat from his forehead. He complained, "It's easy for him to sit there and talk. Does he think it's so easy to take down Green Fresh in China? Besides, Green Fresh's background is strong. We're rather powerless here."

Peter was really full of resentment.

Ever since Bruce was fired and he took over as the president of the China branch, he thought it was his time to shine. Who would have thought that he was only there to clean up a mess?

When such a strong competitor appeared in China, not only did the head office not believe it, but they also thought that he lacked the ability to lead the branch.

Now, Peter understood why Bruce felt so resentful towards the company. However, Peter wouldn't react the same way Bruce did. Peter was sinister and vicious, and he would do anything to achieve his goals.

"Since ordinary methods can't take down Green Fresh," Peter muttered to himself. "We have to use extreme methods!"

Royal Forest Group had entered the Chinese market for 20 to 30 years. Even though they had lost customers and suffered heavy losses, their foundations were still there. They wouldn't go bankrupt anytime soon.

However, Bruce was the person in charge of the China branch for years. He knew many secrets and resources.

In contrast, Peter was new to China. He didn't know who to turn to for help.

However, money could always make the world go round.

Money was a good thing.

Thinking of this, Peter made a phone call.

...

Suddenly, a group of people with all kinds of weapons wanted to break into Shanghai Taoyuan Village Green Fresh Supermarket.

The security captain immediately gathered the guards at the supermarket entrance. "What are you doing?"

The security captain stopped the ruffians and asked loudly.

The leader of the ruffians was a man holding a steel rod who was wearing a gray vest. A green dragon tattoo was visible on his left arm.

He stood in front of the supermarket with red eyes and shouted angrily, "What am I doing? I'm going to smash this supermarket. This supermarket is a killer. My 80-year-old grandmother ate your food and was poisoned to death!"

"Ah?!"

The surrounding crowd was very surprised.

After all, this supermarket had always been well-received ever since it opened. Moreover, the stuff here had been promoted to be good for human health. This was the first time they had heard of food poisoning.

Chapter 900: Causing Trouble

When the young man finished speaking, he shocked all the onlookers.

"This is impossible!" Someone in the crowd said loudly, "Everyone knows that the things here taste good and are good for the body. This is the first time I've heard that the vegetables in this supermarket are poisonous."

"That's right. I don't believe it either. My old man suffered from rheumatism in the past. Ever since he ate his vegetables, his rheumatism has improved a lot."

"My family is the same. My father has a lot of small illnesses. I bought him the fruits and vegetables from this market. After he ate them, his symptoms were alleviated. Then, I would come every three days to buy the stock here. My father now is much better, and the whole family is feeling more at ease. So I don't believe the things here are poisonous."

"Exactly, I don't believe it either!"

No one believed the words of this young man.

An old man was a loyal fan of the supermarket. He looked at the brawny man and then glanced at the people behind him who were dressed in the same way. He directly sneered and said, "Young man, I think you're here to cause trouble, right? Look at how you're dressed. You look like those street gangsters."

As soon as the old man finished speaking, someone at the scene pointed at the young man and said loudly, "Ah, I do know them! They are a street gang. They are known as the Azure Dragon Gang. They often ask for protection fees from the shops around here!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the people at the scene exploded with a bang.

"Wait, so are they really gangsters?"

"So, now the Azure Dragon Gang is targeting this supermarket, and they want protection fees?"

"Hehe, what a joke. This bunch of hooligans even found an excuse. But isn't it a bit too far-fetched? This is all a show to frame the supermarket."

No one believed the gangsters, and no one was afraid of them either. After all, the supermarket's customers were rich and powerful.

Moreover, the supermarket had high security. The guards hired had undergone strict training. Dealing with a group of hooligans was a piece of cake. Otherwise, the supermarket's business would have been ruined long ago by jealous competition.

When the hooligan heard the questioning, his eyes became even redder. The hand holding the steel rod was shaking so hard that blue veins popped up.

He roared angrily, "I'm not lying to you. My grandmother ate the vegetables from this place yesterday and died this morning. The people at the hospital said that my grandmother had been poisoned to death. My grandmother only had vegetables and nothing else. So I'm here to seek justice."

"Yes. Grandma was poisoned to death because of the food here."

"Brother Yu is so filial to his Grandma. There's no way he would use lie about his grandma's condition."

"Brother Yu's Grandma is still lying in the hospital. If you don't believe us, you can get someone to investigate,"

The followers behind the young man also spoke indignantly.

At this moment, a neighbor who knew brother Yu spoke up.

"Xiao Yu doesn't have a good job, but he's really filial to his grandma. No matter how much of a jerk he is outside, he always brings good food for his grandmother when he comes home. He really cares for his grandmother. Look at the child. He's crying openly. Could it be that something really happened to Grandma Yu?"

"Two days ago, I was still chatting with Grandma Yu. How did something happen?"

"But Xiao Yu is so filial to his grandmother. He definitely won't joke about his grandmother's health."

"That's right. No matter how naughty this boy is, when he comes home, he treats his grandmother very well."

The security captain heard the discussion of the crowd and then glanced at the group of troublemakers. His eyes narrowed. After thinking for a moment, he said to brother Yu, "Friend, why don't you put down the weapons in your hands and calm down? Let's go in and talk. What do you think?"
