

Chapter 901: Making Trouble

Brother Yu said angrily. "What's there to talk about? My grandmother was poisoned because she ate the vegetables here. She's still lying in the hospital's morgue. "I want to seek justice now. Your shop is famous, yet you sell poisonous things."

The security captain asked, "Friend, are you sure your grandmother was poisoned because she ate the vegetables here?"

"My grandmother didn't eat anything else except your vegetables yesterday. How can it be anything else?" Brother Yu said loudly. His emotions were especially intense.

The security captain thought for a moment and said, "Friend, please calm down. How about this? How about we call the police first? We'll figure out the problem first, and then we'll discuss how to solve it." The security captain looked at him. It didn't seem like the man was deliberately causing trouble. He was afraid that something had really happened.

Of course, the captain was very sure that there was no problem with the things sold in the supermarket.

Someone who knew brother Yu immediately asked, "Xiao Yu, did something really happen to your grandmother?"

Xiao Yu glanced at that person and said with tears in the corner of his eyes, "Grandma Zhang, my grandma suddenly said that she had a stomachache in the middle of the night yesterday. But before I could send her to the hospital, she... She... Then, the doctor checked her blood and said that she was poisoned. Grandma Zhang, my Grandma is gone, My Grandma is gone, and from now on, I will never have a grandma again!"

Grandma Zhang had never approved of Xiao Yu's life as a gangster, but now that she saw him crying pitifully, she said sympathetically, "Poor child."

Xiao Yu suddenly pointed in the direction of the supermarket. "It's them. They killed my grandma. I must make them pay with their lives today!" His only family in this world was gone. He was afraid and desperate.

He was extremely angry at the culprit.

Grandma Zhang immediately said, "Xiao Yu, calm down. We all know that you're very sad and in pain because of your grandmother's sudden accident. But you can't be so impulsive. You have to produce evidence before you go accusing people. Going around and fighting people won't solve the problem. Instead, it will make the matter worse. Listen to Grandma Zhang and calm down."

Brother Yu suddenly squatted on the ground and burst into tears. "Sob... I don't have a grandma anymore. What should I do?"

The surrounding people looked at the usually arrogant hooligan, but at this moment, he was like a helpless child crying loudly. A sense of pity rose in their hearts.

The scene suddenly became quiet. Only the sound of this man crying loudly could be heard.

Suddenly, brother Yu stood up and picked up the iron rod again. He looked angry and wanted to rush to the supermarket. He said loudly, "I want this supermarket to pay with their lives."

The security captain was on guard. Seeing him rush over, he immediately stopped him and said loudly, "Friend, please calm down."

After Grandma Zhang saw this, she also tried to persuade him, "Xiao Yu, please calm down. What can you do if you just rush over like this? Killing people will cost you your life too. Will your grandma see you do that?"

"I don't care. They killed my grandma. Even if I have to pay with my life, I will make them pay!" Brother Yu almost lost his mind. He didn't care about anything else and just rushed in.

The head of security tried his best to stop him and said, "You keep saying that the supermarket killed your grandmother. Why don't we call the police? Let the police investigate the truth. If it's really the problem with the supermarket, we will definitely be responsible."

At this moment, Grandma Zhang reacted and immediately agreed, "Yes, yes. Xiao Yu, let's call the police. The police department will definitely return the truth to us. Child, calm down. Don't be impulsive and do something irreversible."

The people around also immediately echoed, "That's right, that's right. Call the police!"

However, brother Yu said, "No, I don't trust the police. This supermarket is rich and powerful. The police will protect it." He had been detained by the police many times due to his history, so he didn't trust the police.

At this moment, the person in charge of the supermarket walked out.

He said, "Friend, our supermarket has always done things openly. It's absolutely impossible for us to do such a thing."

After he received the report, he immediately rushed over.

"You keep saying that your grandmother ate something from our supermarket and passed away. I think it's better to investigate this matter first. After all, a person's life is involved," said the person in charge, "Don't worry. With everyone's supervision, the police department will definitely handle this impartially. As for us, we have no qualms about it. We'll cooperate fully."

When the surrounding people heard this, they immediately nodded and said, "Xiao Yu, since the supermarket manager has already said so, why are you still worried? Besides, the manager is right. We will be watching over them to make sure that justice is served."

The manager did not wait for these people to persuade brother Yu. He directly said to the head of security, "Call the police!"

"Yes!"

The head of security quickly called the police.

The people from the police station quickly came over.

“Who called the police?” The person in uniform asked.

The head of security said, “It was me.”

“What did you call the police for?”

The head of security told the whole story. He did not make anything up. The surrounding people could bear witness!

At the same time, Xiao Lingyu received a report.

“President, many people have gotten poisoned after eating our food. Now, there are crowds of protesters gathering outside our supermarkets.”

Chapter 902: Innocence

Xiao Lingyu received a call from Gong Tianhao as soon as she received the report from her subordinate.

“Yu ‘Er, many news media outlets received a piece of news saying that the vegetables and fruits sold by Green Fresh group had poisoned people to death. It’s not just one supermarket, but it involves supermarkets all over the country. I’ve suppressed most of the reports,” Gong Tianhao said.

All the major news media knew that the Green Fresh Group was under Gong Tianhao’s protection and didn’t want to cause trouble for their own company. News like this had to be reported to Gong Tianhao.

Xiao Lingyu said, “I’ve just received a similar report from my subordinate.”

Gong Tianhao frowned slightly when he heard that. He looked ahead with a sharp gaze and said, “It seems that there’s someone behind all these.”

These fruits and vegetables had been watered by the spiritual spring water and were only beneficial to the body. It was impossible for them to poison consumers to death.

Gong Tianhao continued, “So many deaths by poisoning happened at the same time. I refuse to believe this is unplanned. But the culprit sure is vicious to kill so many people at once.” At this point, he paused for a moment before saying, “Yu ‘Er, so many people died in this incident. You have to be mentally prepared! Before this incident breaks out, you have to find a solution as soon as possible.”

Xiao Lingyu nodded and said, “Yes, I know. After such an incident, all the managers have chosen to call the police. I will also send people to investigate and get to the bottom of the matter as soon as possible.”

Gong Tianhao thought for a moment and said, “Yes, I will send a few people to help you with the investigation!” His company had professionals in this area.

Xiao Lingyu nodded and replied, “Okay!”

After hanging up the phone, Xiao Lingyu sat in her office and fell into deep thought.

This matter happened too suddenly. Xiao Lingyu could not figure out who was so vicious and sinister that they would kill indiscriminately to deal with her.

However, for the sake of safety, Xiao Lingyu ordered all the supermarkets in the country to suspend business for three days.

They would reopen after the truth was revealed.

Suspending business for three days was indeed a huge loss, but it was better to be safe than sorry.

Just as Xiao Lingyu was deep in thought, someone suddenly knocked on the office door.

"Please come in!" Xiao Lingyu let someone in. Bruce quickly ran in, looking very anxious.

"President, did something happen in our supermarkets?" Bruce asked.

Xiao Lingyu nodded and said, "Yes." Xiao Lingyu did not hide it and said, "There have been many cases of people eating our vegetables and fruits and dying from poisoning."

Bruce was stunned when he heard that. Then, he asked, "Can you be sure that they ate something from the supermarket and died of poisoning?"

Xiao Lingyu shook her head and said, "We are not sure yet. We are still investigating. However, I can guarantee that the things in our supermarket will never have poison in them. It is impossible for such a thing to happen. Therefore, I'm very sure that there's definitely a murderer behind this. However, we still have to investigate who the murderer is!"

After Bruce heard this, he frowned and said, "This sounds very much like that person's doing."

Xiao Lingyu's gaze immediately shot over and said, "Who do you mean?"

Bruce said, "Peter!"

Xiao Lingyu frowned slightly and said, "Peter? Are you sure?"

Bruce shook his head and said, "It's hard to be sure. However, this is indeed very similar to his despicable methods. I've worked with him for many years. In the past, in order to climb up, he would use all sorts of methods on his competitors. Naturally, this would involve framing them. He also used all kinds of sinister methods against me. However, I've always been careful. Therefore, he has never succeeded in framing me." At this point, he paused for a moment before continuing, "The last time Peter came to capture me, he wanted me to become a spy. If he didn't succeed, he would definitely use another method. He just came to China so he doesn't quite understand the Green Fresh group and its influence here. It's not strange for him to do something like this."

Xiao Lingyu was deep in thought as she knocked on the table with one hand. She said, "Right now, we're not sure if Peter is behind this matter. However, just as you said, Chinese companies will hesitate before they make a move against Green Fresh. There is a heavy price to pay if they are caught. However, Peter has not been in China for long. Plus, he has Royal Forest behind him.

"The moment he arrived in China, he was stumped by us. We are also competitors. We have taken their customers, and he holds a deep grudge. It is not surprising for him to come after us."

Bruce nodded and said, "This kind of sinister and vicious method is very much like his style."

Xiao Lingyu said, "Whether it's Peter or not, we must find out the truth. If we find out that it's really him..." Royal Forest would be banished from China.

After Bruce heard that, he could only pray silently for Peter in his heart. He hoped that this matter really had nothing to do with him. Otherwise, Peter might face a fate worse than death.

Just as Xiao Lingyu and Gong Tianhao expected, the news about the food poisoning was quickly exposed. It quickly reached the top of the trending page. The families of the victims attacked Green Fresh.

Green Fresh closed down temporarily, but that was seen as an admission of guilt. People even started brawls in front of supermarkets.

Fortunately, Xiao Lingyu said that she had anticipated all kinds of consequences. Considering that someone might break into the supermarkets to smash the stuff, she still sent security guards to guard the door.

The security guards were all agile people who had been transferred from Gong Tianhao's bodyguard company.

Therefore, even if these incidents happened, the losses were not too much.

However, with the exposure of the media and the instigation of the people behind the scenes, this matter became blew up.

"President, this matter is becoming more and more serious. The family members of the victims stood at the entrance of our supermarket every day. Some of them even went to the head office to demand we pay for the deaths. They are impulsive and hard to console." the subordinate reported to Xiao Lingyu, "Although many of them were stopped by the security guards, there are so many of them. Something bad will happen sooner or later," the subordinate reported worriedly.

If these security guards couldn't stop those troublemakers, then the supermarkets would be destroyed. We were talking about more than a handful of supermarkets.

The main income of the green fresh group came from the supermarkets

Xiao Lingyu comforted her. "Don't worry. Things haven't developed to that stage yet. However, I'm afraid people will continue to stir up trouble." She paused for a moment before instructing secretary Zhang, "Secretary Zhang, send out an announcement that I'll hold a press conference at three in the afternoon."

Hearing this, secretary Zhang hesitated for a moment before asking, "President, are you going to make an appearance personally?"

Xiao Lingyu nodded and said, "Now that this matter has become so big, I will have to. Don't worry. I'll be fine."

Secretary Zhang nodded and said, "Okay, I'll inform them now!"

After secretary Zhang left, Xiao Lingyu's phone rang again.

“Hello, Yaozu. What’s wrong?” Xiao Lingyu asked. “What? The toxins were indeed detected from those corpses, and it was from the fruits and vegetables sold in our supermarket?” Xiao Lingyu was a little surprised after receiving Zeng Yaozu’s report.

Zeng Yaozu said worriedly, “That’s the result of the test so far. Sister Lingyu, I’m afraid that the police department will come to our door soon.”

Why? Of course, it was to arrest the person in charge of Green Fresh, Xiao Lingyu.

Xiao Lingyu comforted him, “Yaozu, don’t worry. Even if they arrest me, I’ll be fine because I’m innocent.”

Chapter 903: Events

As expected, not long after Xiao Lingyu and Zeng Yaozu spoke, the people from the police station came.

Before that, Xiao Lingyu instructed Zeng Yaozu to continue the press conference in the afternoon. She also discussed with Zeng Yaozu the questions that the reporters might ask in the afternoon and the various ways to respond.

There were a lot of reporters outside the green fresh group. As soon as they saw the people from the police station, they immediately asked.

“Officers, the products sold at Green Fresh have killed many people. I heard that the evidence is conclusive. Are you here to arrest people?”

“Officer...”

The officers didn’t say anything. Then, these reporters were stopped by the security personnel of the Green Fresh Group.

As soon as the police officers entered, the people outside heard a series of booming sounds.

“Ah, it’s a helicopter!” It was not uncommon for helicopters to be present in Taoyuan Village.

This was because everyone knew that the imperial group’s office was in the capital, and the headquarters of the Green Fresh Group was in Taoyuan Village. Plus, their home was in Taoyuan Village.

Ever since Xiao Lingyu got married, even elder Gong liked to stay in Taoyuan Village. Furthermore, the relationship between the two in-laws was especially good.

Therefore, due to work reasons, Gong Tianhao often traveled between the capital and Taoyuan Village.

“It’s Gong Tianhao!” When a reporter saw the helicopter, he immediately understood that it must be Gong Tianhao.

As expected, not long after, the helicopter hovered in mid-air. Then, it lowered the ladder rope, and a person came down. This person was obviously Gong Tianhao.

The moment he came down, he was surrounded by reporters.

“Mr. Gong, did you rush back because you heard that something happened to your wife?”

“Mr. Gong, do you have anything to say about your wife’s company being involved in an accident and being suspected of selling poisonous things?”

These reporters swarmed up and asked one sharp question after another.

Gong Tianhao’s face was cold, and he completely ignored them. The bodyguards beside him blocked the reporters from approaching.

Soon, Gong Tianhao arrived at the entrance of the company. At this moment, the people from the police station had already brought Xiao Lingyu out.

The sharp-eyed reporters quickly realized that Xiao Lingyu did not have handcuffs on her hands.

Then, there was another sharp question.

“Officer, why isn’t Xiao Lingyu cuffed? I heard that the evidence in these cases is conclusive.”

“Officer, why aren’t you handcuffing Xiao Lingyu? Are you afraid that the forces behind her will cause trouble for you?”

“Officer, as a public servant and a righteous person, are you going to submit to these forces?”

These questions were more pointed.

Gong Tianhao looked at them coldly. His sharp gaze swept over the reporters who were asking questions. His aura was sharp and stern, causing the people around him to tremble.

Then, he stood beside Xiao Lingyu and asked coldly, “Who gave you permission to say these things without evidence? I can take you to court and sue you for slander.”

When the reporters who were asking questions heard this, their expressions changed, and their faces turned pale.

However, some of the reporters were not satisfied and were about to refute when the officer said something. “We don’t have any evidence to prove that there is something wrong with the products produced by the Green Fresh Group. We are just doing our job and would like to ask Ms. Xiao Lingyu to come back to the police station to make a statement.”

A reporter immediately asked sharply, “But there are rumors online that the test results have come out. They prove that the victims were indeed poisoned to death after eating the products from Green Fresh Supermarket. Isn’t that the perfect evidence? Is this an attempt to cover up for Xiao Lingyu and the Green Fresh Group?”

The police officer immediately said seriously, “You said it yourself. Can you trust everything on the internet? We have already paid attention to the actual evidence. “We have never wronged a good person, nor would we cover up for a bad person. Ms. Xiao Lingyu is only cooperating with our investigation. Please don’t make all kinds of malicious guesses!”

Some of the reporters refused to let this go.

Just as they were about to ask another question, the police officer immediately said, "The development of this case is still ongoing. Do not buy into the rumors! Otherwise, you can be held legally responsible." If the reporters continued to slander the police force, they would have to retaliate.

These people were questioning the integrity of law enforcement because of online rumors.

"Now, please move aside. We have to rush back to the police station!" The police officer said.

Gong Tianhao took Xiao Lingyu's hand and combed the strands of hair on her forehead. He said, "Yu 'Er, don't be afraid. We will definitely cooperate with the police and investigate the truth."

Xiao Lingyu nodded and said, "Yes!" Then, Xiao Lingyu looked at the surrounding reporters and said, "Dear friends, the Green Fresh Group will hold a press conference at 3 pm with Vice President Zeng Yaozu presiding over it. At that time, if you have any questions, you can ask him."

The reporters had already received this piece of news. They were sure to be there and take down any information.

Just as Xiao Lingyu was about to follow the police officers into the police car, Xiao Letong ran out from the crowd.

He first greeted the two police officers politely and greeted, "Hello, police officers." Then, he comforted Xiao Lingyu, "Mommy, don't be afraid and don't worry. I'll definitely find out the truth!"

After hearing that, Xiao Lingyu squatted down and touched his little face. She smiled and said, "Okay, mommy isn't afraid and doesn't worry. But, son, you must be obedient when mommy isn't at home, okay?"

She knew that her son was a fearless person with courage. But she didn't want him to do anything stupid.

Xiao Letong nodded and said, "Okay, I'll be good. Then you have to come back soon!"

"Okay!" Xiao Lingyu hugged Xiao Letong.

The people around were touched by this scene.

This kid was so mature.

Finally, Xiao Lingyu followed the police officers into the police car.

Gong Tianhao and Xiao Letong looked at the car, and their expression appeared serious and cold.

When the vehicles disappeared, Gong Tianhao held his son's hand, and his sharp eyes swept over the reporters as he said coldly, "I don't care which news agency or newspaper you are from. If any of you make up stories that distort things and mislead the public, you shall be ready to be summoned to court. I encourage you to try it."

When the reporters heard that, they looked at Gong Tianhao and felt a little scared.

Gong Tianhao was the emperor of the business world. When he was mad, a river of blood would flow!

Chapter 904: Ghost?

Because of Gong Tianhao's words, even if those reporters wanted to get the article out and become famous overnight, without the support of the company, everything would be empty talk.

No news agency dared to report the matter of the Green Fresh Group. They didn't dare to report that Xiao Lingyu had been brought into the police station without the official release of information from the police station.

However, some tabloid news agencies and gossip companies still did a bit report on this. However, they were stopped immediately.

Those company bosses and managers were so angry that they stomped their feet.

"Damn it, does Gong Tianhao really think that he can control everything in this world?"

Of course, no matter how angry they were, they could not change the fact that they were weak. If they continued to fight Gong Tianhao, they would disappear. So now, they had to be obedient and endure.

Thanks to Gong Tianhao, the world at large was peaceful.

Only a small number of online media reported this. However, it didn't cause much commotion.

Walter couldn't hide the happiness on his face as he said to Peter, "Boss, I heard from our informant that Xiao Lingyu has been taken away by the police department." At this point, Walter gave Peter a thumbs up and said excitedly, "Boss, you're really smart!"

Peter was not as happy as Walter. He frowned and said, "Shouldn't her arrest be big news? It should be the headlines. But I can't see any mention of it on the news or internet."

Walter thought for a moment and said, "Mr. Peter, the news might have been suppressed. After all, Xiao Lingyu's husband is Gong Tianhao. His influence in the business world can be said to be overwhelming."

Peter frowned. He knocked on the table with one hand and spun the pen with the other. He said, "Fine. We'll see how long he can cover this up for."

Walter said with a smile, "Boss, the food at Green Fresh is now poisonous and has caused death. As soon as this matter comes out, their reputation will plummet. They will be forced to close down. It'll be hard for them to bounce back from this. Boss, I'm impressed. Once you make a move, you go for the kill." When he said this, he gave Peter a thumbs up again with an expression of admiration. He continued, "I don't think they would have thought that we would inject the poison directly into their products. I think they are still looking for the source."

Peter frowned and shouted sternly, "Shut up!" Then, he looked around and warned in a low voice, "Walter, be careful!"

Please!

Walter immediately covered his mouth and nodded, "Yes!"

Peter then asked, "Have you dealt with the people who poisoned their food? Remember, those people have to be hidden well. They mustn't be discovered by the police."

Walter nodded very seriously, "Don't worry, Boss. I've arranged everything. They have all been sent overseas, and we have people guarding them. The Chinese government doesn't have jurisdiction overseas."

Peter nodded with satisfaction. "Well done!"

As soon as he finished speaking, the cup he had placed on the table suddenly fell to the ground.

Both of them were shocked.

Chapter 905: Scared to Death

Xiao Letong and Xiao Ling were currently hiding in Peter's office.

Based on all sorts of information, they suspected that this matter had something to do with Peter, so they flew over in stealth and directly eavesdropped in the office.

They heard something important.

As expected, they were the ones who framed mommy and the Green Fresh Group.

Xiao Ling, who had never been emotional, was furious. In a fit of anger, he smashed the glass in Peter's office onto the ground with his spirit energy.

Peter and Walter looked at the glass that inexplicably moved and fell down.

The two of them were stunned.

Then, the two of them looked around. Other than themselves, there was no one else in the room.

So, why did the cup move by itself?

After the two of them looked at each other, Peter calmly shouted, "Who is it?"

Then, what answered him was a pile of documents on the table that suddenly fell to the ground.

Peter and Walter, "..."

Their pupils violently shrank, and their expressions looked a little frightened.

Walter swallowed his saliva and asked, "Boss, could it be a ghost?"

Peter looked around with a vigilant expression. He said coldly, "There is no ghost!"

Walter said again, "Perhaps it's Chinese Jiang Shi!"

Peter glanced at him and said disdainfully, "Either way, ghosts won't come out in broad daylight."

Walter felt a chill on his back and said with some fear in his heart, "Then what exactly was it? The cup moved on its own and fell to the ground. Also, what about the documents? There was no wind, but they fell on their own." At this point, he suddenly thought of something and said with a panicked expression, "Boss, do you think it's the ghosts of the people we've poisoned to death?"

He grabbed Peter's arm in fear. His eyes revealed fear as he said loudly, "That must be it. I heard that people who died unjustly will become malicious ghosts after they die and come back to take revenge on their enemies."

Peter's heart was also filled with fear, but he was unwilling to admit it. He said sternly, "Walter, don't scare yourself. There's no ghost, and it's just a coincidence!"

As soon as he said that, the air conditioner hanging on the wall suddenly fell to the ground and hit the floor with an unusually loud sound.

Walter and Peter looked at the air conditioner that suddenly fell to the ground. They were stunned at first, and then, they were consumed by a wave of horror and fear.

Walter couldn't stand this anymore. Plus, his heart was already guilty of doing all those horrible things like murder. In an instant, he was so scared that he ran out.

As he ran, he shouted in fear, "There's a ghost!"

The employees outside looked at Walter in confusion.

Peter was also very scared, but he was still calm.

He ran out of the room and calmly ordered his subordinates, "Go, bring Walter back!"

He was afraid that Walter would say something that he shouldn't have said in his current state.

As for the culprits, Xiao Letong and Xiao Ling, they were already standing on the rooftop.

Xiao Ling said angrily, "Brother, I still want to teach them a lesson. Why did you stop me?"

Xiao Letong said seriously, "What are you going to get from scaring them like that pointlessly anyway? Plus, our Mommy is still at the police station."

Hearing Xiao Letong's words, Xiao Ling's eyes lit up, and she immediately said, "Brother, have you thought of how to save Mommy?"

Xiao Letong smiled but didn't say anything.

Chapter 906: Conjecture

The local police stations paid close attention to the deaths allegedly caused by Green Fresh. The police stations and agencies were involved in the investigation.

However, the murderer was too cunning or too skilled. They searched and searched, and all the evidence pointed to Green Fresh. The result showed that their food was poisonous.

However, everyone knew that this was simply impossible.

Because anyone who had eaten this food knew that the food at Green Fresh was good for the body.

Also, what puzzled them the most was that the dead victims were all poor people. Their families were generally of two types. One was that their children were especially filial. The other was that their children were especially unfilial.

It was difficult to reason with either of them. They wanted compensation in terms of life or money. Those who chose money wanted a lot of it.

When they were not appeased, they would go to the entrance of the supermarket to make trouble every day.

“It’s very strange.” When the local police stations connected the cases, there were a few suspicious points, “First, these victims were all of a certain age and had children. The children are either very filial or very unfilial.

“Secondly, the food was cooked and eaten by the whole family, so why was it only one person poisoned to death?

“Thirdly, after testing, the poison in their bodies is a new type of lethal poison that we’ve not seen before. It is a very fatal poison, and it is very hard to detect. We have to use high-tech verification to detect this kind of poison.

“There is a conspiracy going on. We believe the poison is injected into the stock sold in Green Fresh. This is a targeted attack.

“However, this kind of poison is a prohibited drug in the market and rarely circulated. Now, as long as we find the source of the poison and follow it, we’ll be able to clear up many things!”

Someone immediately said, “I wonder who Green Fresh has offended. And the culprit is crazy too. They have killed so many people so ruthlessly.”

Someone cursed angrily, “What a bastard!”

“They are simply murderous maniacs!”

“According to my suspicion, there are only two kinds of people targeting Green Fresh. The first is Green Fresh’s business competition.

“The second is those who hate the owner of Green Fresh, Xiao Lingyu. They might also be targeting her husband, Gong Tianhao.”

The Shanghai police chief speculated, “So, we can investigate based on these two directions. However, based on my experience, I believe this is something done by the business competition of Green Fresh.”

Another person asked, “Why do you think so, chief?”

Just as the local police officers were discussing the case, the Beijing police received a surrender from the culprit.

Chapter 907: Escape

There were more than 300 Green Fresh supermarkets?across the country. However, there were 12 supermarkets that were involved in the deaths.

Among these 12 supermarkets, there was no such accident in the Beijing supermarket. So the Beijing police department did not participate in the investigation.

However, on this day, someone directly came to the Beijing Police Department to surrender.

“What did you say? You said that the Green Fresh Supermarket poisoning incident was planned by you and your boss?” The police officer was very shocked after hearing Walter’s confession. Then, the police officer immediately asked, “Why did you do this? And who is your boss?”

Walter’s two eyes were bloodshot, and his face was haggard. It was clear that he hadn’t rested well for a period of time. Walter was panicky. He looked around and calmed down slightly.

Walter said, “I... I am the assistant to the President of Royal Forest!”

When the police officer heard that, he frowned slightly and said, “Royal Forest?” Although they did not participate in the investigation of Green Fresh, they had heard about it. This was a big case.

They knew that Royal Forest was the leader in the international agricultural products industry. In China, they were in competition with Green Fresh.

Since they were competitors, it was natural to expect some fights between them. However, Royal Forest was crazy to actually kill people to frame Green Fresh.

If Walter were telling the truth, those involved directly would be arrested, Royal Forest would also need to pay huge amounts of compensation to the families of the victims as well as to the Green Fresh Group. Then they would be kicked out of China.

The police officer asked coldly, “Why did you poison so many people?”

Walter said truthfully, “Royal Forest and Green Fresh are in competition. Or rather, Green Fresh is beating Royal Forest in China.

“Green Fresh supermarkets are all over the country, directly stealing more than 80% of Royal Forest’s customers. This has caused a huge loss to Royal Forest. If this continues, Royal Forest will lose the Chinese market. This is too big of a market to lose. The Chinese market takes up 20 percent of our annual sales. If we were to directly withdraw from China, it would be a huge loss for Royal Forest’s head office. This will be on the head of the China branch president, Peter!”

The police officer immediately asked sharply, “So, you’re saying that you were acting under the order of Peter?”

Walter said, “Yes!”

Then, the police officer interrogated Walter.

At Royal Forest’s president’s office, a man in a black suit rushed to Peter’s office in a panic.

“Boss, something bad has happened!” He shouted directly.

When Peter heard this, he said unhappily, "Don't jinx it. I'm doing very well these days." The closures of the Green Fresh supermarkets caused the business of Royal Forest to pick up. Therefore, he didn't want people to rain on his parade.

The subordinate gasped, "Boss, we've got the news that Walter has gone to the police station and turned himself in!"

Peter was in a daze and didn't react for a moment.

"What did you say?" He asked.

The subordinate said eagerly, "It's Walter, your assistant!"

"Walter?!"

Peter's expression was first one of surprise, and then it became unusually shocked. "How is this possible? Why did Walter suddenly turn himself in?"

He was really shocked and angry, and could not help but feel a wave of panic.

The subordinate shook his head, "I don't know. When Walter ran away like crazy from your office, we followed your instructions and sent people to supervise him. We notice that Walter appears to have lost it. Not only did he scream crazily at home every day, but he also mumbled to the air.

"We thought that Walter might have gone crazy. I was about to report this to you, but the person monitoring Walter made a mistake, and Walter escaped. He ran directly to the police station. It took me a lot of effort to find out that... Walter has turned himself in!"

When Peter heard that, his pupils constricted, and his expression was unusually shocked.

He said loudly and fearfully, "He's crazy. He's really crazy!"

He really didn't expect that a cup, some documents, and an air-conditioner could actually scare him crazy. He had never thought that Walter would be so timid.

He was very regretful that he had involved Walter involved in this matter.

"Bastard!" Peter hit the desk with a heavy fist.

The subordinate asked worriedly, "Boss, what should we do now? If Walter turns himself in, the Chinese police will soon find out about everything." At this point, he paused and said anxiously, "Boss, let's leave now. Otherwise, we might not be able to leave later."

When Peter heard this, he said decisively, "Immediately book the tickets. The earlier the flight, the better!"

He had literally killed dozens of people. The Chinese police department would definitely not let them off.

Peter wanted the headquarter to mobilize their helicopter to fetch him. However, the helicopters couldn't fly into China without a permit. Therefore, the only way for him to escape was by an international flight.

As long as he left China quickly and returned to country F, even if he had killed hundreds of people in China, China would not be able to do anything to him.

The subordinate immediately did as he was told.

After the subordinate left, Peter was anxious. He picked up the phone and wanted to call the head office. However, he thought about it and put down the phone again. Not long after, he seemed to have made a certain decision.

After that, he left the company in a hurry and drove directly in the direction of his villa.

After he returned to his room, he ignored the surprise of the servants and quickly packed up some important things. After he got these things, he quickly left.

However, when he walked out of the villa's door, a row of police officers was already waiting in front of his door.

Chapter 908: Little Ghosts

The police officers outside looked at Walter's frightened behavior and were slightly puzzled.

"Is this man crazy?"

"He looks like he's frightened."

"Frightened? It must be because he has done too many horrible things. A grown man is actually scared to this extent. He won't be scared crazy, right?"

If he were scared to the point of going crazy, it would be another major change for this case. After all, the words of a crazy person who was scared silly could not be used as evidence.

However, when Walter came to the police station to surrender, he was clear-headed, if a little haggard.

A police officer frowned and said, "I think it's better to call a doctor to take a look!"

The other officer echoed, "I agree. If there's a need, it's best to call a psychiatrist. Otherwise, looking at his condition, if he continues, I'm afraid he might really become a lunatic!"

While the two officers were discussing, Walter was leaning against the wall in the detention room, looking very frightened and uneasy.

He covered his head and muttered, "I've already done as you said. You can let me go now, right?"

If this continued, he would go completely mad.

Xiao Ling had a look of admiration on his face as he said to Xiao Letong, "Brother, you're really smart. You got Walter to come and turn himself in."

.....

Xiao Letong said indifferently, "Hehe, this is just a small case." However, there was still some pride on his face

Xiao Ling glanced at Walter and said with a slightly puzzled face, "But brother, why can't we do the same with Peter."

Xiao Letong said, "Walter is timider. As long as we scare him a little, he will break. Moreover, in this matter, although Walter wasn't the mastermind, he was the biggest accomplice. He knew a lot of insider information. Furthermore, he is Peter's right-hand man and his trusted aide. It is very convincing for him to come out and turn himself in."

"On the contrary, this Peter, on the other hand, is a very crafty and cunning fellow. Last time, when you tried to scare them at his office, Walter was scared out of his wits because of a falling air conditioner. On the contrary, Peter was able to remain calm. At the critical moment, he was able to consider whether or not Walter would speak out of turn. He has a strong will. It would be hard for us to force him to turn himself in. It'll take too long."

"However, our mommy could not stay at the police station for too long. The longer this drags out, the faster Peter can eliminate the evidence. Therefore, Walter is the most suitable candidate."

Xiao Ling seemed to have understood.

"With the evidence pointing at Royal Forest and Peter, mommy will be able to get out of the police station as soon as possible!" Xiao Letong thought for a moment and said, "Since Walter has come to surrender, Peter will naturally not be able to escape."

Xiao Ling nodded and replied, "Okay!"

Xiao Letong said, "Let's go and see Mommy First!"

The two of them disappeared.

Chapter 909: Walter's Experience

Walter was scared witless by a fallen air-conditioner in Peter's office. He ran straight home. When he reached home, the fear had subsided slightly.

He wiped the sweat from his forehead and said to himself, "It's too scary."

A cup moved and fell on its own, documents flew everywhere, and an air conditioner suddenly fell. If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, he wouldn't have believed it.

Walter patted his chest and comforted himself, "It's all fake! Don't scare yourself!" Then, he poured himself a glass of water, wanting to completely calm down his guilty conscience.

At this moment, an elderly voice rang out in the room.

"Give me back my life! Give me back my life!"

The atmosphere became strangely quiet and scary!

The glass in Walter's hand fell to the ground.

He looked around in horror, then shouted in fear and unease, "Who is it? Come out now! Don't play tricks on me!"

In modern days, it was not strange for a room to suddenly ring with a sound. This could be arranged with technology. However, Walter was already tortured by his guilty conscience. The smallest thing could make him jump with unease.

The voice in the room rang out again. There seemed to be a vague resentment lingering around him. The voice was long and sorrowful. The old voice said, "Who... am I? I am the person you have killed. I want revenge!"

As soon as the voice fell, Walter immediately hid in a corner, holding his head. His whole body was shivering, and his eyes were looking around with fear and nervousness.

Then, a pair of pale, wrinkled hands appeared in front of him. These hands were aimed at his neck as if they wanted to strangle him. At the same time, a pale-faced old man appeared. His upper body was pale, but the lower half of his body could not be seen clearly.

"Ah!" Wa

did it on purpose?"

"I think so. Chen Mo's Thunderbolt entertainment is basically a giant now. It should have no problem supporting an entire exhibition hall."

"Hahaha, I just remembered Chen Mo's first convention. It was a funny one with Emperor dynasty, and he even stole all the attention from Emperor dynasty's VR games with his anipop. I'm dying of laughter."

"This time, Thunderbolt entertainment is in the same exhibition hall as a lot of small companies. It looks like Thunderbolt Entertainment's status in the industry has indeed risen. Even the organizers of the convention are taking this seriously."

"Which one should we go to first?"

"The booth babes from Emperor dynasty entertainment are definitely the best. As for ZEN Entertainment, the in-game activities were good, and the merchandise was good; However, Chen Zhao's side was definitely the most unexpected. I'm so conflicted. "

"But Chen Mo didn't even show up last year. I wonder if he'll come this year."

"Let's go and take a look. "

Many players' first choice was still Emperor dynasty entertainment and ZEN Entertainment's booths, since Thunderbolt entertainment didn't have many games and Chen Mo didn't even attend last year's Convention, so there wasn't anything particularly attractive about it.

Of course, some of Chen Mo's die-hard fans went to Thunderbolt Entertainment's booth.

When they arrived at Thunderbolt Entertainment's exhibition hall, the players were all dumbfounded. Why were there so many people?

The entire exhibition hall was filled with people, and it was getting crowded. Most of them were squeezing towards Thunderbolt Entertainment's booth, and the other small gaming companies were almost ignore alling the strange scene just now, Walter's entire body trembled. His expression was filled with fear and panic.

After that, he got up and returned to his room. He hurriedly packed a few things, carried his small bag, and immediately left his home. He went to a high-end hotel to get a room.

However, when the hotel staff saw his appearance, they had to double-check his identity before they allowed him entry. He looked too haggard.

When Walter arrived at the hotel room, he looked around and did not find anything strange. His emotions slowly calmed down. He thought that the hotel was safe.

He looked at his messy clothes and the traces of the nanny's blood on his clothes. He decided to go to the bathroom to take a shower and then have a good sleep.

He believed he was too busy. In addition, there was guilt in his heart. That was why he had some hallucinations.

When he walked into the bathroom and turned on the shower, he did not feel anything unusual at first. The temperature was just right. He closed his eyes to relax.

However, the longer he was in the shower, the more he felt that something was wrong.

Why did the water smell like blood?

When he opened his eyes to take a look, he immediately cried out in shock and horror, "Ah!"

There was blood pouring out of the shower.

Walter did not even put on his clothes. He ran out of the bathroom in fear. Then, he shouted in fear, "Help, help!"

However, the hotel had very good sound insulation. No one outside heard him. No one came to help him... except one familiar face. This was the old man that had suddenly appeared in his apartment just now.

"Ah!"

A terrified scream seemed to pierce through the entire hotel!

Chapter 910: Question

When Xiao Lingyu returned home and heard Xiao Ling and her son's story, she was speechless. "So, you guys scared Walter so much that he turned himself in?"

Xiao Lingyu knew that as the investigation progressed, all the evidence still pointed to the Green fresh group.

From this, it could be seen that the person who planned this was not only ruthless but also very experienced. Xiao Lingyu had confidence that the police would find out the truth eventually.

However, no one would have thought that the culprit would suddenly turn himself in.

Xiao Lingyu felt that having Xiao Ling's golden finger really gave her unexpected surprises time and time again. Xiao Lingyu still did not know that the one who had given her unexpected surprises was actually her son, Xiao Letong.

Xiao Ling was already used to this. Every time Xiao Letong did something, Xiao Ling would be there to be the front and take the credit. He didn't mind this. Plus, he did admire Xiao Letong sincerely.

Xiao Ling smiled and said, "Mommy, we only scared him a little. Who would have thought that he was so timid and so easily scared? This scared him so much that he turned himself in at the police station."

After hearing Xiao Ling's words, Xiao Lingyu showed a suspicious look and said, "Well, Ling 'Er, tell mommy what you did."

Xiao Lingyu knew her two sons were very.

Xiao Ling was a spirit. Even though he had lived in the human world for so long, his personality was still pure and kind. On the contrary, her own son was young but mischievous. He was always up to something.

This time, Walter was so scared that he almost lost his mind. He even went to the police station to turn himself in. That was basically throwing himself into prison. After all, he had killed more than a dozen lives.

Even if Walter wasn't the main culprit, he was still the biggest accomplice. According to the laws of China, even if they considered the circumstances and his confession, the police wouldn't let him off easily.

Walter's biggest advantage was that he was a foreigner. As long as he left China before the incident broke out, there was a high chance that he would be safe and sound. Therefore, his sudden surrender was very out of place.

Faced with his mother's sharp questioning, Xiao Ling was flustered. He looked at Xiao Letong at a loss.

Xiao Lingyu looked at him, and her eyes immediately flashed. Xiao Letong couldn't help but sigh in his heart, thinking to himself, 'This child is too honest. But he's just a spirit. He doesn't know the concept of deception.'

Xiao Lingyu looked at her son with burning eyes and then said with a faint smile, "Tell me, son. What kind of things you've done this time?"

Xiao Letong immediately shook his head and said, "Mommy, you have to believe me. I really didn't do anything. It's just..." his eyes flickered as he said, "I had Ling 'Er use his spiritual power to make Walter hallucinate and make him think that he is haunted."

After hearing this, Xiao Lingyu asked with a serious expression, "I remember Ling 'Er said that cultivators couldn't casually use spells on mortals, or they would suffer a backlash. Ling 'Er, will you be affected doing this?"

Xiao Ling, "..."

"..." Xiao Letong shook his head and said, "No, no. We didn't use spells on mortals... We..."

Xiao Lingyu suddenly shouted at him sternly, "Shush!"
