

Chapter 951: Foreign Market

Rexham left with his subordinates in a fit of anger. From the beginning to the end, he did not even have a taste of the food there.

Xiao Lingyu tugged on Gong Tianhao's sleeve and asked in a low voice, "Hubby, is it okay to offend him like this?"

After all, Gong Tianhao had invited him over because of his influence and background in that country.

Gong Tianhao smiled and said, "It's fine."

Speaking up to this point, Gong Tianhao said, "However, we'll have to wait some more time before we can expand into his country's market."

Xiao Lingyu shook her head and said, "It's fine if we abandon his country's market!"

If she didn't open her shop in his country, Rexham couldn't do anything to them.

Gong Tianhao heard Xiao Lingyu's words and didn't say anything.

Anyway, Rexham wasn't the only powerful person in that country. At that time, he could rely on Rexham's sworn enemy again.

If Xiao Lingyu were to lose that market, Gong Tianhao would feel sorry.

When everyone saw Rexham leave, no one came out to persuade him.

These people did not have a close relationship with Rexham. Furthermore, he was coveting Madam Gong too obviously. Who would be so tactless as to persuade him to stay?

Wright looked at the aggressive Rexham and shrugged his shoulders in amusement. He said to the people beside him, "If Rexham leaves just like that, he'll lose out on many things!"

The people beside him nodded in agreement. "That's right!"

Just now, Mr. Gong had said that he would give everyone two jars of health-preserving fruit wine and a jar of Peach Blossom Brew to bring back. This wine was extremely precious.

Moreover, Mr. Gong and his wife also said that drinking this kind of wine over a long period of time could strengthen one's body and prolong one's life. This was simply the legendary miracle medicine.

Who would be willing to decline it?

Rexham probably had lost his brain after having diarrhea for a whole day. Why would he show his desire towards Mrs. Gong so plainly before Mr. Gong? He had offended the host. He would not get this wine in the future.

Everyone could see that. Mr. Gong and Rexham did not officially fall out with each other. After all, both of them were people of status. In front of the world, they knew how to preserve face.

Rexham's departure did not affect everyone's mood. The food at the banquet was too delicious. In addition, Gong Tianhao and his wife kept urging them to eat more. These things would not make people gain weight. In the end, even the noblewomen who were very good at controlling their diet burped after eating. They also ate some fruit and drank some wine. Finally, they put down their knives, forks, and wine glasses in satisfaction and reluctance.

Tonight's banquet was actually a feast.

Everyone was only focused on eating and did not have much interaction. Such a situation was rare in upper-class circles.

Everyone knew that the purpose of attending a banquet in upper-class circles was to expand and deepen their connections.

"Ah, I'm too full." Mrs. Smith ate a lot of pastries and other food to satisfy her appetite. She was finally willing to put down the knife, fork, and plate in her hands.

She glanced at her round belly and looked at Xiao Lingyu worriedly, "Mrs. Gong, I've eaten so much. Will I really not gain weight?"

The other ladies also looked at her with the same gaze.

Xiao Lingyu comforted her with a laugh, "Mrs. Smith, don't worry. I promise you. You really won't gain weight."

When they looked at their round bellies, they couldn't help but feel worried. They had never let their bellies bulge before, except when they were giving birth. But tonight, they had eaten so much without realizing it.

Xiao Lingyu looked at their disbelieving eyes and said helplessly, "How about this? If you increase by one or two pounds tomorrow, you can take me responsible. I'll help you lose the weight you gain."

Chapter 952: Foreign Market

Mrs. Smith's eyes curved into a smile as he said, "Mrs. Gong, actually, we don't need you to be responsible. But, can I bring some fruits back? Your fruits are really too delicious! In the future, I may only eat your fruits."

Mrs. Smith felt despair, knowing that she wouldn't be able to eat the fruits again, so she brought this up.

"No problem!" Xiao Lingyu said with a straightforward and generous smile, "Every madam can bring some fruits back tonight! If you need them in the future, call me directly, and I'll get someone to send them over to you!"

When the other wives heard this, their eyes lit up, and their faces revealed happy expressions. "Madam Gong, you're too kind."

Actually, they also wanted to bring some fruits back, but they weren't as thick-skinned as Mrs. Smith.

Now that Madam Smith voiced their intention and Madam Gong was so generous, no one had any reason to reject her.

On the other side, the big shots, who were listening to their discussions, especially those who didn't bring their wives, started to complain.

"Mr. Gong, are you bullying us who didn't bring our wives?" Wright had the best relationship with Gong Tianhao, so he spoke to Gong Tianhao half-jokingly and half-seriously. "Otherwise, why could these ladies bring back some fruits but not us singles?"

They were also envious of these fruits. Actually, not only did they want to bring back these fruits, but they also wanted to bring back other things like vegetables, soybeans, flour, and other things. They all wanted to bring them back.

"..." Gong Tianhao nodded with a smile. "Alright, bring some back!"

In any case, they had prepared many things for the party. It didn't matter if the guest each brought some home. It wouldn't matter at all to let their families have a taste.

At this moment, Wright asked again, "Gong, when will your wife's shop open in country L?"

"It might take some time." Gong Tianhao said, "Although the shop hasn't opened, if you need it, we are still willing to deliver it to you first." It was just that the cost was a little higher. However, it wasn't that these people couldn't afford it. No matter how expensive it was, they were still willing to enjoy it.

When Wright and the other big shots heard this, they immediately smiled and replied, "Alright, Mr. Gong, we were waiting for you to say that!"

Wright walked in front of Gong Tianhao and patted his shoulder as he said straightforwardly, "Don't worry, I will definitely take care of your wife's business in the future. Whoever wants to come and find trouble, I'll be there and fight back!"

By now, these big shots finally understood the true purpose of Gong Tianhao's invitation.

However, they weren't angry. After all, the things that Gong Tianhao's wife planted were indeed good things. If they didn't come, it would be a huge loss.

They couldn't help but admire Gong Tianhao. He was truly a good man who doted on his wife. For his wife's career, he was willing to lower his face. He asked everyone to come over just to support his wife's business in the foreign market.

If it were them, they would not want their wives to be involved in the business.

However, their wives had no such intention either. They only enjoyed the life of a noble lady in the family.

These men were all strong males. How could they let their women do something that would damage the face of the family? So they didn't understand why Gong Tianhao was so supportive of his wife's career.

Gong Tianhao didn't care what other people thought. He was happy that his goal of holding the party had been achieved.

Just as his wife had said, they needed a chance to make a name for themselves.

After everyone had chatted for a while, it was already late. Some people drank too much wine, and even the Peach Blossom Brew made them feel a little tipsy.

After a short while, the dinner party ended.

For Gong Tianhao and Xiao Lingyu, this party could be considered to have ended perfectly.

Their products had already appeared in front of these people and received the best reception. Then, there wouldn't be any problems in the foreign market.

Only country A of Rexham was left. They could put it aside for the time being and deal with it after they were done with the other matters.

Gong Tianhao sent the guests away one by one, and the manor became quiet again.

However, the various traces left in the manor indicated the previous bustle.

In the study room, Gong Tianhao, Xiao Lingyu, and Zeng Yaozu, Bruce, held another short meeting.

They knew that the product from Taoyuan village was amazing, but they didn't expect the effect to be so fast. They made these big shots lose their composure on the spot.

They planned to discuss the matter with the bigshots through the maids and servants, but they managed to take business with the big shots directly.

Gong Tianhao said, "After tonight, we'll open stores in various places. There won't be any worries or concerns. As long as we are careful, no one will dare to find trouble with us, including the Royal Forest Group."

Zeng Yaozu said excitedly, "Hmph, previously, the Royal Forest group caused trouble in our country. Now that the tables have turned, we'll go to various countries to steal their business. I can't wait for them to come after us!"

"Ahem..." Xiao Lingyu coughed twice and said, "Yaozu, we need to keep a low profile!"

However, Xiao Lingyu was just saying that.

Royal Forest Group was too arrogant and killed many people. She remembered this grudge.

Therefore, if Royal Forest still came after them when Green Fresh wanted to expand overseas...

Chapter 953: Poach

After the party ended, Gong Tianhao and Xiao Lingyu started to receive orders.

Although they hadn't opened their business overseas, these 100 orders were still orders.

Gong Tianhao had already promised to deliver goods to them every three days. The cost wasn't low.

Of course, these costs weren't a problem in the eyes of those people.

They were rich and powerful, and their assets were at least hundreds of billions.

Therefore, this was nothing for them.

They had a lot of things to do, so they took a plane back the next morning.

Early in the morning, Xiao Lingyu received a few exciting calls.

"Mrs. Gong, it really hasn't increased. Hehe, I'm so happy." The first call was from Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. Smith was still uncertain. She was even a little worried. What if she gained weight? Losing weight would be too tiring. Most importantly, she might not be able to eat those pastries and desserts anymore. That would be very sad.

Xiao Lingyu was confused at first. After a moment, she quickly reacted and said with a smile, "Congratulations, Mrs. Smith. You can continue to maintain your beautiful and perfect figure."

Mrs. Smith's face was slightly red. Any woman liked to be complimented.

Mrs. Smith smiled and said, "In terms of a perfect figure, Madam Gong, yours is absolutely perfect. Madam Gong, your figure is so beautiful that even a woman like me would envy it!"

.....

Xiao Lingyu's figure was tall and slender, with golden proportions and perfect curves. It was exactly the figure that men and women dreamed of.

Xiao Lingyu smiled and said, "Madam Smith, if you eat my food every day, you will definitely be able to reach a figure like mine. Let me tell you a secret. My figure is actually derived from eating."

Xiao Lingyu did not lie to Mrs. Smith.

In the past, her figure was indeed not bad, but it was far from being as perfect and beautiful as it was now. It was because she drank the spiritual spring water that the impurities in her body were removed and the excess fat was burned.

However, it was difficult to notice the change in her figure unless they were very close.

When Mrs. Smith heard this, her eyes lit up, and she said in disbelief, "Mrs. Gong, is what you said true? If I eat your fruits and vegetables every day, my figure will become like yours?"

Xiao Lingyu smiled and said, "Of course, Mrs. Smith, I won't lie to you. It's just that this effect might take some time." After all, eating these vegetables and fruits was not as pure as drinking the spiritual spring water directly. "Also, Mrs. Smith, you can eat my food without worry. You don't have to worry about eating too much and gaining weight."

Xiao Lingyu's face became thick. In order to promote her own products, she said these words without thinking.

“Any food made from my products, such as the pastries that you like to eat, you don’t have to worry about gaining weight after eating them,” Xiao Lingyu said.

When Mrs. Smith heard this, her expression became even more excited. She said, “Mrs. Gong, I thought you were joking with me. But I believe you now.”

The reasoning was the same. Mrs. Gong had no reason to harm her.

Therefore, since Mrs. Gong said so, it must be because her food had such an effect. If that were the case, that would be great.

In the future, she could eat whatever she wanted without worrying about becoming fat.

Although she had a good relationship with her husband, she was not sure if her husband would dislike her after she became fat.

Although she was protected in the ivory tower, she did not dare to gamble on her relationship with her husband.

“Thank you for your trust, Mrs. Smith.” Xiao Lingyu happily invited her, “If you have time, you are welcome to visit me at Taoyuan Village Village!”

Mrs. Smith happily said, “Oh, Mrs. Gong, I will definitely go there when I have time. I must go and take a look!”

Chapter 954: Poach

After that, the two of them chatted for a while before hanging up.

As soon as Xiao Lingyu hung up on Mrs. Smith, the phone rang again.

It was a female voice that was as excited as Mrs. Smith.

“Oh, Mrs. Gong, you really won’t gain any weight after eating those pastries!” A noblewoman said very excitedly, “Oh my God, I ate too much food and pastries last night. I was worried that I would gain a little bit of weight, so I didn’t have a good night’s rest. Well, early this morning. I got up and weighed myself. In the end, not only did I not gain any weight, I actually lost weight. Mrs. Gong, I’m very happy.”

“...” Xiao Lingyu said with a smile, “Congratulations, Madam!”

For a woman, even if she lost half a pound, she would still be extremely happy.

The Madam said excitedly again, “Previously when you said that we wouldn’t worry about getting fat if you ate your food and that it would have a certain effect on weight loss, I didn’t really believe it. But now, I believe it. Madam Gong, thank you!” As she said this, she paused for a moment and thought of something. Then, she continued, “From now on, I will only eat the food that your family sent over.”

“Thank you for your trust, Madam!” Xiao Lingyu said with a smile, “In the future if my family produces any new products, I will definitely send them to you for a taste.”

“Alright, I will definitely try them!” This madam said.

Xiao Lingyu sent an invitation to this madam, “Madam, when you have time, you can come directly to Taoyuan village to take a look. It will definitely be a very pleasant experience!”

This madam nodded and said, “Yes, definitely. We must definitely go to that magical place in Taoyuan Village. If we don’t go, we will regret it for the rest of our lives.”

Taoyuan Village was a beautiful and magical place. In her lifetime, she definitely had to go and take a look.

Following that, Xiao Lingyu received a few calls from a few noblewomen. All of them told her that they had eaten so many pastries and things yesterday, but they did not gain any weight. Instead, they lost weight and were very happy.

.....

Xiao Lingyu also sent out invitations to them one by one, asking them to go to Taoyuan village to take a look. No one refused, indicating that they would definitely go if they had the time.

After receiving a few calls in the morning, Xiao Lingyu, Gong Tianhao, and the others set sail back to China.

After so many days, Gong Tianhao returned directly to the imperial palace group in the capital, while Xiao Lingyu brought the children and the other two back to Taoyuan village.

The headquarters of Green Fresh Group was in Taoyuan Village.

After sending the two children home, Xiao Lingyu and Bruce, Zeng Yaozu immediately held an emergency meeting.

Xiao Lingyu said seriously, “Regarding the expansion of the overseas market, I’m afraid we have to hire more people to help you two.”

The overseas market was so big. With just the two of them, it would be difficult for them to handle it. Therefore, the most important thing now was to recruit talents.

They had been preparing and recruiting a lot of people, but it was not enough.

At least a team of 100 people would be sent to a country to set up a branch there.

Bruce and Zeng Yaozu nodded, “Our business is expanding quickly. The batch of people we have trained is far from enough. We need to recruit more people.”

Xiao Lingyu nodded. Then, she looked at Bruce and asked, “Bruce, do you have anyone to recommend?”

Royal Forest Group was an international company and the leader in this industry. There must be many talents in the company. Therefore, the meaning behind Xiao Lingyu’s question was that she wanted Bruce to poach people. She trusted Bruce’s eyes for talent.

Of course, Xiao Lingyu still had to personally interview them.

She had a pair of eyes that could see through people’s character, and there was also a person by her side who could distinguish between good and evil.

After all, sometimes, a single misstep could ruin the whole company. She did not want all her efforts to be wasted.

Bruce thought for a moment and said, "Yes, but I still have to persuade them!"

Xiao Lingyu nodded and said, "Yes, as long as their character is good and their abilities are outstanding, I will definitely open the door to welcome them and give them the best benefits."

"Okay, I got it!" Bruce replied. He believed that the benefits Xiao Lingyu gave them were the best in the industry.

Zeng Yaozu could not help but interject, "Bruce, if those people are not willing to come over, just tell them that Royal Forest group is going to close down very soon. Tell them to find a way out first."

Xiao Lingyu and Bruce, "..."

If the people from the Royal Forest group heard this, would they blow their heads off? Green Fresh hadn't even made the first step into the international market.

"Ahem..." Xiao Lingyu said, "Bruce, I think Yaozu is right. Just let your former companions think about it. Don't worry, I won't mistreat them."

Bruce, "..."

He took a light breath, then nodded and said, "Okay, I'll give it a try."

In his opinion, with the excellent situation and deep background of the Green Fresh Group, the imperial forest group simply didn't have the ability to compete, so they would go bankrupt sooner or later.

Chapter 955: Get Angry

In the office of the CEO of Royal Forest Group, Macon listened to the regional presidents with a black face.

"What did you guys say? The top-tier nobles from country L, country X, country Y, and more than a hundred other countries rejected our products?" Macon asked with an ugly expression.

Some of the regional presidents lowered their heads and replied, "Yes, Mr. Macon!"

Hearing his subordinate's reply, he immediately said angrily, "What exactly is the reason? Did you guys figure it out?"

If it was just one country or two countries that had such a problem, it meant that there was a problem with the branch manager's ability.

However, if such a problem appeared in more than a hundred countries at the same time, he had to pay attention to it.

Moreover, the families that terminated the contract with them were all top-class nobles in that country. The reason why Royal Forest group could cooperate with them was that the company had a history of more than 100 years, as well as the quality and reputation of its products.

Although Royal Forest group was not the largest and most famous company in the world, it maintained the closest relationship with the top-class big shots in various countries.

Because they had the backing of the big shots, ordinary people really did not dare to provoke Royal Forest.

However, it was unknown whether it was Royal Forest's luck that had run out because they kept running into bad incidents recently. Within less than two months, they had hurriedly withdrawn from the market in China, and they were also being pursued by the Chinese government for a huge amount of compensation.

Then, problems appeared in various countries and regions.

If it was just a small client canceling the contract in one country, they wouldn't take it to heart. It wouldn't have any impact on their business.

However, the people who wanted to stop working with them were the countries' bigwigs. This was a huge problem.

These people had a lot of influence. Once the smaller families in the other countries realized this, they would follow the bigwigs and cancel their cooperation with Royal Forest too.

Therefore, now they had to figure out why these big shots from over a hundred countries would suddenly terminate their cooperation agreements with them. Did they find another supplier, or was there another reason?

If there was another reason, it would be fine.

What they were afraid of was...

Based on their current guess, the biggest reason was probably that they had found another supplier.

The regional presidents thought of this problem at the same time.

However, in the face of their boss' questioning, they did not dare to say it out loud. They were afraid that Macon would get angry.

Looking at his subordinates, who had their heads lowered, Macon felt a burst of anger in his heart. He said angrily, "Why aren't you saying anything? Didn't you find out why those big shots canceled their contracts?"

He was angry. Ever since he inherited the Royal Forest Group, questions had appeared one after another.

The subordinates looked at each other. They just lowered their heads, and they were afraid to answer Macon's questions.

They were afraid of being fired and banned from the industry. Bruce was a good example.

Although there were many job options, Royal Forest provided the best benefits. They had earned a lot from working here.

Once they were fired and banned, they could forget about finding a good job.

Macon asked a few times, but none of his subordinates stepped forward to answer. He was so angry that he leaned back, and his expression turned ugly.

He said sternly, "Have you all become mute?" Speaking up to this point, his sharp gaze swept across the twenty to thirty subordinates present before he sharply asked, "Or do you mean to say that all of you haven't even investigated the reason and have directly come to report to me?"

The subordinates shrunk. They hoped that they wouldn't be called out by Macon.

After Macon saw this, he was furious. Then, he suddenly stood up and swept the documents and teacups on the desk with his hands. All of them fell to the ground.

Chapter 956: Get Angry

The teacup broke into pieces, and the documents were scattered all over the place. It was a complete mess.

There was even a piece of the teacup that flew directly to the forehead of a subordinate. The sharp piece of the teacup immediately drew a line of blood on his forehead. The pain made him involuntarily gasp. And then he wiped his wound and brought his hand to his eyes. His fingertip was covered in fresh blood, and the blood kept flowing out.

However, his gasp seemed to have disturbed Macon. He ignored the man's injury and angrily shouted, "Why are you shouting? Are you crazy?"

His sharp eyes stared at that person for a while, and then he asked loudly, "George, you are in charge of Country L's region. Then tell me now, why did the Peter family stop their cooperation with us?"

George was already injured. Now that he was named by Macon, his face instantly turned pale.

He said with some fear and nervousness in his heart, "This... this... This might be an accident!" He had asked the person in charge of that family the reason for canceling the contract, and then that person just sneered. He didn't even bother to answer him. Since the person refused to tell him the reason, George didn't know who to ask. However, the fact that the family had terminated the contract with Royal Forest was big news, and he had to report it to the headquarters immediately.

However, he had never expected that not only the country L that he was in charge of would have such a problem, but other countries and regions would also have the same problem. This made his uneasy heart slightly relax.

Since this was not his problem alone, the headquarters would not fire him. At the same time, there were more people who had to bear the interrogation of the headquarters and Macon.

Macon heard George's answer and laughed in anger.

He sneered and said, "An accident? Then tell me, what kind of accident was it that caused all the top-tier families to terminate the cooperation contract with our Royal Forest Group?"

"This... this..." George couldn't answer.

The fundamental reason was that they hadn't found the reason at all.

Of course, they couldn't answer Macon's question.

Macon's sharp eyes stared at him fiercely. At the same time, he swept his gaze across the expressions of everyone in the office. However, all of them had their heads lowered, so he couldn't see them clearly.

Macken felt a surge of anger in his heart. He was angry and irritable, and he really wanted to vent his anger. Then, he bent down and raised the chair behind him, aiming it at George and the others. He smashed it fiercely.

Although these subordinates had their heads lowered, they had been paying attention to Macon's movements from the corner of their eyes. Seeing Macon raise the chair, their expressions suddenly changed, and everyone quickly ran away.

They didn't want to die.

A loud sound rang out in the office.

The bodyguards outside thought that something had happened and quickly ran out. However, when they entered the office, they saw a chair lying in the middle. Many people scattered, and these people still had frightened, uneasy, and nervous expressions on their faces.

The bodyguards knew what was going on the moment they saw the situation. Then, they quickly left the office and closed the door.

They were too small to deal with the company leader's anger.

Even after smashing the chair, Macon was still angry. Then, he smashed whatever he saw.

Bang!

Bang!

A series of loud sounds rose and fell in the office.

Then, from time to time, there were sounds of commotion and fear from the crowd.

When the subordinates saw the heavy objects smashing toward them, their eyes revealed a look of fear and fear.

If these vases were smashed on their heads, even if they were not killed, they would probably lose half of their lives.

Who was not afraid of death?

Therefore, when they saw Macon smashing things randomly, the group of people ran in different directions, causing many people to collide with each other and fall to the ground. Then, they couldn't dodge in time and were hit by something flying over.

The scene was extremely chaotic.

The commotion inside was so loud, but the bodyguards outside acted as if they didn't hear it. The door was still shut quietly.

Some people couldn't stand the shock of being smashed, so they opened the door and ran out. Instead of risking their lives, they better come back after Macon's anger subsided. The people in the office ran out.

When Macon calmed down, there was no one else in the office except himself. The smashed office was a mess.

Seeing that his subordinates had left, Macon immediately sat on the ground. The anger on his face had not subsided. He cursed in a low voice, "These bastards!"

After sitting on the ground for a moment, he got up and walked to his desk. He wanted to call his secretary and get her to inform these regional presidents that they had to come up with a solution for him the next day.

However, when he stood up, he realized that everything in the office had been smashed. The phone was also in pieces.

He could only walk out and ask someone to call his secretary over.

When the secretary heard the call, she walked over in fear. When she saw the messy office, her expression suddenly changed. Her pupils suddenly shrank, and her expression was a little scared and frightened.

Fortunately, Macon had already vented his anger, so he didn't lash out at her.

Chapter 957: Shock

Xiao Lingyu was busy expanding her company and building a foreign market. She did not know that the CEO of Royal Forest Group headquarters, Macon, had thrown a tantrum.

However, even if she knew, she would have scoffed.

If the Royal Forest group had not done such a despicable and vicious thing, she would have been able to compete fairly with them. However, they had gone too far. In order to deal with the Green Fresh Group, they killed innocent lives. Thinking of this, Xiao Lingyu was furious and angry.

Therefore, she naturally wouldn't show mercy. Royal Forest must have caused more deaths in the past.

Although the foreign market wasn't her home ground, she had a big background to rely on. Most importantly, her family's products were the best guarantee.

If it was not for the good products, no matter how many connections she had, no matter how strong her background was, others would not care.

People were rushing to get her stuff, so there was no reason for her to decline.

Right now, Xiao Lingyu was very busy.

As for Gong Tianhao, he was not an idle person. He had his own big company, so he could not help his wife with everything. Moreover, Xiao Lingyu could not rely on her husband for everything.

Therefore, they were all busy with their own things. However, no matter how busy they were, they would still find time to chat with each other via video chat.

Sometimes, when Xiao Lingyu encountered something that she did not understand, she would naturally ask her husband for advice.

Sometimes, Gong Tianhao would act coquettishly to Xiao Lingyu during the video chat, causing Xiao Lingyu to be speechless.

Of course, Xiao Lingyu also enjoyed Gong Tianhao's sulky mode.

.....

During their separation, they often talked on the phone. However, no matter how long they talked, Gong Tianhao did not forget to urge Xiao Lingyu to rest.

Work was something that could never be finished. Therefore, rest was the most important.

After hanging up Xiao Lingyu's call, Gong Tianhao looked at a proposal on the table and frowned slightly.

This proposal was for him to consider moving the head office to Taoyuan Village.

That way, he would not have to fly to both sides of Taoyuan Village and Beijing every time. In the future, he could spend more time with his family.

Of course, moving the company was not something that could be done in a day or two. The biggest problem had not been solved yet, and that was the office building.

There were tens of thousands of employees in the company.

Gong Tianhao put down the documents, rubbed his temples, looked at the time, and went to rest.

He had to take care of his body and live longer so that he could be with his wife and children longer.

In the past, he didn't care. All he did was work overtime. He was a workaholic.

But after he got married, his family came first, and his work came second.

No matter how important his work was, it wasn't as important as his family.

Moreover, he was already rich enough now. He wouldn't be able to spend it all in his lifetime. There was simply no need for him to work so hard and exchange his life for money.

Green Fresh was recruiting a large number of talents, and they were going to develop overseas. Once this news was released, it caused a great sensation in the workplace. Many of the workplace elites were restless and secretly wanted to jump ship to the Green Fresh group.

The reason they did this was not only because of the good salary and benefits of the Green Fresh Group but also because they wanted to eat the fruits and vegetables of the Green Fresh group. They didn't have to wait in line every day to buy them, and they could eat them every day. Moreover, the green fresh group cafeteria had all kinds of delicacies. It was simply a paradise for those foodies.

Even if the green fresh group's salary was slightly lower, they would still be willing to work there.

Moreover, the Green Fresh group's recruitment announcement was to expand the foreign market.

What did this mean? It meant that the Green Fresh group's prospects were great, and its potential was limitless.

How big was the foreign market? As long as it was someone in the business world, they were very clear.

For a moment, in the business world, one could faintly hear such a conversation.

"Have you heard? Because of the expansion of the foreign market, the company needs to recruit a large number of talented people."

"Yes, I've heard. A friend of mine works at the Green Fresh Group, and their internal department knew about this news before others.. Therefore, as soon as my friend heard about this, he secretly told me. I'm going to apply!"

Chapter 958: The Shock

"Ah, so you also have such a plan." The person looked around. "Let me tell you. I also have such a plan. I have already written my resume and plan to send it over!"

The conversation between the two of them was, of course, secret and quiet.

"I didn't know that!" The companion exclaimed. Then, he looked around vigilantly and said in a low voice, "But aren't you doing well in the company? You are already a senior manager. Your salary and treatment are already considered very good in this industry. Moreover, you still have a very big future in this company. Isn't this too risky?"

"Risky?" After hearing this, this person laughed twice and said, "I don't think it's risky. If I'm lucky and really get a job at the Green Fresh group, won't the future there be even greater? Besides, I heard that there are a lot of delicacies in the greenish group's cafeteria. Even for these delicacies, I'm willing to gamble."

When his companion heard this, he nodded in agreement. "That's true. It's just that Green Fresh group's recruitment is too strict. Not everyone can enter!"

He nodded and said, "Yes, but the first thing they look for in recruitment is character. As long as there's no problem with the character, and you have a certain level of ability, there's no problem. However, the Green Fresh group's recruitment was also quite strange. They look for qualifications. Regardless of whether you have a degree or not, as long as you have the ability, you can join!"

His companion said, "I've also heard that the Green Fresh group has never paid attention to a degree. As long as you have the ability, then you can have a fair chance to compete!"

"That's why it makes sense for the Green Fresh group to be able to develop rapidly."

...

"Hey, have you guys heard?"

"Heard what?" His companion asked in puzzlement.

"Didn't you all hear?"

"Tell me. Don't keep me in suspense."

.....

"I heard that President Guan sent his resume to the green Fresh group and had the opportunity for an interview. If he passes the interview, he probably will go to work there."

"Ah, no way? Is President Guan going to the Green Fresh group?"

"That's what I heard. I also heard that not only director Guan, director Zhang, and director Li are doing the same."

"This is crazy. Our company is one of the top 50 companies in the country. Our future is bright. Although Green Fresh is also a big company, it's much smaller than our company. President Guan, they... They actually want to jump to a company that is completely inferior to our company." Someone said in surprise.

Someone analyzed, "Although the green fresh group is inferior to our company, their salary and various benefits are not inferior to ours."

"Most importantly, I heard that people who work in the Green Fresh Group can eat fresh food every day. We all know how hard it is to buy them."

"After entering the company, we can eat them every day. I think because of this, many people are willing to work at the Green Fresh group."

In fact, if he had a choice, he would prefer to work at the Green Fresh group. After all, the benefits there were simply too good.

"That's true." Someone echoed, "It's just that I heard that green fresh group is very strict in recruiting people, especially in terms of character. Ordinary people really can't get in. Of course, once you get in, you won't be willing to come out."

"Strange, why did Green Fresh group make such a high profile recruitment this time?" Someone said, "It seems that the entire professional and business world knows about this now. In the past, before the announcement was made, I heard that they already had a full resume."

“I heard from a relative of mine who works at Green Fresh Group. The reason why the recruitment is so high-profile this time is because the green fresh group needs a large number of people to enter the foreign market.”

“I think Green Fresh Group is openly poaching talents from various companies this time.”

After all, Green Fresh Group’s salary and benefits were extremely good. Moreover, the most important advantage was that the employees could eat fresh green vegetables and fruits every day during their working meals. This was something that other companies could not compare.

Therefore, for this recruitment, many professionals and business talents were eager to make a move.

“With the Green Fresh Group doing this, many big companies would have a headache. They are afraid that their own talents will jump to the Green Fresh Group. Therefore, many companies have increased their original salary by a lot.”

“Actually, if there’s a chance, I would also like to work at the Green Fresh Group.” Unfortunately, her conditions didn’t allow it.

Her company was doing quite well. The pay and treatment were also quite good. If she applied to the Green Fresh Group and weren’t hired, then she would be left in the wind. Plus, her original company might not want her after that. Therefore, she didn’t dare to gamble.

“Doesn’t this make Green Fresh Group the public enemy of all the companies,” someone joked, “Every company is afraid that Green Fresh group will poach their employees away.”

“Haha, that makes sense.”

Chapter 959: Talents

Right now, many company bosses and CEOs were having a headache.

Why?

It was just that many of the outstanding talents in the company had resigned and planned to switch to Green Fresh Group. No matter how they tried to persuade them to stay or how they raised their salaries, it was all useless.

These talents said a little embarrassedly, “Boss, I’m sorry. Actually, it’s not about the salary. I’m going to their canteen!”

The CEO and boss, “...”

What could they say? This was the biggest advantage of the fresh green group.

No matter how good the company’s salary and benefits were, they were not as good as the canteen. The food prepared in the canteen was all Green Fresh group’s own products.

These companies could be considered rich, but even if they had money, they could not buy fruits and vegetables from Green Fresh daily. They were too expensive. Occasionally, they would reward their employees, but not every day. They weren't like the Green Fresh Group, which produced and consumed its own products.

Thinking of this, these bosses and presidents wanted to curse. 'Green fresh group is too unkind. What are you doing poaching all the talents from other companies?'

Whether the company developed or not, talent was the most crucial.

"Sigh!" The president of a large company sighed.

Hearing his sigh, a person beside him smiled and asked, "Old Li, you're also worried about the poaching, right?"

Old Li looked at his old friend and smiled bitterly, "That's right. There are so many outstanding talents in the company, and they are all eager to join the Green Fresh Group. No matter how high I offered to increase their salary, they rejected me." Of course, he only offered that to those he really wanted to keep. These people were clever enough to know that they would get better treatment at Green Fresh.

His old friend also smiled bitterly and said, "It goes without saying that the green fresh group is planning to attract all the talented people from all the companies in the country to her company. We're all going to die."

Plus, they couldn't do anything. They couldn't attack Green Fresh because Green Fresh group had the backing of Imperial Palace Group, but they also had cooperation with many different countries. Who would dare to provoke it?

"Sigh, now we can only pray that the Green Fresh group will leave one or two outstanding talents for us," Old Li said with a smile.

His old friend said, "I heard that Green Fresh Group is very strict in recruiting people. First of all, it depends on one's character, and second, it depends on one's ability. They value degree and education the least."

Many companies valued education because they thought that these people with education were the best. For example, people who returned from overseas or graduated from top schools and so on. Many ordinary people without academic qualifications, no matter how strong their abilities were, were denied.

The talents these companies valued had a certain level of ability.

Old Li sighed lightly and said somewhat helplessly, "Green Fresh Group has the ability to do this. But our company can't do it. Sigh, Old Zhang, how many talents have already resigned from your company?"

Old Zhang shook his head and said, "Only one vice president has been recruited. But there are quite a few others who have already sent their resumes to the green fresh group, waiting for an interview."

Old Li smiled bitterly and said, "So you've only lost one. I've already lost three people. It feels like I'm being targeted."

"Haha..." at this time, old Zhang laughed loudly and said, "Old Li, you should be happy. It means that you have recruited real talent. Otherwise, the Green Fresh group would not even bother."

The recruitment requirements of the Green Fresh Group were very strict. It was known in the business world. So, if someone was recruited by the Green Fresh Group, it meant that he had a good character and was a real talent. Such talent was very popular in any company.

However, there seemed to be a rule tacitly accepted in the business world. That was that no company would accept people who were fired by the Green Fresh Group.

This was because the people who were fired by the Green Fresh group were usually of these two categories. One was that their character was bad, and the other was that their ability was really bad. These two types of people were not welcome in any company.

Old Li listened to old Zhang's words and could only laugh bitterly, "I guess that's the only consolation. But speaking of which, the company has lost so many outstanding talents all of a sudden. It has indeed caused a great loss to the company." The most depressing thing was they could not claim compensation from the Green Fresh Group.

Although the employees had signed a labor contract with the company, it was an employment relationship. The employees had taken the initiative to terminate the contract, so they needed to compensate the company to a certain extent. However, this small amount of compensation was not enough to make up for the huge loss of the company.

Old Zhang could only comfort him, "We can only comfort ourselves. We'll have fresh blood. In the future, our company will definitely have many talented people."

Old Li said with a wry smile, "I hope so." But it was not easy to nurture talents.

"Many companies have such problems, so it's not like we're alone." old Zhang said cheerfully.

Indeed, the problem that old Li and old Zhang faced was faced by all the companies. The talent drain was real.

"What's wrong with Green Fresh Group? Are they openly poaching the talents of various companies?" Someone said angrily, "Just because she has a backer and no one dares to provoke her, and she can unscrupulously poach all the elite talents in the workplace, right?"

Not everyone was as calm and accepting as old Li and Old Zhang. Some people were extremely angry about this matter.

Someone at the side said carefully, "But manager, they didn't go to other companies to poach people directly." The talents left on their own.

The manager glanced at him and immediately said unhappily, "I know."

It was precisely because of this that he was even angrier.

This showed that Green Fresh was a better choice than their companies. This was a depressing fact for the bosses.

Chapter 960: Leave Me Be

In the CEO's Office of the green fresh group, the director of the Human Resources Department, An Xiaohui, took out a stack of documents and said to Xiao Lingyu, "CEO Xiao, these are the resumes of the candidates who were selected."

Xiao Lingyu took it and looked at it. She said in surprise, "That's a lot!"

An Xiaohui said, "Two thousand! That's still a lot. These two thousand were sent to you after three layers of selection among the thirty thousand we've received."

"30,000?" Xiao Lingyu was really surprised by this number. "How can there be so many?"

An Xiaohui shrugged her shoulders and said with a smile, "Ever since our green fresh group's recruitment information was posted online, resumes have been sent to our mailboxes from all over the country, and most of them are the elites of many companies."

At this point, An Xiaohui said with a slight headache, "President Xiao, I'm now answering the phone every day. Other than those job interview calls, there are also some companies that have specially called us, asking us to show mercy and leave one or two talents for their company. Otherwise, their company will suffer a huge loss!"

When they posted the recruitment information online, they had not considered this issue at all.

How could they have expected that their company would be so attractive that it attracted so many professionals and business talents?

Xiao Lingyu raised her eyebrows in surprise.

They had not expected that the recruitment of the green Fresh group would cause such a stir in the workplace and business world.

Previously, they had considered whether they could recruit more talents, but they had never expected that they would actually poach talents from other companies.

Since these talents had come to them, there was no reason for them to reject them.

As for those companies that couldn't retain their talents, it had nothing to do with the Green Fresh Group.

An Xiaohui said, "The resumes are still being sent over. The human resources department has already arranged for three people to be focused on this."

Xiao Lingyu nodded and said, "Okay, pass down the order. In the selection, we must be strict!"

"Okay!" An Xiaohui nodded and said.

Xiao Lingyu flipped through the resumes of these people. Then, she selected about 600 people and said to An Xiaohui, "Arrange an interview for these people first!"

"Okay!" An Xiaohui replied.

As for those who were eliminated, An Xiaohui did not say anything.

She believed that Xiao Lingyu had a reason to eliminate these people!

An Xiaohui looked at the resumes and said, "Our company's recruitment is really strict. Out of 100,000 people, only 600 people are selected for the interview. The chance is almost as high as winning the lottery."

Xiao Lingyu said with a laugh, "Are you feeling unfair to those who were eliminated?"

An Xiaohui immediately shook her head and said, "I'm not!" At this point, she paused for a moment and said, "I just feel that I'm very lucky!"

Back then, she was just a tourist in Taoyuan village. Then, she was selected by Xiao Lingyu and worked here.

Fortunately, the company had just been established and was not large-scale. Otherwise, with the company's current scale and with her education and qualifications, how could she easily become the HR director of the company? She might even be able to enter the company.

Now, her classmates, relatives, and friends were extremely jealous of her.

From the time she worked at the company, she had slowly gotten rid of her soft-hearted shortcomings and became an independent, strong, and capable woman.

First, she had to be strict with herself. She absolutely could not use her public position for personal gain or abuse her power. For example, when her former classmates, relatives, and friends knew that she worked at the Green Fresh Group and was in such an important position, they all wanted to use her connections to enter the greenish group for work. An Xiaohui would sternly reject them and tell them to apply through the formal procedures. If they had the ability, they would be accepted. She wouldn't be biased.

Because of this, An Xiaohui was criticized and scolded by her classmates, relatives, and friends. They said that she looked down on them because she was in Green Fresh. Otherwise, why wouldn't she even help them with such a small favor?

They would stop interacting with each other anymore.

An Xiaohui was very strict with herself and also with her subordinates.

Under her management, she would never allow those sly and lazy people to exist. Similarly, she would never allow her subordinates to use their power for personal gain and take kickbacks.

For this reason, her subordinates gave her a nickname: The heartless one.

An Xiaohui's previous weakness had caused her a lot of damage, such as the incident with Ye Feifei. At the same time, it had also caused a huge loss to the company, such as the incident where she had recruited Bai Shanshan.

Because of these two lessons, she swore not to repeat them anymore in the future. Otherwise, she would be letting down Xiao Lingyu, who had been nurturing her and giving her trust.

After An Xiaohui came out of the President's office, she handed her resume to her assistant and instructed, "Inform these people to come for the interview starting at nine in the morning tomorrow!"

The assistant held the documents and immediately replied, "Yes!"

An Xiaohui instructed again, "Inform Xiao Zhang and the other two. For those candidates, tell them to be strict with their selection among the new resumes! We only quality!"

The assistant adjusted the glasses on her nose and replied, "Yes!"

Then, An Xiaohui instructed a few more things to be arranged by the assistant!

After that, An Xiaohui went into her office while her assistant went to assign tasks!

As soon as An Xiaohui entered the office, her phone rang.

She took out her phone and looked at it. Suddenly, she felt a headache coming on. She rubbed her forehead and called out, "Dad!"

Father An's anger was immediately transmitted from the phone, "An Xiaohui, are you really going to turn your back on your family? Didn't you say that An Yang could enter your company? Why did An Yang call just now and say that he had been rejected?"

An Yang was An Xiaohui's cousin and her second uncle's son. He had graduated from university two to three years ago and did not have a proper job. He played video games at home every day.

When they heard that An Xiaohui's company was hiring a large number of employees, they asked An Xiaohui to arrange for An Yang to get into the company.

Father An directly took responsibility for this matter. He said that he would definitely let An Yang enter the green fresh group and that An Yang would at least be a manager.

However, who would have thought that his daughter would not give him face and reject An Yang directly. Father An's brother was so angry that he called to scold Father An.

Therefore, Father An called to scold his daughter.
