

Farming in the Mountains: Max Level Jiaojiao Is Three Years Old

Chapter 24: Finally Free

Xue Yan went to the ditch to get her hoe. The mother must have put it aside when she came home.

“Jiang Yue. Jiang Yue.” Li He Hua could not wait to pack her things and quickly walked toward Jiang Yue with motherly love.

His voice was still very soft, as she was still afraid of scaring the little child.

Seeing that Li Hehua still wanted to hug her, Jiang Yue immediately wanted to hide. She really wasn't used to other people carrying her. Moreover the fact that Li He Hua wanted to treat her like a baby.

Yet, when she looked to the side, she saw that Xue Yan had gone to get the hoe, and there was no place for her to hide. She could only shrink her small body and get carried by Li Hehua.

Now that she was being carried, she didn't have to look up at anyone. This was good, but she still felt awkward.

She looked like a child, but she was actually an adult.

“Jiang Yue. Oh my, Jiang Yue.” Li Hehua looked at her and couldn't stop calling her name. “Why are you here too, Jiang Yue?”

Jiang Yue's body was still tense, but she replied calmly, “My brother wanted to come, so I followed him here.” He shouldn't be called Xue Yan.

In other people's eyes, she was just a child. Since she had to try her best to hide something, it was better to call her brother.

“Sister-in-law, please let me down.” Jiang Yue couldn't help but say. It was just too awkward. “You've been working all day, you should be tired.”

“I'm not tired. When I see you, I forget all about my fatigue.” Li Hehua hurriedly said, still very much in love with her.

It was as if she would be happy just by hugging her.

Jiang Yue was speechless.

In the end, LiHehua had to pack her things to go home and couldn't carry everything, so she put her down.

Jiang Yue heaved a sigh of relief as soon as she was put down. She was finally free. Her body also relaxed and was no longer tense.

At this time, Xue Yan came back with a hoe and saw her relieved look. He didn't know what had happened, but he didn't ask anything.

Xue Yan looked around and asked Xue Dafu, "Father, where's Wufu? Didn't he come with you to explore the wasteland? Where is he?"

Jiang Yue was also curious, so she turned to look at Xue Dafu.

Xue Dafu had his back to them as he tied up a bundle of firewood. The firewood was covered in weeds, small branches, and roots. They were cleared out when they were exploring the land. He didn't even turn his head when he heard Xue Yan. He continued to tie up the firewood and prepared to bring it home to burn as he replied, "He heard that Zhu Zi and the others were going to learn hunting with Hunter Wu in the deep mountains tomorrow. He also wanted to learn, so he went to find Hunter Wu to talk about this matter. He has not returned yet."

Hearing this, Xue Yan's expression changed.

In his previous life, his fifth brother had gone to the mountains to learn how to hunt for the first time. Tomorrow would be the death anniversary of his fifth brother in his previous life.

In this life, he would not let anything happen to his brother no matter what.

Xue Yan began to be absent-minded.

Jiang Yue found it strange. Was he worried about his younger brother going into the mountains to learn how to hunt? Or was he not allowed to go hunting in the mountains?

Besides, she wanted to go hunting too, and the wooden stick had already been shaved.

Now that she saw his big reaction, could she tell him that she also wanted to go hunting?

On the way home, Xue Yan was still absent-minded.

Jiang Yue saw everything and wanted to ask, but she opened her mouth and didn't say anything. She thought that since this matter was related to Wufu's hunting, she would wait until he seemed better.

Chapter 25: Reborn!

Before she reached her house, Jiang Yue saw Xue Wufu carrying a bow and arrow on his back. He was showing off to the villagers that Hunter Wu had given it to him and that he was going to learn how to hunt in the mountains with Hunter Wu tomorrow.

Xue Wufu said with a smile, clearly very happy.

Jiang Yue looked at Xue Yan. As expected, Xue Yan's expression was indescribable.

Seeing their return, Xue Wufu immediately showed off his bow and arrow excitedly, "Jiang Yue, look, Hunter Wu gave this to me! They didn't even have a chance! I'm the only one who has it!"

There were a lot of people surrounding the door, and they all knew that Xue Wufu was going to learn how to hunt tomorrow. Jiang Yue thought that Xue Yan wouldn't say anything in front of so many people. As expected, Xue Yan didn't say a word.

When the sun gets to set, it was time for dinner.

Xue Dafu had said that they didn't need to be so frugal, so there was an extra plate of extremely fresh and tender vegetables that they grew at home served on the table, but there was still no oil at all.

Jiang Yue was still sitting on her small stool, and there was a higher stool in front of her that served as a table for her to put her bowl on.

Jiang Yue was eating her rice in small mouthfuls while observing Xue Yan with her pearl-like eyes.

She saw that Xue Yan was still absent-minded. She took the rice but forgot to pick up the vegetables. She just squatted there and ate the mixed grain rice.

Finally, Xue Dafu and the others also realized that something was wrong with him.

Xue Erfu put down his bowl and picked up the greens on the table. His long legs walked around the stool and he picked up a lot of food for him. He then asked with concern,

“Xue Yan, what’s wrong? You looked odd when we were at the field. Look at you, you don’t even want the vegetables. Those who don’t know better would think that we’re abusing you.”

“Yeah, Xue Yan, what’s wrong with you?” The others were all very concerned.

Xue Wufu, on the other hand, came over and nudged him with his shoulder, asking him to answer quickly.

Xue Dafu tried to recall.”Ever since I told him that Wufu was going to the mountains to learn how to hunt tomorrow, he’s been like this. He’s been lost in his thoughts.”

“What? I can’t go hunting?” Xue Wufu immediately asked.

Xue Yan looked down at the food in his bowl for a long time, and then looked up, “I had a dream a few days ago. I dreamed that you went hunting and met a blind bear. Then, something happened. I thought that you were doing well at home and didn’t go hunting at all, so I didn’t take this dream to heart. Now that you’re going tomorrow, I don’t know...”

He stopped talking and looked very worried.

Jiang Yue was certain. He had been reborn!

1

Xue Yan must have been reborn!

It must be true if he said it was a dream.

Xue Yan was so absent-minded because Xue Wufu had died hunting in his previous life. Before, she had thought that Xue Yan was the same as her, and both of them had an adult’s core in their bodies, but she couldn’t be sure if Xue Yan had transmigrated into another person’s body like her. Now, she was sure.

He had been reborn.

This also explained why he knew that Xue Wufu couldn’t go hunting because he would run into the blind bear. This was clearly something that would happen in the future and had yet to happen, but he seemed to have predicted it.

It also explained why he suddenly stopped reading. It was probably because the path of studying in his previous life did not end well, so he did not want to study anymore in this life.

1

Moreover, she could see that his feelings for everyone in this family were very deep. It was really Xue Yan of this family, not someone else who was in Xue Yan's body.
