

Farming in the Mountains: Max Level Jiaojiao Is Three Years Old

Chapter 26: Believe Me, Please!

“Xue Yan, you!” Xue Wufu laughed as if he had heard a funny joke. “It’s called a dream for a reason, it’s not real!”

“How can a dream be real? A blind bear?”

“Uncle Wu has been hunting for so many years, and I haven’t seen anything happen to him. I asked him, and he said that in the deep mountains, the most he’s encountered were fierce things like wolves and boars. Nothing else!”

“There’s no such thing as a blind bear in that mountain!”

Before Xue Yan could speak, Xue Wufu continued, “Besides, I’m not going alone. I’ll follow uncle Wu and the others. Everyone, we’ll be careful and deal with them together. Even if we encounter wolves and wild boars, we don’t have to be afraid. I’m still very happy that you care so much about me though!”

As soon as his voice fell, Xue Wufu happily wrapped an arm around Xue Yan’s thin shoulder. He wanted to dote on his brother.

Seeing that his fifth brother didn’t take it seriously, Xue Yan felt a headache and said helplessly, “Well... it’s better to believe in such things than not ...”

“Xue Yan is right.” Xue Dafu and the others spoke without thinking. “For this kind of thing, whether it’s true or false, you have to believe it first. If something really happens to you, it’ll be too late.”

“Wufu,” Liu Guixia began to speak in a kind tone. “It’s okay if you don’t learn to hunt now as long as you’re safe and sound. But if something happens to you because you went hunting, how would we live?”

“Mother...” Xue Wufu was helpless. “I’m already fourteen. It’s time for me to learn something. We’re poor and I want to earn money to help my family as quickly as possible. Uncle Wu has been hunting for so many years and nothing has happened to him. Why would something happen to me? There is no such thing as blind bears!”

Xue Wufu put down his bowl and chopsticks, no longer having the appetite to eat.

“We’re not doing anything. We just want you to be safe and sound.” Xue Dafu replied. It was rare for him to act like a parent. “Alright, this matter is settled. Why are you in such a hurry to earn money? This family is not in a hurry for you to earn money. Besides, didn’t Xue Tan sell his inkstone for six silver coins? When we urgently need money, it can be used to support it.”

Hearing this, Jiang Yue knew that Xue Yan had already told the family about the sale.

He must have told his family about the rice workshop as well.

Sure enough, he heard Xue Wufu’s next sentence, “But isn’t Xue Yan trying to build a workshop? He’s drawn so many pictures and is still drawing. We don’t know if it will work in the end. Shouldn’t we discuss it and let Xue Yan try? If it works, our family won’t have to worry about our future. That inkstone was originally Xue Yan’s. Anyway, I just want to make some money for my family. I’m all grown up now.”

“I know you’ve grown up.” Xue Dafu sighed. “But Wufu, we really can’t let you go. Of all people, Xue Yan had that dream and it makes me worried. Your mother and the others are worried too.”

Liu Guixia and the others all nodded, indicating that they were indeed worried.

“Please,” Finally, Xue Yan couldn’t help but shout, his eyes were full of worry. In his past life, his fifth brother had thought that his family was too poor, so he had thought of learning how to hunt to make ends meet.

“Ah, Xue Yan...” Xue Wufu hugged his head. He couldn’t stand his brother being like this!

Chapter 27: Best Decision Ever

Jiang Yue thought for a moment before she stood up and walked over. She extended a hand and tugged at Xue Wufu’s clothes. Her eyes were filled with worry as she called out, “I’m worried too...”

Even Jiang Yue was acting like this. Xue Wufu couldn’t stand it and immediately raised his hands in surrender. “Alright, alright, alright, I won’t go. I won’t go, alright?”

Everyone laughed.

“Okay, okay, okay.” Liu Guixia was very happy. “It’s good that won’t. For so many years we’ve been like this. We’re living well, so we’re really not in a hurry for you to rely on hunting to earn money for the family.”

“Alright, mother, I’m going to regret it if you keep talking.” Xue Wufu puffed up his cheeks.

“Alright, alright, alright. She’ll stop, right?” Liu Guixia was even more amused by her fifth son’s behavior. “Everyone, eat, eat.”

Xue Yan didn’t have anything to worry about, so he looked at Jiang Yue with gratitude. Jiang Yue’s actions just now had actually helped him.

However, Jiang Yue felt that Xue Yan was being too polite. She was already a member of the family, so she naturally wouldn’t want anything to happen to Xue Wufu as well.

As for the hunting, she could do it herself. There was no need for Xue Wufu to go.

A blind bear? Not bad. If she manages to get one, she could sell it for quite a bit of silver coins.

Tomorrow, she would find an excuse to secretly go to the deep mountains.

Xue Yan and Jiang Yue had their own thoughts, but they didn’t know that Xue Wufu, who had started to eat again, was thinking that since his family didn’t want him to go, he could only agree first. Tomorrow, he would think of a way to secretly go with Zhu Zi and the others.

After dinner, Jiang Yue had just put down her bowl when Li Hehua greeted her like she was coaxing a child, “Jiang Yue, let’s go, let’s go. I’ll help you take a bath. Quickly take a bath and go to bed. It’s getting dark. Once it’s dark, you won’t be able to see anything.”

Jiang Yue was speechless.

“I can wash myself, thank you.” Jiang Yue said after a moment of silence.

“Ah, our Jiang Yue is so capable, she can even bathe herself. Then I’ll get you some water. You can go to the room and wait for me. ”

Jiang Yue opened her mouth and wanted to say that she could carry it, but she realized that she had to hide her real self as much as possible, so she let it go and let Li Hehua carry the hot water for her.

Li Hehua was as thin as a bamboo pole, but her hands and feet were extremely agile. In a short while, she brought back half a bucket of hot water and a bucket of cold water.

There was also a water ladle in the bucket.

Jiang Yue was still a child, so the bathtub was too tall for her to use.

Li Hehua brought in hot and cold water and placed them for her. There was even a small bench placed in that position.

Jiang Yue took out a set of clean clothes from the wooden box on the bottom of the bookshelf and placed it on the table.

After waiting for a while, Li Hehua still did not go out and stood at the side with a smile like a kind mother. She still wanted to help her wash, thinking that she was like a baby. Jiang Yue sweated and said awkwardly, "I... really know how to wash myself. C-can you go out?"

"Our Jiang Yue is so young, yet she already knows how to be shy." Li Hehua was extremely curious. It was just an exaggerated performance. "Okay, okay, I'll be out now. Okay?"

As she spoke, Li Hehua went out with an especially happy look.

Jiang Yue was helpless.

In the next moment, the corners of her mouth curled up slightly. She had a feeling that coming to this family and becoming a member of this family would be a decision she would never regret.

After taking a bath and putting on her clothes, Jiang Yue opened the door and was about to pour her bath water out.

Chapter 28: Cultivating Corn Seedlings

"Jiang Yue, Jiang Yue, are you done?" Hearing the door creak open, Li Hehua, who was patiently waiting outside, immediately rushed in. "I'll help you pour the water out. You're so small, I'm sure you can't do it alone."

Li Hehua was very happy to help her.

Jiang Yue looked at Li Hehua's back and came to the conclusion that she really liked children. However, she never had her own child. She hoped that her sister-in-law would be able to get pregnant in the future.

“Thank you.”

“What’s there to thank me for? If there’s anything else, just call me. If you don’t sleep now, you won’t be able to see anymore.”

“Yes, you should sleep early too.”

“Alright, alright, alright. Remember to cover yourself with a blanket. It’s still a little cold at night. If there’s anything, just shout. There are people at home, don’t be afraid.”

“Yes.”

Li Hehua hadn’t left yet, and Xue Dafu and the others also came over. They were all worried about her sleeping alone, and they all told her to close the door and shout if anything happened.

Due to them being worried, they asked her to bolt the door from the inside and make sure that she really closed the door before they left.

Jiang Yue’s heart felt warm. She only walked to the wooden bed after Xue Dafu and the others had left. She took off her shoes and climbed onto the bed.

Although there was a window in the room, it was almost completely dark outside. She could only see a little bit. Naturally, it was even darker inside the room.

In fact, there was an oil lamp in the house, but there wasn’t much oil. Xue Dafu’s family didn’t light it, afraid that it would waste the oil. They went to bed early, so she didn’t light it either.

However, she didn’t close her eyes and go to sleep immediately. Instead, she entered her space.

No matter when she entered the space, it would always be bright.

She planned to cultivate the corn seedlings first.

On the other hand, Da Ling only had yellow corn, not white, purple, or black corn. She wanted to cultivate a few seedlings of white, purple, and black corn so that they could be scattered among the yellow corn. Others would think that the yellow corn had somehow mutated like this, and it would not be too strange. If they found it delicious, Xue Dafu’s family would definitely keep some seeds. The next year, she could openly grow more white, black, and purple corn.

With that thought in mind, Jiang Yue operated on the operating table according to her own idea.

First, she chose the yellow corn seeds, then she chose a few white, purple, and black corn seeds. She had these seeds enter the nursery. After a day, they would grow into strong seedlings, and she could plant them at any time the family was occupied. She would replace the seedlings from the one acre of a corn field that Xue Dafu's family had planted.

Jiang Yue only came out of the space to sleep after she was done.

She had a strong ability to adapt, and there was nothing that she was not used to. The moment she closed her eyes, she slowly fell asleep and entered her dreamland.

The next day, Jiang Yue woke up just as the sun rose. She didn't have the habit of lazing in bed, so she got up and started to put on her clothes.

She was small, and the clothes she wore were even smaller.

After putting on her clothes, she got off the bed and began to put on her shoes.

Just as she was bending over to put on her clothes, there was a knock on the door, followed by Li Hehua's voice, "Jiang Yue, are you awake? I heard some noises coming from your room."

"Yes, I'm awake!" Jiang Yue immediately answered loudly and went to open the door. Then, she saw Li Hehua holding a wooden comb and a few red hairpins in her hands, ready to comb her hair.

Yesterday, she had just casually styled her hair. She didn't know how to comb the hair of the people from ancient times, and she didn't want to waste time tying it up. Li Hehua noticed that and suggested lending a hand.

Chapter 29: Where Did You Sneak Out From?

Now, seeing Li Hehua's face full of anticipation, Jiang Yue opened her mouth but couldn't say no.

She had no choice but to obediently move a stool and sit in front of Li Hehua, letting Li Hehua tie up her hair. Li Hehua tied it very carefully, and it took her a long time to finish.

She had two small buns on the top and many braids hanging down from the bottom. Now, she looked extremely lovable and adorable.

She also looked extremely precious.

“No wonder people say you’re the prettiest girl in the village.” When Xue Wufu saw it, he ran over. It was extremely rare. He bent over, his hands on his knees, and stared straight at her.

Jiang Yue was starting to regret asking Li Hehua to tie her hair when she received all this attention...

Even Xue Yan, who came out of the house, was stunned.

Jiang Yue looked up at the sky and avoided everyone.

“Jiang Yue.” Yu Hongyan also came over and stared at her. “Those who don’t know would think that you’re a baby girl who sneaked out of some rich family.”

Liu Guixia laughed. “I agree. So, you guys should treat Jiang Yue better in the future. Such a precious baby shouldn’t be kidnapped.”

“Yes, yes.” Yu Hongyan and the rest actually agreed.

Jiang Yue was speechless.

While Jiang Yue was brushing her teeth with the willow branch that she had bitten off, Xue Dafu, Xue Yifu, Xue Erfu, and Xue Wufu had already left to plow the barren land. Li Hehua had brought a lot of clothes to wash by the river behind the house. Yu Hongyan was cutting wild vegetables with a vegetable knife under the shed to make a pot of wild vegetable soup for later. Liu Guixia was kneading cornmeal flour under the shed, adding something else from time to time to make cornmeal.

Xue Dafu and the others didn’t come back for breakfast. Since they had woken up so early, there wasn’t any breakfast for them. When breakfast was ready, Liu Guixia and Li Hehua would send it to the land and stay there to work.

The crops all year round depended on the hard work of the farmers.

1

Jiang Yue turned around and saw Xue Yan brushing his teeth. After he washed his face, he took a broom and dustpan and started to clean the house.

After Jiang Yue washed her face, she also took a broom and helped to clean the yard.

Although her body was small, she thought of herself as an adult. If she didn't do something, she would feel bad and uncomfortable.

The free-range chickens in the yard were not afraid of her. They pecked at something on the ground from time to time and clucked.

"Our Jiang Yue is so sensible." When Liu Guixia and Yu Hongyan saw her, they couldn't help but praise her.

Jiang Yue had no choice but to accept it.

When Liu Guixia finished steaming the cornbread, Li Hehua returned after washing the clothes. Yu Hongyan went to dry the clothes, while Li Hehua and Liu Guixia brought Jiang Yue and Xue Yan for breakfast.

Cornbread and coarse grain still stung her throat, but Jiang Yue felt that it was more delicious than coarse grain rice.

Maybe it was because there was cornmeal in it, so it was a little sweet. There was also the unique fragrance of cornbread. Even so, Jiang Yue only had one cornbread.

She saw that Xue Yan had only eaten one as well.

Liu Guixia and Li Hehua hurriedly ate two cornbread and drank a large bowl of wild vegetable soup. Then, they hurriedly carried the bamboo basket containing breakfast and the hoe.

"Mother, sister-in-law." Xue Yan stopped them. "You guys keep an eye on Wufu today."

It was obvious that he was still worried.

Chapter 30: Flustered

"I know." Liu Guixia and Li Hehua both agreed. "But he has already agreed. He's busy in the fields with your father now, so he probably won't be going to the mountains to learn how to hunt today."

Seeing that Liu Guixia and Li Hehua had left, and Xue Shao was still standing at the gate of the courtyard, Jiang Yue walked over and asked, "What, still worried?"

1

Xueqin was still looking at the back of his mother and sister-in-law, "I just don't feel safe."

"Then you go to the field and see him with your own eyes. Won't You Be at ease then?" She suggested.

"What about you?"

He was implying that she would not go to the place and that he would go alone.

Talking to smart people was really effortless.

Jiang Yue felt that it was a good feeling. It was rare to meet such a smart person.

"I'm not going." Jiang Yue said. "I have my eyes on that blind bear you mentioned, and I'm going deep into the mountains," she said in a low voice.

Xueqin was speechless.

"You know," he said after a long silence. Otherwise, why would she believe him so much and think that there really was a blind bear in the deep mountains?

"Yes, I know." About your rebirth.

Xueqin nodded, "I will find an excuse for you."

2

Which meant that he was asking her to go.

If someone were to ask where she had gone, he would find an excuse to fool them.

"Thank you," he said. "You don't seem to be worried about me," she pointed out.

"You clearly know that there's a bear, but you still want to go. Naturally, you can protect yourself." "Come back early," he said after a pause.

"Yes."

After hesitating for a while, Xueqin said, "I'll ask you for a favor."

“What is it?”

“Try not to let anyone find out that something is wrong with you.” There was something wrong with her. To be honest, he was a little flustered.

“Aren’t I already doing that?” Jiang Yue raised her eyebrows.

1

Hearing this, Xue Yan smiled and nodded.

Yes, she was already doing it.

In fact, he had already noticed it when she had secretly changed the soybean seeds yesterday.

At that time, he could tell that this person was not the original Jiang Yue, nor was she the original Jiang Yue who had reincarnated. If she had reincarnated, the situation would not have been so strange. It was obvious that another person was in this body.

“Then, Zhenzhen-

Jiang Yue was about to say that she would leave and sneak into the mountains, but a man as strong as a bull rushed over and pulled Xue Shao away.

1

“Xiao Ling, come, come, come with me. Your Grandpa Zheng’s family is going to move out, so he needs to write some documents. But my father hurt his hand while moving things, so he can’t hold a pen now. Other than my father, the village chief, you’re the only one who can read. Hurry and help him write some documents. They’re all waiting for you.”

Upon hearing this, Jiang Yue knew that this man was the only son of Locust Tree Village’s village head, Lu zhuangniu.

Everyone said that this was the name that Lu zhuangniu had, which was why he was as strong as a bull.

As for Lu zhuangniu’s father, who was also village chief Lu, he was the only one among the refugees who could read. Therefore, when he settled down in Locust Tree Village, he was appointed as the village chief by the government.

Xue Shao was suddenly pulled away, so he subconsciously turned around to look at Jiang Yue.

2

Seeing that Xueqin had turned around, the anxious Lu zhuangniu seemed to have only just noticed Jiang Yue. He immediately smacked his head and shouted, 'Yue Bao!'

Then, he raised his voice and shouted, ""Hongyan, Hongyan, I'm borrowing Xiao Ling. Yue Bao, take a look. She's a child, don't lose her."

Jiang Yue, who was planning to sneak into the mountains: "....."

Xueqin was speechless.
