

Farming in the Mountains: Max Level Jiaojiao Is Three Years Old

Chapter 61: Why Do You Look Like This?

“Woah,” Yu Hongyan grabbed Liu Guixia’s hand tightly, “I never dreamed that one day we would have a hundred silver at home.”

“Me too,” Liu Guixia immediately said. After she finished speaking, she patted her fifth son’s shoulder heavily, “Wufu, you did it!”

Xue Wufu was overjoyed by his mother’s praises.

Suddenly, his mother’s face turned serious. “Although we’ve earned a lot of money from selling the bear, you are still banned from hunting in the mountains anymore. Do you hear me?”

“I know, I know. How many times have you told me this? Ever since I came back from the mountains, you’ve been telling me this all day. My ears are getting worms.

“I told you I was scared too. I knew I was lucky that day. I only got this little injury and didn’t die. I definitely won’t do it again next time. Why would I want to go back? I still have a long life to live.”

“It’s good that you can think like this.” Liu Guixia was relieved.

Xue Wufu put his arm on Xue Yan’s shoulder and said happily, “Xue Yan, that dream of yours was truly amazing. There really was a blind bear, and I really did encounter it. I’m sorry, I didn’t listen to you this time and almost lost my life. I promise you, no matter what you say in the future, I’ll believe you.”

Xue Yan only thought his fifth brother was joking and didn’t take it seriously. On the contrary, his thoughts had drifted far away.

He was wondering if Jiang Yue had cried. He also knew that it would be too difficult for her to cry, but he knew his father and the others quite well. They were good to the younger ones in the family. As long as the younger ones cried, they would listen to everything they asked for.

If he were to cry, he wouldn’t be beaten up when he returned, right?

When he made her cry, he had a feeling that she would beat him up with that expression.

Thinking of this, Xue Yan immediately shook his head. He knew that he was just as loved as Jiang Yue.

Although she seemed to like using force to solve all problems, she was always within reason. His family would eventually understand why he was so worried and insisted that Jiang Yue go with them.

Thinking of this, Xue Yan let out a sigh of relief.

...

When Jiang Yue, Xue Dafu, and the others returned to the village on the ox cart, the sun had not set yet. However, everyone they met congratulated them.

“Congratulations, Dafu. I heard it’s a hundred silver. Your family is rich.”

“That’s right, Dafu. Congratulations. We didn’t expect your family to be the first to get rich in our village.”

“Dafu, how does your family plan to spend so much money?”

“Rich, rich...”

Jiang Yue’s expression was calm when she heard that it was a hundred silver. However, she felt that it was strange. They had just returned, and the village already knew that the blind bear had sold it for a hundred silver.

Xue Dafu and the others were shocked, and they asked, “How did you know that the bear was sold for a hundred silver?!”

A young man immediately said, “Isn’t it all because of that big mouth of Wang Sufen? She said that she saw you guys sending the blind bear to a restaurant in town and sold it for a hundred silver. When she came back, she went around telling everyone, afraid that others wouldn’t know.”

Jiang Yue finally understood that someone had seen her.

“Why is that Wang Sufen like this?” Xue Erfu was very unhappy.

Xue Dafu and Xue Yifu also thought that Wang Sufen had a big mouth, but this time she was telling the truth. The blind bear really had been sold for a hundred silver, so they could only keep smiling and not say anything.

He returned to his home amidst everyone's congratulations.

They had made quite a ruckus in the village this time. Liu Guixia and the others had naturally heard it. When the men and Jiang Yue came home, the women had already come out of the courtyard and were waiting at the entrance.

Chapter 62: Can't Look

"The others have returned!" Without waiting for the ox cart to arrive at his home, Xue Wufu pointed at the person on the ox cart and said to his mother beside him in excitement.

"Welcome back." Liu Guixia was also very excited, and the smile on her face couldn't stop.

It was the same for Li Hehua and Yu Hongyan.

Li Hehua even went up to Jiang Yue and carried her down from the ox cart.

Everyone was excited, except for Xue Yan. Xue Yan's expression was the same as usual. For some reason, he did not dare to look at Jiang Yue.

When he noticed out of the corner of his eye that Jiang Yue was holding two sticks of tanghulu and looked more like a child, Xue Yan didn't dare to look at her even more.

He knew that Jiang Yue didn't like to be babied. Seeing Jiang Yue walking toward him from the corner of his eye, Xue Yan subconsciously took a small step back. Was she here to beat him up?

She wouldn't do it in front of everyone, but at this moment, he was a little uncertain.

Just as Xue Yan was feeling nervous, two sticks of candy were handed to him.

Oh...

Xue Yan was silent for two seconds, then took it and unconsciously let out a sigh of relief. It turned out that she wanted to give him the candy.

Jiang Yue was baffled by Xue Xiao's relieved look, but she didn't care. Jiang Yue turned to Xue Dafu, Liu Guixia, and the others, watching them talk excitedly with joy on their faces. The fact that this bear could be sold for 100 silver really made them ecstatic.

Liu Guixia and the others even jumped for joy when they saw that they had bought so much meat.

Dinner was already ready, but with the meat, Li Hehua quickly went to the stove under the shed to prepare more things. Yu Hongyan also went under the shed to help with the fire.

Xue Yifu was going to return the ox cart, which belonged to the Tian family. In the village, only the Tian family had a cow, so he had to pay fifteen coins after borrowing it for half a day.

However, before they left, Xue Yifu was afraid of being seen by others, so he stuffed all the silver he was holding into his mother's hands. "Mother, this is for you. Here is fifty silver. The other fifty is with Erfu."

Liu Guixia was so excited that her hands were shaking from the thought of having so many pieces of silver. Even though she knew that everyone in the village knew that their family now had 100 silver, she was still afraid that outsiders would see it, so she quickly entered the house.

Xue Dafu, Xue Erfu, and Xue Wufu also hurried into the house.

There was nothing to do at the entrance of the courtyard, so Jiang Yue wanted to enter the house, but she was pulled back by Xue Yan.

"What's wrong?" Jiang Yue was confused.

Xue Yan raised the two sticks, "Don't you want some?"

"You can eat it all." After she finished speaking, she went in.

When she arrived at the door, she saw that the 100 silver had already been taken out and placed on the table. Xue Dafu, Liu Guixia, Xue Erfu, and Xue Wufu were all gathered around the table, staring at the silver with bright eyes. It was as if their eyes were glued to the table.

Xue Wufu couldn't help but touch it.

Jiang Yue stopped in her tracks. She did not go in to join in the fun. Instead, she turned around and sat on the threshold of the central room with her back facing the inside.

She looked around casually.

Looking at the gate of the courtyard, she found that Xue Yan was no longer there. She didn't know where he had gone.

In the central room, Xue Wufu's voice rang out, "Father, mother, I want to give five silver to Grandfather."

Chapter 63: Not Enough Money

"I didn't dote on you for nothing!" Xue Dafu and Liu Guixia were especially happy. "When the meat is done, you can send it along with the meat."

"Okay!"

Jiang Yue didn't even need to turn around to know how happy Xue Wufu was.

"Wufu," it was Xue Dafu's voice. "You earned this silver. What other plans do you have? Tell me."

"I don't have any other plans. I just want to give Grandfather five silver and then use the rest at home." Xue Wufu said. "You guys do as you see fit."

Xue Dafu began to mutter, "They say that if you have money, you should buy land. Having land is important for farmers. Our family has a few acres of barren land, but we don't receive any taxes and we're living well. The land is all rented, and we've been feeling uneasy growing things on it... If we can use this silver to buy as many plots of land as we can, how great would that be? We can pass it on to our descendants, but our house..."

At this point, Xue Dafu sighed. "There are only a few rooms. Your third brother is already twenty years old. Although the marriage is already set, he should still marry the girl as soon as possible. Although he said that there's no hurry, this is the truth. If that's the case, we should at least spare a room for your third brother and his wife. But there are no rooms in the house that can be reserved..."

"And your fourth brother," Xue Dafu continued, "He's eighteen years old. He isn't young anymore, and he'll get married sooner or later... I was thinking, why don't we build a bigger house first so that each of you can have a room? Then, we can use the remaining money to buy land?"

Jiang Yue only listened in on the conversation and didn't say anything.

Xue Erfu said, "Father, let's buy the fields first. The good fields that we rented cost twelve silver per acre. Even if we don't give Grandfather five silver, it won't change much. We'll buy as many as we can. We'll feel more at ease with that. Didn't you say that fields are important for farmers? Houses will break and fall after construction. It might be possible to pass it on to one or two generations, but it won't be possible to pass it on to many generations. It's better to buy land."

"Also," Xue Erfu continued, "My third brother has a bad temper. If he says that he's not in a hurry to get married, then he's really not in a hurry. Besides, we can't force him. Didn't he say that he would build a grain-removing workshop before the early rice gets harvested? By then, the workshop would be able to earn money, and it would not be too late to build a house. But the land will wait for no one. The land in front of our village is so close to our house. If we don't buy it early, it will be bought by someone else one day. It will be difficult for us to buy good land close to our house. "

"Erfu is right!"

"Yes." Xue Wufu also felt that his second brother's words made sense.

Jiang Yue still did not turn around to say anything, but she could tell that Xue Erfu was indeed more opinionated than Xue Yifu.

"This..." Xue Dafu wavered. He also wanted to use this money to buy land, but after a long while, he didn't give a definite answer. "Let me think about it."

This matter was too big, and he couldn't make a decision at once.

Hearing this, Jiang Yue felt that she still did not have enough money to provide for this family.

If she had enough money, she could buy many plots of land and build a big house, so there was no need to think of which to choose first.

However, she still didn't look back at the central room and continued to sit on the threshold.

Chapter 64: You Still Have Me

At this moment, Xue Yan appeared at the gate of the courtyard again, but the two sticks of candy were gone. Seeing her sitting on the threshold, Xue Yan walked over and sat with her.

"I gave it to my uncle's grandsons, Dabao and Xiaobao." He said to her, knowing that she was curious about that.

Jiang Yue nodded without saying anything.

“Today...” He opened his mouth again and wanted to say something, but he stopped.

Jiang Yue tilted her head and looked at him.

He even coughed dryly, feeling a little embarrassed.

“I didn’t cry.” She said.

“I see.” He coughed even harder. After a long time, he laughed as if he was trying to find a topic to talk about, “That’s good, that’s good.”

Jiang Yue only looked at him. It was only when Xue Yan felt uncomfortable that Jiang Yue asked, “How many other weird relatives do we have?”

Her voice wasn’t loud enough for Xue Dafu and the others to hear, but it was loud enough for Xue Yan to hear.

Why did she suddenly ask this question? Xue Yan knew without a doubt that she was talking about Zhang Meili who shamelessly asked for a share of the money.

Xue Yan also said in a low voice, “I can handle them all. I won’t let my family suffer.”

All?

Jiang Yue immediately caught the main point. She felt that this weirdo must have a lot of relatives, and Zhang Meili was definitely not the only one. Otherwise, he wouldn’t have used the word all. Although they had not known each other for long, she could tell that he had always been careful with his words.

Jiang Yue didn’t say much and only said indifferently, “Don’t forget, you still have me.”

She could handle them all too.

Xue Yan nodded with a smile, “Yes, I still have you.” She was also a part of this family. He would not forget.

By the time the meat was done, the sky had already turned dark.

The meat was scooped out from the pot, filling two large bowls.

Xue Dafu immediately had Xue Wufu personally bring a large bowl of meat and five silver of silver to Xue Da with two fat white buns.

Xue Wufu limped away, accompanied by Xue Yan, but Xue Da refused to take the silver, only taking the meat and steamed buns.

Xue Da was overjoyed that his grandson was so filial.

Xue Wufu had no choice but to take back the five silver and give them to Liu Guixia for safekeeping.

“It’s time to eat, everyone.”

It was already dark, and it was rare for the family to light up an oil lamp in the central room and prepare for dinner.

The light from the oil lamp illuminated the entire central room, making it look like dusk.

On the table, the large bowl of meat looked delicious. Of course, that was because it was rare to see such meals on the table.

The meat’s fragrance wasn’t too obvious, probably due to the lack of seasoning. However, only Xue Yan and Jiang Yue were the ones thinking that.

“Ah, it smells so good!” Xue Wufu sniffed it first, looking as if it was extremely fragrant.

Jiang Yue looked at him and suspected that he didn’t smell the fragrance at all. It was just that he hadn’t eaten meat for a long time, so he felt that it was fragrant just by looking at it.

Xue Wufu exaggeratedly sniffed it again before putting it down.

“Come, come, come, Jiang Yue.” Liu Guixia put two pieces of meat into her bowl.

The meat was thick and her bowl was small. When the two pieces of fatty meat were placed in her bowl, it almost covered the rice at the bottom.

“T-that’s too much,” Jiang Yue said after a moment of silence.

“It’s only two pieces, what’s so much about it? Jiang Yue, don’t be shy. There’s so much meat at home today. Everyone can eat a few pieces. There’s no need to be shy. Eat quickly. When you’re done, come back and get more.”

Seeing that Liu Guixia didn’t believe her and thought that she was being too sensible, Jiang Yue kept silent for a while. Then, she decided it was not worth the fight and sat down.

