

Farming in the Mountains: Max Level Jiaojiao Is Three Years Old –

Chapter 65 - As Expected

Chapter 65: As Expected

Just as Jiang Yue was about to say that she didn't want so much meat, the others chimed in, "Jiang Yue, this child of yours really makes my heart ache."

Jiang Yue held her bowl with both hands and sat on the small stool that was meant for her. There was a higher stool in front of her that was meant for her to hold her bowl. It had only been a few times, but she was already used to it. The small bowl was placed on it naturally like she was really a three-and-a-half-year-old child.

Xue Yan knew that Jiang Yue was overthinking it, so he squatted down beside her and whispered, "Give me a piece."

Jiang Yue didn't say no, so she immediately put a piece into Xue Yan's bowl. The speed was so fast that even Xue Yan was stunned.

"Here, here, here, and this." She brought back three steamed buns, two for Xue Da, and one for the pregnant Yu Hongyan. Liu Guixia split the remaining one in half.

As expected, she still received the bun... Jiang Yue sighed in her heart and put the half bun into Xue Yan's bowl as a way of thanking him for helping her eat such a big piece of fatty meat.

Xue Yan's chopsticks paused for a moment, and he looked at Jiang Yue again, but he didn't say anything.

Xue Dafu and the others were so engrossed in the meat that their mouths were covered in oil. It was rare that they didn't pay attention to the kids.

Jiang Yue ate a small mouthful of rice first before eating the piece of fatty meat in her bowl. It was meat, but because there was not enough seasoning, it was not very delicious and was greasy. However, this was already considered a luxury meal in a farming family, so she was not picky and ate it calmly and slowly.

Halfway through the meal, they started to talk about buying land or building a big house.

Xue Yifu, Li Hehua, and Yu Hongyan all agreed with Xue Erfu's suggestion. They would buy as many good fields as they could with the silver.

Xue Yan didn't care about it, he thought that the house must be built this year, the only difference was the first half of the year and the second half of the year. However, his father hesitated, obviously he was moved by his second brother's proposal, so he agreed.

He even asked for Jiang Yue's opinion.

Jiang Yue had no objections. In Jiang Yue's opinion, no matter what it was, her family's life would improve.

Even if everyone in the family agreed, Xue Dafu still couldn't make up his mind. He said he still needed more time to think.

After dinner, Li Hehua lit up the oil lamp in Jiang Yue's room so that they could see her. Li Hehua also helped to bring cold water and hot water to Jiang Yue's room.

While Li Hehua was helping to carry the hot and cold water, Jiang Yue entered her space to take a look at her seedlings. She found that the corn in the all-purpose nursery had grown into strong seedlings and could be transplanted.

It was nighttime now and things couldn't be seen from the outside, so naturally, there was no way to transplant them. She could only wait until the next day.

While Jiang Yue and the others were preparing to wash up and go to bed, on the other side, an oil lamp was lit at Xue Dagui's house. Xue Zhuzi had also returned.

Other than the bow and arrows on his back, he was empty-handed.

Because it was his first time hunting in the mountains, and so were the others, Hunter Wu was not at ease, so he did not spend the night in the mountains.

However, he didn't expect that he wouldn't be able to catch any prey even after the sun had set.

Even Hunter Wu himself said that he had been extremely unlucky today.

They came back.

Xue Zhuzi pushed the door open and saw his mother, Zhang Meili, crying and cursing on the ground. His brother, Xue Gouzi, was standing timidly to the side with his head lowered. His father, Xue Dagui, was sitting at the table with his legs crossed like an overlord, eating peanuts.

Chapter 66: I'll Beat You!

"What are you doing?" Xue Zhuzi was not in a good mood. His mother never had a day of peace. He had seen her like this countless times.

Only then did Zhang Meili realize that her eldest son had returned. She immediately slapped the ground again and cried to her eldest son, "You, your father won't let me go to your third uncle's house anymore. If I don't go, how can they give us a share of the money? It's such a big bear, and Wang Sufen said that it was sold for a hundred silver, a hundred silver! That was a hundred silver! Is your father an idiot? Why is he stopping me!"

"You're the silly one!" Xue Dagui shot to his feet to the ground. "My father has already given us a few chances today. If you continue to make a scene, what will happen of us?"

Xue Dagui immediately lost his patience and pointed at the door. "You go, leave! Once you step out of this door, you won't be my wife anymore. Go back to your mother's house!"

Zhang Meili immediately stopped crying.

"What happened? What blind bear? A hundred silver? His family? What's the relationship between the blind bear and his family?" Xue Zhuzi didn't understand at all.

Xue Dagui could only sit down and eat his peanuts again.

It was Zhang Meili who answered, "Didn't Xue Yan have a dream? He said that Wufu would encounter a blind bear in the mountains and get into trouble. I didn't expect that there would really be a blind bear. He was even shot to death by Wufu with an arrow. Wufu only suffered some injuries and twisted one of his feet. It's not a big deal. Why isn't he dead? That blind bear was really big. You guys went hunting together, so you definitely had a share, right? I went to your uncle's house to ask for a share of the money, but his family denied everything. They didn't even want to share a single cent. Even misers didn't have that kind of family. Your grandfather is also biased, standing on the side of his family. Everything is their fault, and he even told me to get lost in front of so many people. Tell me, how can I have the courage to stay in this village in the future?"

"Don't drag my father into this!" Xue Dagui was immediately enraged. "Are you asking for a beating?"

He got up and looked like he was going to hit her.

Zhang Meili naturally did not dare to say anything more about Xue Da, and her voice became much softer, "Now that the blind bear has been sold for a hundred silver, Zhuzi, what do you think we should do? It's such a good amount of money, we should do something about it."

Xue Zhuzi's expression was extremely ugly.

There were quite a few of them, and they had been following Hunter Wu, but they hadn't managed to get anything. In the end, Xue Wufu, who had thin arms and legs actually managed to gain something. A blind bear!

He even sold it for a hundred silver!

He didn't care if he was the one that told Wufu that if he was separated from them, they would no longer be together. Xue Wufu's beating of the blind bear had nothing to do with him, he was aware. However, Xue Zhuzi was still furious and wanted to split the money.

"Stop! Are you trying to be disobedient too?" Xue Dagui roared. "Didn't you hear me say that your Grandfather has been angry a few times today? Are you trying to anger him to death?!"

"But father, that's a hundred silver." He wanted a share too.

"I know it's a hundred silver, but I can't do it today." Xue Dagui insisted. "If you dare to go, I'll break your legs."

"Father!" Xue Zhu stomped his foot in anger.

"That's enough," Xue Dagui was getting impatient again. "I want to get a share of the money too, but it's not like I'm going to forget it by tomorrow. Why do I have to go today!"

Chapter 67: Hit Him Harder

When Xue Zhuzi heard this, he decided to go tomorrow as well.

At this time, Xue Gouzi, who was standing at the side, said timidly, "Father, didn't you say that Zhuzi and the rest were separated from Wufu in the mountains? They're not together anymore. Our family shouldn't have split that money because..."

Before Xue Dagui could say anything, Zhang Meili had already gotten up from the ground in anger and slapped Xue Gouzi hard across the face. "You traitor! What benefits did you get to make you side with them so much?!"

Xue Zhuzi was also angry, he couldn't wait for his mother to hit him harder.

Xue Gouzi was extremely disappointed with their behavior.

The next day, when the sky had just brightened, Jiang Yue woke up and Li Hehua combed her beautiful hair. Today, she was going to replace the corn seedlings.

Xue Yan knew that she could create things out of thin air. He had seen her transplant the beans that Yu Hongyan picked out last time. Today, he would help with the transplant as well. It would be faster if two people transplanted the seedlings together than one.

With that in mind, Jiang Yue brushed her teeth and washed her face, then went to talk to Xue Yan about this.

Xue Yan was wiping the table in the central room, and there was no one else there. Jiang Yue walked over and said in a low voice, "The corn and cotton we've planted at home have too low a yield. I have high-yield seedlings, so I plan to change the corn, cotton, and sorghum seedlings. I'll forget about the sesame and peanut seedlings, as they take too much time. Next year, I'll change them to higher-yield seeds. I'm going to change the corn seedlings today. If you're free, you can come with me."

The last time she had changed the soybean seeds, he had guessed that she must have changed them to high-yield good seeds. Now, hearing her say this, he was not surprised.

"Okay." He nodded his head. "But not in the morning. It has to be in the afternoon."

"Why?"

"My father came over when he woke up just now. He said that he had thought about it and made up his mind to buy the land first. He asked me to follow him to Feng's house. He said that I could read and help to look at the documents and the land deed given by Feng when the time comes."

"Alright, then I'll see you after that then."

“Before I go with them to buy the land, I’ll visit Grandfather and ask him to come to our house more often.” He suddenly said.

She immediately stared at him and asked, “What are you worried about? Me? Or those weird relatives at home?”

“Both,” he looked away.

“What’s wrong with beating someone up?” She could not understand.

He had guessed that she had this thought. He was afraid that if he was not at home, her relatives would come and cause trouble, and she would beat them up. He knew that she was not someone who would talk nonsense with others. Beating someone up was her style.

He could tell.

“Well...” Xue Yan touched his nose, feeling extremely uncomfortable. “There are actually many ways to solve this.”

In other words, it wasn’t only about beating people.

“However, it’s the most effective and fastest way to scare someone in one go.” She said.

Xue Yan smacked his forehead, feeling a headache.

“Let’s make this clear,” Jiang Yue said, “I’ll still hit people in the future.”

She didn’t back down at all.

“...Alright.” Xue Yan could only say so. Fortunately, he was aware of her limits. Those who were beaten deserved to be beaten.

After breakfast, Xue Yan accompanied Xue Dafu and Xue Erfu to buy some land. Before leaving, Xue Yan really went to Xue Da’s place.

Chapter 68: Envious

Not long after, Xue Da arrived. He said he was going to walk around, but he just sat down in the courtyard.

Xue Yifu, Li Hehua, and Liu Guixia went back to the fields to continue their work, hoping to sow the soybeans by the afternoon.

However, compared to yesterday's exploration, the three of them were much more excited today. Xue Dafu and the others had gone to buy land. When they return, their family would have a few acres of land in their hands. No matter how they thought about it, their hearts would be at ease.

Because Xue Wufu had sprained his foot and hadn't recovered yet, the scratches on his body were not suitable for him to move too much, for the time being, so he was forced to lie down on the brick bed by Xue Da.

Yu Hongyan was still at home. Since Xue Yan was not around, she was the one taking care of Jiang Yue. Xue Da was there too, so he naturally helped to look after Jiang Yue.

Jiang Yue was very calm as she was being watched by two people while Xue Wufu was in the room.

She knew that when Xue Yan was alone, she could still do her own things because Xue Yan would cover for her. However, now that Xue Yan was gone, her plans to replace the corn seedlings in the cornfield this morning changed to another time.

Xue Da sat on the bamboo chair, chuckling, his face kind, and he looked very affable.

Jiang Yue sat on the wooden horse beside Xue Da.

Li Hehua had spent a lot of effort to find this wooden horse. She said that Xue Yifu had once learned from an old carpenter for three months, but because the old carpenter had passed away, he had stopped learning and only focused on farming at home. However, because Xue Dafu had brought Xue Yan back, Xue Yifu crafted this wooden horse to make his younger brother happy.

Even though the wooden horse's workmanship was a little rough, it was extremely sturdy. It was still intact after being used several times. It was clear that Xue Yifu had put a lot of effort into making this wooden horse.

No one else in the village had one except Xue Yan. Other children could only be envious from afar. Of course, that was when Xue Yan was very young.

Later on, Xue Yan stopped riding it when he was older. Other kids wanted it, even Dabao and Xiaobao from his eldest uncle's family wanted it, but Xue Yifu could not bear to give it to them. He planned to give it to them when they had children in the future.

Now that Jiang Yue was in this house, Xue Yifu and Li Hehua had been talking about this matter since last night. Then, they found it for her this morning and let her ride it for fun.

Li Hehua had also mentioned that when Xue Yifu returned in the afternoon, he would make her a bamboo dragonfly to play with.

Jiang Yue couldn't help but look up at the sky in shame.

It was only this morning that she found out that the tables, chairs, boxes, folding stool, and anvil in the house were all made from wood that Xue Yifu had found on the mountain.

They were also quite rough and couldn't be compared to the ones bought from other carpenters, but they were strong and sturdy. As long as they were strong, they would be good for home use.

"Jiang Yue, why don't you ride the horse? It's so much fun. We didn't even have this to play with when we were young. It's all thanks to Yifu's skillful hands." Xue Da said to her kindly. His eyes were cloudy as he recalled, "I remember that when your brother was younger than you, he could ride this horse from one place to another."

Xue Da's finger was pointing from the kitchen to the yard. To be honest, she didn't expect Xue Yan to be so lively. In fact, she couldn't imagine that Xue Yan would ride such a child's ride.

Maybe it was because she now knew that Xue Yan had been reborn and he was more mature than he seems.

However, in order to make the old man happy, Jiang Yue still cooperated and quietly moved the wooden horse from the side of the bamboo chair that Xue Da was sitting on to the other side...

"Good, good, good. Yes, yes, that's how you ride it." Xue Da couldn't stop smiling.

Yu Hongyan also saw it. She laughed as she walked over and patted Jiang Yue's head, "There's nothing fun to do at home. This is the only thing that you can play with. Xue Da, was the meat from yesterday delicious?"

"It was perfect," Xue Da nodded his head repeatedly, "When I bit into it, my mouth was full of oil. It was wonderful. I still have quite a lot left. Let your uncle and the others try them too. They would definitely enjoy it as well. Fortunately, the weather isn't too hot, so I can eat a few meals. Otherwise, it would be bad."

"We'll get more for you tomorrow."

“Why would you waste your money like that!” Xue Da was immediately annoyed. “Just once is enough. You can keep your money to live a good life. I’m an old man, and I don’t lack food and clothes!”

“Yes, I understand now.” Yu Hongyan smiled obsequiously as if she was coaxing a child.

Xue Da, this old child, was no longer angry, and his face turned kind again.

Next, Yu Hongyan took a small piece of wooden board and placed it on the ground. Then, she went to take the wild vegetables that she had dug by the river yesterday afternoon and a vegetable knife. Then, she chopped the wild vegetables before scattering them on the ground.

The free-range chickens at home didn’t wait for anyone to call them. They immediately flapped their wings and rushed over, pecking and eating.

Xue Da and Yu Hongyan were still chatting while Jiang Yue sat quietly on her wooden horse.

Suddenly, she seemed to have heard Zhang Meili’s voice. She wanted to go to the courtyard door to take a look, but Xue Da looked at her kindly, so she didn’t leave the wooden horse behind. She rode the wooden horse expressionlessly and clattered to the courtyard door.

When she arrived at the entrance of the courtyard, she saw that it was indeed Zhang Meili... And Xue Zhuzi.

The mother and son strode over, and as they walked over, they conversed. “We must get our share of the money today. We can’t just let it go like this.”

They were about to reach the gates when Jiang Yue’s eyes turned cold. She looked back and saw that Xue Da and Yu Hongyan didn’t have any reaction. They probably didn’t hear Zhang Meili and Xue Zhuzi’s voices at all, so they naturally didn’t know of their arrival.

When she looked at Zhang Meili and Xue Zhuzi again, she saw Xue Dagui running over in a hurry with a particularly scared look on his face. Then, just as Zhang Meili and Xue Zhuzi were about to appear in front of her — which was the entrance to the courtyard — he grabbed Zhang Meili and Xue Zhuzi’s collars and pulled them back.

As he pulled them, Xue Dagui even scolded in a low voice, “Do you have any brains? Why didn’t you go to my father’s place to take a look before doing this? My father is here today!” Even if you’re looking for death, you shouldn’t do it this way!”

Zhang Meili and Xue Zhuzi were suddenly pulled back, and their anger immediately shot up five feet. They were about to curse because they did not know who was pulling them back.

They weren't actually afraid of Xue Da, but Xue Dagui listened to him too much. If Xue Da happened to bump into them, what would they do if Xue Da ordered Xue Dagui to do something to them in a fit of anger?

They didn't say anything, and the two didn't need Xue Dagui to drag them along. They immediately left with their tails between their legs with Xue Dagui.

They had clearly seen Jiang Yue and knew that she had seen them, but they did not take the three-and-a-half-year-old Jiang Yue seriously at all. They deemed that she was not worthy.

Jiang Yue knew that they would come again next time.

It wasn't until noon that Xue Yan, Xue Dafu, and Xue Erfu returned from the town. They had bought eight acres of good quality land, twelve silver per acre, for a total of ninety-six silver.

A hundred pieces of silver were instantly reduced to four silver.

With these plots of land, Xue Dafu, Liu Guixia, and the others felt at ease and happy.

The documents for the purchase of the land, the deed for the eight acres of land, and the remaining silver were all given to Liu Guixia.

Liu Guixia had hidden the rest well.

Yesterday, even though Xue Dafu, Liu Guixia, Xue Yifu, and the others had a hundred silver at home, they were all on edge. Now that they had these eight acres of land, everyone suddenly felt confident and laid back for some reason.

Especially when Xue Da looked at the title deed for the eight acres of land, tears welled up in his eyes and he choked, "That's great, that's great. Finally, someone from the Xue family has his own land here. It's finally taking root."

Ever since he had come here as a refugee, he had been renting other people's fields for so many years. The land had also been obtained from pioneering. Although it was his own, the harvest was not good. He did not feel like he truly owned something here. This was the first time that Xue Da had such an idea since he came here.

Xue Dafu had followed Xue Da here as a refugee and knew how sad it was for his father. He naturally had the same thoughts and understood his father's feelings. His eyes were also filled with tears.

Jiang Yue sneaked out of the central room while everyone's attention was on the land deed. She then went to the junk area to find two wooden buckets and two water scoops to put on the wasteland in her space.

The wooden buckets at home were also made by Xue Yifu. He had made a few of them, but these two were temporarily not needed. She put them in her space, making sure that no one would notice.

Although the strong seedlings that she had cultivated in her space were all drought-resistant, it wasn't as if they didn't need to be watered.

When Jiang Yue returned to the central room, Xue Yan happened to be looking outside. Their eyes met, and then they looked away.

Without waiting for lunch, Xue Yan went back to his room and changed his white robe into a set of working clothes.

The long clothes were made by his family when he was going to school in town. These two days, when Liu Guixia had free time, she helped him make two short sets of working clothes. It was more convenient for farmers to wear shorter clothes when they needed to work.

As soon as he came out of the room, Jiang Yue, who was already sitting on a small bench and eating lunch, noticed him, but she didn't say anything.

It was Xue Wufu, who had just received a bowl of rice, who was making a fuss. "Xue Yan, why did you change your clothes?"

"There seem to be weeds growing in the cornfield. I want to take Jiang Yue with me to pull the weeds this afternoon," Xue Yan said with a straight face.

Liu Guixia immediately frowned and disagreed. "You two are kids, what are you talking about? Just play at home."

Li Hehua and the others also agreed.

"Xiao Ling, do you even know what weeds look like?" Xue Wufu laughed. Don't pull off the corn seedlings too."

“Although he’s been in school for three years, he still knows how to identify what a weed is. Didn’t he pick the herbs for you?” Xue Dafu laughed.

“I was just joking...”

Xue Dafu thought that this wasn’t a big deal and it was good for them to go out for a walk. He said to Liu Guixia, “Just let them go. Just treat it as if they’re going to have fun. It’s not good for them to stay at home and in the village all day. It’s good to take a walk. They can get some wind and absorb some sun. It’ll keep them more awake. Jiang Yue is still fine but look at Xue Yan’s frail body. If he does some light work, his body might gradually get better. Jiang Yue is so young, so Xue Yan should only be bringing her and make sure she doesn’t overwork herself.”

Chapter 71: Inward Appearance

“Yes, you’re right.” Only then did Liu Guixia nod in agreement. To her, it made a lot of sense. “Xiao Yan, when you tend to the weeds, pay attention to Jiang Yue. Don’t just focus on your work and forget about Jiang Yue, understand?”

“I know, I won’t.”

When Xue Yan sat at the table, he asked his mother casually, “By the way, where’s the small shovel that Liu Guixia usually uses to dig wild vegetables?”

“It’s placed together with the other shovels behind the firewood. Why ask?”

“I’m afraid that some weeds might be deeper than they seem. Won’t it still grow if it’s rooted in the soil? When the time comes, we’ll just use a small shovel to shovel it uproot it.”

“Yes, yes, yes, that’s a good idea, but you must be careful. Don’t shovel any corn seedlings. There are no more seedlings at home.”

“Don’t worry, I’ll be careful.”

Jiang Yue was quite impressed when she listened in on the conversation between Xue Yan and Liu Guixia. It was an impressive skill to lie without changing their expressions.

After lunch, Xue Yan took Jiang Yue to find a small shovel. When they found it in a pile of farming tools, Jiang Yue found that the small shovel was similar to the shovel used for making pancakes, which was perfect for planting the seedlings.

Now that they had two of these small shovels, they set out on their agreed plan. Xue Yan held one for himself and Jiang Yue held the other.

The shovel was small, but it was quite handy to hold.

The newly gained land could be used for planting after some tidying up, which meant that the soybeans could be planted this afternoon. Xue Dafu and Xue Erfu had gone to buy a field in the morning, so they did not have time to go to the barren land. They had to go in the afternoon.

Since he was going the same way as Xue Yan and Jiang Yue, he decided to go together with them.

Xue Dafu was walking at the front. When he was about to leave the village, he bumped into Wang Sufen.

The sneaky woman looked very mean. When she wasn't smiling, her eyes were droopy, and there were even-aged spots on her face. She acted as if the whole world owed her. When he laughed, he didn't feel much better.

When Jiang Yue saw this person, her face immediately turned into one of disgust.

"Dafu, Guixia, are you going to the fields?" Wang Sufen said with great enthusiasm. Her tone and expression even had a hint of flattery.

Ever since their family earned a hundred silver, many people in the village began to treat their family differently.

Liu Guixia and Xue Dafu both knew that she was faking it, but they were from the same village so they were faking the formalities. Furthermore, she was a senior, so they couldn't ignore her. They smiled and said, "That's right, we are."

Xue Erfu still remembered her gossiping behind his back, which was really annoying. He was angry when he saw her, so he walked over directly without a greeting.

Liu Guixia and Xue Dafu were both embarrassed. They knew that she should not be treated like this.

Liu Guixia looked at the vegetable basket on Wang Sufen's arm and said with a smile, "What about you? Did you come back from the garden?"

Wang Sufen wasn't happy about Xue Erfu's reaction, but she still smiled.

"Exactly. I went to the garden to pick some vegetables.

“You have a lot of silver at home, but you’re still working so hard in the fields. It must be hard on you.”

Flattery did not work on the Xue family.

“Aren’t all farmers supposed to be like this?” Liu Guixia laughed. “We still have to work in the fields. There’s still a lot of work to do, so we’ll have to get going first. Let’s chat next time.”

Chapter 72: No One Around

Liu Guixia was just being polite, but Wang Sufen took it seriously. She was so happy that she couldn’t stop smiling. “Then you guys should go, go. When you have the time, we’ll chat again.”

After Liu Guixia and the others were far enough, Wang Sufen spat on the ground and cursed in a low voice, “Who does he think he is? Just because he’s rich now doesn’t mean he can treat us like this!”

Jiang Yue — who was walking at the back — turned around when she heard that.

Wang Sufen didn’t expect that someone would suddenly turn around. Even though Jiang Yue was still a child, she was shocked by the sudden turn of her head. Then, she quickly turned around and left.

“What’s wrong?” Xue Yan was walking beside Jiang Yue. Seeing Jiang Yue turn her head, he also turned his head and saw Wang Sufen walking away in a hurry.

Jiang Yue looked away and shook her head, indicating that she was fine.

Her body had evolved to a certain extent in all aspects during the apocalypse. Except for her size, all other abilities of her body had been transmigrated, including her hearing.

Her hearing was much better than the people in this era. She could hear it, but it didn’t mean that Xue Yan could hear it.

Xue Yan didn’t hear Wang Sufen’s words, so he didn’t ask anything more since she said she was fine.

The cornfield was much closer than the newly gained plot of land at home. When Xue Yan and Jiang Yue found their pit stop, Xue Dafu and the others set off.

Xue Yan looked at Jiang Yue after Xue Dafu and the others had left. Jiang Yue was not in a hurry to say or do anything. Instead, she observed the cornfield.

This one acre of cornfield was close to the foot of the mountain — narrow and long. There was a ditch not far away, and it was very convenient to get water from the ditch to irrigate the land.

The surrounding land had been used, but there was not a single sprout. Occasionally, people would pass by, but that didn't matter. When someone passed by, she would stop transplanting and pretend that she was really pulling the weed from the ground.

With that in mind, a bunch of corn seedlings appeared in Jiang Yue's hand out of thin air. "Here."

Xue Yan took it very naturally.

Jiang Yue raised her eyebrows but did not say anything. Then, she took out a bunch of corn seedlings and squatted down.

She put the corn seedlings aside. Then, she used a small shovel to dig out a corn seedling from the ground in front of her and replaced it with a strong corn seedling she took out from her space.

Xue Yan was squatting not far from Jiang Yue and mimicked what she was doing. However, his speed was much slower than Jiang Yue's. He wanted to be faster, but he did not know how to. He seemed to have accepted his fate and knew that he could not compare himself to Jiang Yue.

Jiang Yue was no ordinary baby. She was more of an adult than an actual adult.

After planting the corn seedlings that she took out, Jiang Yue took more out of her space. She didn't plan to tell Xue Yan about her space or how the corn seedlings were a better variant.

She wasn't the kind of person who would tell others everything. Besides, Xue Yan never bothered asking anyway.

It would take them a whole day to plant everything. Although Xue Yan was slow, he helped out as much as he could. However, it was impossible to finish it in one afternoon. They would have to come back tomorrow morning.

She had also started to cultivate strong cotton seedlings in her space.

After finishing up the corn seedlings in the morning tomorrow, she would be able to transplant the cotton seedlings in the afternoon.

Seeing that the sun was about to set, Jiang Yue quickly took out the two wooden pails and water ladle from her space.

Chapter 73: It's That

Xue Yan was already used to Jiang Yue's ability to conjure things out of thin air, but the wooden bucket and water ladle looked very familiar. They must have come from his house, so he was shocked to see it appear out of thin air.

Jiang Yue quickly went to the ditch and fetched two buckets of water. She gave one bucket to Xue Yan and a water ladle, "Just water each plant a little, you don't have to water too much."

Okay." Xue Yan nodded. He carried a bucket of water with difficulty and started to water the plants.

Jiang Yue went to help Xue Yan after she was done watering her side of the plants. When Xue Yan was done, she went to fetch two more buckets of water and brought them back quickly.

After all the new seedlings have been watered, she put the equipment back into her space.

Xue Yan didn't know about the existence of space, he only knew that the ladle and the bucket disappeared in front of him.

At that moment, they heard Xue Dafu and the others calling for them. They had finished planting the soybeans and were ready to go home. Jiang Yue and Xue Yan were afraid that they would come to the field to check, so they quickly waited on the mountain road instead of waiting in the cornfield.

When Xue Dafu and the others appeared in their line of sight, their eyes brightened.

"Why haven't you guys gone back yet?" Xue Erfu asked immediately.

Xue Yan knew that Jiang Yue didn't like to lie, and neither did he, but he still took the matter into his own hands and lied, "We didn't manage to finish plucking out the weeds. When Mother and Liu Guixia went back to cook, they even asked us to go back with them. We were having fun so we decided to stay longer. We were waiting for you guys to come back so we could go home together."

Xue Dafu and the others casually glanced at the cornfield at the bottom of the mountain. It was a little far away, so they couldn't see the seeds clearly. They didn't know that half of the seedlings had been replaced.

Xue Dafu laughed.

"You kids. How much weed can you pull in an afternoon? If you have the heart, even if it's just one blade of grass, we'll be happy.

"It's just been planted not long ago and there are not many weeds yet. You guys can slowly take your time, there's no rush."

With that, Xue Dafu bent down and asked Jiang Yue lovingly, "Jiang Yue, you've been busy the whole afternoon, are you tired?"

"Xue Yan was the one that pulled them out," Jiang Yue replied. "I only played by the side. I'm not tired."

Hearing this, Xue Yan felt extremely guilty.

Xue Dafu was especially happy. "It's good that you're not tired. Come, let's go home."

"Okay." Jiang Yue nodded.

They went down the mountain together.

Suddenly, Xue Erfu remembered something. "By the way, Xue Yan, the workshop you said you were going to build on this mountain, where do you plan to build it?"

Xue Yan pointed, "Over there. It's next to the river. We can use the water from there too."

Xue Erfu, Xue Dafu, Jiang Yue, and Xue Yifu immediately looked over.

The river that passed through the middle of Willow Village and Locust Village meandered all the way to the side of the mountain, brushing past the edge of the mountain. The river there was not only wider but also much more rapid. It was possible to make use of the water there.

Xue Erfu didn't know what to do, so he only looked and listen. "Over there? That's fine too. I don't know what to do anyway. When do you plan to build your workshop? Have you drawn up the blueprint yet?"

Before Xue Yan could answer, Xue Yifu was already smiling in embarrassment, "Xue Yan finished it long ago. I'm too st*pid and still don't understand some parts. So Xue Yan had to draw it again for me to understand."

Chapter 74: I'm Blind

Upon hearing Xue Yifu's words, Jiang Yue knew that Xue Yan had handed over all the work that required carpenters like Xue Yifu to build.

Xue Erfu laughed, "It's okay if you couldn't understand it. You've never been to school, so I won't expect anything either. The last time I took a glance, I only knew what Xue Yan's workshop looked like. I didn't understand anything further than that. You've studied carpentry for three months, so you can understand some things. I didn't understand a single thing."

Xue Yifu wasn't embarrassed at all after Xue Erfu said that.

Jiang Yue thought that although Xue Yifu had studied carpentry for three months, and the simple things in the house were quite sturdy, the workmanship was still rough and not as good as those who had been carpenters for many years. So how could Xue Yan be at ease to let Xue Yifu do all this work?

Xue Yan didn't seem like a careless person. Since he dared to hand it over to Xue Yifu, he must be sure that Xue Yifu would do it well.

Xue Yan had been reborn, so he knew a lot about the future... right? Maybe Xue Yifu actually had a lot of potential in this area. With just a little bit of guidance or a blueprint, he would be able to understand the blueprint after proper analysis.

Jiang Yue couldn't help but glance at Xue Yan.

"Xue Yan, do you think your big brother can do it?" Xue Dafu thought about it and started to worry. "If this doesn't work... Wouldn't it be a waste? It's better to spend money to hire a carpenter so that he won't delay your work. The sooner the workshop is built, the quicker it will be for you to earn money."

Hearing this, the simple and honest Xue Yifu's mood immediately dropped, and his head drooped.

Seeing Xue Yifu's expression, Jiang Yue knew how much he wanted to help.

"It's okay, he can try." Xue Yan said. "Hasn't he always been interested in carpentry? All the tables and chairs in the house were made by him, were they not sturdy enough? Other carpenters might not even be able to do that. I've already made the blueprint even more detailed for him to understand. Next time, he will definitely be able to understand everything. He'll just need to follow the blueprint and it will definitely be done well."

Xue Yan's reassurance calmed him down, Xue Erfu couldn't help but chime in.

"There's no harm in trying. This wouldn't even cost money, so why not? If this goes well, we wouldn't have to spend money to find other carpenters to do it.

"Do you know how expensive it is to find a carpenter? Let's take Carpenter Zhu from the neighboring village for example. His rates are always extremely high. He's obviously bullying us because we don't have any carpenters. Usually, everyone would rather go far away to find carpenters from other villages than to get someone like him. Fortunately, Yifu usually makes things for our family. Otherwise, we would have to go further away to find someone to make tables, chairs, and stools for us. Even the tables and chairs in our extended family's houses were all made by him, right?"

"That's true." Xue Dafu laughed. He looked at Xue Yifu and said, "Yifu, you can try it out first. I've taken a look at Xue Yan's blueprint before. I think it's too complicated. If you can't make it, it's not too late to find someone else to make it. If you can make it, we'll save our family a lot of money."

"Okay!" Xue Yifu was overjoyed, and he nodded his head in a silly manner. He looked as if he was determined to do his job well.

Looking at Xue Yifu's expression, Jiang Yue felt that it was no longer interest, but a passion that would drive him to finish the workshop. Xue Yifu, as his big brother, loved this.

It must be because of this that Xue Yan insisted on letting his brother do it. He wanted his brother to do more things to feel more confident with himself.

However, why did it seem like he was making up for his regrets?

Could it be that in his past life, Xue Yifu...

At the thought of this, Jiang Yue furrowed her brows.

Xue Yan didn't notice Jiang Yue's change. He was just happy to see his honest brother so happy, and he couldn't help but reflect on the happiness.

In his previous life, after he became an official in the Hanlin Academy, he brought his family to the imperial capital. His family didn't have to work so hard to grow crops anymore.

It just so happened that his elder brother had always been fond of carpentry, so he started tinkering with it in his courtyard in the imperial capital every day. His elder brother slowly got better and better at it each day. One day, he even thought that his drawing table was too small and wanted to make it bigger for him. However, that night, someone came to his courtyard to steal the Prime Minister's secret letter and happened to run into his elder brother. When the thief saw him, he immediately stabbed his elder brother and fled.

The half-finished and exquisitely carved large painting table became the last thing his big brother left him.

Thinking of this, Xue Yan closed his eyes. He suppressed the pain that was rapidly surging up. Fortunately, his big brother was still alive in this life. He would never let the tragedy of his family history repeat itself in this life.

Liu Guixia and the others had already prepared the food. When they got home, Jiang Yue went to wash her hands first, then walked to the stove and took a small bowl of rice from Li Hehua.

"Thank you."

"Oh my, our Jiang Yue is so polite. Hurry up and eat. You must be starving."

"Yes." Jiang Yue brought the bowl to the dining table. Xue Dafu and the others quickly gave her a lot of food. They only returned the bowl to her when she said she had enough.

Then, she took the small rice bowl and walked to the small stool that belonged to her. She sat down and waited for the small rice bowl to be placed on the stool in front of her. Then, she picked up the small wooden spoon and began to eat her dinner.

She wanted to eat in big mouthfuls, but she was small now, and her mouth was small, so she had no choice but to result in small bites.

They hadn't added rice husks to her meals since that morning. Last night, Xue Dafu had told her that she wouldn't have to live as miserably as he did in the past, regardless of whether he bought the land or not. He also reduced the number of wild vegetables she had for every meal. In the past, he didn't give the chicken any of the wild vegetables he had dug up. He had only given them to humans, thinking that he would save as much as possible. Now, most of the wild vegetables were chopped up for the chicken.

Now, they owned eight acres of land. With this, their living conditions have improved by a bit.

Still, it felt like it was not enough.

Jiang Yue's gaze suddenly became firm.

She still had to earn money after she had planted the seedlings of corn, cotton, and sorghum.

Suddenly, a farmer in his fifties, wearing a grey cloth and a goatee, walked in. The farmer smiled and said, "Have you eaten?"

"Oh, you're here." Xue Dafu and Liu Guixia both stood up from their seats.

"Hello." Xue Yifu and the others also stood up.

Xue Yan, who was squatting, stood up. Only then did Jiang Yue realize that the man was Xue Yan's uncle, Xue Darong.

"You haven't eaten yet, right? Why don't you have some at our house?" With that, Liu Guixia was about to get the rice.

"I've already eaten, no worries. I only came after I'd eaten. Guixia, you don't have to get me anytime." Xue Darong laughed.

"Please, sit." Xue Erfu moved away from the table and gave up his seat.

Xue Darong didn't enter the shed. He stood outside and laughed. "I'm not sitting. I just finished eating and need to stand up. Let me stand. You guys go ahead and eat, don't mind me. This Jiang Yue, right?"

Chapter 76: I'm Not That Shameless

As he spoke, Xue Darong gave a gently pat on Jiang Yue's head.

Li Hehua was afraid that Jiang Yue would be afraid of strangers, so she quickly squatted down and whispered, "Jiang Yue, this is Xue Darong. Quickly, say hi."

“Hello.” Jiang Yue greeted him politely.

“Good child, quickly eat.” Xue Darong smiled and patted her head again before turning to Xue Dafu, who was eating in the shed. “I’m just here to ask you something. My family is going to sell vegetables in town again tomorrow. Do you want to go?”

Xue Dafu chewed on the rice in his mouth as he said, “No, I won’t need to go in the future either. I don’t have to pay for Xue Yan’s studies anymore. I don’t have to save on that.”

“It’s such a pity for Xue Yan. He’s such a good seedling, but he didn’t go just because he said so.” Xue Darong looked at Xue Yan with pity. “But your family doesn’t have many vegetable fields. In the past, because you had to support Xue Yan’s studies in town, you thought that even if you saved a mouthful, you could sell it for two dollars. You almost never ate the vegetables you grew. It’s good that things are like this now. By the way, I heard from father that you’ve bought a field?”

“Yup,” Xue Dafu laughed so hard that his teeth could not be seen. “Eight acres of the,!”

“Good, good, good. Out of the four of us, only your family has land. It’s good to buy land. Alright, I’m leaving.” Xue Darong waved his hand and was about to leave.

“Aren’t you going to stay a little longer?” Xue Dafu shouted from behind.

“I have to get up early to sell vegetables in town tomorrow, so I won’t be staying. I have to go back and have a good night’s rest.”

“Alright.”

However, before Xue Darong could leave the courtyard, he ran into Xue Dagui, Zhang Meili, and Xue Zhuzi, who seem to be in a rush.

They’s had been cooping themselves up in Xue Dafu’s courtyard the entire day, so the three of them had not been able to come. Now that the sun had set, Xue Da had long since returned home. Knowing that Xue Da won’t be there, they quickly went to Xue Dafu’s house.

When Xue Dagui saw Xue Darong, he grinned cheekily. “Are you here to ask him to split the money too?”

“You son of a b*tch!” Xue Darong immediately spat at him. “Do you think you deserve that money? I’m not that shameless! I’m not you!”

“Okay, okay,” Xue Dagui was still chuckling. He was thick-skinned and was used to being scolded, so he didn’t mind at all.

Xue Darong was furious.

When Xue Dafu and the others saw Xue Dagui and the others, their expressions turned ugly.

Jiang Yue took advantage of the fact that Xue Dafu and the others were all focused on Xue Dagui and the others, who had just entered, to lean over, reach out, and pick up the axe that was used to chop wood. She placed it by her feet.

Then, she picked up the wooden spoon and ate the rice in small mouthfuls while looking at everything in front of her.

Xue Yan saw her small movements and was speechless. 'Is she ready to attack at any time... But isn't using an axe a little... Well...'

"Get lost, get lost!" Xue Darong angrily pushed Xue Dagui away. "I don't want to talk to you, you pesky b*stard!"

As for Zhang Meili and Xue Zhuzi, he didn't even bother to look at them.

However, after taking two steps, he turned back and said to Xue Dagui "Don't blame me for not reminding you. Xue Dafu has always treated you well. If you make him disown you because of your shamelessness, no one else will help you in the future. I'm not as good-hearted as him!"

"Let's take some time to cool down." Xue Dagui immediately rushed over and hugged one of his older brother's arms. With a salivating face, he said, "The last time I twisted my waist while carrying water, didn't you do the same as him? You gave me a hand and paid for my treatment. I know you have a hard mouth but a soft heart. You can't lie to me."

Xue Darong was so angry that steam blew out from his nose.

This younger brother of his was sure that he and Xue Dafu wouldn't just leave him be.

"Don't worry." Xue Dagui spoke with greed. "I'm just here to discuss something with him. He's my blood brother. I know what I'm doing."

"Who cares if you know what you're doing!" Xue Darong pried away the hand that was holding his arm and stormed off.

Xue Dagui was always like this, and he was used to this treatment. As long as he was a little more thick-skinned, he would be fine the next time he stuck to him. He knew that his brothers had always doted on him the most since he was the youngest.

Not caring if his brother had left or not, Xue Dagui sneaked up to Xue Dafu with a cheeky smile. "Hello, dear brother!"

Xue Dafu only cared about eating and ignored him.

Xue Wufu couldn't take it anymore. He put down his bowl and chopsticks and shouted at Xue Zhuzi, "Xue Zhuzi, didn't you say that if I left, you wouldn't share your prey with me, and I wouldn't have to share my prey with you? What do you mean by this? Do you have any shame? Now that you know what happened, you've come crawling back. Why is it that you're the only one who wants to come and share the money? Have you no shame?!"

"Xue Wufu, who are you scolding?" Zhang Meili was the one that retorted first. "No matter what, Zhuzi is still your cousin. What kind of attitude is this!"

"I don't have a cousin like him!" Xue Wufu immediately said.

"I don't have a cousin like you!" Xue Zhuzi also immediately said. "You want me to be shameless? I think you're the one who's shameless! At that time, I said that if you left, we wouldn't give you anything we got, but I didn't say that I wouldn't give you anything you got. That was what you said! If you knew, why did you say those things? It was as if you could get something if you left. It seems like you knew that there really was a bear and knew where it was. You just didn't want to share it with everyone, and wanted to keep it for yourself!"

"You're sick!" Xue Wufu's eyes widened in disbelief. "If I really knew where the blind bear was, I wouldn't have survived. I wouldn't even have time to call more people. How could I fight the blind bear alone? I even brought my brother and Jiang Yue along. Why would I want to put them in danger like that?!"

"Wufu, why are you paying attention to him? He's just being unreasonable!" Xue Erfu said.

"A shameless family!" Yu Hongyan also cursed.

"Who are you guys talking about?" Xue Zhuzi straightened his neck and looked like he was about to rush up and smack Xue Wufu.

Xue Erfu was just as infuriated. He put down his bowl and chopsticks, stepped on the stool, and rolled up his sleeves. "When Sanfu was here, I didn't see you guys coming to our house and being this shameless. Now that Sanfu isn't here, you guys keep coming. Do you really think that other than Sanfu, who has a bad temper, the rest of us are soft-legged shrimps who can't fight? Come on, if you have the ability, come over! I'll teach you a good lesson today!"

Xue Erfu was 22 years old. He was tall and had long legs. Because of years of hard work, he had a lot of strength. Xue Zhuzi was only 16 years old. He was quite tall, but he was especially thin. He had always been lazy and didn't have much strength. If they really fought, Xue Zhuzi would definitely be beaten up.

Seeing Xue Erfu like this, Xue Zhuzi naturally didn't dare to charge forward. Instead, she cowered and took a few steps back.

"What, Xue Erfu, you still want to fight after all this?" Zhang Meili immediately complained.

Yu Hongyan immediately retorted, "Wasn't your Zhuzi the one who looked like he was going to fight first? If he had the ability, then let him come! What kind of attitude is this? He's all bark no bite and only knows how to act like a scoundrel! As expected, the apple doesn't fall far from the tree!"

"Yu Hongyan!" Zhang Meili shouted in anger.

"That's enough," Xue Dagui shouted impatiently. "We're all relatives. Why are you quarreling? can't we discuss this properly?" As he spoke, he turned to his third brother and smiled, "Right, dear brother? Hehe."

Xue Dafu finally stopped eating. He wiped his mouth and said unhappily, "It's fine if you're a bit unreasonable, but you're being extremely unreasonable here. You even think that you're being really reasonable and making a scene here. No matter how good my temper is, I still feel like something is wrong, especially with your wife. What kind of person is she? If you really treat me as your brother, then quickly take your wife and son away."

"Yes, he's right." Liu Guixia agreed.

"We didn't come here to cause trouble." Xue Dagui looked like he had been forced into a corner. "Isn't it because our family is poor? Let's not talk about splitting the money fully. Can you just at least give me some? I'm your blood-related brother. My family is so poor, but now that your family has money, shouldn't you help me?"

"Didn't you say I already gave you enough money? You said that you twisted your waist last time and it was me who paid for your treatment."

“So, dear, brother, doesn’t that mean I will forever remember your good will?” Xue Dagui was drooling again. An already dead pig was not afraid of boiling water. “I remember it all in my heart. Can’t you just give me some? Ah? Can’t you give me some? Let’s just take it as buying some treats for your nephew Zhuzi and Gouzi, is that okay? Otherwise, even if I’m willing to leave, Meili and Zhuzi won’t.”

“You’re really going to anger me to death!”

“What are you talking about? It won’t do me any good to anger you to death. I’m really poor, that’s why Meili and Zhuzi thought that every cent they could get would be worth it.”

“All of you don’t work, you’re so lazy, of course, your family is poor!”

“We’re extremely poor. It’s been so many years. Please? Just give us a little. Once you give it to us, we’ll go back and everything will be fine. Let’s turn a big problem into a small one and make it go away. Don’t let father know about this. Father is already so old. Why should we let him worry about us? Don’t you agree?”

Even though Xue Dafu was angry at his younger brother’s family for being so shameless, he also wanted this matter to end. He didn’t want his father to worry about him, so he gave in.

“Alright, I’ll give you some.” Xue Dafu was in a bad mood.

“Thank you!” Xue Dagui immediately couldn’t contain his joy.

Zhang Meili and Xue Zhuzi were also very happy and a little proud of Dagui.

Xue Zhuzi even looked at Xue Erfu and Xue Wufu provocatively. He showed a face that meant he won.

“Father!” Xue Erfu and Xue Erfu were furious.

Yu Hongyan was also very angry.

Liu Guixia just sighed. She had always gone with whatever decision was made. Xue Yifu and Li Hehua didn’t have much of an opinion in the family, and they usually listened to their father, Xue Dafu, or their mother, Liu Guixia. Since their father had said so, and their mother didn’t say anything, even if they were unwilling, they couldn’t do anything about it. It could be considered that they had accepted it.

Jiang Yue looked up at the sky. Xue Dafu was a good man, but he was living in too much humiliation. The axe was ready, so she could deal with Xue Dagui and the other two b*stards at any time.

Xue Yan pursed her lips tightly, not knowing what she was thinking.

“Alright, that’s enough!” Xue Dafu shouted at Xue Wufu and the others to stop talking. “I’ve already decided!”

Xue Erfu and Xue Wufu had to endure their father’s behavior as they hung their head low.

Chapter 79: I Dare You

“So…” Xue Dagui sneered, acting like a lackey. “How much do you plan to give our family?”

“That’s right, how much?” At this time, Zhang Meili was also sucking up to him, and she even had a greedy look on her face. “How much?”

“The money was basically used to buy the fields, so I’ll give you one silver. It should be enough.”

“Only one silver? No!” Zhang Meili immediately shouted. “Since you’ve already bought the land, you should at least give us three acres of land and one silver!”

She was biting more off than she can chew.

Xue Dafu’s face turned ugly. “I don’t have any land. I only have one silver. I’ll give it to your family. If you don’t want it, then get lost!”

“Xue Dafu!” Zhang Meili shouted.

“Zhang Meili!” Xue Dagui was the one shouting. “How could you speak to my brother like that? I never call him by his name! Shut up!” Then, he turned to his brother and spoke. “Dear brother, I know that fields are important for farmers. We don’t want your fields, just one silver will do.”

Xue Dafu calmed down a little.

Xue Dagui’s words meant that he had some brains, but Zhang Meili and Xue Zhuzi were completely brainless, so they were extremely dissatisfied.

“Father!”

“What, do you really want me to fall out with my family until you are satisfied? This is my brother! My dear brother!” Xue Dagui immediately shouted at them. “All of you, shut up!” After yelling at Zhang Meili and Xue Zhuzi, he smiled at his brother and said, “So... about that one silver...”

“If you weren’t my brother ...” Xue Dafu was angry for a while before he said to Liu Guixia, “Go and get one silver for him.”

“You’re not allowed to take it!” Xue Wufu didn’t care if he was limping or not. He stopped Liu Guixia and didn’t allow her to take the money. The 14-year-old boy’s eyes were red with anger, and he couldn’t bear it. “On what basis!”

Xue Wufu even started to cry.

“Get out of my way, what has this got to do with you!” Xue Zhuzi was afraid that he wouldn’t even be able to get a single silver, and he was about to take action.

Jiang Yue immediately put down her wooden spoon and reached for her ax. However, her hand touched nothing. She immediately looked down and saw that the ax by her feet had disappeared.

Xue Yan took out an axe and stood in front of Xue Wufu, pointing it at Xue Zhuzi. He said coldly, “Try taking a step closer!”

Oh, the ax was with him. That’s good too, this person finally couldn’t hold back anymore and made a move. Then, she would just watch the show.

Jiang Yue decided to let Xue Yan solve the problem. She picked up the wooden spoon and continued to eat while looking at the food.

“Xue Yan!” Everyone was shocked when they saw Xue Yan holding the ax.

Xue Zhuzi was so scared that he immediately retracted his hand.

Zhang Meili was also shocked. Then, she cursed, “Xue Yan, you’re crazy!” Before they came here to cause trouble, they had thought that they might fight, but they didn’t expect that they would use weapons!

The problem was that this guy had an ax!

An ax!

“Xue Yan, let’s calm down, didn’t we already discuss this...” Xue Dagui was afraid that Xue Yan would really use the ax to chop them, so he kept smiling and comforting Xue Yan.

Looking at Xue Yan who was protecting him — who was also much shorter than him and had such a thin body — Xue Wufu's defense shattered. He broke down and cried, "Why, why..."

Chapter 80: You're Really Something

Seeing Xue Wufu cry like this, Liu Guixia, Xue Yifu, Xue Erfu, Yu Hongyan, and Li Hehua's eyes immediately turned red.

Xue Erfu hugged Xue Wufu tightly with trembling lips. He kept asking in his heart, 'How did his father endure it... How did his father endure it... He actually wanted to give money away..'

"Father, how much longer are you going to make him do this?" Xue Yan stared at his father and asked, his eyes also red.

He was angry that his father acted like this. Whether it was in this life or in his previous life, his father and his family had been leeches off for who knows how long.

In his previous life, because they were all filial and listened to his father, his father always made the decision by himself and didn't allow anyone to have any objections. Then, he let that vile family leech off for so long. As sons, no matter how unwilling they were, they still endured it in the end. Even after fourth uncle passed away in an accident, Zhang Meili and Xue Zhuzi continued to suck his family's blood dry from time to time. It was only until Zhang Meili and Xue Zhuzi slandered him for cheating in the exam that the two families completely fell out. In this life, he didn't want to endure it anymore.

Xue Yan's words were like a sharp knife that stabbed Xue Dafu, rendering him unable to move.

His mind went blank.

After a long while, Xue Dafu slowly came back to his senses. He turned his head slowly and looked at the others. Xue Wufu was still crying. All of this was like a harsh slap into reality.

He thought about all these years. Although he had never forgiven his family's shamelessness, he had allowed them to succeed time and time again. As long as his brother's family came and begged for money, they would be able to take away some things. Money, food, clothes, and daily necessities. All their hard earned work given away just like that...

Finally, Xue Dafu's gaze fell on Xue Yan again. His youngest son's eyes were also red. His youngest son had never cried this much before. His eyes had never turned red, and he was even holding a sharp ax? If it wasn't for the fact that his actions had made his family feel extremely aggrieved, his youngest son would never have been forced into such a state.

He had wronged his family. Everyone in the family had been wronged.

At this thought, Xue Dafu seemed to have gone crazy. He grabbed the shoulder pole leaning against the wall and hit Xue Dagui. "What kind of little brother are you! What kind of little brother are you! What have I been doing all these years! What a b*stard, get lost! Get lost! If you dare to come to my house again, I will beat you up!"

This was great. Not only did he hit Xue Dagui, but he also hit Xue Zhuzi and Zhang Meili with his pole.

He didn't care if Zhang Meili was a woman or not.

Jiang Yue immediately raised her eyebrows. This Xue Yan was good, he was influencing the rest to be brave too.

Xue Erfu saw his father's reaction and was immediately overjoyed. He quickly grabbed a pole and started beating and shooing the rats away.

Xue Yifu wasn't happy, but he felt that the family should work as one. His father and second brother had already started fighting, so there was no reason for him to stand around. He also grabbed something and began to greet the three of them.

Zhang Meili and Xue Zhuzi could only cry out in pain.

"Murder! Murder!" Zhang Meili shouted again.

Xue Zhuzi couldn't shout anything. Xue Erfu's pole was only aimed at him, and he couldn't fight back, so he could only run with Zhang Meili.

"I'm sorry, I was wrong. I don't want that one silver anymore, please don't disown me as your little brother! Can you be kind and forgive me? Please, dear brother! Please!"
