

Falling For My Mysterious Wife

Chapter 153

Chapter 153

However, those few people did not make any move. Elaina, Jalen, and Theodore walked out of the grocery store and returned to the villa. Nothing happened.

At this time, not to mention Elaina, even Jalen began to suspect whether he had been over-cautious.

In the kitchen, Theodore was cooking. Jalen received a call from Graham and listened to his report on the phone. But the uneasiness in Jalen's heart did not disappear.

After hanging up the phone, Jalen walked to the living room and shook his head at Elaina.

Seeing this, Elaina heaved a sigh of relief. There had been a lot of things happening recently. She really did not want any accident to happen again.

"Theodore, let me help you." As Elaina spoke, she walked into the kitchen and helped Theodore cook dinner.

Only Jalen and Andrew were left in the living room.

Jalen and Andrew were not familiar with each other. Although Andrew's hostility towards Jalen was not as great as Theodore's, it was not small either. He glared at Jalen and said, "There is no use in trying to curry favor. Ella is not a superficial person!"

"Yeah. You are right." Jalen did not want to argue with Andrew. After all, he didn't hate or dislike Andrew.

In any case, Andrew was Elaina's relative. So it was not good for Jalen to offend Andrew.

Andrew felt that his words did not achieve the expected effect. He was a little angry. "We won't agree to let Ella be with you."

"I will keep improving and try my best," Jalen said. His expression was indifferent, and he was not angry.

Andrew felt speechless. Andrew thought angrily, excuse me? Does he even understand what I am saying?

"I've heard that you are building your own company.

How's it? Do you need help?" Jalen suddenly spoke and looked at Andrew with a smile.

Andrew immediately refused Jalen's help and said in a bad mood, "No need! Theodore will help me."

Andrew had indeed encountered a problem, but it was impossible for him to ask Jalen for help. In Andrew's heart, Jalen was a bastard who had wasted Elaina's two years of life. It was already very polite of Andrew that he did not beat Jalen up.

"You should understand that this is not Theodore's strong suit. He only knows something about advanced technology. He knows nothing about the information security company that you want to build," Jalen said with confidence. It seemed that he was very clear about what Andrew was doing.

Andrew was naturally clear about what Jalen was saying, and he could not help but feel worried in his heart.

But after thinking for a few seconds, Andrew felt Jalen's words were meaningful. He asked, "What do you mean? You want to help me?"

"The Halton Group has many companies under its name. We also have some business that is related to information and security.

I'm more helpful to you," Jalen said.

Of course, Andrew knew how powerful the Halton Group was. But he did not agree to Jalen's proposal. Instead, he looked at Jalen suspiciously. "What do you want? You want to draw me over to your side?"

“You can think this way,” Jalen chuckled and did not refute.

Andrew frowned. Jalen continued, “No matter what, you are still Ella’s brother. After Ella and I get remarried, you will also be my brother. We are a family, so I naturally have to help you.” Andrew nodded with satisfaction and said proudly, “Of course...”

Halfway through his words, Andrew realized that something was wrong. “Get remarried? Ella wants to get married to you again?”

“She will sooner or later,” Jalen said, but his voice was not loud. It seemed that he was afraid of being heard by Elaina.

Jalen did not want to make Elaina unhappy at this time. After all, it was not easy for their relationship to make progress.

Andrew frowned because of Jalen’s words and was very dissatisfied. “Don’t even think about it! Ella won’t agree, and Theodore and I will not agree either!”

“But your company...” Jalen curled his lips and did not say much. He believed that Andrew understood what he meant.

Andrew looked at Jalen angrily. “Even if I fail in building a company, I won’t be roped in by you!”

“Really? Alright then.” Jalen spread his hands and raised his eyebrows indifferently.

☐ ☐ ☐