Chapter 29

“So what if I go against you? Do you think I’m afraid of your family?” Saul’s aura instantly changed. In the blink of an eye, Saul seemed to have become a horrifying killer.

Elaina turned to look at Saul. This man was a little interesting.

Saul looked frivolous, but when he got serious, he would become a different person.

While the two of them were in a deadlock, Jalen and Quincy came down from the second floor.

When they saw Saul, they were both shocked.

“Hey, you’re late. Your girl was saved by another hero.” Quincy gloated and deliberately teased Jalen.

Jalen’s face was gloomy, and his gaze was unkind.

“Will Saul be so kind?”

“That’s true. Who knows? He might have some bad tricks up his sleeve.” Quincy nodded and said, “It’s a pity that Dr. Gainsford doesn’t know. She might be tricked.”

Jalen did not say anything. He did not go over and just watched from afar.

“Jalen.”

Marie walked toward Jalen the moment she saw him. Without Jalen, Marie seemed like an outsider at this banquet.

Jalen nodded but ignored Marie. Instead, he continued to look at Elaina.

“Saul!”

Seeing that Saul really wanted to go against him, Marcus was furious and said maliciously, “Do you also like her?”

Saul was silent. After a while, he said impatiently, “If you want to fight, hurry up. Don’t waste my time.”

“You!” Marcus was furious.

Saul was not afraid of Marcus and just looked at him coldly.

Just as Marcus was about to ask his buddies to attack Saul, an old man appeared in time and stopped

Marcus. He whispered in Marcus' ear, "Mr. Lory, we shouldn't offend the Judson family."

"But..." Marcus could not swallow this.

"There will be many opportunities in the future," the old man spoke again, but his tone was unquestionable.

Marcus' face was ashen. His gaze was turning back and forth between Elaina and Saul. After a while, he said, "You are lucky. I will let you off today."

With that, Marcus left with his people.

When Marcus was far away, Saul turned back to look at Elaina with a smile. "It seems that you are not very worried."

Get Bo

"He's just a punk. What is there to worry about?"

If Saul had not suddenly appeared, Marcus and his people would have been beaten down by Elaina.

However, she did not say it. After all, Saul helped her. If Elaina really said that, it would be a little provoking.

Saul nodded. "A punk? That's right."

As he spoke, Saul handed a glass of champagne to Elaina and took a glass of red wine. "I'm Saul. Nice to meet you."

Elaina looked at him and pondered.

"Don't worry, Marcus and I are not in the same world." As if knowing what Elaina was worried about, Saul explained, not knowing whether to laugh or cry.

Hearing this, Elaina smiled and raised her glass at Saul. "I'm Dr. Gainsford."

Although the other party helped her, Elaina did not intend to introduce herself too much. It was fine as long as there was a name that could be called. As for the real name, it was not that important.

"Dr. Gainsford?" Saul murmured, then shook his head helplessly. "Alright."

Saul had plenty of time, so he was not in a hurry.

As Saul spoke, he sat down with Elaina. Saul glanced at Jalen not far away and raised his eyebrows at Jalen as if Saul was showing off.

At this moment, Jalen understood what Saul meant.

Saul deliberately approached Elaina!

As for the reason...

Saul just enjoyed provoking Jalen.

Because of that incident back then, Saul actually hated the entire Halton family.
