

The First Heir: Chapter 1102 to 1117

Chapter 1102

“Old Master, who’s trying to attack the Hull family? The outside world is spreading rumors that the Lowell family is plotting against the Hull family.”

Some people still asked in puzzlement.

Old Master Lowell got up with his hands on his back. His eyes were gleaming with brilliance as he said to everyone, “Just do what you need to do with ease. Don’t ask questions that shouldn’t be asked. When the matter is over, we can naturally get the results.”

Everyone shut their mouths and no longer asked any other questions.

At the same time in the hall, a team of heavily armed guards walked in and bent over before respectfully saying, “Old Master, everyone has assembled and is waiting for your orders!”

When all the persons in charge of the Lowell family saw a team of heavily armed guards suddenly appearing in the hall, they were all dumbfounded and shocked!

These were the few captains of the Lowell family’s guards in Riverton!

Old Master Lowell was actually mobilizing them!

They were really about to fight the Hull family to the end!

Old Master Lowell waved his hand. He was full of chills and domineering spirit when he said, "Well done! Spread the word. Gather all the Lowell family guards in Riverton. All the entrances and exits in and out of Riverton must be kept under strict security. Forbid all entry from foreign forces! No matter who it is, without my order, anyone who dares to barge into Riverton shall be killed without mercy!"

"Yes!"

This team of heavily armed guards immediately turned around and walked out of the Lowell family's manor. Very soon, all the persons in charge of the Lowell family followed suit to make preparations.

Only Old Master Lowell, Seamus, Mr. Gunn, and Nate were left.

Three generations of the Lowell family stood together and looked at the dark clouds in the sky.

Nate folded his hands and asked, "Dad, is it really over for the Hull family this time?"

Old Master Lowell narrowed his eyes. With his body bent, he was fiddling with a pair of stress balls in his hands. He said lightly, "The weather is changing. Just sit and watch."

Nate said no more.

This side.

The moment Old Master Lowell gave out his order, every single one of the Lowell family's guards in Riverton sprang into action. One after another, green armored vehicles drove on various streets in Riverton, closely monitoring the four toll stations leading to Riverton as well as four ports.

It could be seen that the entrance of the toll gates was lined with teams of heavily armed bodyguards who were patrolling intensively to prevent all foreign forces from entering!

Back to Philip.

At this moment, his motorcade had arrived at the Hull family's manor in Riverton!

The convoy stopped at the gates.

Rumble!

In the sky, muffled thunder exploded! ,

In an instant, the dark clouds in the entire sky surged and changed forms very quickly!

In the surrounding hotels and restaurants of the Hull family's mansion, many prominent figures in Riverton were sitting with their people. They were all paying close attention to the Hull family!

At this moment, their breaths were stuck in their throats when they saw the motorcade parked at the gate of the Hull family's mansion. They were feeling extremely nervous!

It was coming!

That mysterious Young Master Clarke was finally here!

Chapter 1103

Everyone stared in that direction, watching the door of the Maybach in that convoy open.

It was Theo who walked down first. He stood by the car door respectfully, welcoming the protagonist.

Just seeing Theo, many people who were observing secretly took a breath!

It was Theo Zander!

Theo Zander of Riverdale!

Such a famous person was standing at the door of the car with a humble attitude, waiting for the main lead to get down from the car.

Anyone who knew Theo or heard of Theo's name was stunned.

Was Theo the one who wanted to attack the Hull family?

Was it the person behind Theo?

Just when everyone was speculating, they saw a young man getting down from the Maybach. He was wearing a gray checkered suit and sunglasses with his hair styled in center parting, looking very handsome with a sunny disposition!

There was also the vibe of a domineering CEO oozing from him!

Was he the mastermind behind the scenes?

His face was too unfamiliar.

Who could this person be? Even Theo was reduced to a valet who opened car doors for him.

At this moment, all the prominent figures of Riverton hiding around were dumbfounded!

They had never seen Philip before and naturally had no prior information about Philip at all.

All of a sudden, pictures of Philip getting out of the car spread through Riverton's business district and upper-class society!

Everyone talked happily, endlessly discussing Philip.

"Look, the news just arrived. This is the young man who wants to attack the Hull family."

"Who is he? He looks unfamiliar. He can't be from Riverton."

"Are you stupid? Don't you see Theo Zander standing next to him? He must be from Riverdale. Let's quickly find out!"

Today, many insightful people in Riverton were holding a meeting in private and paying close attention to the affairs of the Hull family.

Once they heard anything, everyone would rise together.

After all, it had been more than a year or two since the Hull family began suppressing everyone.

They would not fail to grasp this opportunity and cherish it.

It was just that everyone's focus now was on the mysterious Young Master Clarke.

As for Philip's identity, it became an enigma. Various rumors began to spread in Riverton.

At the same time.

Philip got out of the car and stood in front of the courtyard of the Hull family's manor.

He undid a few buttons of his suit on his chest, glanced lightly at the gold watch on his wrist, and then said to Theo beside him, "Let's go in."

Instantly, Philip stepped toward the Hull family's manor.

Theo followed closely behind.

Behind him, there were dozens of bodyguards in black suits who were all ready for battle. They carried with them a slight imposing manner like a mountain!

Just this lineup and momentum alone were enough to make those who were watching in secret startled in fright!

At this moment in the courtyard of the Hull family's mansion...

All the persons in charge of the Hull family were here. Colin stood in the inner hall with two rows of these people at his right and left.

Obviously, they had heard the rumors.

“Patriarch, what did the lord say? Will he help the Hull family through this difficult time?”

Someone could not wait to ask

“Colin, do say something. The Lowell family is already on the move, guarding various toll stations and ports. The members of the Hull family can’t get out of this city now even if we want to!”

Many people in charge of the Hull family were anxious at this moment.

The storm was about to hit and it was no ordinary storm!

The other party’s methods were relentless.

Now, even the escape route was cut off!

People outside could not get in, and the people inside could not get out!

The Hull family was no different from sitting ducks, waiting for the other party to come and slaughter them.

Colin's face was cold and ugly as his eyes swept over the heads of the Hull family. Then, he shook his head helplessly and said, "The lord won't help the Hull family. Moreover, from today, the Hull family will have nothing to do with the Gentleman Court. We have to deal with this situation on our own."

Everyone fell silent at his words.

This was tantamount to announcing that the Hull family would not receive any helping hands!

They lost the Hull Chamber of Commerce, and now they lost the lord.

Was the Hull family really on the path of peril? Everyone's faces turned ugly as the atmosphere in the entire inner hall became extremely solemn.

Their faces were filled with a sense of depression.

Chapter 1104

Seeing this, Colin shouted in a deep voice, "Even so, don't worry. No one can crush the Hull family! Now that this matter has progressed this far, everyone can only fight with their lives. Even if the Hull family plummets because of this, as long as the Hull family survives and the Hull family members are still alive, we will have a comeback!"

This sentence struck a chord in everyone's heart like a deafening bell!

When all the persons in charge of the Hull family heard these words, there was a soaring pride in their chests!

Yes.

As long as the Hull family members were still alive, there would be a chance for a comeback!

“Yes! The Hull family will survive!”

“We vow to live and die with the Hull family. No one can defeat the Hull family!”

“Who cares about Young Master Clarke? If he dares to show up, I’ll be the first to kill him!”

For a while, the heads of the Hull family were agitated and had become angry!

It seemed that as long as Philip dared to show his face, they would tear Philip to pieces at once!

However, at this moment.

Several people wearing black martial arts uniforms with red sashes tied around their waists quickly walked through the courtyard of the house to the inner hall. They knelt on one knee and said to Colin, “Patriarch, something has happened!”

Colin frowned and looked at these people. They were members of the Hull family he had arranged to lay in secret ambush. For them to appear here, could something have gone wrong?

“What’s the matter?” Colin asked suspiciously with a bad premonition in his heart.

Not only him, but the other people in charge of the Hull family also had solemn expressions on their faces.

They knew that these disciples were the foundation protecting the Hull family.

“Reporting to the patriarch. The other branches of the Hull family received the order to return and rushed back to Riverton from the field yesterday, but now they’re being stopped by the Lowell family at the Riverton toll gates and the convoy can’t enter!” the disciple said.

“The Lowell family? Damn that Knox Lowell!”

Colin was furious, murderous intent flowing all over his body. He shouted, “Send someone over there immediately. No matter what, he sure to bring in all the Hull members from the other branches!”

The Hull family’s disciples did not move but continued to kneel on one knee.

Seeing the hesitance on the disciples’ expressions, Colin roared. “Why? What else is there? Say it!”

“Patriarch, we’ve already tried doing that. We even got into a small—scale scuffle with them, but the people of the Lowell family are adamant about not giving way. “Furthermore, the Lowell family is constantly increasing more manpower. I’m afraid that all entrances and exits in Riverton are stationed with the Lowell family’s guards now.”

Rumble!

A muffled thunder in the sky could be heard at this moment!

Everyone was shocked.

Especially after what the disciple said, it was even more frightening!

Crack!

A flash of lightning pierced the sky, illuminating the entire Hull family's mansion in an instant. It also reflected the angry faces of Colin and the rest.

The weather darkened quickly!

A downpour started abruptly!

The entire sky was covered with rain!

At this moment, Colin was full of coldness, anger, and endless killing intent!

As the head of the domestic Hull family and after being in the business for decades, lording over the business community in Riverton, he had never suffered such indignation like today!

Even the members of the Hull family were not allowed to return to Riverton.

They went too far!

"Damn that Lowell family, damn that Philip Clarke! The Hull family won't take this lying down!"

With a roar, Colin growled from the chest!

Coupled with the rumbling thunder, his voice echoed in the mansion's courtyard.

“You won't take it lying down? Then I really want to see what your Hull family can do about this.”

Suddenly!

A cold voice sounded in the courtyard of the mansion.

Then, a figure wearing a gray plaid suit with a faint sneer at the corner of his mouth and his hands in his trouser pockets appeared in the inner courtyard.

By his side, Theo was personally holding a big black umbrella over him to block the rain.

Chapter 1105

The rain poured fiercely!

Thunder blasted while lightning meandered densely, the momentum terrifying!

The entire courtyard of the Hull family's mansion was as quiet as a graveyard, forming an atmosphere of solemnity!

The main lead had appeared!

Colin followed the voice, his face looking gloomy as the flames of anger throbbed in his pupils.

Standing before him, a few yards away in the rain, was a n extremely young man. He was standing under the umbrella with his hands in his trouser pockets, seeming calm and indifferent.

However, the dormant kingly aura exuding from him could not escape anyone's senses.

What a strong intensity!

Like a sword that soared above, it seemed to split the dim sky and the rain that connected heaven and earth!

The two sides stood in opposition.

During the face-off, Colin saw the opponent's eyes that were like brilliant lights in the dark, filled with potency and deterrence!

How dare they barge into the Hull family's mansion?!

Too bold!

With a somber face, Colin stared at these uninvited guests who suddenly broke into the mansion and shouted, "Are you Philip Clarke? How dare you break into the Hull family's manor? Do you want to die?"

Although Colin already knew the other party's ultimate identity, he had not disclosed it to the Hull family.

It was because he knew that once Philip's identity was exposed, it would really be the end for the Hull family.

Everyone would give up resisting.

Bailing out the ocean with a bucket was a near-impossible task.

Therefore, right from the start, Colin could only motivate the members of the Hull family.

The end result was already set in stone.

Standing in the courtyard, Philip looked at Colin standing in the inner hall and the heads of the Hull family behind him through a continuous curtain of rain. Grinning slightly, he said, "Colin Hull, can't you see the situation clearly yet? Could it be that you want to watch as I destroy the Hull family with my hands before you're willing to yield?"

His voice was soft, but with the thunder in the sky, it was overwhelming!

Hahaha!

A burst of arrogant laughter disturbed the rainfall.

At this moment, Colin looked grim and fearless as he stared at Philip who was a few yards away. He said coldly, "Ridiculous! What situation? Do you think the huge Hull family can be destroyed just because you have the Lowell family on your side? To tell you the truth, if the Hull family perishes today, we'll take you with us! ”

It was do or die!

If the Hull family was destroyed, there was nothing else for Colin to fear.

The Clarke family of Arcadia Island?

Taking a member of the Clarke family with them was more than enough!

This was Colin's ultimate plan!

“That's right! All the members of the Hull family are warriors! If you want to destroy the Hull family, you need to weigh your qualifications!”

“Philip Clarke, even if you know the Lowell family and are on the same boat with them, you must be prepared to sink with the ship if you want to destroy the Hull family!”

“Haha! Why? Are you scared? Your expression looks incredibly bad!”

Many heads of the Hull family were filled with indignation. They were not afraid of death.

They continued to mock and taunt

When Philip's expression changed, they thought that the other party was scared and cowering.

Haha.

It turned out to be a bluff. They thought he was very powerful.

It seemed that today's danger to the Hull family had been lifted.

However...

To everyone's surprise...

Philip suddenly sneered and walked directly into the inner hall. Under everyone's gaze, he walked straight to Colin, locked eyes with him, and said coldly, "If I want the Hull family to perish, it has to perish. However, before that, I want Flint Hull and Vinci Hull to come out and apologize."

Flint?

All the persons in charge of the Hull family were suddenly angry at Philip for being so rude and arrogant.

Everyone immediately pointed at him and shouted.

"Insolence! How dare you speak so arrogantly?!"

"Flint was already crippled by you the other day! You still have the cheek to ask him to come out and apologize to you?"

“Huh! Do you really think you’re invincible? You don’t have the final say in Riverton! ”

Facing everyone’s anger, Philip remained calm as he looked at Colin.

At first, the latter frowned. Then, he roared with blazing eyes. “No matter what happened between you three, there’s no way Flint and Vinci will apologize! Unless you step over the bodies of the Hull family!”

The Hull family could not lose their dignity!

Chapter 1106

Philip smiled serenely. He had already expected this outcome as he said, “Colin Hull, are you putting the entire Hull family at stake? What if I tell you that between the Hull siblings and the Hull family, you can only choose one? Who will you choose?”

The entire hall quietened at his words.

Colin clenched his fists as his mind went into a frenzy. He knew Philip’s identity and naturally knew Philip’s power and methods.

However, the others did not.

Now, Philip’s options were making Colin stuck between a rock and a hard place!

At this moment, the other persons in charge of the Hull family looked at each other before looking at Philip and asking, “What you mean to say is, as long as Flint and Vinci come out and apologize to you, the Hull family will be safe?”

Philip did not answer.

The others were in confusion.

It turned out to be so simple.

Thus, they looked at Colin and said, "Patriarch, it's just an apology. You need to think about it. Let Flint and Vinci step forward on account of the Hull family."

"Patriarch, it's not that we're backing down, but we have to take the Hull family into consideration."

Colin looked at the heads of the Hull family and felt his resolve shaken.

He did not want to go to war with Philip at all. That was akin to committing suicide.

Therefore, he asked, "Are you sure that as long as Flint and Vinci come out to apologize, this matter will be over?"

Philip smiled faintly, shook his head, and said, "No, not just an apology. I also want Flint's life."

Crack!

A thunder!

"Impudent! Are you playing tricks on the Hull family?"

Colin immediately flew into a rage, the flesh on his face trembling.

The other heads of the Hull family did not follow suit at this moment.

It was because they already had their own ideas.

If the entire Hull family could be saved by using Flint, they would agree.

It was because Flint was just a good-for-nothing who flaunted his position as heir of the family!

“Men! Take them down!”

Colin pointed at Philip and roared angrily because he noticed that the brains of the other persons in charge were churning.

He needed to end this quickly!

Sowing discord among the enemy’s camp – this method was too ruthless!

Colin’s eyes were brilliant, full of anger and hatred!

Swoosh!

In an instant, in the courtyard of the Hull family’s mansion, dozens of disciples rushed out. They were all in black martial arts uniforms and had red sashes tied around their waists!

These people were the guards of the Hull family's mansion arranged by Colin to prevent emergencies!

Not only the inner courtyard but the entire mansion and the surrounding streets outside the block, many disciples had gathered at this moment to brave the rain and rush into the manor!

The sound of pattering footsteps in the puddles shook the sky!

The entire Hull family's mansion permeated with killing intent at this moment!

"Philip Clarke, you only brought this many people and you dare to break into the Hull family's manor. Now, the Lowell family is being held back by the Hull family. Do you think you can walk out alive today?"

Colin sneered, his eyes full of chills.

However...

Philip lit a cigarette, inhaled, and blew the smoke on Colin's face. He said with a smile, "I already knew that you've arranged for some people, but this is pretty pathetic. Why don't you take a look at how many I brought?"

Chapter 1107

As Philip's voice fell!

Among the black-suited bodyguards behind him, one took out a signal flare and blasted it to the sky.

Swoosh!

The howling golden flare, like a soaring giant dragon, roared as it shot into the sky!

Passing through the curtain of pouring rain, the swaying golden light exploded at a high altitude!

Bang!

The flare blasted apart, forming a big golden letter 'P' in the sky!

Very shocking!

Extremely exaggerated!

That huge golden letter gave people an infinite sense of oppression!

It was like a giant in the sky looking down on the mortal earth!

At this moment, anyone in Riverton would see this sight if they looked up into the sky!

Very spectacular!

People who were not in the loop thought it was a firework display.

Around the Hull family's mansion, those people waiting around and paying close attention to the situation inside the mansion were all shocked when they saw the flare rising into the sky!

Especially seeing the golden character appearing in the sky!

Everyone took a deep breath!

It was coming!

As expected!

In less than three minutes after the flare was fired...

All the people in Riverton arranged by Philip were dispatched!

Especially within the five miles radius of the Hull family's manor, all the green armored vehicles parked on the roadside or in the underground parking lots, as well as dozens of black SUVs and modified bulletproof Cadillacs, were on the move!

They were driving at top speed in the heavy rain!

Swish!

One after another, green armored vehicles drove in from all directions and stopped in front of the Hull family's mansion, as well as various entrances and exits!

Pitter-patter!

The dense sound of boots stepping in the rain merged into one resonating piece that shook the world!

Team after team of heavily armed personnel jumped out of the green armored vehicles and quickly surrounded the entire Hull family's mansion!

Immediately afterward, more than a dozen black modified Cadillacs broke through the rain and stopped at the entrance of the mansion!

Teams of special bodyguards wearing black combat uniforms and berets were stepping on combat boots while wearing tactical eyepieces. They were equipped with guns as they rushed out of the cars in a uniform movement!

They assembled quickly!

The captain of the bodyguards took the lead and made a gesture for them to move in!

In an instant, more than a dozen combat personnel arched their backs with weapons in their hands and quickly rushed into the Hull family's mansion!

“Charge!”

“Drop your weapons! Do not resist!”

“Squat down! Everyone down!”

As soon as this team of special bodyguards rushed into the mansion, they clashed with the Hull family's disciples inside!

Boom!

Several of the Hull family's disciples held metal rods in their hands and attempted to rush out!

As a result, black combat boots swept through the rain and kicked them abruptly in the chests. They flew out, fell into the puddles of rain, and slid for several yards!

"Don't move! Offenders will be executed!"

In an instant, a bodyguard in a black combat uniform was pressing the muzzle down and pointing it at another man's forehead!

This scene was quickly replicated in other parts of the Hull family's mansion!

More teams of special bodyguards in black combat uniforms rushed in!

At the entrances and exits to the inner courtyard, the Hull disciples wearing black martial arts uniforms with red sashes around their waists also took out their weapons one after another. They resisted with all their strength!

However...

Biff, bang!

Several combat personnel directly flipped them over their shoulders, knocking all of them onto the ground!

Total suppression!

Barn!

Thud!

The sound of dense combat boots stepping in the puddles resounded throughout the Hull family's inner courtyard!

Chapter 1108

In an instant, teams of special bodyguards in black combat uniforms rushed out from behind Philip. They stood or squatted with all their guns aimed at the members of the Hull family in the inner hall while guarding Philip and his people behind them!

"Team One, assembly complete! "

"Team Two, assembly complete!"

"Team Six, assembly complete!"

For a while, the cold words of these people resounded throughout the inner courtyard.

The Hull disciples who had rushed in before were all suppressed on the ground at this moment, unable to resist at all!

Colin's face was cold and furious. Abruptly, he pulled out the Desert Eagle from his back!

He needed to fight. If he did not resist, it would be over for the entire Hull family!

However...

One of the bodyguards directly launched a kick on Colin's chest!

Bam!

Thud!

Like a kite with a broken string, Colin flew upside down and fell heavily on the chair behind him!

This kick broke at least three or four of his ribs!

It took a long time for Colin to withstand the stench of blood in his chest and slowly get up.

Seeing this scene at this moment, all the persons in charge of the Hull family completely lost the will to resist.

Oh my!

What methods were these?

How could they fight this?

What sort of existence had the Hull family provoked?

This was not the fear only in their inner hearts but also in those around them. Those paying close attention to the Hull family's incident had the same question! Especially the people around the Hull family's mansion who were witnessing this shocking scene at this moment. They were all dumbfounded!

Such incredible methods and ability to mobilize personnel were simply unheard of!

Even the Lowell family, in front of such power, was nothing but ants!

What sort of existence had the Hull family provoked?!

At the same time, the situation at the Hull family's mansion was being broadcasted live. It quickly spread in various business districts and upper social circles in Riverton!

Everyone watching the live broadcast on social media was astounded!

Especially when the green armored vehicles and dozens of black modified Cadillacs appeared in the scene, it was simply too dashing!

Amazing!

No one could resist this kind of strength and means in Riverton!

No wonder.

That was the reason the Lowell family chose the other side!

“F*ck! Too cool! Who the hell is this? Such awesome methods!”

“This is the role model of our generation! We must make connections with this Young Master Clarke!”

Many young and rich second-generation masters were gathered together at this moment, overwhelmed by the tricks displayed by Philip that were merely the tip of the iceberg!

Furthermore, many local wealthy families and business leaders in Riverton had begun to think about getting their daughters to befriend this person!

Of course, all the wealthy daughters of Riverton, after seeing this grand occasion, yearned for the chance!

This was the Prince Charming they had all been waiting for!

The king of their dreams!

Back to the courtyard of the Hull family’s mansion.

Philip stood in front of Colin. The latter raised his head with a cruel sneer and said, “Philip Clarke, do you think you can destroy my Hull family? Do you think I’ve lost?”

Philip frowned and looked down at Colin, who was on the ground, with a bitter sneer and said, “Actually, as long as you hand over Flint and Vinci, the Hull family will not suffer the fate of destruction. This is all happening because of your arrogance, thinking that you can wipe me out.”

“Hahaha! ”

Colin laughed and said, "You want my children to apologize to you? Dream on! The members of the Hull family never make mistakes! Even if there's a mistake, we'll get rid of the person who pointed out that mistake!"

Philip reluctantly shook his head and said the final words to Colin, "In that case, from today, there will be no more Hull family in Riverton!"

After that, Philip was about to turn around and leave.

However...

Colin staggered and got up from the ground shakily. Holding a remote control in his hand, he stared at Philip's back with eyes full of anger while shouting, "Philip Clarke! Even if the Hull family is destroyed, we'll take you with us! I have planted explosives all around the Hull family's mansion. As long as you dare to walk out of this door, we'll all die together!"

Chapter 1109

Swish!

Philip turned around, his eyes condensing as he stared at the remote control in Colin's hand!

This old guy actually wanted to perish together!

At this scene, all the persons in charge of the Hull family in the surroundings shook with fright!

Colin had already planned for the worst!

He was going to bury the entire Hull family!

“Patriarch, don’t do this!”

“Just hand over Flint and Vinci for the sake of the Hull family! We must think of the old and the young!”

“Colin Hull, you’re too selfish! To save your children, you’re actually putting the entire Hull family at stake!”

For a while, everyone begged or cursed!

“Colin Hull, we won’t continue this debacle with you any longer! I propose to abolish your position as the head of the Hull family!”

“That’s right! You’re betting on the lives of dozens of people in the Hull family! Flint is nothing but a slacker. Since he made a mistake, he must step forward and take responsibility!”

“Colin Hull, quickly hand over Flint Hull!”

At this moment, all the people in charge of the Hull family had switched sides.

They were afraid of dying.

Even now, the huge Hull family of Riverton had no means to retaliate in front of this Philip Clarke!

How could they continue the fight? It was nothing but courting death!

They needed to stop in time and prevent more losses! This was the consensus reached by the heads of the Hull family!

They must absolutely not allow the 100-year foundation of the Hull family to be ruined just because of a useless Flint Hull!

“Abolish Colin Hull’s position as the patriarch!”

“Hand Flint over!”

“Hand them over!”

There was no need for Philip to do anything. At this moment, the heads of the Hull family were pressuring Colin.

Holding the remote control in his hand, Colin looked at the group of turncoats with bloodshot eyes as he sneered sinisterly and roared. “Shut the f*ck up! I’ll never hand Flint over! If anything happens, we’ll die together!”

At this moment, Colin was already mad with rage.

His sense of judgment was completely lost.

The persons in charge of the Hull family present were also panicking at the moment.

Especially seeing Colin being emotional and holding the remote control tightly in his hand, they were very seared.

They were afraid that Colin might push the button if he got too agitated!

As for Philip, he stared at Colin with a dark expression and asked, "Do you really intend to sacrifice the entire Hull family just for that pair of defiant son and daughter of yours?"

This sentence directly hit Colin in the heart!

Was he willing?

"Don't try to ruffle my feathers. I've already made up my mind today. I want to use the lives of everyone here to bet with you!"

With a cold smile on his face, Colin took a few steps forward and said, "I don't have time to waste. Now, let all your people withdraw from the Hull family's mansion. Also, tell the Lowell family to step aside and let all the Hull family's disciples into the city!"

As long as his people were assembled, Colin would have enough assurance and confidence!

"Hurry up!"

Seeing Philip motionless, Colin roared!

The corners of Philip's eyes were frosty. He raised his hand, waved it lightly, and said, "Tell everyone to withdraw."

Very soon.

Philip's people quickly withdrew from the Hull family's mansion.

However, the security around was still tight!

At this scene, those people in the outside world who were paying close attention were dumbfounded!

"What's the situation? Why did they withdraw?"

"What happened inside? A reversal?"

"This is so frustrating! What's the matter? Is the Hull family going to survive?"

For a while, opinions were divergent and everyone was extremely nervous!

At this moment in the courtyard.

After the personnel in black combat uniforms withdrew, Colin sneered and shouted at the people in charge of the Hull family, "All of you can get out of my sight too! "

Instantly, everyone fled.

Soon, the outside world saw that a dozen or so persons in charge of the Hull family had escaped to the entrance of the Hull family's large house.

However, as soon as they stepped out, they were all pressed to the ground by the combatants guarding the door!

Without exception!

Of course not!

However, at this point, could he really hand Flint and Vinci over?

That would mean personally sending his children on the path of no return!

No!

Absolutely not!

Chapter 1110

Back to Philip. He was faintly looking at the lone wolf in front of him, Colin Hull. "Is it worth it?"

Colin smiled coldly and said, "If you're a parent, you'll understand that even if I have to die, I'll still protect my children."

Philip frowned and said earnestly, "I do agree with you because I have a daughter. For her, I'm also willing to fight against the whole world. However, this doesn't mean that I sympathize with you. If you're wrong, you have to admit it. Today, I can let the rest of the Hull family go, but you must hand over Flint and Vinci. This is my final offer."

Haha!

Colin looked up to the sky and laughed before saying, "Do I have to thank you for your kindness?"

After that, murderous intent appeared in Colin's expression!

He gritted his teeth and said, "Philip Clarke, I already know your identity. I never thought that you're from the Clarke family of Arcadia Island. How amazing. To be honest, even if the Hull family is ten times bigger, we still won't be a match against you. Because of you, even the master behind me is unwilling to lend a helping hand. I really want to know your position in the Clarke family on Arcadia Island."

Philip silently turned and looked up at the gray sky. The torrential rain poured and landed in the pool in the courtyard, creating ripples.

"Me? I'm the heir to the Clarke family," Philip said flatly.

As soon as this sentence was uttered, Colin, who was standing behind him, looked like he was struck by lightning. He was stunned on the spot, unable to move for a while.

He was actually the heir to the Clarke family!

No wonder!

That was the reason the lord dared not make a move!

After that, Colin said with self-deprecating laughter, "Enough! If I can take the heir of the Clarke family along with me, it's enough!"

After that, he raised his head with widened eyes while glaring at Philip. He roared, "Philip, you only have yourself to blame for being so aggressive. Today, let's go to hell together!"

After speaking, Colin's face was cold and he was about to press the remote control in his hand!

However...

Philip just looked at him indifferently and said, "Too late."

At this time!

On the horizon, a helicopter that had quickly lifted into the sky was now flying directly over the Hull family's mansion.

On the helicopter, 17 wore a black combat uniform that showed her hot figure. Her hair was in a ponytail and her beautiful face could be seen. Holding a sniper rifle, she looked into the focus and aimed at Colin's right hand in the mansion below!

Bang!

A gunshot!

It shook the sky like thunder!

Following that, a golden bullet quickly shot out and pierced the rain curtain, whizzing through the raindrops and creating distortion in the airwaves before hitting Colin's right hand!

Instantly!

A painful scream resounded throughout the entire mansion!

Colin held his bloody right hand and knelt on the ground!

The remote control also dropped!

With a chill in his eyes, he rushed to grab it!

However, a large foot in a leather shoe kicked the remote control away fiercely, followed by another kick to his waist that knocked him several yards away!

Colin fell to the ground while enduring the pain in his right hand. Facing the sky, he looked at the dark clouds above and roared like a wild beast. "No! No!!!"

Doomed!

It was over!

Philip walked up to Colin, looked down, and asked coldly, "Who's the master behind you?"

Hehe.

Colin laughed miserably, the tears dripping from the corners of his eyes and mixing with the raindrops. He said, "You'll never know the identity of the lord."

Philip silently turned around and said, "Take him away and clean the Hull family thoroughly!"

Behind him came Colin's laughter. It was seemingly very desolate as it matched the rumbling thunder in the sky.

Did the huge Hull family collapse just like this?

However, Philip had just taken a few steps when a combatant rushed in and shouted, "Young Master Clarke, Vinci Hull brought a large number of Hull disciples and an unknown guard team to encircle us!"

Chapter 1111

Vinci Hull?

She brought people with her!

When Colin Hull, who was on the ground, heard these words, he suddenly turned over with a face full of disbelief!

Why did Vinci turn up at this time?

He had clearly arranged someone to send her and Flint out of Riverton!

"Vinci, no, don't!"

Colin tried to get up from the ground with difficulty as he shouted.

However, the two combatants took him down directly!

Philip turned around, staring at Colin with a pair of cold eyes as he said, "After all the scheming, you didn't expect that your daughter would be unwilling to concede, right?"

Colin looked at Philip with his eyes widened, his face full of fear and horror.

Thump!

He fell to his knees and bowed to Philip, begging for mercy, "Young Master Clarke, I beg of you, please let my daughter go. I admit defeat. I surrender. I'll bear all the consequences alone!"

Colin was really scared at this moment!

What he loved most was his pair of children.

He would rather give up the entire Hull family than allow Flint and Vinci to get injured.

However, Vinci had returned and brought some people with her. She was prepared to fight Philip!

However, how could a woman like her stand up to Philip, the world's number one giant from the Clarke family of Arcadia Island?!

Nevertheless.

Philip calmly looked at Colin who was kneeling on the ground and said, "You're a good father but also an incompetent one. The outcome today will depend on your daughter's choice."

After that, Philip turned around, waved his hand, and said coldly, "Let's meet Vinci Hull."

As soon as his voice fell, all the combatants in the entire mansion withdrew.

At the same time outside the Hull family's mansion, a large group of Hull disciples wearing black martial arts uniforms with red sashes around their waists had gathered and completely surrounded the entire area.

Looking around, red sashes could be seen within a few miles radius!

There was a clear distinction between the combat personnel Philip brought!

The atmosphere on the site was solemn and chilling!

The thunder and lightning in the sky further enhanced the apocalyptic mood!

From a distance, the Hull disciples stood in the rain with murderous expressions and holding silvery weapons in their hands.

To their sides and behind them, there were groups of guards in camouflage combat uniforms. They were fully armed, equipped with guns and tactical helmets.

Everyone was ready for battle!

These were the special unknown guards brought by Vinci!

A stand-off!

The brink of battle!

At the scene, those people hiding in the dark were all dumbfounded when they saw this amazing reversal!

The Hull family had a trump card like this!

Reinforcements?

Looking at the personnel in the camo combat uniforms, they seemed to be no ordinary guards!

Astounding!

For a while, a storm brewed again in the social circles of Riverton.

Everyone thought that the Hull family was over this time, but who would have thought that Vinci would appear so suddenly and return with such great force?!

Vinci Hull, dressed in a luxurious long black dress, was standing in the rain with a chilly look on her face. There was someone next to her holding a big black umbrella for her.

Her eyes were cold as she stared at the main entrance of the Hull family's mansion.

For many years, no one had driven the Hull family to this state!

That damned Philip Clarke!

Vinci vowed to shed Philip's blood in the mansion's courtyard today!

"Philip Clarke, get out here and accept your punishment! "

Vinci yelled toward the Hull family's mansion.

Not long after, a team of people walked out of the house.

Philip lagged behind, walking out of the mansion under the close protection of the guards.

He was calm and indifferent as always, strutting leisurely in the courtyard.

He just stood there like a mountain with a dormant aura that made the audience breathless!

Vinci was the most affected!

She had not seen him only for a few days but his aura had become so powerful!

Had this guy deliberately hidden it?

Of course, Vinci could not be bothered about it for now. She was full of anger now. It was this man in front of her who caused the Hull family to walk into the abyss!

Chapter 1112

Dead silence!

Everyone was struck dumb!

Philip stood there emotionlessly while staring at Vinci who was standing not far away with her hot figure and cold temperament. He smiled slightly and said, "We finally meet."

Vinci frowned, pointed at Philip, and shouted, "I don't want to talk nonsense with you. Where's my dad?"

Philip shrugged. The two guards behind him escorted Colin out and tossed him in the rain.

At this moment, Colin Hull, who was covered in blood, looked at Vinci on the opposite side. He shouted, "Vinci, go back! Go away! You can't fight him! Don't do anything stupid! Go! "

At the sight of her father, Vinci was full of grief.

She shouted, "Dad, don't worry. I'm no longer the Vinci Hull who needs your protection. Today, I want Philip Clarke to know the consequences of provoking the Hull family!"

While saying that, Vinci's face was full of chills. She stared at the calm Philip and shouted, "Let my dad go and you can keep your life!"

Keep his life?

Upon hearing this, Philip's lips were raised with a faint smile.

He glanced at the Hull disciples across. There were a lot of them, so many that he could not even see the end of them.

Additionally, there were also fighters in camo combat uniforms in the surroundings.

No wonder Vinci was so confident.

It was also at this time that Seamus Lowell ran from behind the crowd with a panicked expression and stood respectfully beside Philip, saying, "Young Master Clarke, I'm sorry we failed to hold the fort. It was a displacement order. Because of the displacement order, all members of the Lowell family were forced to stop all actions! I'm afraid that this incident is not just about dealing with the Hull family now. There must be some other great forces helping the Hull family!"

Seamus was flustered.

He had not expected this.

The Hull family actually had such means to invoke a displacement order!

Old Master Lowell had been forced to stay in place, unable to do anything!

Obviously, someone greater than Knox Lowell was calling the shots now!

The Lowell family could not handle such coercion!

Philip frowned upon hearing this.

He knew the status and strength of the Lowell family. Those who could restrict the Lowell family were none other than the few.

Things were getting interesting.

That being the case, Vinci actually managed to invite such people to help her out.

Who could it be?

Colin, who was kneeling on the ground, reacted for the first time. He raised his eyebrows, looked at his daughter, and asked loudly, "Vinci, what have you done? Is it the lord? Is it him?"

With tearful eyes, Vinci looked at her father who was kneeling in the rain and said, "Father, I'll be taking over your position. The Hull family will not lose! This is what the lord promised me!"

Yes.

In order to obtain the lord's approval and assistance, Vinci had surrendered her first time in that study.

Colin looked at his daughter's face and expression as well as her body language. As an experienced person, how could he not understand what had transpired?!

Argh!

Colin pounded on the ground, crying bitterly!

To save the Hull family, his daughter actually did that...

Vinci turned her head, no longer looking at her father and instead staring at Philip with anger in her eyes. She said, "Philip Clarke, kneel down and apologize to the Hull family in public! If you do this, I might let your wife and child in Riverdale off! Otherwise, if you delay any longer, you'll only see them dying miserably under the knife!"

Chapter 1113

Hearing Vinci's threatening words, Philip frowned as his eyes flashed with a chill.

Threatening him with his wife and child?

Very courageous!

"Philip, you made great plans transferring everyone to Riverton just to deal with the Hull family. But you've forgotten that your base camp is currently empty. And my people, as early as more than an hour ago, have rushed to Riverdale. Presumably, they have found your wife and child by now."

Vinci smiled sinisterly.

It was rare for a woman to be so cruel and vicious.

Philip put his hands in his trouser pockets, his face looking indifferent. The corners of his eyes were faintly glowing. He looked at the confident Vinci and said, "Do you really think that Riverdale is empty?"

His voice fell.

The audience went silent.

Vinci twisted her willowy eyebrows, not understanding what Philip meant.

Was this the last struggle?

"Hehe, Philip Clarke, stop trying to scare me. Whatever the situation, my people will give me an update soon," Vinci said coldly with killing intent in her eyes.

At the same time, far away in Riverdale.

Wynn was in the villa playing with Mila.

As early as yesterday, she was escorted by Theo's people to leave the hospital and return to the villa. Moreover, the inside and outside of the villa were heavily guarded by Theo's people.

There were also bodyguards in combat uniforms she had never seen before.

Were they Philip's people?

When did her husband become so powerful?

Right at this time. There were sounds of fighting outside.

Wynn asked anxiously, "What's happening outside?"

The two personal guards replied respectfully, "Madam, it's okay. Don't worry, we're here."

Inside the villa's courtyard.

The Hull family's disciples were sprawled on the ground, all taken down!

Just when everyone had relaxed and were breathing sighs of relief, three figures appeared at the front entrance of the villa.

As soon as these three figures appeared, the temperature in the entire villa dropped sharply.

The three were full of murderous intent. They were wearing black tight-fitting clothes with tattoos on their faces.

There was a bald guy, a woman, and a man with braids. From their appearance, they were not locals but Muay Thai killers!

"Hah!"

A roar!

The three quickly rushed into the crowd and fought with the dozens of people left behind by Theo.

However... There was a great disparity in skills!

Theo's people were not a match for these three Muay Thai killers at all!

In the blink of an eye, more than a dozen bodyguards in black suits had fallen on the ground, their hands or legs broken!

An unforeseen shift!

They did not expect that the other party would actually invite such a killer organization!

One of the captains of the bodyguards wanted to inform Theo.

However, a figure flashed in front of him.

The killer with braided hair was holding a scimitar in his hand, swiping it across the captain's neck. Blood splattered as the figure fell!

In just three minutes, the bodyguards outside First Palace were all wiped out!

"Quickly, get Madam out the back door!"

The dozen or so bodyguards in the villa received the notice immediately and quickly arranged for Wynn and Mila to leave through the back door!

However...

Biff, bang!

Several people were thrown into the villa hall!

At the door, three figures walked in coldly.

“Charge! Protect Madam and Young Miss at all cost!”

Argh!

In an instant, more than a dozen bodyguards in the Villa’s hall rushed up to resist!

The other two bodyguards hurriedly pulled Wynn and carried Mila, quickly leaving from the back door!

Due to her pregnancy, Wynn could not run much.

In the hall behind them, screams were heard.

However, before they got too far, the three killers had already caught up.

Swish!

Two daggers flew out and directly penetrated the back of one of the bodyguards!

“Madam, run!”

With his dying breath, the bodyguard used his body to block the killers behind him.

Seeing this, the other bodyguard could not do anything. He passed Mila over to Wynn and said, "Madam, keep running and don't look back. I'll hold them back for you! "

After that, the bodyguard turned around and rushed toward the killers!

Wynn was very scared. Holding Mila in her arms, she ran wildly!

She kept looking back and saw the last bodyguard being kicked by the bald guy, followed by a few stabs!

Stagger!

Wynn stumbled to the ground while Mila started crying loudly!

Chapter 114

The three killers, covered with the pungent smell of blood, stood in front of Wynn. One of them sneered while holding a bloody dagger in his hand. He then took out his mobile phone, ready to record the video. "Cooperate with us and it'll be less painful for you."

Wynn held Mila, who was already shaking with fright, tightly in her arms. She asked with her eyes full of horror, "Who are you? What do you want?"

Among them, the bald guy sneered and snatched Mila away from Wynn's arms. He smiled cruelly. "Just doing what we're paid to do."

The three people recorded Wynn and Mila on video. Then, they quickly sent the video out.

After doing that, the three of them looked at each other, then looked at Wynn and Mila menacingly. They raised the dagger in their hands and said, "You should be on your way!"

With raised hands, the daggers fell!

At the last moment, Wynn was very desperate as she held on to Mila and cried out, "Philip, where are you?"

Then, she watched helplessly as the bloody dagger that reflected the cold light fell toward herself and Mila's neck!

However...

The dagger held by the bald guy was suspended in mid-air for a while and did not fall.

Then, with a thud...

The bald guy fell on his knees and slumped into a pool of blood!

Behind him, a dagger was pierced into his back and passed cleanly through him!

Instantly!

The other two killers made a defensive posture!

Far away.

They saw a devilish-looking man with two daggers in his hands, looking as if he had just climbed up from hell. He was full of chills and killing intent as he walked toward them.

Every step was like a hammer to their hearts, making them feel a strong sense of oppression!

“You dare to attack the young madam? Go to hell!”

A low roar that sounded like it came from a wild beast escaped the man’s mouth.

He did so with an aura of a king!

A cold glint appeared in the eyes of the man with braids. With a sneer at the corner of his mouth, he said, “I didn’t expect to see an expert like you here. Let’s see if you’re qualified to send us to hell!”

With that said...

Holding a scimitar in his hand, he rushed at that man like a leopard!

Suddenly!

The figure raised his head, revealing a handsome and resolute face.

Rick Davenport!

With a faint smile on his lips, the dagger in his palm flashed like silvery meteors as it shot out!

Puff!

Before he could see the opponent's movements, the man with braids saw that his abdomen had been pierced by the dagger!

How fast!

Thump!

Immediately afterward, his knees were bent as he knelt on the grass before ultimately sliding into a pool of blood!

Everything happened too quickly!

As a result, before the last female assassin could react, she felt a cold wind in front of her.

Immediately afterward, while she was still stunned, Rick's face appeared in her pupils!

Instinctively, she stabbed out with a knife!

At the same time, she let out an angry growl. "Go to hell!"

However, Rick raised his right hand and grabbed the woman's wrist steadily and quickly.

Crack!

A forceful twist!

Rick directly broke the female assassin's right hand, following it with a kick to her abdomen with his right knee!

Pfft!

The female assassin spurted a mouthful of blood!

Barn!

After that, she was directly thrown out by Rick!

Thump!

The female killer crashed into the wall, cracking it!

Thud!

She fell to the ground immediately where she stared at Rick with hatred and spat out a few mouthfuls of blood.

With much difficulty, she uttered two words, "The... Devil..."

Then, her eyes widened as she drew her last breath.

Back to the Hull family's mansion.

Vinci had received the video. With a sneer on her face, she showed it to Philip and said, "I'll give you three minutes to think about it. Are you going to kneel?"

Chapter 1115

Philip took the mobile phone given by Vinci and glanced at the contents of the video. The corners of his eyes went cold, his whole body full of anger!

However, this anger was suppressed soon enough.

By his side, Theo also glanced at it and his face collapsed!

He pointed from a distance and roared at Vinci. "Vinci Hull, you're so despicable! It's disgraceful to threaten others using their family members as hostages! For the Hull family to resort to this, the entire Riverton will be ashamed of you! I'm warning you, quickly let Mrs.

Clarke and Miss Clarke go. Otherwise, I'll bring some people to wipe out the entire Hull family!"

Theo blew his top!

Even if Philip had anticipated it in advance and instructed him to send extra manpower to strictly guard the villa, they still messed up.

The opponent had obviously dispatched an expert. Dozens of bodyguards in the villa were wiped out?

Theo panicked, turned his head, and glanced at Philip. He discovered that Philip's facial expression showed no other changes apart from the initial anger.

Vinci scorned. "I'm despicable? So what? As long as I can make him kneel, I can do anything!"

After that, she turned her head, stared at Philip with cold eyes, and shouted, "Philip Clarke, aren't you all high and mighty? Don't you want to destroy the Hull family? Go ahead, destroy the Hull family now! I want to see how much your wife and children are worth in your heart!"

Before he attempted to destroy the Hull family, he needed to first weigh his capabilities!

Vinci sneered victoriously.

With the lord supporting her, she had no fear!

It was just one Philip Clarke. Even if he had some abilities, so what?

His fate was in the palm of her hands now!

The onlookers, those people hiding in the dark and watching the scene at this moment, all shook their heads woefully.

It was over.

They initially thought that the Hull family had provoked a behemoth and they would fall into the abyss. Unexpectedly, this woman, Vinci Hull, actually managed to get such a lifesaver at the last minute. She was now holding the opponent by the scruff of his neck!

He was still too young.

This Young Master Clarke was too reckless.

“What should we do? Where should we stand now? If the Hull family makes a comeback, the first target will be the Lowell family!”

“Yeah, we need to quickly think of a way!”

“One is the Lowell family and the other is the Hull family. It’s too difficult. How do we choose?!”

For a while, the upper circle in Riverton was confused. The current situation was too difficult to predict. However, it would seem that this mysterious Young Master Clarke was about to fail.

If at this time, they still chose to wait and see or stand on the side of the Lowell family, all of them would be incriminated once the Hull family made a comeback and counter-attacked!

“Wait!”

Someone abruptly ordered. For a while, everyone shut their mouths and quietly observed the situation.

Turning the focus back to Philip, he was looking at the arrogant Vinci across him with a cold look and said, "Do you really think that with the manpower you sent, you could kidnap my wife and child?"

Hearing that, Vinci was startled for a moment before mocking. "I have the video here. Are you saying it's faked? Philip Clarke, you're running out of time. Now, kneel down and beg me for mercy. I'll let your wife and child go, but you must die!"

Having said that, the eyes of the Hull disciples behind Vinci blazed. They were prepared to rush out!

However, to everyone's surprise...

Philip chuckled, tossed the phone back to Vinci, and said lightly, "You should look at the next video."

When Vinci heard the words, she trembled all over and quickly opened the next video. It was sent ten minutes later.

In the video, the three killers were all dead!

Moreover, there was a handsome face tinkering with the camera. The man was grinning broadly as he said, "Hey, stupid woman, I beg you to find better killers next time. Hiring this bunch of Tom, Dick, and Harry? It's a waste of my time, understand?"

At this scene, Vinci smashed the phone in anger!

Hateful!

What Tom, Dick, and Harry?!

She paid a huge price for these killers. In the community, they were the group that perfectly completed more than 50 consecutive missions!

She had spent 100 million on them! They were gone just like that?!

Chapter 1116

Vinci was angry, furious even!

She raised her head and twisted her eyebrows as her body radiated with chills. She pointed at Philip in the distance and shouted, "Even so, you still can't escape today! Take a closer look. This place is surrounded by the Hull family's disciples and special combat bodyguards. Do you think the people you brought are enough?!"

Vinci had lost all patience.

She clenched her fists tightly, staring at Philip with a fierce glare before roaring. "All disciples of the Hull family listen up! Take all of them down! Kill without mercy!"

Instantly!

All the Hull disciples, dressed in black martial arts uniforms with red sashes tied around their waists, rushed directly toward Philip's side!

In front of Philip, all the combat personnel assembled and formed a solid wall. They were ready for battle!

In an instant, the two forces confronted each other!

Far behind inside a black Rolls-Royce.

An old man was sitting beside Rachel Clarke, and she faintly glanced at Philip at the other end of the crowd with a chill in the corner of her eyes.

Rachel asked softly, "My lord, why did you suddenly change your mind and want to help the Hull family?"

With a pair of profound eyes, the old man said mildly, "Even if I lend a helping hand to the Hull family, do you think I can withstand the methods of the Clarke family?"

Rachel was silent and said after a long pause, "It's not time yet. When the time is ripe, my lord will replace the Clarke family like a duck taking to the water."

The old man smiled and said, "It's not that easy to replace the Clarke family. I'm helping the Hull family just to see how much means and confidence this future heir to the Clarke family has."

Upon hearing this, Rachel suddenly came to a realization. "My lord, you want to test Philip?"

The old man was silent. After watching for a while, he said, "Let's go. The outcome has been determined. He should be here soon. If Vinci Hull can be saved, get someone to save her. If not, let the Hull family become history. Remember to remove all traces of our connections with the Hull family."

"Yes, my lord," Rachel replied respectfully.

Then, the car started and left this place, disappearing slowly into the rain.

However, when the Rolls-Royce was driving out of this area...

Coincidentally, a black Cadillac SUV approached from the opposite.

From the half-open window of the Cadillac was the side profile of a stoic face.

The two cars passed by like this.

The focus was back on Philip and Vinci now.

The situation at the scene was on the verge of breaking out!

However...

Suddenly!

A speeding Cadillac SUV barged in and stopped between the two forces.

Everyone held their breath.

This sudden scene was really shocking.

What was the situation?

At this time, someone actually dared to interrupt. Were they tired of living?

Soon, the car door opened.

Inside the car, a middle-aged man with a mustache and a small pipe in his mouth stepped out while dressed in a gray suit. He had a grim look on his face.

A domineering air!

“Uncle!”

Philip was taken aback when he saw the newcomer. Then, he laughed loudly, walked over, and hugged Tim Clarke!

Chapter 1117

Tim put his arms around Philip’s shoulders, his eyes full of affection. He said, “Good boy, you’ve grown a lot again. Weren’t you going to notify me before destroying the Hull family?”

Philip raised his brows and asked in confusion, “Uncle Tim, do you know the Hull family?”

Tim smiled faintly, turned his head, and glanced at Colin who had fallen in the rain.

He walked toward him.

“Colin Hull, do you admit your mistakes?” Tim reprimanded.

Colin was slumped in the rain at the moment. After seeing the approaching person, his whole body trembled with fear. He knelt for the first time, knocked his head on the ground, and said loudly, “Master Tim, I know my mistakes! I’m willing to bear all consequences!”

The moment he saw this person, Colin knew that he had completely lost!

A thorough defeat!

He also lost all will to resist!

It was because no matter how much he resisted, only death awaited him!

Tim Clarke, Master Tim, was the founder of Hull Chamber of Commerce!

He was also the overseer of the Hull family!

It could be said that the entire Hull family was shaped by Tim’s hands!

Why?

Just because Tim had nothing better to do at that time, so he casually helped a family and wanted to make them his power reserve.

However, afterward, the Hull family never came in handy.

Gradually, Tim abandoned the Hull family and retired from the position of chairman of the Hull Chamber of Commerce. He then handed over the entire Hull Chamber of Commerce to the Hull family.

From then on, the Hull family broke away from Tim's control and formed their own force.

This was also why after knowing Philip's identity, Colin knew the Hull family was doomed and wanted to die together!

There was no other choice.

Tim looked at Colin coldly. The latter was kneeling on the ground and trembling all over. Tim then said, "It has been 20 years. I didn't expect the Hull family to end up in this state. Is it still relevant for me to speak up now?"

"I await your orders!"

Colin knocked his head on the ground in the cold rain.

Then, he got up with difficulty, took a step, and turned to Vinci.

Smack!

Colin slapped Vinci's face angrily and roared. "Go back!"

After that, he stopped looking at the surprised Vinci and stood directly in front of the Hull family's disciples. He raised his arms and shouted, "All the Hull disciples, listen up! Put down your weapons and give up resistance!"

At this moment, Vinci simply could not believe that her father was making such a decision.

She shouted hysterically, "Dad, what are you doing? We can win this, we can win!"

However...

Colin turned his head, his body completely drenched in the rain. He was staring at Vinci with eyes full of love and determination.

After a while, he said, "My daughter, give it up. We can't fight this. With that man here, the Hull family has no chance of winning. Here, he rules the sky, and the entire Hull family has to follow his orders. Do you still remember what I said to you? The Hull family stands firm in Riverton because of one man's support, and that man is him."

After that, Colin said solemnly, "Take the young miss down!"

His voice fell, and the supremacy of being the head of the Hull family still existed.

Two Hull disciples detained Vinci.

Panicking and unwilling to yield, Vinci shouted at Colin who had turned around, "Dad, you can't admit defeat! You can't! Who is he? That's all in the past! You're the head of the Hull family now!"

Nonetheless.

Colin left her with the silhouette of his back drenched by the rain.

Thump!

Colin knelt on the ground and shouted at Tim, “Master Tim, I have an unruly request. I’d like to ask for your mercy to let my daughter and son go! From today, the Hull family will withdraw from Riverton! All disciples of the Hull family will be disbanded!”

With that said, Colin stretched his hand and grabbed a dagger from a Hull disciple before swiping it across his neck!

Blood splattered!

Colin’s burly body fell into a puddle in the storm.

“Dad!”

Vinci cried bitterly and knelt on the ground before Colin.
