

The First Heir – Chapter 1451

Him?

What about him?

Kelsey was flustered. However, as he had his guards surrounding him, he still had some courage. He yelled, “Philip, what do you mean by that? Do you still want to make another move against me? Let me remind you, I’m the third young master of the branch family.”

However, before he finished speaking, Philip had already walked down the steps. With his hands behind his back, he walked toward Kelsey.

Kelsey’s eyes were flustered as he quickly stepped back.

When Philip took a step forward, Kelsey took a step back.

“What the hell do you want?”

Kelsey was very rattled. Although he was the third young master of the branch family, compared to the legitimate young master of the main family like Philip, he was still unworthy!

His eldest brother had been detained by Philip. Moreover, even his grandfather was detained by this arrogant kid.

He was simply too outrageous!

The corners of Philip's mouth slightly curved upward as he sneered, "What do I want? What do you think I'm going to do? Didn't you hear what I just said?"

An angry rebuke suddenly resounded at the hospital's entrance!

At the same time, Master Bell's men had rushed over from all directions. They were all black-suited thugs, and they completely surrounded the place!

Kelsey panicked. He had only brought along seven or eight guards this time. Since he was representing his father this time, he thought Philip would yield and retreat. He did not expect this guy to be so strong handed!

Moreover, he actually had his own forces!

These were not members of the Clarke family!

The guard beside him noticed something amiss and quickly said to Kelsey, "Third Young Master, let's just give in. Or else, I don't think he'll let us off."

When Kelsey heard these words, he immediately got angry!

'Give in?'

He was the third young master of the branch family! Why should he lower his head and give in?

They were all descendants of the Clarke family!

Moreover, he represented his father. He must not yield. That would be a disgrace!

Smack!

Kelsey slapped the guard's face and cursed, "Bullsh*t! How can I give in?"

Following that, he glared at Philip fiercely, shook off the support of several guards, and said coldly, "Philip, I'm warning you. I'm here on behalf of my father. If you dare to do anything to me or disrespect me, that's tantamount to disrespecting my father and the branch family. Think of the consequences. It's absolutely not something you can bear!"

"Besides, I know that your wife and child are in this hospital. If you don't release my brother and grandfather today and don't bow down and apologize, I'll immediately mobilize the power of the branch family, blockade Uppercreek, turn this hospital upside down, and take your wife away!"

"Trust me, the branch family has the strength to do that!"

Kelsey was annoyed. Without a care in the world, he threatened Philip.

However, he found that Philip's expression was very calm.

That faint disdain and contempt made Kelsey's heart surge with exasperation!

This damned Philip Clarke!

How dare he look down on him?

No matter what, he was still a young master of the Clarke family, a wealthy young man highly regarded by others!

When he was outside, who would not greet him with a smile and flatter him?

Philip stepped forward and stood directly in front of Kelsey. With his piercing eyes, he stared at him coldly and asked solemnly, “What did you just say? Say it again and I’ll listen carefully.”

Thump.

Kelsey’s legs began to tremble from Philip’s aura and a cold sweat broke out on his forehead.

The corners of his mouth trembled as he asked, “What do you want to do?”

“I said, repeat what you said just now!”

Suddenly, Philip’s voice became extremely cold, and the killing intent that soared to the sky seemed to swallow Kelsey!

Kelsey could not withstand it. This monstrous pressure... He had never seen it on anyone else except on his father and Roger Clarke!

All of a sudden, he became extremely terrified.

“I... I...”
