The First Heir – Chapter 1653

Ruby was stunned and looked at Philip incredulously. A second later, she laughed in exasperation and said to Philip mockingly, "What did you say? Can you even do anything to me?"

Philip did not speak and clenched his fists, expressing his emotions through his eyes.

Ruby pointed at his nose and scolded, "Rubbish! A piece of trash like you dares to do anything to me? I'm the manager of the public relations department of the Uppercreek Chamber of Commerce. In terms of position and status, how can you be compared to me?"

"Do you think you can act arrogant just because you used to be rich? You're nothing but a dog right now. Do you really think of yourself as a human being?"

Ruby cursed like a shrew and said harsh words.

Philip's face changed, and his heart was full of anger. He said, "So what if you're the PR manager? Believe it or not, one word from me and you'll be out of here!"

Ruby almost died of laughter. This fool, Philip Clarke, could actually say such arrogant words. One word from him and she would be out of here?

Ruby went over and kicked Philip in the knee while cursing, "A loser like you still dares to act so pretentiously? You want to fire me? One word from you and our Director Luther has to obey your orders with respect?"

"Maybe," Philip sneered.

Pfft!

Instantly, Ruby could not hold back her snickers as she covered her mouth.

Then, she continued to mock him. "Well done, Philip, for saying such shameless words."

Philip could not be bothered with her. He directly took out his phone, dialed Hoyt Luther's number, and said coldly, "Hoyt Luther, get down here immediately!"

After he ended the call, he found Ruby looking at him with admiration. She even gave him a thumbs up.

"Hahaha, Philip, you're awesome. You have to play out the entire act, right? Let's see if Director Luther shows up today!"

Ruby really did not expect that a wimp like Philip would go to such an extent just to put on a show.

Was he trying hard to brag in front of her? In that case, she would watch as he made a joke of himself.

"What's going on?"

At this time, the voice of a middle-aged man sounded. The security captain of the Uppercreek Chamber of Commerce hurried over with a few security guards.

Seeing Ruby in front of him, the security captain's heart jolted.

Was this not the new public relations manager?

"Hello, Manager Ford, you're here. What's the matter? Do you need help?"

Dave Carter, the security captain, was just another bootlicker. Seeing that Ruby was young and beautiful, he began to flatter her. This was what any man would do.

Ruby immediately stretched out her jade like finger, pointed at Philip, and said fiercely, "He bumped into me and refused to apologize!"

Once he heard that, how could he let it go?

Dave looked at Philip and sized him up. It was a young man in ordinary clothes who even seemed a little silly. Thus, he immediately understood as he pointed at Philip and shouted, "What are you doing? Hurry up and apologize to our Manager Ford!"

Hearing this, Philip was very upset.

This security guard was just another lackey who looked down on people.

It seemed that the Uppercreek Chamber of Commerce had to do a better job of recruiting people!

Seeing Philip frowning to express his dissatisfaction, Ruby immediately shouted angrily, "What are you waiting for? Drive this jerk away immediately! He's tarnishing the image of the Uppercreek Chamber of Commerce!"

"Yes, Miss Ford!"

Dave quickly stood at attention and saluted.

"Also, people like him should never be hired by our company, not even if he wants to apply for the position of a security guard!"

Ruby was trying to force Philip into a corner, thinking that he was here to apply for a job as a security guard.

When the security captain heard this, he immediately flattered her and said, "Miss Ford, don't worry. Our security team definitely won't accept him!"

After saying that, Dave turned to Philip very arrogantly and said, "You, hurry up and get lost. Don't force us to make a move on you!"

Philip shook his head helplessly. How were these people qualified to be security here? They were simply acting like hooligans on the streets.

"You dare to drive me away? Alright, let's see who dares to drive me away today!"
