

The First Heir novel Chapter 2541 - 2550

Chapter 2541

Zeus' eyes shone brightly as he stared at the young man walking in from the door.

'Philip Clarke?'

"So, you're the Eastern man causing all the disturbances recently, the young patriarch of the Clarke family and the son of Roger Clarke." Zeus' aura instantly became very cold.

When he looked at Philip, he vaguely saw the shadow of Roger Clarke in him. His son was just as rude and arrogant as him. This was the sacred city, his golden palace. However, this youngster just barged in like that.

Were the guards outside just for decoration?

Thud, thud, thud!

Suddenly, rapid sounds of footsteps were heard outside the golden palace.

Dozens of guards in golden armor with golden spears in their hands surrounded the palace's main entrance. It seemed as if they had just noticed the intruder.

Leo's face was full of chills as he stared at the strange Eastern man who suddenly appeared. He shouted, "Damn it! You insolent guy, why aren't you kneeling and saluting when you see my father, the chief god? Also, how did you break in?"

Philip shrugged and said, "I jumped over the wall. Your guards here are a little weak."

Philip was telling the truth. As the sacred city was a quiet and peaceful place where people advocated peace and freedom, the guards were quite lax and not as strict. Hearing this, Leo's face was full of anger, and veins throbbed on his forehead. He pointed at Philip and roared at the golden-armored guards at the door, "Take this rude Eastern barbarian down and throw him into the dungeon! Let him stay with those guys!"

With that command, the golden guards wanted to come forward and take Philip down. However, Philip still looked indifferent. With a faint smile, he looked at the aloof Zeus and said, "Is this how the Chief God Zeus treats his guests in the sacred city? Is the Clarke family not worthy enough to stand here and talk to Chief God Zeus?"

When Leo heard this, he remembered what his father said just now. 'The young patriarch of the Clarke family and the son of Roger Clarke?'

Was he the young patriarch of the most powerful and mysterious Clarke family in the East?

The same person who inherited the position of patriarch of the Clarke family? The ceremony was broadcasted live worldwide...

Leo was instantly furious because the Sainsbury family and the Clarke family had never gotten along. Leo had seen the battle between Roger and his father back then with his own eyes. It was a cataclysmic event!

"Insolence! You stupid fool, this is the West, the sacred city, and the territory of the Sainsbury family! What right do you, the Clarke family of the East, have to be on an equal footing with my father?" Leo roared, a biting chill flashing in his eyes.

Philip frowned slightly, stared at Leo with cold eyes, and said, "Very good. Are you Leo Sainsbury? I'll remember you."

"Arrogant! Guards, take him down!" Leo roared angrily.

However, Zeus said solemnly at this moment, "Stand back, all of you!"

Instantly, the golden guards surrounding the entrance backed away, but they did not go far and kept guard outside the golden palace.

Chapter 2542

Zeus slowly stepped down from his golden throne and walked up to Philip. He stared at Philip coldly and said, "Young Patriarch Clarke, don't you know that the members of the Clarke family aren't allowed to enter the sacred city? Even your father has to abide by the rules of the sacred city if he's here!"

Philip shrugged and said, "Do you really want to argue with me about the so-called rules or the lack of them?"

Zeus' eyes were slightly cold as he stared at Philip and asked, "Young Patriarch Clarke, Roger has put in a lot of effort by giving you five sources of kingship. Isn't he worried that I'll destroy the Clarke family's future hope right here and now?"

With that said, a surge of energy pressure raged on Zeus' body, causing Philip to feel short of breath. If he had not released his aura in time, he might have been crushed by Zeus.

Feeling the tremendous pressure from Zeus in front of him, Philip said blandly, "Chief God, you shouldn't take any risks. If you do, this sacred city and the people of yours will suffer."

"Hahaha!" Zeus burst into laughter and said, "Very good! As expected of the young patriarch of the Clarke family. You have exactly the same temper as your father back then."

After saying that, Zeus' face became enigmatic as he asked, "Why are you here?"

Philip did not beat about the bush and said directly, "I'm the one who planned the entire attack against the Hall of Evil. It has nothing to do with the other gods. I'm here just to tell you that I'll definitely kill Evil God Vataco!"

Hiss!

As soon as he said that, the atmosphere in the golden hall became extremely tense. When Leo heard that, he pointed at Philip's nose and roared, "How dare you?! Vataco is one of the 12 gods. How can an Easterner like you kill him at will? Do you have any respect for the Sainsbury family or my father at all?!"

Leo was furious. It turned out that the person behind everything was Philip Clarke.

Philip smiled lightly and glanced at Leo before he turned to Zeus and asked, "What do you think, Chief God?"

Zeus said gravely, "Outrageous! Vataco is one of the gods. How can you be so presumptuous to kill a god in my Western world?"

Philip smiled and said, "He's just a god who can be replaced easily. Don't you want new blood to enter the ranks of the gods? Besides, as far as I know, Evil God Vataco isn't that popular in the Western world. Why do you still defend someone like that?"

Zeus frowned and said coldly, "He's still a god!"

Philip nodded in understanding and said, "What if I insist on killing him?"

Boom!

Dazzling energy pressure suddenly exploded from Zeus and flooded the golden palace. At the same time, it spread over the entire sacred city. In an instant, the people of the sacred city felt the invincible pressure from the golden palace. Everyone, no matter what they were doing, knelt on the ground and bowed to the tallest and largest golden palace in the middle of the city.

Even the ancient beasts imprisoned in the underground cages thousands of meters below the sacred city felt the pressure and threat from above. They growled in response. The growls reached the ground as a dull rumble.

“Young Patriarch Clarke, are you challenging me?” Zeus barked sharply.

Philip also felt the vast majestic energy and rule power from Zeus. They were not at the same level at all. To Zeus, Philip was nothing more than an ant. However, even so, Philip still said calmly, “If you stop me from killing Vataco, you can consider it as a challenge from the young patriarch of the Clarke family to the chief god of your sacred city.”

Chapter 2543

As soon as the words were spoken, the atmosphere in the golden palace became tense and oppressive. Suddenly, a platinum sword of kingship with five gems of different colors appeared above the golden palace. It was dazzling and eye-catching.

The moment this sword of kingship appeared, powerful energy and rule power erupted to resist the tremendous pressure from the golden palace!

Inside the hall, Zeus looked at Philip and said with a sneer, “You’re out of your depths! A guy who has just attained the realm of the gods dares to challenge my sacred city? You’re more arrogant than your father!”

With that said, Zeus raised his hand and grabbed Philip. The power of rules that surged from his palm tore apart the special field of kingship that formed around Philip. In front of a higher realm of power, the field of kingship could not resist the threat from Zeus at all.

“In that case, I’ll accept the five sources of kingship! Thank your father for the gift on my behalf!”

Zeus said coldly as his gray hair danced in the wind, looking very majestic and fierce. However, when Zeus’ hand was about to touch Philip, an old voice suddenly rang in the hall.

“Zeus, if you dare to touch my son, I’ll destroy the sacred city!”

Rumble!

This old and extremely majestic voice instantly enveloped the entire sacred city.

Hearing this, Zeus frowned and roared, “Roger Clarke, you finally appeared!”

With that said, he zoomed away in the direction of the entrance in a streak of golden lightning. Immediately after, the entire sky was filled with energy pressure.

The citizens of the sacred city looked up and saw two figures in midair, each with monstrous energy pressure and the power of rules. Roger was dressed in a white martial art uniform and stood with his hands behind his back. He looked at Zeus in front of him indifferently.

Zeus wore a golden and white king's robe and held a golden spear in his hand as he stared at the man in front of him coldly. He said, "Roger Clarke, what do you mean by barging into my sacred city?"

Roger smiled lightly and said, "Zeus, don't be nervous. I'm here just to take my son away."

Zeus snorted and said, "Your Clarke family is really arrogant, coming and going as you please. Do you think the sacred city belongs to you?"

Roger smiled and said, "What do you want, then?"

Zeus said, "In that battle more than ten years ago, no winner emerged. Today, let's decide the outcome. If you win, you're free to leave. If you lose, you'll enter the dungeon of the sacred city and guard the dungeon for me for ten years!"

"Arrogant!" Zeus roared.

His eyes and entire body sparkled with golden lightning. In an instant, he rushed toward Roger and the two came to blows. However, outsiders could not see this fight clearly because they were fighting too far away. Almost in an instant, they left the sky above the sacred city and flew eastward. It was also the day when all disciples of the Western world felt the majestic energy pressure and rule power that raged everywhere as if the sky would collapse at any moment.

Even ordinary people noticed the rolling clouds and terrifying lightning sparks in between.

In the combat command room of the Octagon, countless sets of sophisticated energy data monitoring instruments flashed with red warning lights at this moment. The monitoring data values shot through the roof and directly reached the realm of the other shore.

The entire Octagon went on high alert under martial law!

Chapter 2544

Even the seven gods fighting at the Hall of Evil at this moment felt the raging energy pressure in the sky.

“Zeus!”

Athena immediately felt Zeus' power of the rules from the raging energy pressure. More terrifyingly, someone was fighting him. Moreover, the other party's realm was no less than Zeus.

Athena looked at Fennel and asked, “Is that the trump card you mentioned?”

Fennel smiled lightly, and the red dragon halberd in his hand glowed brightly as if surrounded by fire dragons. He said, “End the fight quickly!”

Instantly, the six gods exploded with all their power and blasted at Evil God Vataco, who was already bruised and battered at this moment.

The entire mountain shook, overwhelmed by all the various energy and power of rules.

Leo, dressed in a platinum royal robe, stared at Philip coldly. He shouted, “I'll kill you with my own hands, you arrogant Eastern man!”

Boom!

In an instant, Leo blasted at Philip.

Philip also gained insight into Leo's strength at that moment, which was also in the realm of the gods. Philip's figure disappeared in the direction of the hall's entrance like a black shadow.

Leo chased after him and roared. “Don't dream of running! I'm going to kill you right here for the sake of the sacred city!”

Philip was caught in a fierce battle because Leo was not weak. At the sight of this exciting battle, the people of the sacred city watched in awe.

Boom!

In the sky, a huge and radiant bolt of lightning with the power of raging destruction suddenly struck Philip. Philip looked up, and his hair danced in the wind. He raised his hand and formed a kingship barrier.

Rumble!

That huge thunderbolt struck Philip's kingship barrier squarely. That huge destructive energy continuously eroded the kingship barrier.

For a while, Philip endured the tremendous force of destruction. He was blasted out of the air and fell to the ground, crashing into a house. The house collapsed. Smoke and dust billowed. The ground also cracked and looked very shocking.

Leo hovered in midair with a smirk. He raised his left hand with a thunderbolt in his hand and whistled. Countless lightning nets suddenly fell from the sky and struck the collapsed house. He would not miss any opportunity to attack or give the opponent any room to catch his breath.

Instantly, lightning nets with destructive energy fell from the sky and shrouded the house. However, under the smoke and dust, a figure slowly stood up. He was seemingly covered with wiggling red flames all over his body.

Roar!

Several red-flamed chimeras suddenly flew up from the smoke and dust, roaring as they pounced at the lightning nets and Leo.

At the same time, that figure also flew into the sky with monstrous fighting intent in his eyes.

Chapter 2545

Instantly, the sky above the sacred city was filled with raging energy pressure. Five flaming chimeras soared into the sky, roaring as they rushed toward the huge lightning nets that were falling from the sky. The entire sky dazzled with blue-white lightning and red flames!

Rumble!

There was terrifying energy pressure when the two parties collided.

All the people of the sacred city below were dumbfounded at the destructive force. The burning flames and crackling lightning struck fear in everyone's hearts.

Leo hovered in the air, and his eyes burst with killing intent. He stared at Philip, who rushed at him in flaming chimera armor. He shouted, "Damn it! The Sainsbury family are the masters of lightning. How dare a weak and humble newly promoted god like you defy the will of the gods? Die!"

Leo shouted, spread his arms open, and gestured something over his chest. Suddenly, the clouds in the sky surged and swirled like a vortex above Leo's head!

At that moment, Leo stood in the center of that swirling cloud that crackled with radiant bolts of lightning. The power of lightning was enough to destroy half of the sacred city below, turning it into a pile of rubble forever. This scene with the rolling clouds and flashing lightning seemed as if doomsday had approached.

In the air, Leo raised his hands to the sky and shouted, "In the name of Leo Sainsbury, I grant you divine punishment! Lightning of destruction!"

Rumble!

Countless flashing lightning gathered and formed huge energy pressure. Suddenly, like a lightning cannon in the sky, it struck out at Philip who rushed up from the ground. It was an immense pillar of lightning, seemingly a divine punishment from the sky.

The world lost all color!

Philip rushed to the sky but stopped abruptly. He looked up at the lightning punishment, and his eyes were filled with the image of the lightning pillar of destruction. At that moment, alarm bells rang in his mind. The enormous pressure of death made him breathless.

Almost instantly, the flame aura on Philip's body surged. A huge hundred-meter-long shadow of a chimera suddenly appeared from his back. When this shadow appeared, it was like the ruler of heaven and earth with the kingly aura worshiped by all beasts.

Philip stood on the head of the huge flame chimera. Almost at the same time, the platinum sword of kingship in the sky shone brightly. At that moment, all the power of the rules from the five gems of the sources of kingship converged on one of the golden gems!

Meanwhile, the sword of kingship also went through a change in the rotation of kingship. A layer of golden armor quickly formed over the surface of the flaming chimera. Almost at the moment when the lightning punishment approached, the flame chimera was covered with the strongest golden armor. Then, an earth-shattering roar resounded throughout the sky!

Clad in golden armor, the flame chimera faced the lightning punishment. As Philip threw a punch at the sky, the chimera also sprayed fire from its mouth.

That flame was enough to burn down the sky.

The people of the sacred city below also felt the scorching fire. The lakes in the sacred city dried up instantly and evaporated into water vapor. The entire city was filled with white water mist.

In the sky, the huge beam of flames collided with the lightning punishment!

Boom!

Terrifying energy pressure swept through the area!

Chapter 2546

The void began to crumble. The terrifying energy pressure was enough to destroy any city. Even the satellites in space that closely monitored the situation dared not approach the huge energy storm easily.

In the battle command room of the Octagon, the data displayed by the sophisticated instruments also surpassed their definition of the gods.

Too strong! Two gods were fighting in the sacred city!

Above the Eastern sea of the Western world, another two invincible kings at the realm of the other shore were fighting too. The battle there was cataclysmic. One careless move was enough to destroy a country and a continent!

Back at the Hall of Evil. After the siege, the battle here finally came to an end.

Vataco's body was almost crushed as he fell from the sky to the ground. In the sky, the sword of kingship that belonged to him was smashed by the other six gods to the point of disintegration.

The disaster caused by the disintegration of a sword of kingship was unimaginable. It meant that the terrifying energy contained in the source of kingship had lost its vessel and would explode completely.

Vataco lay on the ground, and the Evil God Spear in his hand was also broken into several pieces. He stared at the sky and constantly coughed up blood. His body was also full of wounds, and several limbs almost fell off his body.

Thud, thud, thud!

Footsteps approached. Fennel coldly looked down at Vataco and said, "Vataco, this is your end..."

Vataco let out a miserable laugh, and the vitality in his eyes began to dissipate. He stared at Fennel and said weakly, "Apollo, you're very strong, but it's a pity. My Hall of Evil won't be destroyed just like that. In the future, someone will seek revenge on you in the name of my Hall of Evil."

Fennel looked at Vataco indifferently and said, "I'll be waiting."

With that said, Vataco closed his eyes permanently.

Vataco, a generation of gods, fell and became part of the 12 Gods of the West's history.

From this moment on, the Western underworld would undergo a complete change. 12 gods had been reduced to 11. Countless forces would begin to compete for the vacant seat!

The moment Vataco fell, all the powerhouses in the underworld of the West knew about it. That was because 11 swords of kingship that surrounded a phantom of a huge lightning sword of kingship suddenly appeared in the sky. Among the 11 surrounding swords of kingship, the one that belonged to Evil God Vataco broke into pieces and disappeared.

It was a sign that a god had fallen!

In an instant, the underworld of the West shook. Everyone could not believe that Vataco had fallen just like that. However, more people began to move.

Fennel looked in the direction of Mount Olympus and said to the five gods around him, "Everyone, I still have something to take care of, so I'll take my leave!"

With that said, Fennel quickly rushed into the mountain forest at full speed in the direction of the sacred city.

Back to Philip's side. The raging energy storm in the sky had calmed down at this moment. Half of the flame chimera clad in golden armor was destroyed. However, Leo was not in good shape either. His silver hair was in disarray, and half his body was scorched black.

Chapter 2547

Leo hovered in midair, his face and eyes full of anger.

Abominable!

A newly promoted god actually had the strength to fight him. This damned Easterner was really hateful!

Leo constantly adjusted the energy in his body. At the same time, he took out a bottle of the essence of life and gulped it down to recover from his injuries. Soon, half of Leo's body that had been scorched black was stimulated by the essence of life and began to proliferate rapidly. The cells became very active.

Leo's aura also became stronger than before!

After the fight, half of Philip's flame chimera armor was shattered. However, with the help of Philip's sources of kingship, that half of his body healed slowly and turned into a roaring flame chimera in golden armor again. This was a fusion of dual attributes.

With a frozen smile on his face, Leo said, "Dual attributes, very good. You're very strong! However, this is far from enough!"

Suddenly, Leo roared and launched an unprecedented attack on Philip!

The sky was filled with the power of lightning, and a powerful hurricane constantly attacked Philip like an icy blade.

Leo also had dual attributes. Lightning doctrine and storm doctrine!

Under such raging offensive pressure, Philip could not help but make a retreat. After all, his realm was not stable, and his combat experience was lacking. Facing Leo, the future chief god with dual attributes, he seemed somewhat inexperienced and reserved.

Boom!

Leo raised his hand and launched a lightning hurricane attack at Philip, who was blasted back. The lightning nets and raging hurricanes were enough to tear apart any god and even destroy a modern city.

Philip retreated, and his eyes froze. He had tried his best to resist. In desperation, he raised his righthand and shouted at the sky, "Sword!"

Buzz!

Buzzing sounds of swords were suddenly heard.

In an instant, the swords in the hands and behind the backs of the disciples in the sacred city below soared to the sky at this moment. They flew to Philip's right hand in silvery streaks of light. At that moment, the sky was filled with silvery sword lights, which slowly converged into a huge knight's sword and slashed at Leo angrily.

At this moment, in the golden palace behind the golden throne, there was a sword of kingship with a golden hilt entwined with a Western dragon. The sword blade was black and glowed with black luster. When this sword sensed the power of sword rules in the sky, it suddenly flew up from behind the throne and pierced through the crystal dome of the golden palace. In a flash, it flew into Philip's right hand with a dark golden streak of light.

What a fine sword! This sword contained huge energy pressure!

Only a god could wield it.

In midair, the huge sword formed by hundreds of silvery knight swords slashed toward Leo angrily with raging energy pressure that was enough to crush this side of the world into pieces.

Leo abruptly retreated as he raised his hand and formed a lightning shield to resist the huge sword power.

Clang!

Chapter 2548

Suddenly, the two parties collided, and a huge storm of energy spread!

Boom!

The sky was shrouded under this raging energy, and the world shook.

Terrifying!

It was like doomsday. The void began to crumble and disintegrate. However, Leo withstood the terrifying blow. Although the blue-white lightning shield in his hand shattered, the huge sword formed by hundreds of knight swords broke apart too. On the other hand, Philip easily diffused Leo's attack with the sword in his hand.

"The sacred sword!" When Leo saw the sword in Philip's hand, he was stunned and furious.

"Damn it! Return the sacred sword!" Leo roared furiously.

He suddenly thought of a legend. The sacred sword was the embodiment of justice in the West.

Rumor had it that anyone who could wield the sacred sword would end up as the master of the Western world. For 700 years, no one had been able to wield this sacred sword. Even his father, Chief God Zeus could not use this sword and could only keep it behind the throne forever. However, now, an Eastern man had succeeded in wielding the sacred sword. It was glowing under his stimulation.

This was absolutely impossible!

Why should the sacred sword bow its allegiance to an Eastern man?

Philip was indifferent. He did not know what Leo was thinking at this moment. He looked at the sacred sword in his hand and said, "It just so happens that I'm lacking a suitable weapon. This sword will belong to me, then. I thank the sacred city for the gift."

“F*ck! Who said it’s a gift for you? Give the sacred sword back!” Leo was furious and launched a dazzling attack on Philip.

In an instant, the two fought again, and the sky seemed like it was about to collapse.

With the sacred sword in hand, Philip used three attribute powers. His combat skills also seemed to improve as he fought. Soon, he fought on par with Leo.

Leo also noticed that the other party’s attacks were becoming more mature and aggressive. He suddenly realized that the other party was using him to train.

‘Damn it!’

“Despicable Easterner, you’re actually using me to improve your combat experience!” Leo roared in anger.

Clang!

Philip slashed down, and the other party launched a lightning shield to resist. The two faced each other with raging energy pressure all around them.

“Haha! So what if I am? Again!” Philip shouted and fell into the passion of the battle.

He and Leo fought from the sky to the ground, from the ground to the cliff, and from the cliff to the nearby dried-up lake.

In the course of the battle, Leo felt more and more exhausted.

However, the other party was still alive and kicking. He even became more ferocious. The realm of the other party was even increasing steadily!

No! This was absolutely impossible!

Was the other party going to break through to the next level?

The realm of the gods was divided into three levels. The first level was the newly promoted, which corresponded to the king of disciples in the fourth zone behind the door.

The second level corresponded to the king of disciples in the fifth zone.

The third level corresponded to the king of disciples in the sixth zone!

Once the third level of the god realm was surpassed, one could reach the realm of the chief god. The realm of the chief god was also divided into three levels.

The first level corresponded to the king of disciples in the seventh zone!

The second level corresponded to the half-step to the other shore!

The third level corresponded to the realm of the other shore. One would become an invincible powerhouse standing at the peak of this world!

Chapter 2549

The three levels of the god and chief god might look simple, but each level was an insurmountable chasm. Some breakthroughs and progress relied on opportunities. The three levels of the chief god were not something normal people could surpass easily. Many people got stuck on the first level of the chief god, unable to break through to the second level or reach the half-step of the other shore.

Reaching the half-step of the other shore required the approval of heaven and earth. Meanwhile, someone in the realm of the other shore could gain insight into all the rules of the world, observe the cause and effect behind the door, and become the powerhouse at the peak of this world. Once the realm of the other shore was surpassed, a realm that had never been recorded in the history of this world could be reached, a prophet.

No one dared to dream of or step into the realm of the prophet because it was a mystical realm that no one had successfully stepped into. Countless predecessors had chased after it, and the continuation of the God Creation Project was solely for the realm of the prophet.

According to existing records and the efforts of countless predecessors, after reaching the realm of the prophet, one could surpass life and death and achieve the continuation of life in the doctrine of the universe. In other words, the consciousness could be continued in another vessel, which was somewhat similar to the mystical 'taking possession' in some literary works. However, the concept did not follow the traditional sense.

The vessel could be anything.

At the same time, being in the realm of the prophet could completely get rid of the shackles of the second civilization and enter the system of the third civilization. One would obtain the key to surpass the third civilization and achieve the fourth civilization!

It was an incalculable civilization system that human society had not even heard of!

On a global scale, the realm behind the three doors, those savage beasts, and the civilization system behind the door that Roger Clarke glimpsed upon back then were already the pinnacle of the second civilization. The civilization system behind the Clarke family's door had even reached the third civilization. Once the stargate was breached and the creatures on the other side discovered this world, only destruction would await this world.

Leo glared angrily at Philip who fought more and more aggressively. He roared. "You despicable Easterner, return the sacred sword that belongs to our Sainsbury family! Otherwise, I'll kill you right here!"

Philip was calm as he got more comfortable with the sword in his hand. He said provocatively, "I got it with my ability. Why should I return it? Come and get it if you can!"

"Damn you!" Leo roared in anger, pushed his energy to the extreme, and launched the fiercest attack on Philip.

Leo was already at the second level of the gods. He would soon reach the third level!

Under normal circumstances, it would be effortless to deal with a new god like Philip who had just entered the realm of the gods. However, through the battle just now, Leo understood that the other party's potential was too great. He had five sources of kingship, and the three attributes he displayed just now were all of the 5s level!

Leo knew that he had met his match!

No!

Once this guy grew up, the entire underworld of the West and the gods would encounter an unprecedented opponent.

Rumble!

In the sky, another heart-stopping battle broke out again. As the fight between the two reached the climax, a red figure from a distance rushed into the battle area in a red stream of light.

Boom!

A punch sent Leo flying out!

Chapter 2550

The lightning shield in front of Leo collapsed instantly.

Fennel had arrived!

He stood side by side with Philip and said, "Vataco has been killed. This is not a place to stay for long. Let me deal with him for a while. You should go first."

Philip frowned, somewhat reluctant to end the fight. However, after thinking about it, he said, "Okay! Let's meet up in the manor!"

After saying that, Philip turned around and was about to leave. He wanted to take the sacred sword with him too. However, as he was leaving the boundary of the sacred city, a layer of blue lightning barrier enveloped the entire city. At the same time, the sword in Philip's hand hummed loudly as if some sort of restriction was preventing it from leaving the sacred city.

From afar, Leo watched this scene, wiped the blood from the corner of his mouth, and said with a laugh, "Despicable Easterners! The sacred sword belongs to the sacred city, and its mission lies here. As long as the evil creatures in the underground of the sacred city are not wiped out for good, the sword will not leave the sacred city! Don't even dream of taking it away!"

Philip frowned, glanced at the sacred sword in his hand, and said helplessly, "I'll bring you away next time."

With that said, he tossed the sword in the air. The sword buzzed and flew back to the golden palace on its own. It stood in its original position and slowly lost its previous luster as well as energy pressure. The moment the sword returned to its place, countless pairs of scarlet eyes that seem to belong to wild beasts hidden in the shadows suddenly quieted down. They prostrated on the ground in the huge dark underground caverns below the sacred city.

In the far north, in a mountain forest hinterland, there was a huge ancient palace that looked pretty dilapidated.

Ancient Western gods with human heads and snake bodies were engraved on both sides of the palace stone doors. They had stone lamps on their chests that were burning with eerie flames at the moment. This cavernous stone door looked like the dividing line between darkness and light. There was light in front of the door and complete darkness behind the door. The darkness was endless and profound with an evil aura.

At this moment, a soul-piercing roar like that of an ancient beast resounded throughout the ancient broken palace.

The palace shook, and many large stones fell because of this roar. All the birds and beasts in the mountain forest scattered.

Boom!

A huge red and black claw full of evil aura tried to break through the dark stone door. However, as soon as it touched the light outside the stone door, the huge claw seemed to be burnt. White smoke wafted into the air with a sizzling sound!

Roar!

Continuous growls resounded throughout the mountain. Then, a deep voice came from the palace. "Damn sacred city, damn sacred sword, damn Zeus!"

This low voice was heard before the place slowly fell into silence again.

On this side, Philip left the sacred city.

Fennel and Leo fought for a while before the former also found an opportunity to leave the sacred city. Leo hovered above the sacred city and looked at the departing back. He wanted to give chase, but he also had to take care of the people of the sacred city below.

Moreover, because the sacred sword had nearly left the golden palace earlier, Leo could feel the rage of those things below the sacred city. He had to check things out in person.

"Damn it! I won't let you off!"

On this side, the battle between Roger and Zeus was also coming to an end.
