

The First Heir novel Chapter 2841 - 2850

Chapter 2841

Broken all his limbs?

Reed and Philip exchanged a glance and seemed to have thought of something. Mick Berry was really good at talking cr*p.

Reed said, "Deputy Consul Berry, I think you should tell your son to come out and ask him about this."

Hearing this, Cooper's face darkened. He turned around, looked at his subordinate behind him, and said, "Tell Mick to come here!"

Soon, Mick was pushed inside on a wheelchair, all wrapped up in bandages like a mummy. He wailed, "Ouch, Dad. You're finally here. Look at me. I was beaten up to this state. Ow!"

Seeing Mick being pushed in while all covered in bandages, Philip and Reed looked at each other helplessly.

No wonder... Mick was the one behind this.

Cooper was naturally heartbroken when he saw his favorite son being beaten up like this. In addition, he was also angry!

He stared at Philip coldly and asked, "Young Patriarch Clarke, the Berry family has always stayed away from the Clarke family. Now that you've injured my son like this, do you have any regard for the Berry family at all? Or are you trying to lord over us?"

Cooper was simply trying to make a mountain out of a molehill.

Philip snorted coldly, looked at Mick, and said, "Well done. Great pretense."

Then, he looked at Cooper and said, "Since I'm here, just say your piece and don't beat about the bush. I'm not afraid of you!"

"Very good! Well done!" Cooper applauded before he looked at Philip coldly and said, "I think you should know what I want."

Philip frowned and said, "I'm sorry, but I really don't know. Just say it."

Cooper sneered and said, "If you hand your daughter over to me and let me train her for a while, I'll forget about this matter today. What do you think? Also, I hope that the Clarke family can join forces with the Berry family. With our combined forces, we can easily take over the country, even the world! How about it?"

Philip snorted coldly and said, "Wishful thinking! I'll never hand my daughter over or work with you to achieve your wild ambitions!"

Hiss!

In an instant, all members of the Larson family in the hall gasped. The person in front was the deputy consul of the Nonagon and a real powerhouse a half-step to the other shore!

Were Philip and Reed not afraid that the other party would do anything to them?

Hearing Philip's words, Cooper sneered and said, "I expected your reply, so the last option is for you to break all your limbs and apologize to my son!"

Cooper's words were extremely domineering!

To ask the young patriarch of the Clarke family to lose his limbs was to make an enemy out of the Clarke family. The three Larson brothers stood aside indifferently with no intention to get involved at all.

"How dare you?!" At this moment, Reed stepped forward with a scowl and shouted angrily.

"Cooper Berry, although you're the deputy consul of the Nonagon, I'm also a supreme of the country! If you dare to do this in front of me, I won't let you off!"

"Hahaha!" Cooper laughed, looked at Reed coldly, and said, "Supreme Williams, I used to be afraid of you, but not anymore."

Boom!

Suddenly, Cooper released his aura!

An overwhelming energy pressure swept across Reed in a flash. It was the aura that belonged to a half-step of the other shore. In an instant, Reed's legs trembled from the pressure as he staggered several steps back. Fortunately, he resisted and stabilized his body. However, it was not easy for him. He felt as if he was carrying two mountains on his shoulder!

"Cooper, even if you have reached half-step to the other shore, I'm warning you that if you dare to attack my student, I'll destroy your entire Berry family!"

Reed trembled all over from the weight on his shoulders.

Chapter 2842

Hearing Reed's threatening words, Cooper said scornfully, "Supreme Williams, you're still the same. I'm not what I used to be. I might've been afraid of you in the past, but I'm a half-step to the other shore now. To me, you're just an ant! Do you think that the Imperial Palace or the Imperial Preceptor behind you will offend me for the sake of a small supreme like you?!"

After Cooper finished speaking, his face was full of pride with no regard for Reed at all. To the outside world, Reed Williams was a mighty supreme, but to Cooper, he was nothing. He could kill Reed with a lift of a finger.

Hearing this, Reed took a step forward despite the huge pressure from Cooper on his shoulders. The tiles beneath his feet shattered instantly!

"Cooper, as a supreme, I'm not afraid of any challenge! Fight me if you can!" Reed shouted, and his slender hand fell on the sword on his waist!

Buzz!

The sword left the scabbard slightly.

At that moment, green light with a low roar of a dragon resounded throughout the meeting room and Larson Manor!

The Green Dragon Sword surged with violent energy pressure and offset the huge pressure and power of rules from Cooper!

Cooper frowned and stared at the slightly exposed blade that shone at Reed's waist. The name Green Dragon was engraved, looking simple and ancient. The aura and the power of rules on the blade were not inferior to Cooper's!

'What the hell?' Cooper frowned and immediately realized that this sword once belonged to a half-step powerhouse or even a powerhouse of the other shore!

This sword had accompanied the powerhouse through countless battles and been immersed by the power of rules. It had actually developed a sword intent a half-step to the other shore. The Green Dragon Sword used to belong to the Imperial Preceptor!

This sword was given to Reed as a sign of the Imperial Preceptor's hopes for Reed.

In an instant, Cooper's face darkened as he stared at the sword on Reed's waist. The intertwined power of rules was enormous.

He frowned and said, "I never expected you to have such a magical weapon."

Reed snorted coldly and said, "This is the Green Dragon Sword that once accompanied the Imperial Preceptor to conquer the eight kingdoms! Seeing this sword is like seeing the Imperial Preceptor!"

Cooper raised his eyebrows, and his face was cold. He stared at Reed for a long time before he bowed slightly and said, "Cooper Berry pays respect to the Imperial Preceptor..."

After that, Cooper sneered and said, "Reed, do you think you can stop me with the Green Dragon Sword? If I really want to take you down, it won't help you even if you have the sword!"

Of course, Reed understood Cooper's meaning. The Green Dragon Sword was one of his trump cards. If Cooper paid no heed to the Green Dragon Sword that represented the Imperial Preceptor, Reed really had no other idea.

"Hmm... Hehehe..." Reed scoffed. "If you really want to take us down, I can only fight!"

With that said, Reed pulled out the sword from his waist!

Clang!

A green sword light dazzled in the hall. A low dragon roar also rang throughout Larson Manor.

Chapter 2843

More terrifyingly, when the Green Dragon Sword was unsheathed, all the metal weapons in Larson Manor buzzed!

All members of the Larson family were in horror with faces full of shock. The killing intent of the Green Dragon Sword was too overwhelming. There was also an invincible aura!

Thud, thump!

In an instant, the members of the Larson family, including Silva and the others, knelt on the floor and shouted, "We welcome the Imperial Preceptor!"

Yes, they bowed down to the fully unsheathed Green Dragon Sword. That was because behind Reed, a shadow of an upright figure with a solemn expression had appeared. The shadow was none other than the Imperial Preceptor who had conquered the eight kingdoms back then.

He was someone who possessed supreme combat power and aura. With just a cold look, all members of the Larson family fell to their knees in fright!

It was the Imperial Preceptor! The one with almighty power within the country!

A legend! An extremely strong figure who stabilized the world in one battle!

At this moment, Cooper looked at Reed with the Green Dragon Sword in his hand and the shadow of the Imperial Preceptor behind him. His expression became extremely ugly. The shadow swept a cold glance over the Larson family before his eyes fell on Cooper.

There were no words, just one look.

Cooper could not withstand the pressure of those eyes at all. After struggling for a while, he finally knelt and exclaimed, "Welcome, Imperial Preceptor!"

At that moment, the tidal pressure finally dissipated. Reed glanced at Cooper coldly and said, "Deputy Consul Berry, I want to take Philip away. Do you agree?"

Cooper frowned but still said with a nod, "Supreme Williams, please go ahead..."

"Hmph!" Reed snorted coldly before he turned and left. Philip also glanced coldly at the kneeling Cooper and left.

When they walked out of the main entrance of Larson Manor, they saw the waiting members of the Dragon Warriors and Fennel and his gang. Seeing Reed and Philip walking out safely, they greeted the two excitedly.

"Are you alright? Did Cooper let you go?" Fennel asked.

Philip huffed and said with a smile, "I'm fine. It's all thanks to the Teacher."

However, at this time...

Pfft!

Reed spat a mouthful of blood and staggered.

Philip immediately caught hold of Reed. Seeing his face that went pale instantly, Philip asked nervously, "Teacher, are you alright?"

Reed waved his hand and said, "Quick, get out of here. Let's go back before we speak!"

They quickly left Larson Manor.

On Cooper's side, he stood up from the floor angrily at this moment!

Silva and the others also stood up. They stood beside Cooper humbly and asked in low voices, "Deputy Consul Berry, are we going to let this matter rest just like this?"

Cooper snorted coldly and said, "Let it rest? I'm here in person. Why should I let it rest?"

After that, he looked at Mick who was sitting in a wheelchair.

When Mick saw his father's gaze, he immediately wailed, "Ouch, it hurts! Dad, you have to do something."

Cooper shouted solemnly, "Enough! I know you best! If it's not a big deal, just stand up and get out of my sight!"

Hearing this, Mick immediately stood up from the wheelchair, bowed respectfully to Cooper, and hobbled away with the help of his servants.

Seeing that, Cooper scowled and ordered Silva, "Lock down the entire area. I want to keep Philip and his people from leaving!"

"Yes!" Silva responded immediately.

The Larson family needed to rely on the Berry family now, so Silva could only obey.

On Philip's side, they returned to the hotel, which was already taken over by the Dragon Warriors. The place was filled with fully armed soldiers both inside and out. Numerous combat vehicles were parked on the streets around.

No irrelevant people were allowed near the hotel!

Chapter 2844

At this moment, in a large suite, Reed sat weakly on the sofa while surrounded by many people.

Philip asked anxiously, "Teacher, what's going on? How did you become like this?"

Others also asked with concern, "Supreme Williams, are you alright? Do you need a doctor?"

Reed was covered in a green quilt and smiled slightly. He shook his head and said, "No need. This is a backlash from the power of rules..."

As he said that, he looked at the Green Dragon Sword on the table, shook his head, and said with a sigh, "Alas, I used the Green Dragon Sword by force to fight against Cooper and even conjured the image of the Imperial Preceptor before I was able to take Philip away from Larson Manor. However, Cooper should find out soon that I was merely bluffing..."

Hearing this, Philip frowned. Everyone's eyes fell on the Green Dragon Sword.

"Teacher, will the sword consume you?" Philip asked.

Reed nodded and said, "With my current strength, I can't fully unleash the true strength of the Green Dragon Sword, but I forcibly poured in my energy and the power of rules when I confronted Cooper just now, which triggered the sword into displaying the power of a half-step to the other shore. It even conjured the shadow of the Imperial Preceptor.

"However, the result of doing this is to suffer a backlash from the sword."

After saying that, Reed coughed and grew weaker. He looked at Philip seriously, took out a Supreme Order token from his pocket, and handed it to Philip while saying, "I'll give you the Supreme Order now. I'm afraid I can no longer help you with the rest. Within three days, my strength will fall to the level of an ordinary person. It'll take half a month for me to recover. During this time, you have to be careful. Take the Supreme Order and look for the other supremes. Maybe they'll help you once on my account."

After Reed finished speaking, his condition declined further.

Philip took the token that was cool to the touch and said seriously, "Teacher, don't worry. Leave the rest to me!"

Reed nodded and said, "Cooper will receive the news within the day. He'll definitely come again. You have to be prepared."

Philip nodded in response and asked, "Teacher, I want to know the strength of the Imperial Preceptor. Even Cooper had to kneel upon seeing his shadow."

With a look of longing and admiration on his face, Reed coughed and said, "We don't know the strength of the Imperial Preceptor, and no one can speculate. Back then, he led us to battle against the eight kingdoms, and we managed to achieve peace for our country for the next few decades through tragic bloodshed..."

"The Imperial Preceptor once fought single-handedly against several disciples and kings of the seventh zone from other countries. He even injured two half-step powerhouses of the other shore! It's rumored that his strength is in the pseudo-realm of the other shore. However, no one knows for sure what his real strength is. I think the only person in this world who knows the true strength of the Imperial Preceptor is your father..."

'My father?' Philip frowned.

From Reed's words, he knew that the Imperial Preceptor was by no means a simple character. In this country, the Imperial Preceptor reigned supreme!

"By the way, Teacher, I've heard that there are restrictions in this world on the powerhouses of the other shore. The rules of this world can only allow a few powerhouses of the other shore to appear. What's the limit?" Philip asked.

He still had many questions.

Reed's eyes grew dark, and he said after a while, "I don't know the limit either because I'm not at that level. So, I can only gather from some clues that the limit is five..."

'Five?' Philip frowned and he calculated carefully.

His father, the main god Zeus, Consul Juno Yarrow, and the grand elder of the Clarke family. However, in order to seal the stargate, the grand elder had returned to the stargate with the Nonagon's Consul Yarrow.

Chapter 2845

The grand elder had passed on, while the outcome of Consul Yarrow was still unknown. Excluding the grand elder, there were three. After all, during the battle on Arcadia Island, Juno once fought Roger in his peak condition. Later, the grand elder had to make a move before the matter died down. Thus, Juno's real strength should also be in the realm of the other shore. However, it could also be the peak of the pseudo-realm.

It was difficult to determine...

If Juno was in the realm of the other shore, and there was also the Imperial Preceptor, there was one last spot left.

Who could this person be?

If the Imperial Preceptor was not in the realm of the other shore but the pseudo-realm, there would be two spots left. Someone else was in the realm of the other shore.

Who was it?

Philip looked grave.

Seeing this, Reed said, "Don't take it too seriously. The world's progression is beyond our control. You need to grow up as fast as you can and reach the level of your father before you can know more and understand more. In this game of chess, all of us are pawns now. Only when you grow to the level of your father can you jump out of this chess game and become the chess player."

Hearing Reed's words, Philip's frown grew deeper. Benny Larson had told him exactly the same thing. It was the chess game and the chess player again!

"Teacher, I never could figure out what exactly is the chess game you're talking about," Philip asked.

Reed sighed and said, "This chess game encompasses the entire world, even the ancients. This is a chess game that has spanned for thousands of years. So far, this chess game has been controlled by your father and some other people. These people are making the moves in the chess game, and the result will depend on each person's ability."

Hearing this, Philip was even more confused.

Who would use this world as a chessboard and all living beings as chess pieces?

After the chat, Philip and the others left the room. Now, the entire hotel was under lockdown, and irrelevant people were not allowed to enter. Philip and the others returned to their room, their faces full of worry.

Reed was seriously injured, and his strength had deteriorated. It would take half a month for him to recover. Now that Cooper was here, he would come after them again within the day.

Fennel said, "Don't worry, I've deployed the people from the Hall of the Sun as well as Athena's people. I just received the news that they're now parked on the high seas. If Cooper dares to act unscrupulously, I'll destroy the Nonagon building."

Hearing that, Philip smiled and said, "Thank you..."

Then, he held the Supreme Order in his hand. After thinking for a while, he did not use it. That was because he had another trump card!

Sure enough, as Reed predicted, Cooper's guards arrived at the hotel entrance within the day.

"Young Patriarch Clarke, the deputy consul would like to invite you and Supreme Williams to go to the Larson family again," The guard said calmly.

Philip stood at the door with Fennel and the others behind him.

Chapter 2846

Hearing this, Cooper's guard sneered and said, "Young Patriarch Clarke, please get in the car."

Philip got into the car without hesitation.

After Philip left, Cynthia burst into tears and said to Fennel, "Fennel, please save Philip."

Fennel frowned. He had already made the final preparations.

"Don't worry. If Cooper dares to do anything to Philip, even if I have to go all out, I'll make the Nonagon and the Berry family pay for it!" Fennel said coldly. Then, he quickly left the hotel.

On the other hand, Philip arrived at Larson Manor again. He was full of mixed emotions. Before this, he was unafraid with Reed beside him. Now, he had to face the music alone.

When he walked into the Larson family's main hall, Cooper and the others were sitting with faint sneers on their faces.

"Young Patriarch Clarke, we meet again," Cooper said mockingly, his smile cold and sinister.

"Hey, why didn't Supreme Williams come with you?"

Philip scoffed. "Deputy Consul Berry, since you already know, why ask the obvious?"

Cooper laughed, got up, stared at Philip sternly, and said, "Young Patriarch Clarke, you don't seem to be afraid."

Philip snorted coldly and said, "I'm the young patriarch of the Clarke family. Why should I be afraid of you? You're just the deputy consul of the Nonagon."

Cooper laughed and said, "Good, very good! I really admire the courage you have at such a young age. However, now that you're here alone, aren't you afraid that I'll do something to you?"

Hearing this, a chill flashed in Philip's eyes. He said with a smile, "Maybe you've already done what you wanted to, so why test the waters now? I'm here just to find out if you dare to do anything to me."

Hearing this, Cooper frowned and said, "As expected of Roger Clarke's son. This confidence is something not many people have."

Then, he said, "As I said just now, hand your daughter over to me. I only need her for three months. If you agree, I'll forget this matter. What do you think?"

Philip smiled and said, "Although I don't know why you're so obsessed with my daughter, I can tell you that there's no deal! If you dare to do anything to my daughter, I'll definitely kill you!"

"Hahaha!" Cooper laughed and said solemnly, "Do you think you can do any harm to me now?"

Boom!

Huge pressure overwhelmed Philip!

Bang!

Philip was thrown out by the pressure radiating from Cooper and staggered dozens of steps back before he stopped himself.

Cooper had held back. Otherwise, Philip would have died from the shock just now!

At this moment, Philip unleashed his aura, and a platinum sword of kingship appeared in the sky. It was unleashed reactively!

Chapter 2847

Under the pressure from Cooper, Philip trembled all over as he stood firm. He wiped the blood that spilled from the corner of his mouth, stared at Cooper with cold and biting eyes, and said, "Deputy Consul Berry, you're very pompous!"

Seeing that Philip had resisted this blow, Cooper said with a smile, "Not bad. You have what it takes, but I only used less than 10% of my strength. Do you think you can survive the next move?"

Philip frowned.

Less than 10% of his strength had already rendered Philip in this state. Sure enough, a half-step to the other shore was not someone he could deal with at the moment. There was not even the slightest chance to fight back!

Philip snorted coldly and said, "If you wanted to do it, you would have done so already. Why wait until now?"

Cooper smiled, got up, and walked toward Philip. With every step, Philip was forced to retreat.

Philip's entire body raged with tremendous energy pressure and the power of rules. The platinum sword of kingship in the sky buzzed constantly. It was dazzling with five colors. Even so, Philip was still at a disadvantage. He was forced out of the hall by Cooper's aura until he stood in the open square.

The floor was left with footprints of shattered tiles. Every footprint was as deep as half a palm. The skin on Philip's body cracked and seeped with blood.

At this moment, his eyes were bloodshot as he urged all the energy and power of rules in his body. He activated the rotation of kingship power to resist the pressure from Cooper!

Cooper laughed coldly, looked up at the platinum sword of kingship in the sky, and focused on the five-colored sources of kingship gems.

“As expected of the Clarke family’s fortune. It’s really enviable. However, maybe Roger never expected that you’d one day fall into my hands! These five sources of kingship can be regarded as your compensation to my son. I’ll gladly accept them.”

With that said, Cooper pointed to the sky!

Boom!

In an instant, the sky surged, and dark clouds gathered over Larson Manor.

A dazzling golden beam shot out from Cooper’s finger and turned into a huge hand that tried to grab the platinum sword of kingship in the sky. However, the platinum sword of kingship seemed to have been greatly stimulated. With a loud buzz, dazzling five-colored energy and the power of rules exploded and bombarded Cooper!

“Hmm?” Cooper frowned with surprise and said, “Interesting...”

After saying that, he pointed again, and this attack was stronger than the previous.

The platinum sword of kingship seemed to sense the huge power and the power of rules contained in this attack. It also burst with five-colored energy that slammed into the huge golden palm that made a grabbing motion in the sky!

Rumble!

The terrifying energy pressure flooded the sky. The space also collapsed in that instant.

Philip spat a few mouthfuls of blood as he flew out and crashed to the ground. The platinum sword of kingship in the sky also cracked all over.

Cooper frowned. With such a powerful blow, he only managed to crack the sword. Then, he looked at Philip who had fallen to the ground. Philip was pale, but his eyes were stern and full of anger!

“In that case, I’ll kill you first!” Cooper said solemnly and walked toward Philip.

However, suddenly, Philip took out a golden token from his pocket and shouted gravely, “The Dragon Seal of the Clarke family! It can command the whole world! Who dares to disrespect it?!”

Chapter 2848
The Dragon Seal?

Seeing the token in Philip’s hand, Cooper’s face was full of horror and fear. At that moment, his emotions were in upheaval.

It was the Dragon Seal!

That was the highest token that belonged to Roger Clarke. The claim that it could command the entire world was not just empty talk!

Cooper immediately thought of the incident that happened more than a decade ago. It was the incident that rocked the entire country. The thing that caused it was none other than the Dragon Seal. The meaning behind this seal was extremely huge. The power that it could unleash was beyond Cooper's imagination!

A small and simple Dragon Seal could command all of the Clarke family's combat power and wealth. All members of the Clarke family and all forces that belonged to them had to obey the Dragon Seal!

It was a token that could even destroy a big country!

The special influence it held was not only limited to the combat power and wealth of the Clarke family. More terrifyingly, it could summon those incredible people who had disappeared over the years and rarely showed up in the public eye. Including those supreme powerhouses who once ruled this world and stood at the pinnacle.

They were once Roger Clarke's most trusted followers!

Boom!

When all members of the Larson family saw Philip with the token, they were horrified and fell to their knees. That was because that small token radiated with monstrous might and pressure that made their legs weak. The small token dazzled with golden light, which soared straight into the sky and turned into a huge golden dragon!

Roar!

The low growl shook the heavens!

The golden dragon with five claws soared in the sky. Its huge dragon head, swaying beard, and horns shone bright gold. The entire world lost all color!

Roar!

The loud dragon's roar was like rumbling thunder that could be heard throughout the entire country. The huge golden dragon head soared and danced in the sky before it turned directions and swooped down from the sky.

Golden airwaves rippled from the golden dragon!

The huge golden dragon head that was several meters wide loomed over Larson Manor. It glared at Cooper, who was standing on the ground. In front of the huge golden dragon, Cooper looked like a tiny ant. The golden dragon was hundreds of meters long and hovered over Larson Manor just like that.

The enormous pressure and dragon energy made everyone fearful!

Cooper made eye contact with the golden dragon, and in an instant, he read supreme energy pressure from the depths of its eyes.

“Deputy Consul Berry is really persistent,” Philip said, looked at the car parked on the street, and said, “I’ll go over.”

Fennel and the others wanted to follow, but Philip stopped them. He said, “Stay and take good care of Teacher.”

Cynthia cried anxiously, tugged on Philip’s arm, and said, “You must be careful.”

Philip smiled and said, “Don’t worry, I’ll be back. I’ll make them send me back in a grand fashion.”

Chapter 2849

Was this the creature behind the stargate that bowed down to Roger Clarke?

It was forcibly tamed by Roger and sealed in this small token.

Too scary!

The aura of the golden dragon was a half-step to the other shore. A creature on the other shore with that strength was actually subdued by Roger.

At this moment, Cooper was full of fear and trembled from the depths of his soul!

Roar!

The golden dragon opened its huge jaws and roared. The monstrous airwaves shattered the villa behind Cooper. Cooper urged the power of rules on his body to withstand the pressure from the golden dragon. However, two deep pits still formed beneath his feet!

Cooper was furious!

He waved his hands, and his eyes suddenly became sharp. He roared, “Hmph! You’re just a creature from the other shore. How dare you throw your weight around here? Let’s see how strong you are!”

Cooper was furious, and his fighting intent raged. In an instant, the entire Larson Manor was filled with the fighting intent of two powerhouses a half-step to the other shore.

This fighting intent locked an area within a hundred-mile radius. However, at this moment, several streaks zoomed in from the distance.

Boom!

Several figures surging with tremendous energy pressure descended from the sky and stood in a row in front of Philip. Philip looked at these five figures and was shocked!

Five powerhouses a half-step to the other shore!

Boom!

The sky above Larson Manor seemed unable to withstand the destructive aura of these five half-steps to the other shore who suddenly appeared.

In an instant, the entire manor, the entire Fernvale, and even the entire country were shrouded in the aura of these five half-steps to the other shore. Plus Cooper and that golden dragon, there were seven!

Seven supreme powerhouses a half-step to the other shore were gathered at Larson Manor at this moment. The intensity could crush the entire world.

Silva and the others knelt on the ground at this moment and fully realized the power of the destructive force. Cooper also reacted instantly. When he saw the five figures standing in front of Philip, his breathing became rapid.

Five powerhouses a halfstep to the other shore!

It was them! Roger's followers from back then! They were still alive!

One of them stared at the golden dragon in mid-air at the moment and said, "How did the Dragon Seal appear here?"

After saying that, he finally noticed Philip slowly getting up from the ground behind him.

Philip was seriously injured at this moment, but he still bowed and said, "Five seniors, my name is Philip Clarke. I'm the young patriarch of the Clarke family."

'The young patriarch of the Clarke family?'

The five people of different heights and shapes looked back at Philip with a hint of surprise. The five looked quite advanced in years. However, their auras were vaster than the ocean!

An old man with gray hair and a stern angular face looked at Philip. He said, "So, it's Young Patriarch Clarke. Is Roger Clarke your father?"

"Yes," Philip replied respectfully.

He could sense that these five old people bore no hostility toward him.

The old man nodded and said with a smile, "Very good. You've reached the advanced mid-level kingship power of the sixth zone at such a young age."

"Little boy, don't be afraid. In terms of seniority, you have to call us Uncles!"

"Haha! I like this kid! He looks like he was carved out of the same mold as Roger back then!"

They commented on Philip and revealed their affection for him. All of them had no children, so they treated Philip as their child with just one glance.

"Since you've used the Dragon Seal, we'll take care of the problem at hand for you."

The old man with gray hair from earlier scowled at this moment. He turned to look at Cooper and said coldly, "How dare you bully the young patriarch of the Clarke family?!"

Cooper panicked when he saw these five old men. These five were not ordinary people! The five marquises!

They were the group of supreme powerhouses that followed Roger back then. However, they disappeared more than a decade ago. According to rumors, they should be guarding the stargate in Cochly Mountain!

Chapter 2850

The combat power of these five marquises was definitely through the roof. Once, one of them fought against a group of creatures behind the stargate and was undefeated.

It should be known that the weakest creatures were equivalent to disciples of the fifth zone. Facing such a group of creatures, they could still remain undefeated, which was enough to prove their strength. If not for the limitations of the rules of this world, one or two of them might have even entered the realm of the other shore.

Facing these five marquises a half-step to the other shore, Cooper had no chance of winning. However, this did not mean that Cooper was afraid!

They were outdated people of the last era!

He panicked, but a chill flashed in his eyes. He bowed slightly and said, "I didn't expect to meet the five marquises. I'm Cooper Berry, the current deputy consul of the Nonagon. It's a pleasure to meet the five marquises."

"Hmph!" A short and fat old man in a gray martial art uniform said with disdain, "Forget it! So, you're the current deputy consul of the Nonagon, huh?"

Cooper replied, "Exactly. I wonder if Marquis Locke has any advice for me. "

Hay Locke's eyes flashed coldly. He waved his hand, and his body rippled with the aura of a half-step to the other shore. He said, "Do you know what the crime is for bullying the young patriarch of the Clarke family?"

Cooper frowned and said, "Marquis Locke, I didn't bully him. He injured my son, so I just wanted an explanation from him."

"An explanation?" A tall old man with sharp eyes was the one who spoke.

He looked a little detached from this world. He stood with his hands behind his back, stroked his beard, and said, "Now, with the five of us here, what other explanation do you need?"

Hearing this, Cooper frowned, and a layer of cold sweat broke out from his body. The auras of the five marquises were so strong that he could hardly withstand the pressure!

Obviously, this was the other party's intention!

Cooper said, "You have the final say. I have no comment."

Cooper was extremely indignant!

Philip was right in front of him, and his five sources of kingship were just within his grasp, but halfway through, the Dragon Seal appeared and summoned these five.

Damn it!

However, Cooper dared not display his anger. Otherwise, if he annoyed these five, it might be the end of him today. Damn Philip for having such a trump card!

Marquis Fulmore, who looked out of this world, nodded and said, "In that case, this matter is settled. Since your son was injured by Philip, how about making Philip pay for the medical expenses?"

Cooper's mouth twitched, but he dared not object. After all, that huge golden dragon was still staring daggers at him in the air!

“Since Marquis Fulmore said so, I shall obey,” Cooper said with a smile.

Where there was life, there was hope.

The several marquises looked at each other and nodded. Then, they turned to Philip and said, “Little boy, the Dragon Seal isn’t something you can use casually! This time, treat it as our welcome gift to you. Remember, you mustn’t display the Dragon Seal easily unless there’s a crisis in the country or the Clarke family is facing destruction!”

Philip remembered the advice, bowed respectfully, and said, “Thank you for your teachings. I’ll remember them.”

The several of them smiled before they looked up at the golden dragon and bellowed!
