

The First Heir Chapter 2871 - 2880 -

Chapter 2871

Philip raised his eyebrows and turned to look at the man in front of him seriously. Under the sunglasses, there was a pair of cold eyes. The smile on the corner of his mouth made people uncomfortable. His lips were a little thin and small, unlike a man's. He looked like a boy toy too.

Click!

Suddenly, Philip raised the golden Desert Eagle, placed it right between Ludo's eyebrows, and said, "I hate it when others threaten me. Do you think I dare to kill you right here?"

The other party seemed unafraid and said, "You won't."

"Why?" Philip asked.

Lord Ludo replied, "Because you're interested in Heavenly Court, and you want to know more secrets from me."

Bull's eye... However, Philip said nonchalantly, "I can kill you first, then ask your followers."

Lord Ludo shook his head and said, "That won't work. If I'm dead, what awaits you will be the never-ending pursuit of the Heavenly Court. Besides, your sister, Hannah, will also face a crisis."

Hearing this, Philip put away his gun and said with a smile, "It seems that your status in the Heavenly Court isn't low."

The other party chuckled and said, "Since you don't want to kill me anymore, I shall excuse myself."

After that, the other party got up, looked at Sumo and the others who were lying on the ground, and said coldly, "A bunch of trash! Get out!"

The three guys quickly bowed and apologized. Then, they lifted Sumo from the pool of blood and hurried out. Lord Ludo also got ready to leave with his people. When he reached the door, he suddenly turned around and said to Philip, "I've given you the opportunity. Whatever happens next will be out of my control."

With that said, he and his group left.

Philip was solemn as he looked at them leaving. His face darkened.

“What do you think?” Philip asked.

Fennel frowned, shook his head, and said, “It’s hard to say. They dare to look for you with such a big fanfare and give you advice, which means that they’re not afraid of you here, let alone the Clarke family behind you!”

Philip nodded, lost in thought.

Lord Ludo left the hotel with his people. At the door, an attendant bowed and said, “Young Miss.”

Smack!

Lord Ludo, who was in a white suit, slapped the attendant until his mouth bled.

The attendant immediately changed his tune and said, “Lord Ludo, if the Great Heavenly King finds out we did this, I’m afraid it’ll cause a bad impact.”

Lord Ludo said coldly, “I know what I’m doing. I don’t need you to teach me what to do! Another word from you and you can find a place to bury yourself!”

“Yes!” The attendant quickly bowed.

Ludo looked back at the hotel before he left in a car.

Someone with a car in Mystic City must be extraordinary. After all, there were few cars here.

In the hotel, Philip and the others went back to their rooms to rest. After a day of running around, they were quite tired. The condition of this hotel was acceptable. It had everything necessary with air-conditioning, but it was relatively old. Even the TV was old-fashioned.

Philip lay on the bed with the starstone his grandfather gave him in his hand. After looking at it for a while, Philip activated his energy and the power of rules again, wanting to explore the inner structure of this starstone. However, no matter how Philip probed, he could not gain insight into the inner structure of this starstone. He even felt difficulty in breathing. The power of this starstone was very strong, indeed.

When Philip tried for the fourth time, a change came over the starstone. Suddenly, a blue star map appeared in Philip’s room!

Chapter 2872

When he saw the star map that was triggered by the starstone, Philip was dumbfounded!

'A star map?'

This starstone could actually project a star map!

Philip was shocked as he stared at the blue star map. The star map was a miniature version of a vast universe, full of stars, asteroid belts, and the like. He was surrounded by stars and galaxies. He moved, and the star map began to rotate. Then, he noticed a galaxy on the star map. He pointed with a finger, and the galaxy quickly enlarged in front of Philip's eyes.

Philip decisively targeted the star that looked like Earth. Immediately after, the surrounding space seemed to be distorted. Countless planets flashed by Philip's eyes before stopping at the selected blue planet. Then, in Philip's incredulous eyes, he saw a playback of Earth from ancient times to the present!

It was a time tunnel! It was the power of the rules of time and space!

Philip could feel the power of the rules of time and space all over him at this moment. Everything that had happened on this planet was reflected in his clear eyes.

From ancient times to the present, from the rise of a civilization to its disappearance into the long river of history to the rise and fall of the next civilization... Everything seemed to be controlled by someone!

"What is this?" Suddenly, Philip exclaimed because he saw a different picture.

With a thought, the image stopped!

In Philip's eyes, he was now in a strange space, and the historical progress in front of him should be during ancient civilization. It seemed to be the start of civilization when humans were still learning to use tools. However, at such an early stage of civilization, Philip saw a tribal group praying to heaven. The leader of the tribe was actually holding this starstone!

It was the starstone that triggered the star map. More incredulously, there was a bizarre spaceship in the sky that could not be built even in modern times. Only a corner of it was exposed. It was made of a metal substance and covered by clouds and mist.

Philip saw a special insignia on that corner, an insignia of a golden gate!

It looked similar to the pearly gates' logo on those people who appeared earlier.

Could these be the predecessors of the Heavenly Court?

Had they been around since the tribal period? Moreover, were they extraterrestrial creatures?

This was impossible!

Philip was stunned as his brain churned. Philip could not accept the appearance of such a spaceship in the sky during this period.

Could it be that the legends and relics of the Mayan civilization were indicating something?

The power of the rules of time and space moved, and the picture in front of Philip fast-forwarded at a thousand times the speed.

Philip also widened his eyes, unwilling to miss anything!

“Stop!” Suddenly, Philip stopped the picture again.

That was because he saw the insignia again. At this time, black flags waved under the sun with a huge ‘Kai’ written on them!

Chapter 2873

The period of Emperor Kai, the first emperor?

There was an ancient battlefield in front of Philip where thousands of troops stood in a huge mountainous canyon. Black flags and red spears were seen everywhere, and millions of mighty soldiers demonstrated the strongest combat power of the Kai Empire. However, a canyon with no end in sight lay in front of them.

Mountains and steep peaks towered on both sides of the canyon. The canyon was deep and terrifying with bursts of low roars from beasts from time to time. Then, the mountains shook as if the canyon was having an earthquake. The ground trembled, and gravel jumped like popcorn. Countless boulders rolled down from the nearby mountains. The low roars in the canyon became more intense and finally turned into a thunderous sound that shook the world.

Roar!

Finally, countless beasts appeared in the canyon!

The whole place was swarmed with these black creatures. They jumped and roared as they rushed toward the million soldiers!

It was like a scene from doomsday!

Behind the million soldiers, there was an imposing man in a black imperial robe on a towering carriage. With his pair of cold eyes, it seemed as if he was looking through the ages with an aura that made everyone submit. He pulled out a longsword engraved with a dragon from his waist, pointed it at the sky angrily, and slashed at the black beasts that rushed out from the depths of the canyon.

He roared, "Protect the human race! Kill!"

This roar resounded throughout the canyon and triggered a vision. Instantly, a million mighty soldiers fought a valiant battle with the hundreds of thousands of beasts.

Philip clearly saw that the man in the black imperial robe had a golden gate on the hilt of his sword.

Did Emperor Kai come into contact with this mysterious existence with the golden gate logo?

As Philip was distracted, Emperor Kai, who was commanding the battle, looked through time and space and glanced at Philip sternly!

He found Philip?

Philip was horrified. How was this possible?

However, something more impossible happened. Emperor Kai seemed to sense the little presence in time and space. He took off a token from his waist, threw it into the sky, and shouted, "Take my Imperial Decree! Enter my Imperial Palace, take my Dragon Sword, and fight for the human race!"

Swoosh!

Philip watched as the black-gold imperial token flew toward him. He reached out to grab it by reflex and actually caught hold of it!

Crack!

Suddenly, Philip seemed to hear the sounds of the space tunnel as it collapsed. The next moment, the picture in front of Philip's eyes shattered. The star map disappeared, and the starstone fell to the floor. Philip stood in the room, dumbfounded. He had Emperor Kai's black token in his hand!

"H-How is this possible?" Philip could not accept it.

This was something from 2,000 years ago. It traveled through time and space before coming to his hands!

The starstone!

Philip picked up the starstone and looked at it carefully. He still wanted to activate his power of rules to understand something. However, this time, no matter how Philip used his power of rules, there was no response.

After trying for a while, Philip looked at the black-gold imperial token in his hand and fell into contemplation. The black-gold token with a black dragon on the front looked very imposing that people could not help but want to submit. On the back, the word 'Yarn' was engraved!

This belonged to Emperor Kai.

In this world, the person who knew Emperor Kai best was none other than Alliance Master Yarn!

Chapter 2874

Meanwhile, in a big manor in the country, there were seven buildings shaped like palace halls.

At this moment, in the hall right at the center, Alliance Master Yarn was looking at the tall golden statue of the emperor. He had been standing in front of him for a quarter of an hour.

There was a strange time and space rule fluctuation in this golden statue of the emperor just now. More terrifyingly, the Dragon Sword held in the sword-wielding hand of the emperor dazzled with the power of rules.

The Dragon Sword was a treasure left by Emperor Kai!

The Yarn family had been around for 2,000 years and had been searching for it until now, but no one ever found the real Dragon Sword. At this moment, Alliance Master Yarn stood with his hands behind his back. His expression was grave as he stared intently at the golden statue of the emperor. He muttered under his breath, "Someone has produced a causal relationship with the Yarn family. Who could it be?"

At the same time, a charming and sexy woman in a fiery red short dress walked in from outside the hall.

When the woman stepped into the hall, she first bowed to the golden statue of the emperor before she turned to look at the serious-looking Alliance Master Yarn. She said, "Alliance Master, our people have entered Mystic City in the northwest."

Alliance Master Yarn nodded indifferently and said, "Okay, let them act according to the plan. Also, send Joseph Burke over and let him operate in the dark."

“Joseph Burke?” The woman frowned as if she was trying to confirm Alliance Master Yarn’s order. “Alliance Master, if we send Joseph over, I’m worried that he won’t be able to control himself.”

Alliance Master Yarn said, “It’s exactly what I want. This time, Mystic City will be in chaos. If we mess it up even more, it’ll be beneficial to us.”

The woman nodded and left the hall respectfully.

Alliance Master Yarn still stood in the hall and looked at the golden statue of the emperor staring sternly ahead with a sword in his hand. He said emotionally, “My forefather, where’s the person whom you said can save the Yarn family? We’ve been waiting for 2,000 years...”

However, the golden statue made no response to Alliance Master Yarn’s question.

The woman who left the hall earlier walked to a side hall and stood in front of a slender man who radiated with chills.

The man crossed his arms, his eyes cold. He had two scimitars and a specially crafted pistol on his waist.

“Alliance Master Yarn wants you to go to Mystic City in the northwest immediately. Remember to proceed with caution. Don’t be too hasty, and don’t screw up the big plan!” The woman spoke with emphasis.

“I got it!”

The man turned around and left.

The woman shook her head helplessly and said, “I hope you can control your killing intent...”

Back to Philip, he was still studying the black-gold Imperial Decree in his hand. He could not figure it out. There was nothing special about it. It was just a token.

Philip remembered that Emperor Kai told him to enter the Imperial Palace, take his Dragon Sword, and protect the human race.

The Dragon Sword.

At this moment, the door was pushed open. Fennel walked in, saw the black-gold token in Philip’s hand, and asked with curiosity, “What’s that?”

Philip replied, "Just now, the starstone brought me into a space tunnel controlled by time and space rules. This should be the Imperial Decree given to me by Emperor Kai..."

Chapter 2875

Hiss!

Hearing that, Fennel gasped. He picked up the starstone from the table, looked at it, and asked, "Are you sure this starstone has the power to change time and space rules?"

Philip nodded and said seriously, "I'm sure. This is a token given to me by Emperor Kai. Check it out."

With that said, Philip handed the token to Fennel.

Fennel took it in his hand, glanced at it carefully, and said, "It's not an ordinary thing, indeed, and it does look like it's 2,000 years old. Are you sure this was given to you by Emperor Kai through the space tunnel?"

Philip nodded, still in disbelief. That was because this was too surreal. He was given an Imperial Decree through 2,000 years of time and space. This had completely surpassed all civilization systems that modern society had mastered. Only the second-class civilization could have such power.

Fennel nodded, looked at the starstone again, and said, "It seems that your grandfather is right. This starstone is indeed a piece of the stargate. Only the second-class civilization can have the power to change the rules of time and space."

Philip nodded and said, "But I don't understand why Emperor Kai gave me this thing."

Fennel frowned, thought about it, and said, "I don't know either, but he must have his reasons. After all, he was an emperor from 2,000 years ago, so his plans may not be the same as ours. Besides, Emperor Kai was a legendary figure himself. Who knows, maybe he had predicted that this would happen today."

Philip took a deep breath and decided to leave it alone for now. Suddenly, he thought of something and said, "By the way, I also saw some incredible images."

Then, Philip shared what he saw with Fennel. When he mentioned the golden gate logo that looked similar to the pearly gates, Fennel's expression became more and more serious.

"Are you saying that the Heavenly Court may be related to the mysterious existence behind the golden gate?" Fennel asked.

Philip nodded and said, "This is just my guess from what I saw just now. I don't know the actual situation either. After all, it's truly astounding to see such a huge spaceship that can only be built by modern technology during the tribal period. And when Emperor Kai led a million soldiers to fight against the creatures on the other shore, he used the Dragon Sword, which also has the symbol of this golden gate on it.."

"Do you think that Emperor Kai came into contact with that mysterious existence?"

After listening to Philip, Fennel stroked his chin and paced back and forth in the room. After pondering for a while, he said, "Maybe one person can answer these questions."

Hearing this, Philip was taken aback. Then, he thought of someone and said, "Lord Ludo?"

Fennel nodded.

The two said in tacit understanding, "Let's go and see Lord Ludo."

After that, the two left the hotel.

On this narrow street, Philip asked around randomly and found out about the residence of Lord Ludo.

"It seems that Lord Ludo is really a celebrity here," Philip said with a smile.

After that, the two walked to the hotel where Ludo stayed. This was the most luxurious hotel in Mystic City. A five-star hotel!

It felt like the shock of finding a large oasis in the desert.

After asking around, they found out that this hotel was actually invested in and built by Ludo. It was eight stories high and extremely luxurious with an open-air swimming pool. It was surrounded by commercial streets such as cafes and restaurants.

"Interesting..." Philip said. He stood at the door and stepped inside.

As soon as he entered the door, he was surprised by the luxurious atmosphere inside. However, Philip was used to seeing this. Without any change in his expression, he said, "Please inform Lord Ludo that Philip Clarke is here to see him."

Chapter 2876

The bodyguards in black suits guarding the hall had a black tattoo of the pearly gates on their necks. They glanced at Philip before talking into their headset. Then, they made an inviting gesture and said, "Mr. Clarke, please come with me."

Philip nodded and followed.

Fennel followed closely but was immediately stopped by the other party. The guard said, "Sir, I'm sorry, but Lord Ludo only invited Mr. Clarke!"

Hearing that, Fennel frowned and looked at Philip.

Philip thought about it and said, "Let me go in alone."

Fennel nodded and said, "Okay, be careful. I'll wait for you downstairs."

With that said, Fennel sat in the lobby.

Philip followed the bodyguard to an exclusive elevator and reached the top floor directly. Along the corridor, Philip found that the guards on this floor were on high alert.

After a body search, Philip finally stood in front of the largest and most luxurious suite.

The bodyguard said, "Mr. Clarke, please come in. Lord Ludo will be here soon."

Philip raised his eyebrows, pushed the door open, and walked inside.

Bang.

The door was closed.

Philip frowned, stood at the door, and observed the suite. It was very luxurious and spacious, overlooking half of Mystic City. More amazingly, there was an open-air infinity pool outside the large French windows.

"He really knows how to enjoy himself," Philip chuckled.

The décor in the room favored knight swords and sculptures that looked quite aggressive in nature, as well as battle weapons and such. It seemed that the owner of this room preferred brute force. However, Philip accidentally noticed a woman's black lacy intimate apparel on the big soft bed.

It was very sexy!

What was this?

Philip was startled.

Was Lord Ludo with a woman in this room?

Sounds of splashing water!

The movement of the infinity pool outside attracted Philip's attention. He looked out and saw a woman's head coming out of the pool like a water lily. Her long hair, sexy figure, and side profile were perfect. That seductive face of hers deserved full marks.

It was on par with Wynn's face!

The woman did not seem to notice Philip's intrusion as she swam. Every stroke was a masterpiece that was enough to fascinate thousands of men.

Philip could not help but gulp!

Gosh!

Lord Ludo really knew how to enjoy. Was this beautiful woman his mistress?

Philip walked to the balcony, coughed, and shouted, "Hey, excuse me. Where's Lord Ludo?"

The woman in the swimming pool was startled at the sudden male voice from the side.

She quickly dove into the water and only showed her face partially. She stared daggers at Philip with murderous intent.

"How did you get in?" The woman asked coldly, her voice melodious.

Philip was taken aback, scratched the back of his head, and said, "The bodyguard let me in. I'm looking for Lord Ludo."

The woman with half of her head above the water looked very cute, especially with her angry face that looked fiery hot.

"Y-You go out first."

The woman stretched out her slender arm from the water and pointed to the glass door.

Philip nodded awkwardly, turned around, left the open-air balcony, and returned to the room. After waiting for a long time, he heard light footsteps coming from behind him.

Poof!

A sound through the air!

Philip reacted quickly, turned his body sideways, raised his right hand, and grabbed the kick from the woman behind him. It felt smooth and cool to the touch!

Her charm was endless!

Chapter 2877

The woman angrily punched Philip again. Philip grabbed her punch with his left hand and said with a smile, "Fighting is boring. I can apologize to you, but I didn't know there'd be someone in here."

The woman with a beautiful face said coldly with angry eyes, "Let go!"

Philip let go, shrugged, and took two steps back.

The woman put her leg down, took two steps to the side, and suddenly attacked Philip with a violent kick. Philip did not dodge but accepted it. That was because he knew that if this woman did not hit him to vent her anger, she would not give up. Besides, he wanted to look for Lord Ludo.

Rubbing his chest, Philip said, "Are you done?"

The woman snorted coldly and walked to the bar. She poured herself a glass of red wine, looked at Philip seriously, and asked, "Why are you looking for Lord Ludo?"

Philip said with a smile, "I have some questions for him. I hope you can tell me where he is."

The woman's charming eyes darted around. She walked up to Philip with her hair still wet. She leaned close to Philip's chest and gently slid her fingers from his neck to his arms. She said seductively, "Lord Ludo isn't here now. Don't you have any thoughts about me?"

Philip looked down at her. To be frank, he was a man with some impulses. However, he was here to talk business.

"Please excuse me for bothering you. I'll take my leave," Philip turned to leave.

He wondered what Lord Ludo was up to.

Did he arrange for this beauty to be here so that he could ruin Philip's reputation?

"Stop!" Suddenly, the woman shouted coldly and said, "Wait here. I'll inform Lord Ludo."

After that, the woman turned and left the suite.

At the door, when the guards saw the woman walking out of the room in a bathrobe, they lowered their heads and dared not look at her!

Smack!

The woman raised her hand and slapped one of the bodyguards. She said solemnly, "I told you to bring him to the room next door. Why did you bring him here?"

The bodyguard bowed humbly and said, "I'm sorry, Young Miss, it's my fault! Please punish me!"

"Go back and stay in the punishment hall for seven days!" The woman said coldly and walked to the next room.

Soon, a handsome young man in a black plaid suit walked out from the next room and appeared at the door. It was Lord Ludo.

He coughed and said in a genderless voice, "Open the door."

The door was pushed open.

When Lord Ludo walked into the room, he saw Philip looking at his room. He said coldly, "Why the sudden visit, Young Patriarch Clarke?"

Philip turned around with a smile. However, Philip felt a little uncomfortable when he first came into contact with Ludo's gaze.

What was going on? He felt that Ludo was angry with him.

"Lord Ludo, I'm here to find out something from you," Philip said.

Ludo sat down with his right arm resting on the back of the sofa. He looked very dashing like this. He said with a smile, "I don't think we have anything to talk about."

Philip smiled and said, "I wonder if you've seen this symbol before."

After saying that, Philip took out a drawing of the golden gate he had prepared beforehand and handed it to Lord Ludo.

Chapter 2878

Ludo frowned and looked at the piece of paper handed over by Philip. He stretched out his fair hand and took it. Philip frowned at the sight.

Ludo had delicate skin, just like a woman's.

Ludo was not bothered about Philip's gaze as his attention was fully attracted by the drawing of the golden gate given by Philip. In an instant, his expression became extremely nervous and excited. He stared at Philip and asked, "Where did you see this?"

Hearing that, Philip knew he was on to something. He asked, "Do you recognize this?"

Ludo realized that he had lost his composure and quickly came back to his senses. He sat upright on the sofa and said, "You may be shocked by what I'm going to say next."

Hearing that, Philip said gravely, "What do you mean?"

Ludo said darkly and profoundly, "If I told you that the symbol of this golden gate represents the real Heavenly Court while we're just a small part of that supreme organization, what would you think?"

Hiss!

Hearing this, Philip frowned and stared at Ludo in disbelief.

This was the real Heavenly Court?

The organization with the symbol of the pearly gates that Ludo belonged to was only just a small part of the real Heavenly Court?

It was truly terrifying!

In that case, if what he saw in the space tunnel was true, then the real Heavenly Court had existed since the tribal period. Moreover, they had highly developed technology. It was the technology of the second civilization even!

Was this an extraterrestrial civilization?

Could it be that the Heavenly Court came from the other shore behind the stargate?

No way!

During the time of Emperor Kai, he led an army of one million to fight against hundreds of thousands of creatures from the other shore. The Dragon Sword in his band also had the symbol of the golden gate. In other words, the Heavenly Court and the creatures from the other shore were not on the same side.

In that instant, Philip's mind raced as his thoughts became very confused.

Seeing Philip's expression, Ludo chuckled and said, "It seems that you've found out some things that you shouldn't know. Although I don't know where you saw this golden gate symbol, I have to remind you not to take any action on our Heavenly Court. Even if we're just a separate part of the real Heavenly Court, in front of an ancient existence such as ours, you and the Clarke family behind you or even the whole world are just our test objects. "

"What did you say?" Philip was shocked!

Did Ludo say that the whole world was just their test objects?

Ludo got up, crossed his arms, looked at Philip calmly, and said, "Heavenly Court is a system in the second civilization, which has been passed down for tens of thousands of years. Don't look at me with such shock. Although we're just a separate part of the real Heavenly Court and can never reach that height, the technological power and strength of disciples we have are definitely beyond your imagination!"

Philip's face darkened as he looked at Ludo. He could not tell how much of Ludo's words were true.

The real Heavenly Court had been passed down for tens of thousands of years. That was simply unbelievable!

Chapter 2879

However, it was consistent with what Philip had seen in the space tunnel.

"Lord Ludo, you don't have to scare me. Right now, what I want to know is useful information about the real Heavenly Court and you," Philip said.

Ludo raised his eyebrows and said, "Why should I tell you?"

Philip had expected that the other party would say this and said, "Don't you want to contact the real Heavenly Court?"

Hearing this, Ludo looked at Philip seriously before he said, "It seems that you've had contact with them."

Philip thought for a moment and smiled meaningfully. If what he saw in the space tunnel was considered making contact, so be it.

After a moment of silence, Ludo turned around, stood in front of the large French windows, and said, "In fact, I've never seen the real Heavenly Court. I only know about it from some materials and elders. Our world has been abandoned by the Heavenly Court. Back then, we were nothing more than a group of people left by the Heavenly Court to guard this world. Later, Heavenly Court abandoned this world, and we began to search for its footsteps. After thousands of years, we finally managed to progress this far."

"Young Patriarch Clarke, there are too many things in this world that laymen like you can't understand. Now, can you tell me where you saw this?"

Philip came back to his senses, glanced at Ludo, and said, "If I said that I saw it by accident, what would you do?"

Hearing that, Ludo's face darkened. A chill flashed in the corner of his eyes as he said, "Did you trick me?"

Philip shrugged and said, "Not really. Let me ask you another question."

Ludo's expression became extremely ugly. He took a deep breath and said, "Spit it out!"

"Is it your fake Heavenly Court that the Clarke family had withdrawn from back then?" Philip asked.

"Preposterous!" Ludo shouted angrily, his face slightly red. He scolded, "We're not the fake Heavenly Court! How dare you disrespect us?!"

Philip quickly said, "Okay, I made a mistake. I apologize..."

This guy had a bad temper and would get angry at every turn.

Lord Ludo said coldly, "That's right. Back then, the Clarke family was just one of the families we supported. No one expected the Clarke family to produce Roger Clarke, the most amazing genius of the millennium. He got out of our control and became our biggest enemy!"

Huff!

Hearing this, Philip took a deep breath. He guessed it right.

"My mother was in charge of your Heavenly Court back then. I want to know some things about my mother," Philip said.

"Enough! I've answered one of your questions!" Ludo was angry, and his face was stern. It seemed that as long as Philip dared to ask another question, he would go all out!

Philip shrugged and said, "Okay."

Philip was about to say something when suddenly, he saw a small fully armed drone hovering over the infinity open-air swimming pool. Moreover, the muzzle of the gun was aimed at Lord Ludo!

"Watch out!"

Philip shouted and rushed over without another thought. He toppled Ludo to the floor, flipped over with him a few times, and they hid behind the bed!

Rat-tat-tat!

Bang, bang, bang!

Bullets fired and glass shattered! The furniture in the room was engulfed in an instant!

Lord Ludo was totally shocked silly, and his face was pale. He snuggled in Philip's arms and clutched his clothes tightly. Philip's eyes were cold, and he was not bothered about Lord Ludo next to him.

He could feel the power of rules on those bullets. This was a weapon specifically aimed at disciples!

The buzzing sound of the drone still rang in his ears. Philip was about to get up when Ludo grabbed him. He stated at Philip pitifully, shook his head, and said, "Don't go out."

'What the heck?! Is Lord Ludo not a man? Why did he look like a helpless woman now?'

Wait a minute!

Whoa!

This small waist, this figure... Philip felt as if his hand had touched an unusual place...

Chapter 2880

Philip was startled and looked at Ludo nervously.

Lord Ludo looked down at Philip's hand, and his face flushed red immediately...

Smack!

A crisp slap resounded throughout the suite!

A few minutes later, the drone got shot down, and Lord Ludo crossed his arms angrily. He glared at Philip who had a few slap prints on his cheeks and warned, "If you dare to reveal my identity, I'll tear you apart!"

Philip felt aggrieved. He rubbed his burning cheek and said, "Wait a minute, you're a woman, so why do you dress up as a man?"

"It has nothing to do with you!" Lord Ludo shouted angrily.

Philip grumbled under his breath and suddenly thought of something. He said with surprise, "Oh, I remember. Were you in the pool..."

"Shut up!" Lord Ludo glared at Philip and picked up the fruit knife as if he was going all out!

Philip quickly backed away and said, "Okay, geez! A gentleman doesn't fight with a lady. I'll help you keep it a secret."

Lord Ludo glared at Philip and said, "Remember what you said. If I find out that you didn't keep your promise, I'll kill you!"

Philip raised his eyebrows and asked, "I'm curious. Who wants to kill you?"

Hearing that, Lord Ludo scowled and said, "This isn't something you should know. It's my business."

Philip shrugged and said, "Then let me take a guess. Is it someone from your Heavenly Court? You seem to have such a high status there that they don't hesitate to kill you here."

Seeing Philip sitting nonchalantly on the sofa, Lord Ludo scowled fiercely. However, he glanced at him and said, "It has nothing to do with you! Please leave!"

Philip said, "Okay then, but we can work together. I hope you'll think about it."

With that said, Philip left with his hands in his trouser pockets.

After Philip left, Lord Ludo's face flushed red. He stomped angrily and said, "Damn Philip! I won't let you go!"

Especially when he thought of Philip's lecherous hands, Lord Ludo stomped his feet in anger. He fell on the bed and stared at the ceiling blankly.

A strange feeling flowed in Lord Ludo's heart. However, he soon got up and said, "Get in here!"

A bodyguard came in and asked respectfully, "Young Miss, what are your orders?"

"Don't tell my father about today's assassination attempt! If any news leaks out, your heads will roll!" Lord Ludo said coldly.

He, or precisely she, already knew who was behind this.

"Yes!" The bodyguard left the room.

Back to Philip's side. After he left the room, he saw Fennel in the lobby. As soon as Fennel saw him, his gaze became a little subtle. He asked, "What happened to your face?"

Philip rubbed his cheek and said, "It's nothing. Let's go back."

Fennel shrugged, and the two returned to the hotel.

A group of people had gathered around. Philip told everyone about the starstone and Emperor Kai, as well as the information he obtained from Lord Ludo.

“Are you saying that the Heavenly Court we’re in contact with now is just a branch of the real Heavenly Court? The real Heavenly Court is already the second civilization and probably not in this world?” Fennel asked solemnly.

Philip nodded and said, “It’s possible. Lord Ludo doesn’t have a reason to lie to me. Besides, based on the images I saw, it’s in line with what he said.”
