

The First Heir Chapter 2931 - 2935

Chapter 2931

[Target: The early stage of the seventh zone, fire attribute!]

Hiss!

Everyone gasped. Sure enough, it was the strength of the seventh zone. Although only in the early stage, Philip and the others were no match for such a creature at all. Facing a creature from the other shore, they could not win even if they were at the same level.

That was the gap between different species!

As they were still in amazement at the strength of this creature, a loud commotion suddenly came from the depths of the stone forest. Scorching airwaves erupted one after another. Although Philip and his party were at the edge of the stone forest, they sensed that the creature in the depths of the stone forest seemed angry. It was as if something had broken into its territory and made it mad.

Boom!

Immediately after, they heard the sounds of collapsing stones in the stone forest. The ground shook terrifyingly.

They looked at each other, and Moses said wryly, "It can't be because of us, right?"

The others also looked exasperated. Although no one wanted to admit it, from the current situation, it should be the case.

Roar!

Suddenly, a thunderous roar resounded through the world. Immediately after, a huge body wiggled and crashed through the depths of the stone forest in front of them. Countless stone pillars were smashed into the ground with loud rumbles just like collapsed high-rise buildings.

The sound was deafening! The whole ground began to shake violently!

Philip and the others looked ahead intently and saw that the huge figure in the depths of the stone forest was fiery red and covered with red scales.

Roar!

Suddenly, a gigantic snake head with two fiery red horns popped out from the depths of the stone forest with its jaws wide open in a loud roar.

The gigantic snake head was as big as a basketball court. Its two fiery red eyes were bigger than lanterns. The horns on its head glowed red, and the scales on its body seemed like they were burning.

A gigantic snake with a fire attribute!

No, to be precise, it was a giant snake that was about to transform into a dragon. Those huge jaws roared incessantly and sprayed scorching airwaves that filled the air. A pair of fiery eyes the size of lanterns looked down at Philip and the others condescendingly with its tongue spitting in and out constantly. The thick snake body as long as 100 meters hovered above several stone pillars. The scales on its body were also an exceptionally bright and fiery red color with a scorching aura!

Everyone looked up at the huge extraterrestrial beast in front of them.

The diagnostic device in Ludo's hand had collected samples and analyzed the results.

[Target: Fire Serpent.]

[Statez Evolution state, extremely irritable.]

[Overall combat power: Five stars.]

An overall evaluation of five stars!

This was the highest level of combat power evaluation among all creatures from the other shore collected by Heavenly Court. Creatures like these were very powerful and had very strong growth value. Once it evolved into a dragon, its combat power would skyrocket.

Lord Ludo panicked. She knew how high the five-star overall combat power rating was. In the Heavenly Court database, there were no more than 10 different creatures with a five-star combat rating. Now, they actually encountered one!

"What should we do?" Lord Ludo asked anxiously.

Philip and the others got ready to fight and said, "Back off slowly and get away from its territory."

They had no choice. A fire serpent at the early stage of the seventh zone was not something Philip and the others could take on now!

They began to back off slowly.

That huge fiery snake hissed and stared intently at them. At this moment, in the eyes of the snake which was like an infrared monitoring device, the energy on these people had different levels.

Philip and Fennel displayed the brightest red!

Roar!

The snake roared and pounced on Philip and Fennel. That huge snake body also crashed into more than a dozen stone pillars with a scorching hot wind!

“Run!” Philip shouted and everyone quickly dispersed.

Boom!

The big snake head hit the ground and blasted a huge deep pit, sending smoke and dust flying.

Philip and the others also escaped a few hundred meters away!

“What’s its weakness?” Philip asked.

Lord Ludo hid behind him, looked at the device, and finally shouted in despair, “No... N-None. It has no weaknesses...”

Chapter 2932

No weaknesses?

Philip and the others were stunned and quickly retreated.

The huge fiery snake spat out its tongue, opened its jaws, sprayed scorching airwaves, and roared at them, expressing its anger for breaking into its territory!

Roar!

This roar resounded throughout the world and shattered all the nearby stone pillars in the forest. Philip and the others quickly ran away because they could not put up a fight at all. It was impossible to go up against a creature from the other shore with the strength of the seventh zone if they were not at least at the mid or late stage of the seventh zone. Moreover, it was a creature from the other shore with no weaknesses.

While running, Lord Ludo quickly analyzed the flaming snake with the device in her hand. The device analyzed the snake from head to toe more than 10 times but the conclusion was still that it had no weaknesses.

Seeing this, Lord Ludo was a little desperate.

At this moment, the huge red body of the snake swayed from the stone pillar and jumped into the air. The first half of its body soared up before pouncing in front of Philip and the others, blocking their escape. They quickly stopped and took out their weapon, ready for battle.

The snake's body was covered in red armor that looked like it was burning, exuding scorching airwaves.

Roar!

With a sharp roar, the snake opened its jaws and spewed a wave of heat that was as hot as lava, engulfing Philip and the others.

Philip was shocked by such an attack power. He quickly stepped forward, opened his arms, activated the strongest power of rules, and used the power of water attribute.

Splash!

Suddenly, a huge wave gushed out in front of Philip that was dozens of meters high. It rushed at the lava heat wave spewed by the fiery snake.

Boom!

An earth-shattering explosion!

The red lava heat wave collided with the blue water waves, and an extremely terrifying energy fluctuation exploded. In a flash, the water evaporated and the lava cooled down.

The air was full of white water vapor!

On the side, Moses saw the opportunity, used the power of his attributes, and grabbed the water vapor in the air with both hands. In an instant, cold air gushed from his palms. The white water vapor also condensed into sharp ice spikes in an instant.

"Fire!" Moses pushed his hands into the air and shouted.

The ice spikes launched toward the Fire Serpent in an instant. The air was full of ice spikes and formed a shocking picture!

Chapter 2933

Clink, clink, clink!

The endless ice spikes fired at the snake's huge body. However, the fiery red armor on the snake seemed indestructible. All the ice spikes were either shattered or evaporated upon crashing onto the armor.

Roar!

With a loud roar, the snake seemed infuriated by their retaliation. It twisted its huge body and swung its tail at Philip and the others.

Like steel armor, its indestructible fiery red scale armor rolled up a strong gust of wind with scorching airwaves!

“Retreat!” Philip roared and everyone quickly backed away.

However, Lord Ludo was a little slow on the uptake. Philip had no choice but to rush to his side, pick Lord Ludo up, and quickly retreated. But, they were still a tad too late. The huge snake tail slammed on Philip’s back!

Boom!

A muffled sound. Philip was sent flying hundreds of meters away. He hugged Ludo tightly, and the two tumbled dozens of times on the ground before they finally stopped.

Pfft!

Philip let go of Ludo and spat a mouthful of blood!

At the critical moment, the metallic shield that appeared on his back was also shattered by the huge snake tail. If not for this metallic shield, Philip would have been beaten to death just now.

Seeing Philip spitting a mouthful of blood, Lord Ludo hurried forward, took out the pill container from earlier, took a pill out, and shoved it in Philip’s mouth. She asked anxiously, “Are you alright?”

Philip swallowed the pill in one gulp and wiped the blood on the corner of his mouth. With eyes that were about to spit fire, he got up and glared at the fiery snake roaring in the sky.

The Fire Serpent’s lantern-sized vertical eyes stared at the few tiny humans on the ground.

“Damn humans, how dare you trespass my territory? I want to crush you to bits!” Suddenly, the snake spoke, screaming at Philip and the others fiercely.

Hearing the snake speak, Philip and the others were dumbfounded for a long time before they could react.

“This beast can actually speak human words!” Moses was extremely nervous. This was beyond his comprehension.

Lord Ludo explained, "This is a five-star beast from the other shore. They can speak as soon as they reach adulthood. It can be considered a basic trait, which should be the result of spiritual enlightenment."

Hearing this, Philip frowned as he stared at the flaming snake with its huge body erect. He shouted coldly, "We have no intention of trespassing in your territory. We don't want to fight you. We just need to pass through."

Roar!

The snake roared as flames burst from its mouth. The huge body slowly bent over, and the huge snake head with horns went very close to Philip. It was only a few meters away from him. Then, with a tone that could melt everything, it spat its tongue out at Philip and said, "How dare a humble and insignificant human being like you speak to me like this? I haven't eaten human flesh for a thousand years. Today, you guys will make me do!"

A thousand years? This Fire Serpent had been trapped here for a thousand years?

Hearing this, Philip stared at the snake coldly and said, "Are you sure you can defeat us?"

Roar!

The snake roared and said, "Puny human, you're just in the mid-stage of the sixth zone. Do you dare to fight me?"

With that said, terrifying pressure and the power of rules suddenly poured out of Philip. A platinum sword of kingship appeared in the sky. The five-colored sources of kingship shone brightly!

Seeing this scene, the snake's pupils constricted. It roared at the platinum sword of kingship and said angrily, "Sword of kingship! You're actually a kingship holder!"

Then, the snake looked down from above and stared daggers at Philip. In the other hand, Philip was ready for battle at this moment, and his body was full of fighting intent!

The snake stared at Philip, laughed, and said, "A kingship holder! Hahaha! Food that turned up at my doorstep is just enough to make up for the mistakes of those humans for trapping me here for a thousand years!"

Roar!

In a flash, the snake spewed out a wave of lava that engulfed Philip and the others!

Philip activated his aura to the max and jumped into the air. He put his hands together, formed a longsword solidified from the air in his hands, and slashed at the hot wave of lava spewed out by the fiery snake.

The sword was as big as three thousand feet!

Chapter 2934

The huge sword energy slashed out by Philip split the lava wave spewed out by the fiery snake. The sword that was three thousand feet long split the lava. The lava spewed by the fiery snake was slashed into two and fell from the sky like lava rain!

Fiery energy poured out of Philip in an instant and formed a layer of chimera armor on his body surface. A flaming chimera clad in metallic armor soared into the air with a roar and breathed fire, staring at the snake with anger and hostility.

At that moment, Philip seemed to sense the tremendous anger and fighting intent of the fire chimera. It was as if the fiery snake in front was a deadly rival.

Seeing the fire chimera by Philip's side, the snake's eyes widened and burned with anger. It roared to the sky as the scaly armor on its body stood on end, forming a fiery mirror that reflected a scorching red glow!

"A fire chimera willing to become a slave of mankind is a traitor to the other shore!"

The Fire Serpent suddenly roared, seemingly ashamed of the fire chimera beside Philip.

Philip instantly understood the snake's meaning. It actually knew the fire chimera. Moreover, from the snake's tone, the fire chimera was also from the other shore!

What the hell was going on here?

The fire chimera was one of the sources of kingship. Could it be that the source of kingship came from the other shore?

Wait a minute! All sources of kingship seemed to contain a beast!

In that case...

Philip seemed to have thought of something in an instant, but the fiery snake in front of him did not give Philip a chance to think further. With a roar, it twisted its huge body and pounced on Philip.

Philip was forced to fight. With a longsword in his hand and while wearing metallic armor, he rode on the fire chimera and faced the attack. The fire chimera exploded with unprecedented fighting intent as the flames on its four hooves and head burned vigorously!

Roar!

The fire chimera roared, stomped on its four flaming hooves, and soared into the air while spewing fire at the snake. Not to be outdone, the snake held its body erect and opened its jaws wide, revealing the ambition and ferocity of an extraterrestrial beast. It spewed lava waves that tried to engulf the fire chimera.

In the air, the huge falling wave of lava was enough to burn the space into distortion.

In the face of such a ferocious battle, Fennel and the others quickly retreated!

“Is there really no weakness?” Fennel asked anxiously.

With the device in her hand, Lord Ludo analyzed it over and over again. She was almost in tears, but she still shouted, “No, there’s no weakness at all. It’s a five-star beast, very powerful by nature!”

Hearing this, Fennel and the others were despondent. A beast with no weaknesses with the strength of the seventh zone was not something they could resist.

Now that Philip’s aura was at its peak and with the enhancement of the sources of kingship, he could fight on par with the snake for the time being. However, everyone could see that Philip was at a disadvantage and was quickly losing ground.

The snake’s every attack was earth-shattering!

Rumble!

Gravel flew, the stone forest collapsed, and the ground cracked. Under the earth, lava erupted and engulfed this vast surface.

Fennel and the others quickly found a stone mountain to settle down for the time being. The ground around them was mottled and cracked with bubbling lava in the cracks.

Chapter 2935

This was the fiery snake’s territory. It lived on top of a layer of lava.

Roar!

The snake roared in the air, twisted its huge body, and tightly wrapped itself around the fire chimera. That huge jaw opened and bit the back of the fire chimera’s neck. The fire chimera howled in pain as big drops of fire sprayed. It was the fire chimera’s fresh blood.

Roar!

Miserable screams!

Philip's eyes turned red as he jumped into the air, full of fighting intent. One after another, he slashed fiery waves of sword energy right at the snake's body.

Clink, clang!

However, the snake's scale armor blocked all attacks!

Swish!

The huge snake's tail swept across with tremendous force and slammed heavily on Philip's stomach, which sent him flying hundreds of meters away. He crashed through numerous stone pillars.

Rumble!

Stone pillars collapsed, and Philip fell amid the rubble. Lord Ludo shouted anxiously, "Philip!"

Seeing this, Fennel activated his power of kingship and soared into the sky with the red dragon halberd in his hand. One after another, red sparks were fired. At the same time, a red dragon soared into the air, roaring and rushing toward the fiery snake.

The snake flung the chimera away from its mouth, roared at the red dragon, and pounced.

In the air, Fennel activated the Battle God Mode and fought with the snake. The others also attacked, trying to create opportunities for Fennel. On the other hand, Lord Ludo took the opportunity and ran to Philip's side, where he was buried in rubble. She moved the pieces away one at a time.

"Philip, come out! "Philip!"

Lord Ludo's eyes were filled with tears from anxiety.

"Philip, Philip!"

Lord Ludo found Philip's arm and dragged him out of the rubble.

At this moment, Philip was covered in blood, and his aura was sluggish. The platinum sword of kingship in the sky was also fading in and out.

Seeing this scene, Lord Ludo gritted her teeth as if she had made a decision. Then, she leaned over and kissed Philip's bloody lips. At that moment, dazzling golden rays of light erupted from Lord Ludo's heart!

It was like a ball of gold!

Thump, thump, thump!

The sound of a heartbeat!

The ball of golden light traveled along Lord Ludo's heart and neck, out of her mouth, and into Philip's body!

Boom!

At this time, a black-red ball of light in Philip's heart engulfed the ball of golden light. Then, the ball of light emitted three different colors of red, black, and gold.

Boom!

A huge blood-red ball of light wrapped around Philip. Lord Ludo was also sent flying away by the black-red ball of light.

A golden glow flickered inside the black-red ball of light from time to time. At that moment, the world lost all color. In the sky, thick dark clouds began to pour in from all directions. More terrifyingly, the tremendous power of lightning flashed across the thick clouds. Strong winds blew and dust billowed. Then, the energy that leaked in the air converged like a vortex and poured into the black-red ball of light in Philip's chest.

Some of it also poured into the golden imprint of the royal monster on Philip's arm.

A drastic change came over the whole alternate space!

All the other groups fighting on the battlefields noticed an extremely powerful presence that appeared in the air at this moment.

This presence instantly spread through the alternate space!
