

The First Heir Chapter 2936 - 2940

Chapter 2936

“What happened? Such a powerful aura suddenly appeared here!”

In a certain space, a group of people was fighting against beasts. They stopped attacking and looked in a certain direction.

An aura that soared to the sky exploded there!

The beasts in front of them trembled and prostrated on the ground in that direction. The beasts felt terror from the depths of their hearts. It was the presence of the royal family!

It was their emperor!

In another layer of alternate space, Hugh Woods and his people had just killed an extraterrestrial beast on the other shore at the peak of the sixth zone.

At this moment, a skyrocketing aura shocked all of them!

The middle-aged man beside Hugh stood with his hands behind his back, his profound eyes shining brightly at this moment as if he could see through several layers of alternate space at Philip's position.

He asked darkly, “Is it a breakthrough of the realms?”

Hugh frowned and asked, “Uncle Samuel, what do you see?”

The middle-aged man frowned and said solemnly, “I can't see clearly. Many powerful auras shield the rules here, and I can't see through them, but I can see a vague outline.”

Hearing that, Hugh's heart skipped a beat. He thought that this place must be really bizarre that even Uncle Samuel could not see through it.

The middle-aged man said, “He's about to advance, and he'll be your biggest enemy in the future...”

“Who?” Hugh asked with dissatisfaction in his eyes.

The middle-aged man said, “I'm not sure. I'll know who it is when it's over. You must remember that the other party's potential is very huge. Although I can only see a little outline, the other party gives me a very bad feeling. The rules of cause and effect wrapped around the outline are too strong. Although not fully formed yet, it's shocking enough!”

“Uncle Samuel, are you serious?” Hugh asked.

The middle-aged man nodded and said, “Be prepared... Let’s continue...”

After that, this group of people continued to move toward the depths. At this moment, in other layers of the alternate space, all the other beasts from the other shore felt the aura that made their souls tremble.

Their emperor had returned!

An earth-shattering roar resounded throughout the alternate space. The barrier between each layer of the alternate space seemed like it was about to collapse. Even some powerful beings trapped in the depths of the alternate space felt the aura of the emperor. However, they merely roared in response without much action. That was because it was an underaged emperor, not enough to pose a threat to them yet.

Back to Philip’s side.

Philip was completely surrounded by the black-red ball of light that flickered with a golden glow. Endless energy and the power of rules from all around swarmed like a tide, pouring into the ball of light.

The sky changed and the earth collapsed!

In the air, Fennel and the others who were still fighting the Fire Serpent stopped attacking at this moment.

The snake kept spitting its tongue out, and the scales all over its body stood on end. It became extremely grumpy and furious. That was because it felt an aura from the black-red ball of light that made it want to prostrate and worship!

It was the emperor’s aura!

Chapter 2937

Roar!

The snake roared and could no longer withstand that aura. It opened its jaw wide and pounced on the ball of light. It wanted to swallow the aura that made it fearful!

Crack!

However, suddenly, there was a sound of cracking in the air. The ball of light was shattering, and a golden light shot out constantly amid the black and red.

Roar!

The snake was stunned for a moment before it roared and spewed out a huge mouthful of lava, trying to engulf the ball of light!

However...

Boom!

A figure soared into the sky with supreme pressure and an energy storm!

“Slash!” An angry roar resounded through the sky. The figure flowed with the power of invincible rules.

At that moment, the world lost all color. All the energy and the power of rules turned into a huge longsword that was hundreds of meters long. It fell from the sky with terrifying sword intent and slashed at the huge fiery snake.

Rumble!

In a flash, the sword fell on the huge snake’s body. The longsword shattered the steel-like scales on the snake’s body.

Crack!

The scales on the snake shattered and fell like raindrops in streams of light.

Ow!

At the same time, an angry howl resounded throughout the sky. The snake’s huge body was slashed and flew hundreds of meters away. One of the horns on the head, as big as a small hill, was cut off diagonally by the huge longsword and fell to the ground with a bang.

Boom!

The earth shook. The snake’s huge body fell to the ground, the whole ground shaking violently. The sky was full of smoke and dust.

In the sky, the figure that was bathed in flames hovered in the air with supreme pressure. It seemed as if he was the only person in this world. This aura and power of rules belonged to the seventh zone.

Philip had stepped into the realm of the seventh zone!

Endless energy began to surge from all around, constantly pouring into Philip’s body, healing his injuries and solidifying his realm. At that moment, the five-colored sources of kingship on the platinum sword of kingship in the sky became brighter and brighter. Moreover, the mark of a powerful being appeared in this world!

Roar!

Amid the smoke, the snake spewed a huge lava wave at Philip.

Philip frowned and turned into a shadow. Then, he punched out a chimera fist right at the snake's head!

Boom!

The punch blew half of the snake's head into smithereens! A devastating energy storm erupted between the two!

Meanwhile, in Mystic Cave in the outside world. Claus Motley and Windsor Well felt the aura in Mystic Cave almost at the same time.

"The seventh zone!" Claus stood up in shock with uncontrollable joy on his face.

On the other hand, Windsor's face was gloomy. He clenched his fist and sighed. Plans were about to change.

At the same time, several figures wearing black armor with a golden dragon branded on their chests quickly walked into the challenge grounds of Mystic Cave.

Seeing this team of black-armored guards, Claus and Windsor hurriedly got up and greeted them.

"What are your orders?" Claus asked respectfully.

The man in the lead was none other than the middle-aged man who appeared on the battlefield after Philip and Nightingale fought the last time.

He said coldly, "The first Dragon King orders everyone to be prepared for battle. A change has happened in Mystic Cave. Cracks have appeared in the passage and we need to prevent the invasion of creatures from the other shore!"

Chapter 2938

"What? Cracks have appeared in the passage?"

Claus and Windsor stood up in shock at the same time. This was huge!

Once this went out of control, the tragedy that happened decades ago would repeat itself. At that time, creatures from the other shore would invade this world on a large scale, and humankind would be doomed!

“How did this happen all of a sudden?” Claus asked with a frown.

The middle-aged man in black armor said, “According to the monitoring data, a royal monster has appeared in the alternate space and awakened the royal beasts of other layers. If any changes come over them, it’ll be difficult to resist based on the current defensive forces of Mystic City. Therefore, the two of you must get ready as soon as possible. Evacuate the nearby crowd, organize the forces, and carry out the defense.”

Claus nodded and said anxiously, “I’ll make arrangements now. Thanks for the information.”

The middle-aged man in black armor nodded and left quickly.

After the other party left, Claus said to Windsor, “Dragon King Well, it’s time for us to work together.”

Windsor’s face darkened as he said, “I understand.”

With that said, Windsor left.

Seeing Windsor leave, Claus exhaled heavily, looked in the direction of Mystic Cave, and said, “Is it because of you?”

Meanwhile, far away in Cochly Mountain, snow fell heavily. Behind the steel city wall that sprawled across a huge canyon in Cochly Mountain, several teams of infantry had gathered at this moment. All of them were fully armed warriors with special equipment.

At the forefront of these teams, several teams of infantry made up of disciples stood under the snowy sky, all of them with high spirits and grim faces.

On a high platform in front of them, a burly middle-aged man with an electronic loudspeaker in his hand and four guards with guns standing behind him shouted loudly, “Everyone, listen up! There’s a crack in the tunnel of Mystic Cave, and there’s a high possibility that the creatures from the other shore will invade! You’ve trained a hundred times, a thousand times, even 10,000 times! Today, it’s time to prove yourself! For glory, for the human race, and for your family! This inevitable event must be fought to the end!”

“Fight! Fight! Fight!”

“Fight! Fight! Fight!”

Under the sky, in the heavy snow, roars that came from the depths of the soul resounded in all directions. This was lofty ambition, an oath to the death!

The middle-aged man's sharp eyes swept across everyone before he raised his fist, pressed it against his chest, and roared, "My soldiers, for glory, let's go!"

Rumble!

The huge steel city wall gate slowly opened. Outside, armored vehicles were already waiting on both sides of the road.

Dozens of helipads nearby were also full of transport planes. All the soldiers and disciples equipped with special weapons set off at this moment. They stepped out the gates and got on the armored vehicles and transport planes in an orderly manner.

Rumble!

The propeller of the transport planes roared and took off in unison like dragonflies in the snowy mountains. On the vast land, armored vehicles set off to Mystic City in the northwest.

Surging fighting spirit! Soaring battle intent!

This scene was enough to go down in history!

Chapter 2939

For glory and humankind, they embarked on this journey!

In the Nonagon's data research institute, a group of people was extremely busy. The satellite monitoring data was displayed on the electronic screen.

"Deputy Consul, a lot of energy fluctuations have been detected in Mystic City in the northwest. According to the news from the other party, there's a crack in the passage that connects the stargate to the other shore!" A staff member shouted nervously at this moment.

"Deploy our manpower immediately and issue the Nonagon's Order to recall all disciples out on missions. Organize all the existing forces and guard Mystic City and the various customs clearance gates in the north, south, and east!" Cooper said coldly.

In the face of such a crisis, he must make a decision!

"Yes, sir!"

In an instant, the Nonagon issued the Nonagon's Order to recall all the disciples and armed forces outside.

The lighthouse on the top floor of the Nonagon building turned red. This was the signal for the highest state of battle. At the same time, the four supremes also received an Imperial Decree from the Imperial Palace.

Everyone rushed to the battlefield!

The entire country entered the highest state of defense.

A change in the Mystic Cave! A crisis of humankind!

The Imperial Preceptor stood in the Imperial Palace at this moment, looking up at the patio at the top of the palace at the stars that filled the sky. He was constantly predicting something.

“Issue an Imperial Decree to protect all citizens in this country at all costs!”

In the outside world, a storm was brewing. Even so, the common people still lived and worked in peace and contentment, totally unaware of the situation.

Back to the alternate space in Mystic Cave.

At this moment, Philip punched out at the Fire Serpent’s head and body!

The scaly armor on the snake’s body shattered under the attack, revealing its soft body that was covered in blood. The snake screamed in pain and spewed a wave of lava at Philip.

Philip soared to the sky with Fennel’s red dragon halberd, turning into a streak of red-gold light. He split the lava wave apart and pierced through the wide jaws of the snake.

Roar!

The snake screamed, and its huge head slammed to the ground, knocking down a row of stone pillars.

Philip hovered in the air with the red dragon halberd, exuding compelling fighting intent. He slowly landed and walked up to the snake. At this moment, the scales on the snake’s body were shattered, half its head was gone, and a hole was blasted through its mouth. An endless stream of blood gushed from its injuries.

Huff, huff!

The snake breathed weakly and watched as the tiny human approached.

“Humble human, why do you have the aura of royalty on you?” the snake asked indignantly.

'The aura of royalty?'

Philip looked down at his arm. The golden mark there seemed to have become more obvious.

Seeing the golden mark, the snake seemed extremely frightened. It trembled violently all over with fear that came from the depths of its soul!

"W-White Marsh! It's actually the royal White Marsh family!"

The Fire Serpent screamed in horror, and its huge eyes gradually went slack. The moment the snake died, an electronic screen appeared above the alternate space and a voice broadcasted, "Congratulations to the sixth battlefield for killing a Fire Serpent with the strength of the seventh zone! 10,000 points will be awarded, and you now have a total of 14,700 points!"

"Congratulations to the sixth battlefield for taking first place after the ranking update!"

Chapter 2940

Every layer of the alternate space received this voice broadcast.

"Congratulations to the sixth battlefield for taking first place!"

When Hugh Woods and his party heard this voice broadcast as they headed into the depths, they were stunned for a moment as their faces darkened.

"Who's on the sixth battlefield? They're actually strong enough to kill a creature with the strength of the seventh zone!"

Hugh was solemn when he saw that their first position was suddenly taken over by the sixth battlefield. He never paid attention to the sixth battlefield at first because its ranking was too low at the beginning. However, when he looked at the electronic screen now, he suddenly saw the names of the people on the sixth battlefield...

Philip Clarke, Fennel Leigh, Moses Dunley, Layla Nolan...

"Layla? It's them!" Hugh immediately scowled and clenched his fists.

Samuel Woods also took a glance, shook his head, and said with a sigh, "It seems that the fluctuation just now was caused by them. Someone among them has reached the strength of the seventh zone. We have to reach the final point as soon as possible! The ranking is not the main priority. The top five are all qualified. The most important thing is to see who reaches the finishing point first!"

Samuel was right. Only the top five would be eligible for the next round of the challenge. The key was to see who reached the finishing point first.

Hugh cursed bitterly before following Samuel's lead toward the finishing point.

Back to Philip and his party. Everyone breathed a sigh of relief at this moment. It was unbelievable to have killed a creature with the strength of the seventh zone.

Fennel and the others rushed over and shouted, "Philip, are you alright?"

Philip also heaved a sigh of relief and staggered slightly. The harshness of his aura that had just reached the seventh zone declined suddenly. Everyone surrounded Philip and was relieved to see that he was fine.

Lord Ludo stood on the outside, a little afraid to approach at this moment. His, or precisely her, mind was in shambles.

Philip rested for a while and felt the change in the power of the rules in his body. It was a change that had never been felt before. The power of rules within his body felt like a bursting dam, surging and roaring constantly. Moreover, Philip's comprehension of the power of rules had reached a new level. His every move contained the aura of an invincible king.

When he unleashed his rules of insight, he could even see all the creatures on this level easily!

Was this the strength of the seventh zone? Was this a change in quality?

After resting for half an hour, Philip finally got the surging energy and the power of rules in his body under control.

"Have you entered the seventh zone?" Fennel asked excitedly.

Philip thought about it and said with a nod, "I think so..."

"Buddy, this is too terrifying! You actually crossed a big realm!"

Fennel said with a sigh, "The sixth zone to the seventh zone is an insurmountable gap! Many people are stuck in the sixth zone, unable to set foot in the next zone their entire lives! You just stepped over it!"

Then, Fennel got up and walked to Lord Ludo, scratched the back of his head, and said, "Thanks for just now."

Lord Ludo glared at Fennel and said, "No need. I did it to save myself too."

She warned viciously, "I'm warning you, don't tell anyone what happened just now. Otherwise, I'll definitely kill you!"
