

The First Heir Chapter 2956 - 2960

Chapter 2956

Boom!

Almost immediately, everyone rushed at it. They also came to blows!

Roar!

A huge bear appeared behind a person from one group, which walked upright, spread its arms, and slapped out at Samuel and his people!

Swish!

The black bear's paw made a few sharp scratches in the void that contained a fierce and terrifying aura.

Hugh snorted coldly and shouted, "Trash! How dare you attack me?!"

After speaking, he punched out with huge energy pressure!

Rumble!

The gigantic black bear was blasted out by that punch, slammed into a piece of shattered ground, and sent gravel flying. On the other hand, Samuel ran straight to the towering altar without a care in the world. However, the leader of the other group, who wore a wide black robe with his face covered, struck Samuel with a palm. This palm carried an astonishing power. The peak combat strength of the seventh zone!

Samuel raised his eyebrows, turned sideways to avoid the attack, and punched out at the same time.

Boom!

Two fists collided and a dazzling energy storm filled with pressure exploded. Terrifying energy fluctuations spread to the surroundings and caused the nearby meteorites that were suspended and linked by chains to shake and clatter!

Swoosh!

The masked man raised his hand and grabbed the two nearest meteorites. A huge suction force came from his palms as he pulled two meteorites roughly the size of a human over. Then, he sent the two meteorites flying at Samuel, who was about to set foot on the white jade steps.

Samuel frowned, jumped up to avoid, and kicked the two meteorites to pieces at the same time.

Then, he said angrily, "Friend, why are you stopping me?"

The masked man with gloomy eyes said in a low beast-like voice, "I'm just doing what I can."

After that, he charged forward and fought with Samuel again.

A terrifying energy storm erupted between the two. Seeing this, Philip and the others rushed over immediately!

"Stop them!" Hugh immediately shouted angrily, and the men behind him also quickly attacked Philip and his gang. At the same time, the other group also attacked Philip and his gang.

In an instant, a violent melee broke out!

The three groups fought fiercely under the ancient sage's secret treasure.

Buzz!

A loud shrill came from behind!

Philip frowned and turned around. Behind him, he saw someone with a hand that had turned into a white blade trying to stab him at the back of his heart!

Hugh sneered and shouted, "Go to hell!"

Philip frowned and quickly backed away. At the same time, he raised his fist and threw a punch!

Boom!

The fist and blade collided, and a terrifying wave exploded. The two broke apart after one hit!

Hugh stared at Philip with a menacing smile and said, "You have some skills, but you're still no match for me."

Philip laughed and said, "Do you really think you can beat me?"

Hugh unhurriedly took out a small bottle of blue liquid from his pocket and drank it before saying, "I can beat you now!"

Chapter 2957

Terrifying energy fluctuations suddenly exploded from Hugh's body as black energy surged, which quickly wrapped around his body before penetrating inside. In an instant, Hugh's eyes turned black, and black lines appeared on his neck like the mark of the devil. At the same time, he roared, and a black figure seven or eight meters tall suddenly appeared behind him.

This burly figure had two horns on its head. It was clad in heavy armor and looked like the devil himself. Fearsome energy surged all over it!

Watching from a distance, Lord Ludo saw this change in Hugh and shouted, "Philip, watch out! It's a drug-induced monster!"

'A drug-induced monster?' Philip frowned.

Suddenly, a surge of energy pressure approached him!

Hugh punched out, and the huge shadow behind him did the same. Its whole body surged with black devilish energy accompanied by low roars.

Philip quickly dodged and threw a punch that transformed into a fire chimera.

Boom!

Two fists collided with an explosion that swept in all directions!

"The strength of the seventh zone!" Philip frowned.

He did not expect Hugh to reach the strength of the seventh zone with just one drug. As Philip was still stunned, Hugh rushed forward. The shadow behind him also turned into terrifying devilish energy that raged.

Roar!

The shadow roared, and the black surging energy turned into a huge sword that slashed down at Philip.

"Go to hell!" Hugh roared.

Seeing this, Philip formed a circle with his hands in front of his chest. A white lightsaber solidified from the air suddenly appeared in front of him. The lightsaber buzzed and spun quickly!

"Kill!" Philip was full of fighting intent and roared angrily.

He slammed his hands together and slashed at the shadow brandishing the sword!

Buzz!

More than a dozen lightsabers suddenly stabbed at the shadow and penetrated through its body, severing the chains of several meteorites behind Hugh. However, the devil's sword attack continued unabated, and the shadow was not affected in the least.

Philip frowned, and the devil's sword had already reached him before he could react.

Boom!

The piece of shattered ground where Philip stood was blasted by the devil's sword into ruins. Amidst the rubble, Philip was also sent flying by the power of the devil's sword.

Lord Ludo was very anxious and wanted to rush over. However, 17 grabbed her and said, "You'll only get the young patriarch into trouble if you go over now!"

"Hahaha!" With a loud laugh, Hugh stared at the ruins and urged the shadow behind him to chase after Philip as he flew out!

Philip slashed out with his lightsaber and threw several punches at the shadow. However, that shadow seemed invincible and suffered no damage from Philip's attacks at all!

"Hugh is the main body. You can only defeat the shadow by hitting him!"

Lord Ludo hesitated for a long time before shouting.

Hearing that, Hugh turned his head sideways, his eyes burning with anger. He shouted, "Layla Nolan, you're betraying the Heavenly Court!"

With that said, the shadow behind him slashed out at Layla and the others. This slash surged with extremely powerful devilish energy!

17 stepped forward and unleashed her energy to resist this blow.

However...

Boom!

17 was sent flying by that slash, spat several mouthfuls of blood, and rolled to the ground. In a flash, Hugh already stood in front of Layla. He raised his hand, grabbed Layla's delicate neck, and shouted, "Traitor, die!"

Chapter 2958

Layla was strangled by Hugh and lifted off the ground. She found it difficult to breathe and kept slapping Hugh's arms desperately. Hugh smiled menacingly, and his arms were covered with black lines. With a vehement look on his face, he exerted force in his hands.

Bang!

Suddenly, a chimera fist slammed into Hugh's face and sent him and the huge shadow flying hundreds of meters away before crashing into a piece of shattered ground!

Philip caught Layla as she fell and asked with concern, "Are you alright?"

Layla coughed a few times, shook her head, and said, "I'm fine."

Philip let go of Layla and glanced at 17, who had been sent flying away. He raised his hand, his arm turning into a flaming chimera arm that pulled 17 out of the ruins.

"Help me take care of her," Philip said to Layla.

Then, he got up. His eyes had turned red, and a red flaming aura burst from his body. This flaming aura suddenly raged and intensified. In an instant, a humanoid fire chimera appeared behind Philip.

That was right!

A drastic change had happened to the form of the fire chimera. It was no longer a beast form but a human form. It was huge with a chimera head, a human body, and a tail. This human-shaped fire chimera with scorching flames all over its body roared at the shadow and spewed flames!

Philip threw a punch!

Boom!

Philip's punch contained extremely strong pressure as if to destroy the world. The human-shaped fire chimera behind him also punched out at the shadow with scorching flames like a comet hitting the earth.

Boom!

The flaming fist collided with the devil's fist and a violent energy storm exploded!

Boom!

An earth-shattering sonic boom with the two fists as the center exploded into a ball of red and black light, which quickly rippled outward and illuminated the surroundings. The seven or eight meters tall humanoid fire chimera fought with the shadow in an instant. The two attacked each other with brute force and punches in the air.

On the ground, Philip was also locked in a fierce battle with Hugh. Longswords and fists were everywhere. This shocking battle shattered the energy rules in the entire space.

On the other side, Samuel Woods was also fighting with the masked man. Fortunately, they were quite far away, and the fluctuations of their battle did not reach this area. Otherwise, the battle storm between Samuel and the masked man would be enough to engulf this place, “Damn it! Who are you?” As the fight went on, Samuel asked angrily.

“, you don’t need to know that. Today, the secret treasure of the ancient sage is mine!”

The masked man shouted in a low voice, and a huge chimpanzee appeared behind him, The chimpanzee roared to the sky like King Kong and punched Samuel angrily,

Samuel was forced to retreat but also fought back from time to time.

As everyone was locked in a fierce battle, the secret treasure with white jade luster on the towering altar suddenly glowed with a soft white light. This white light quickly calmed the battlefield!

Chapter 2959

The raging energy pressure that surged on everyone disappeared at this moment.

Everyone was startled and looked at the altar.

“The secret treasure of the ancient sage is so powerful! Get hold of it!” Samuel roared angrily, and the people of the Heavenly Court quickly rushed to the altar!

Not to be outdone, the other group also rushed for it frantically.

“Let’s go!” Fennel said.

Philip stopped Fennel and said with a frown, “Wait, I can’t help the feeling that something’s wrong!”

They were taken aback and watched from a distance as the others fought on the steps leading to the altar. The secret treasure of the ancient sage radiated a soft white light again. In an instant, those people fighting on the steps were sent flying. The energy and power of rules in their bodies were reduced to zero.

“What?”

Everyone was stunned and looked at each other in bewilderment. At this moment, they were like ordinary people without any energy and power of rules in their bodies!

Philip frowned and tested it with his hands. Indeed, there was no energy fluctuation.

Samuel stepped forward, looked at the secret treasure on the altar, and said with a frown.

The masked man snorted coldly and said, “Now, it’s up to our abilities!”

After that, the masked man rushed up the steps quickly. However, just after taking a few steps, the masked man began to struggle and sweat profusely. He was trembling all over!

“W-What the hell is going on? I can’t go up!” The masked man said in horror.

No matter how he tried, he could not take another step. He forced himself to take another step, but with a bang, a strange force blasted the masked man out. He rolled to the ground and spat a mouthful of blood, his face full of horror.

Samuel stepped forward and said with a sneer, “Friend, you’ll die if you force your way up.”

The masked man snorted coldly and stood up from the ground. He looked up at the ancient sage’s secret treasure on the altar and said, “Are we just going to look at the secret treasure with no way of taking it?”

Samuel’s face darkened, and he took out a white jade pendant from his pocket, which radiated with a soft glow that was of the same nature as that on the altar. He walked toward the altar with the jade pendant.

“Damn it! You actually have something passed down by the ancient sages!” the masked man shouted angrily.

Obviously, the item Samuel held was something handed down by this particular ancient sage, which radiated the same aura. The secret treasure on the altar could not stop it.

“What should we do? If Heavenly Court gets the secret treasure of the ancient sage, all our efforts will be in vain!” Fennel said anxiously.

Philip frowned and suddenly took out a black and gold token from his pocket.

Emperor Kai’s token!

The moment Philip took out this token, a vast and majestic aura exuded!

It was an aura of a king who looked down upon the people with pride. It radiated from the token and wrapped around Philip.

At that moment, everyone around could not help but want to worship Philip!

With the token, Philip walked up the steps.

The ancient sage's secret treasure kept emitting white light and tried to resist Emperor Kai's token. However, one was an ancient sage while the other was an emperor with great achievements. The karmic state of the two was at the same level. Thus, Philip could use the imperial power of Emperor Kai's token to ignore the soft light emitted by the ancient sage's secret treasure.

When Samuel saw Philip approaching, his eyes locked on the token as he said coldly, "Emperor Kai's token?"

Chapter 2960

How could Philip have Emperor Kai's token? It was an invaluable treasure!

It was rumored that Emperor Kai left three tokens behind, but they had all disappeared. Now, Philip actually had one in his hand!

This was surreal!

Emperor Kai's tokens were recorded on the internal database of Heavenly Court. According to legend, the material used to make the tokens came from outside this world. They were forged from a meteorite with an astounding magnetic field. This magnetic field could interfere with the rules of time and space, and even affect some of the power of rules of this world.

Samuel looked at the token in Philip's hand with a scowl and fell into deep contemplation!

It was true that the token was made of precious materials that could affect the rules of time and space. What was even more invaluable was the secret hidden behind this token. It was rumored that only the person with a token could enter Emperor Kai's palace and obtain his secret treasure and inheritance!

Seeing Philip walking up with the token, Samuel was startled and said with a sneer, "I didn't expect that one of the only three tokens left by Emperor Kai in this world would be in your hands, Young Patriarch Clarke..."

Philip frowned and learned some secrets that he was unaware of from Samuel's remark. He smiled and said, "You seem very interested in this token."

Samuel said, "Of course, and it's not just me. If people in the world know that you have Emperor Kai's token in your hand, they'll find fault with you. I'm afraid you won't be able to protect the secret behind this token on your own. Why don't you name a price and let me have it instead?"

The old fox finally revealed his true colors.

Philip smiled and said, "I'm sorry, but this token is not for sale."

With that said, Philip passed Samuel by and walked up.

Samuel walked next to Philip unhurriedly and said, "Young Patriarch Clarke, Emperor Kai's token, involves too many secrets and forces. It's not something you or the Clarke family can handle. Only Heavenly Court can withstand the pressure of these forces in this world. In your hands, this token will only bring mishaps and misfortune. I believe you don't want anything to happen to the people around you, right?"

Hearing that, Philip frowned and stopped in his tracks. With a grim face, he looked at Samuel next to him. The other party kept a smile on, but his face was chilly.

"If a token can really cause a storm, I want to see just who it is that's interested in this."

After that, Philip stepped forward and stood on the altar. A trigram altar stood in front of him with a white jade box on top, which glowed with faint white light. This white jade box also looked very extraordinary, carrying a refreshing hint of coolness.

"This should be the secret treasure of the ancient sage. I didn't expect it to be left in this space."

Samuel looked at the people below and the surroundings. He said, "This should be an alternate space created by the ancient sage with his understanding of the rules of space."

Philip ignored Samuel and kept looking at the white jade box on the altar. There seemed to be a strange lifeform inside the box like a small bug. The bursts of soft white light were emitted by the life form in the white jade box.

Philip was about to touch it when Samuel stopped him and said, "Young Patriarch Clarke, this is the secret treasure of the ancient sage. Do you think you can take it for yourself without paying any heed to Heavenly Court?"

Philip looked at Samuel coldly, took two steps back, made an inviting gesture, and said, "After you, then."

Samuel was taken aback and a little puzzled. He could not figure out Philip's purpose for doing this.

Was Philip afraid of Heavenly Court's power, so he decided to give up?

Without further ado, Samuel stepped forward and reached out to touch the white jade box.

However...

Zap!

Like an electric shock, Samuel was bounced off!

"What?!"
