

The First Heir Chapter 3001 - 3010

Chapter 3001

Philip looked at Claus and asked, "Dragon King Motley, what do you know about the Five Elements?"

After pondering for a moment, Claus said, "Young Patriarch Clarke, the Five Elements aren't a simple force. Decades ago, the Five Elements were held in high regard in the secular world and the disciple world. All disciples in the world came from the Five Elements."

"What? All disciples in the world are from the Five Elements?" Philip frowned.

Claus nodded and said, "That's right. Before the development of the Nonagon and before the disciple world had stabilized, all disciples in the world were from the Five Elements and obeyed the rules and teachings of the Five Elements. The Five Elements was also the largest school of disciples in the country..."

"However, the Five Elements opened the Mirror Seal at the stargate of Cochly Mountain without permission, intending to use the power of the stargate to strengthen their bodies. It caused the power of the stargate to leak through and led to a tragedy in which the creatures from the other shore invaded this world..."

"Because of that incident, the Five Elements were seen as an enemy of the world. Later, your father stepped forward and turned the tide single-handedly. He even led dozens of followers to re-seal the stargate. After that, your father entered the Nonagon, settled the disputes in the disciple world, and set a system of rules."

Hearing this, Philip and the others gasped.

His father was so strong back then, he settled the disputes in the disciple world single-handedly and even sealed the stargate again.

"What happened to the Five Elements after that?" Philip asked.

Claus replied, "That incident caused chaos in the disciple world and almost destroyed the secular world. In the end, your father imprisoned all the people of the Five Elements in the Mirror Seal of the stargate. From generation to generation, people of the Five Elements can only guard the Mirror Seal and can't step foot in the secular world... However, I never expected to see the people from the Five Elements out here after decades."

After saying this, Claus shook his head and said with a sigh, "This is no simple matter. I have to report this to the top."

Philip nodded and asked, "Where exactly is this Mirror Seal that's imprisoning the people of the Five Elements?"

Claus said, "The Mirror Seal should be at the peak of Topper Mountain."

"The peak of Topper Mountain?" Philip frowned and said, "What's this Mirror Seal? Why can it be in Topper Mountain but it can also seal the stargate?"

Claus shook his head and said, "I'm not sure either. Since ancient times, Topper Mountain has been under the control of the royal family. The Mirror Seal has been there for thousands of years. I believe only people like your father would know the connection."

Philip frowned and nodded, then, he said, "Dragon King Motley, thank you for all your help these days. We'll be leaving tomorrow."

Claus asked, "So soon?"

Philip's face darkened and said, "I feel uneasy as if something is about to happen."

At this time, a servant rushed in and said, "Lord Dragon King, someone delivered a package and said it must be given to Young Patriarch Clarke in person."

Chapter 3002

Philip frowned and stood up. Just then, the servant passed him something. It was a letter...

A letter in this era? Why not a phone call?

Philip opened the envelope and took out the letter inside. After reading a few lines, anger surged all over him!

"Damn it! Silva Larson, you're asking for it!" Philip growled angrily.

Fennel and the others hurriedly gathered around and asked, "What's the matter?"

Philip tossed the letter to Fennel. Fennel glanced through it, and his eyes were also filled with anger.

"This..." Fennel's expression changed.

Philip's face was full of anger and cold killing intent. He said, "Let's head to the Larson family today!"

The content of the letter was very simple. Silva Larson, the head of the Larson family, had put Hogan, Cynthia, and the others under house arrest. What angered Philip more was that his grandfather was in critical condition, but Silva actually had his grandfather's yard surrounded and prevented Hogan and the others from visiting him.

The entire Larson family even started discussing the situation after the old man's demise. The Larson family was about to revolt!

Philip was furious and left Claus' private villa with everyone. Claus had no time to make arrangements and could only ask someone to send Philip and the others to a small airport nearby. Of course, Layla had to stay with Claus for the time being, and someone would escort her back to Heavenly Court in a few days.

Before Philip got on the plane, he glanced at Claus and said, "Dragon King Motley, I'll leave Layla in your good hands."

Claus said, "Of course. Please rest assured, Young Patriarch Clarke..."

Philip nodded and glanced at Mystic City. For a moment, he saw a green sword light in the distance. Thus, Philip bowed deeply in that direction before he boarded a private plane and left Mystic City.

Half a day later, Larson Manor.

Silva sat in the main seat in the hall of the manor at the moment. His eyes were cold, and his demeanor was imposing. Looking at the members of the Larson family in the hall, he said solemnly, "The grandmaster is in critical condition. Now, what we need to do is decide the future and direction of the Larson family!"

The Larson family members looked at each other.

"Patriarch, what are you planning to do?" someone stood up and asked at this moment.

Silva said coldly, "It's very simple. Before this, the Larson family relied on the Clarke family of Arcadia Island, but now, they're no longer my first choice to depend on. We must decide as soon as possible who the Larson family will follow next, and whose side we must stand on in order to seek a position in the chaotic world in the future."

Hearing this, the members of the Larson family expressed shock. Of course, many of Silva's supporters were among them.

Those who looked surprised were followers of the grandmaster who were now recalled to the Larson family.

"Patriarch, do you really want to give up the Clarke family of Arcadia Island? They're the largest family in the world today, and their financial resources and power can guarantee the Larson family a place in troubled times in the future."

A representative of the older generation of the Larson family spoke up at this moment.

Silva looked at the old man and said, "Uncle Gene, you don't understand. The Clarke family can't even help themselves now. In the future dispute of the major forces, the Clarke family may not have the capacity to take care of the Larson family. If not for the Clarke family back then, the Larson family wouldn't have been exiled from the country and ended up where we are today. Although the Clarke family has helped us a lot, this has stopped since Aunt Charlotte left. We can no longer stick to the rules and go down with the Clarke family. We must seek new support."

Chapter 3003

After Silva finished speaking, Nash and Zayn next to him also said, "Silva is right. Now, the Larson family has to seek new development to survive in the chaotic times that will follow. Today, we gathered everyone to discuss and decide."

After Zayn finished speaking, the older generation of the Larson family looked at each other and discussed in low voices.

Finally, the old man who spoke first said, "Patriarch, we want to see the grandmaster and ask his opinion."

Hearing this, Silva frowned as a chill flashed in his eyes. Then, he smiled and said, "Uncle Gene, the grandmaster is critically ill and is in no shape to see anyone. My words represent his opinion. As you know, the grandmaster misses Aunt Charlotte dearly. He once made it clear that he wants the Larson family to break away from the Clarke family and seek our own development."

Hearing this, the old man frowned, shook his head, and said, "I don't really believe that the grandmaster would say such a thing. I hope you can invite the grandmaster out and let him tell us face-to-face. As long as we hear it from him, we'll do our best to help you."

Bang!

Zayn suddenly put the teacup in his hand on the table and said coldly, "Uncle Gene, you must be senile. Silva has made it very clear that the grandmaster is now in critical condition and isn't in the right shape to receive guests. Silva's opinion represents the grandmaster's opinion. Do you doubt Silva's words?"

"Uhh..." The old man's expression changed as he looked at the others with a frown.

"Uncle Gene, I know what you're worried about, but rest assured that I'm doing this for the sake of the Larson family. My opinion represents the grandmaster's opinion. If you insist on seeing the grandmaster, you may."

Silva said and waved his hand. "Guards, take Uncle Gene to see the grandmaster."

At his command, two fully armed guards from the Larson family stepped forward.

Uncle Gene nodded, turned around, and left with the two guards from the Larson family.

A while later, the two guards returned with a box in their hands. They put the box on the floor in the middle of the hall and opened it.

Everyone looked down and suddenly screamed in horror.

“Ah! T-This is Uncle Gene’s head!”

In an instant, those people sitting on the fence understood.

Silva stepped forward, closed the box, and said, “Uncle Gene, why did you do this? Why did you assassinate the grandmaster? Family rules must not be violated!”

As he said that, Silva glanced at everyone and said coldly, “Uncle Gene has received his punishment for his attempt to assassinate the grandmaster. If anyone has any objections, you can raise them now. I’ll take you to meet the grandmaster in person.”

For a while, Uncle Gene’s followers fell silent. The situation was obvious. Anyone who stood up at this time would lose their heads.

“Hahaha!” Silva laughed and said, “Very well. Since everyone agrees, I hereby announce that the Larson family will completely separate from the Clarke family!”

However, at this moment, a roar came from the door!

“Silva Larson, where are my grandfather and Cynthia? If you don’t hand them over today, don’t blame me for being rude to the Larson family!”

Chapter 3004

Following that roar, a figure full of chills appeared at the door.

In the hall, everyone looked coldly at Philip and the others as they walked in.

Philip stepped in with a dark face. He glanced at everyone coldly before he looked at Silva and said, “Where’s my grandfather? Where’s Cynthia?”

Silva frowned as a chill flashed in the corner of his eyes.

Thud, thud, thud!

In an instant, a team of fully armed guards from the Larson family rushed out and aimed their guns at Philip and his party. Philip just glanced at them coldly without paying any heed.

Silva raised his hand and signaled the Larson family's guards to step back before he chuckled and said, "I didn't expect Young Patriarch Clarke to come back from Mystic City so quickly. I thought you'd take a few more days."

Philip's eyes were stern, and his mouth was grim. He said, "Silva Larson, don't try to change the subject; I'm asking you where my grandfather is!"

Silva's face turned cold when he heard this. He said, "The grandmaster is critically ill and is undergoing treatment and recovery."

"I want to see him," Philip said coldly.

On the said, Nash suddenly stood up and said coldly, "I'm sorry, Young Patriarch Clarke, but no one is allowed to see the grandmaster now."

Hearing that, Philip looked sideways at Nash and asked with a smile, "Is that your order?"

Nash snorted coldly and said, "Young Patriarch Clarke, this is the Larson family. Of course, it's my order. The grandmaster won't see anyone now, including you! Please leave the Larson family immediately!"

Smack!

However, there was a sudden gust of wind!

Philip made his move and slapped Nash angrily on the face. The latter flew out and crashed into a chair!

"Ouch! Argh!" With a cry of pain, Nash covered his rapidly swollen cheek, spat out the broken teeth and blood in his mouth, and glared at Philip.

He said angrily, "Boy, how dare you hit me? Do you think the Larson family is a pushover? Guards, take them down!"

At Nash's command, the Larson family's guards who had withdrawn from the door rushed in again.

They surrounded Philip and the others and aimed their guns at them. However, Philip was indifferent as he looked at Nash, who stood up from the ground.

He said, "I'll ask you again. Where are my grandfather and Cynthia? If you don't tell me, the Larson family will become history today!"

"Insolence!" At this moment, Silva spoke up.

His face was flushed, and he glared at Philip. He said angrily, "Philip Clarke! You're just the young patriarch of the Clarke family and don't have the right to point fingers at me about the Larson family! I was patient With you before because you're Aunt Charlotte's son, but today, if you dare to be insolent and disregard the Larson family, I'll take you down even if the entire Larson family is at stake!"

Hiss!

In Silva's words, the atmosphere in the hall became extremely cold!

Chapter 3005

There seemed to be a burst of icy killing intent in the air!

Philip and Silva looked at each other and burst into anger.

The other Larson family members dared not speak out at this moment for fear of causing unnecessary trouble.

Nash stood up from the ground, and killing intent flashed in the corner of his eyes. He snorted coldly and said, "Philip, I advise you to leave here as soon as possible. You have no right to interfere in the Larson family's business!"

However, as soon as he finished speaking, Philip sneered and said, "Oh, really? Let's see what you can do to me, then."

Hearing this, Silva lost his patience and shouted, "I invite the three elders to enforce justice!"

As soon as he said that, three elderly men walked in through the door. Chip Larson was one of them. The three elders stood in the hall and looked at Philip coldly.

Chip Larson, with his hunched body, said lightly, "Young Patriarch Clarke, it's been half a month since we parted. I didn't expect to see you again. I wonder why you forced your way into the Larson family hall this time."

While saying this, Chip exuded the pressure of the strength of the seventh zone, which swept over Philip. However, Philip sneered and stood motionless on the spot, unaffected by Chip's aura.

"Old thing, do you want to use force against others?" Philip sneered.

Boom!

Suddenly, Philip's body surged with a storm and bore down on Chip like a tsunami!

Immediately, chip's eyes widened. His face was full of disbelief, and he was knocked back under Philip's pressure. He looked at Philip with shock and doubt.

He said, "H-Have you reached that realm already?"

"Hmm..." Philip looked at Chip sternly and said, "Are you surprised?"

Chip was not only surprised as a storm surged in his heart too. Philip had already reached the mid-stage of the seventh zone in only half a month!

He was simply a freak among freaks!

"Haha, Young Patriarch Clarke, you're indeed worthy of being a genius among the freaks. This is the realm that others are unable to break through for decades, but you crossed over several realms in just half a month. I'm in awe..." Chip smiled pretentiously.

However, immediately after, he sneered and said, "However, even if you possess a strength that can't be taken lightly, you should watch your step within Larson Manor."

After saying that, the other Larson family elder next to Chip suddenly burst out with terrifying energy fluctuations. The strength at the peak of the seventh zone!

Philip frowned as a chill flashed in his eyes. He did not expect the Larson family's foundation to be so strong. Two elders at the peak of the seventh zone.

The second old man opened his eyes that were closed the entire time, looked at Philip in front of him, and said, "The younger generation is a force to be reckoned with. At this age, you already have the strength of the middle stage of the seventh zone. The Clarke family is worthy of being the largest family in the world, indeed..."

The other one added, "Young Patriarch Clarke, we don't want to fight you today, so please leave quickly. The Larson family affairs will be handled internally."

Hearing that, Philip smiled lightly and said, "As I mentioned clearly just now, I just want to see my grandfather and Cynthia. Other things have nothing to do with me."

The two elders frowned and suddenly scolded, "Young Patriarch Clarke, are you sure you want to do this?"

Philip laughed and said, "So what if I am? Let's see what you can do toq1qq me!"

Chapter 3006

"Junior, don't be too cocky!" The elder immediately looked very angry.

Suddenly, tremendous pressure fell on Philip. It was the pressure at the peak of the seventh zone. Anyone below that realm would be crushed to the ground under this pressure. However, Philip was different. He stood on the spot with dazzling chills in his eyes, staring coldly at the elder.

The elder trembled. 'How could this be?'

Under the oppression of his aura, Philip showed no signs of being suppressed at all. Moreover, the other party seemed somewhat indifferent.

What was going on?

Immediately after, to everyone's surprise, Philip waved his hand. An aura that was no less than that of the elder suddenly surged from him and rushed over like a tsunami.

This aura nearly overturned the hall!

Seeing this, the elder snorted and said, "Junior, do you think you can beat me? Dream on!"

After that, the power of rules poured from the elder again, wanting to counteract Philip's aura. However, at that moment, the elder's face turned red. He felt as if he was crushed by a mountain.

With a bang, he knelt on the floor. The floor tiles shattered instantly!

Hiss!

The Larson family members were shocked at this scene!

"W-What's going on here? Elder Kirk Larson actually knelt to Philip!"

"What happened? Why did Elder Kirk do this suddenly?"

Everyone looked at the scene in front of them with trepidation at this moment. It was too surreal.

Elder Kirk had the strength at the peak of the seventh zone. At this moment, he was defeated and knelt to Philip. He was also devastated and confused. The energy and the power of rules in his body disappeared at that moment just now.

What the hell was going on?

Kirk stared dumbfounded at Philip. No matter how he resisted, that mountainous pressure bore down on him, rendering him unable to move!

Seeing this, Chip and the other elder were instantly furious. With a punch and a palm strike at Philip, shouted angrily, "You damn ed brat, what did you do?!"

Faced with the mighty punch and palm strike, Philip remained calm and merely glanced at the attacks coldly.

Two thumps.

Chip and the other elder suddenly felt indescribable power that instantly drained the energy and the power of rules in their bodies. Then, they knelt in front of Philip. Their knees sank to the ground, unable to move at all!

Uproar!

Chapter 3007

The Larson family members in the hall were once again shocked by this scene. Including Silva and the others, everyone was stunned!

All three guardian elders were kneeling in front of Philip at this moment

Philip looked at the three elders blandly and said, "You're welcome. Since you 're willing to kneel, you can kneel forever."

"You arrogant brat, what have you done? Why?!" Chip roared while struggling to stand up, but no matter how much he struggled, it was futile.

Philip smiled coldly and said, "Why did the energy and the power of rules in your body disappear in an instant?"

Chip frowned and stared at Philip resentfully.

Philip chuckled without explaining but looked at Silva instead. He said, "Silva, do you still want to stop me now?"

Silva was furious, but the three guardian elders were already kneeling in front of Philip, so what else could he do?

Although he did not know what evil sorcery Philip had used, the current situation was not to his advantage.

"Guards, take Young Patriarch Clarke to the grandmaster's yard and release Cynthia and her family."

Silva was an ambitious person and knew when to back down.

Philip sneered, turned around, and followed a few Larson family guards. They left the hall and went to the grandmaster's yard.

After Philip left, the three elders stood up from the ground.

Silva quickly asked, "Three elders, what happened just now?"

Chip said grimly, "Patriarch, the ancient sage's secret treasure is definitely with Philip. According to the news from Mystic City, the secret treasure of the ancient sage has the special power to suppress all realms. He must have used some special method just now to activate the treasure and suppress us. Otherwise, we can take him down easily if we join forces!"

Hearing this, Silva's eyes darkened as he said, "Can you get the secret treasure of the ancient sage?"

The three elders looked at each other, shook their heads, and said, "We haven't seen this ancient sage's secret treasure yet. I'm afraid it's not that easy to get it. Let's wait and see..."

Silva nodded and looked in the direction where Philip and the others left.

Philip and his party arrived at the grandmaster's yard. After he entered the courtyard alone, Philip saw his grandfather who was already weak on the bed.

"Grandpa!"

Philip knelt and looked at his grandfather, who looked frail. It had only been half a month since they last met and his grandfather had become so ill.

The grandmaster lay on the bed and saw Philip kneeling at the head of the bed. He stretched out his hand tremblingly, grabbed Philip's hand, and said weakly, "Little Phil... My little Phil is back..."

Philip held his grandfather's hand tightly, and his eyes were filled with tears.

Cynthia and Hogan rushed in at this moment. Seeing Philip, Cynthia pounced on him and cried, "Philip, you're finally back!"

Philip looked at Cynthia, whose face was full of tears, and patted her back gently. Then, he pulled Cynthia out to the hall.

"What happened after I left? Why did my grandfather become so ill?" Philip asked Cynthia and Hogan.

Hogan shook his head and said with a sigh, "The grandmaster became seriously ill on the day you left. For the past 10 days, he has been relying on drugs to stay alive. Time is running out for him. If not for his obsession with Aunt Charlotte and you, he wouldn't have lasted this long..."

Hearing this, Philip's face darkened, and he felt very guilty.

"What's wrong with Grandpa?" Philip asked.

Cynthia said, "We don't know. More than a dozen famous doctors have seen him but no one could diagnose his condition. They only said that he's terminally ill and doesn't have much time left."

Chapter 3008

All those famous doctors could not diagnose his condition?

Philip frowned and scowled. After a while, he said, "I'm going to take my grandfather out for treatment. I don't feel comfortable leaving him in the Larson family."

Hearing this, Hogan got up immediately and said, "Absolutely not! Philip, if you take him away, Silva will never let you off!"

"What do you mean by that?" Philip asked with a frown.

Hogan sighed and said, "The grandmaster is the backbone of the Larson family. If you take him out for treatment, it'll disgrace Silva and the others. Besides, Silva is an ambitious person. He won't let you take the grandmaster out just like that. The entire Larson family is full of Silva's supporters. One word from him and everyone will follow."

Hearing this, Philip scowled and said, "Do I need to seek his permission to bring my grandfather out for treatment?"

Hogan sighed and said, "He's the grandmaster of the Larson family, after all. If Silva disagrees, even if you're the young patriarch of the Clarke family, you can't take him away by force. Otherwise, it'll look bad on you and the Clarke family. You have to understand that this is the Larson family, after all, not the Clarke family. I know that you desperately want to take the grandmaster out for treatment, but the consequences of doing so will cause dissatisfaction among many people and forces..."

"Hmph!" Philip snorted coldly and said, "I'm not afraid of Silva. I must take my grandfather away today. If the Larson family can't cure him, the Clarke family will find a way!"

"This..." Hogan was taken aback by Philip's decision. Then, he smacked his thigh and said, "Okay, if you insist on doing this, I'll go with you!"

After saying that, Hogan ordered the servant to put the grandmaster in a wheelchair and walked out of the yard with Philip and the others. However, as soon as they left the yard, the Larson family guards stopped them.

“Fourth Master, I’m sorry. The grandmaster can’t leave the yard. This is the Patriarch’s order,” a guard stepped forward and said.

Hearing that, Hogan frowned and put his hands behind his back. With the imposing demeanor of the fourth master of the Larson family, he shouted, “What are you doing? Do you still regard me as the fourth master? The grandmaster is critically ill and I want to take him out for treatment. Get out of my way!”

The guards glanced at each other, bowed slightly, and said, “Fourth Master, the patriarch has given the order that the grandmaster can’t leave the yard. We have doctors in the house. Please take the grandmaster back inside and don’t make things difficult for us...”

Smack!

Hogan slapped the guard’s face sharply and scolded coldly, “Audacious! I’m the fourth master of the Larson family! How dare a guard like you speak to me in that way? I’m going to take the grandmaster out today. Let’s see who dares to stop me!”

After that, Hogan pushed the grandmaster’s wheelchair and was about to force his way out.

However, the guard barked an order, “All on alert!”

Thud, thud, thud!

Chapter 3009

In an instant, more than a dozen guards rushed up with guns aimed at Philip and the others.

“Fourth Master, don’t blame us for doing this. The patriarch has given the order. Anyone who walks out of the yard without permission will be killed without mercy!” the guard said coldly.

Hearing this, Hogan frowned and shouted angrily, “Let’s see who dares to stop me!”

In the distance, Silva rushed up with his men and shouted, “I dare! Hogan, you’ve been exiled from the Larson family! What right do you have to act like this here?”

Hogan raised his eyebrows, looked at Silva and the others who approached, and said coldly, “Silva, I’m just taking the grandmaster out to see a doctor. Why are you stopping me?”

Silva snorted coldly and said, "Hmph! We have doctors in the Larson family. The grandmaster doesn't need to go out at all. Guards, bring the grandmaster back inside."

With that said, several guards stepped forward.

However...

Bang, thud!

Philip kicked the guards away, stared at Silva coldly, and said solemnly, "Silva, let's see how you will stop me from taking my grandfather out for treatment!"

Hearing that, Silva raised his eyebrows as his face grew darker. He said, "Philip, I've been patient with you time and again. Don't force me!"

"Hmph!" Philip said, "I just want to take my grandfather out to see a doctor. I don't care about other things. If you insist on stopping me, then I'm sorry. Even if I have to tear the Larson family apart today, I'll bring my grandfather out!"

Hearing that, Silva's face changed completely. He scolded angrily, "Philip, you're too audacious! Do you really think I can't do anything to you?"

With that said, the guards behind Silva stood ready to fight!

Philip narrowed his eyes and said, "If that's all you have, you really can't do anything to me. Even the three elders of the Larson family can do nothing."

Silva nodded and said, "Yes, I know that you've obtained the ancient sage's secret treasure and possess special powers, but I don't believe that you can use the treasure every single time!"

Hearing that, Philip frowned.

Yes, Silva was right. He could not use the treasure too often. Just now, the treasure had reacted strangely.

"You can try if you want," Philip said with a smile as a hint of chill flashed in his eyes.

Seeing this, Silva's eyes turned cold. He put his hands behind his back as his eyes shone brightly. He was trying to figure out the meaning of Philip's words, whether he was really confident or if it was just a pretense.

In the end, after an internal battle, Silva said, "I don't believe you can fight against the three elders!"

As soon as he said that, the three guardian elders of the Larson family stood up behind Silva again, all of them surging with tremendous energy and the power of rules. In an instant, this area was engulfed by three terrifying auras.

Philip frowned and unleashed his aura too, resisting the three mid and peak stages of the seventh zone. However, the aura of the three elders exploded with all their strength, which formed three towering shadows that smacked their palms at Philip!

This time, the secret treasure of the ancient sage did not react at all. Philip shook his head helplessly, and the mark of the chimera flashed between his eyebrows.

Boom!

A giant chimera appeared behind him with a roar, stretched out its hands, and fought against the three palms from the three shadows!

Rumble!

The earth shook, and a raging energy storm exploded in the air. The shadows of the three elders were knocked back by Philip and the giant chimera!

“Junior! Die!” Chip shouted angrily and attacked Philip!

Chapter 3010

Philip had fought Chip before, so he was quite familiar with Chip’s attack methods. He roared, and the Greenpeak Sword in his hand dazzled brightly.

A huge sword formation descended from the sky and shrouded the entire Larson Manor. The chimera giant behind Philip also took out two Greenpeak Sword shadows from the sword formation with both hands. With a roar, it slashed at Chip who approached with a shadow!

Rumble!

Chip’s shadow punched the sword slashed by the chimera giant. A terrifying energy storm and sword sparks exploded in the air. The green sword energy spread everywhere as the sword cut off one of the arms from Chip’s shadow!

Meanwhile, Philip punched Chip with his mighty and powerful chimera fist.

Roar!

The chimera fist was like a small chimera that blasted toward Chip’s chest!

Bang!

Chip could not avoid this attack. He took a solid punch and was knocked back dozens of steps.

Everything happened in a split second. When Chip came back to his senses, he was dumbfounded!

“H-How is this possible? It has only been half a month and you can already fight on par with me...”

Chip was full of horror as a layer of cold sweat appeared on his forehead. Young Patriarch Clarke was too scary. The speed of his advancement was simply unheard of.

Philip sneered as he looked coldly at the three elders and said, “I don’t want to fight you, but if you insist on doing this, I’ll kill you today!”

“Brat, don’t be too cocky!” Kirk shouted angrily with a flushed face.

He raised his hand, and a golden bell appeared in the sky, boring down on Philip. This golden bell glowed with a terrifying force that could suppress everything in the world. However, Philip raised his eyebrows and looked motionlessly at the approaching golden bell.

He hooked his finger and a green sword formation appeared in the sky. One after another, Greenpeak Sword shadows appeared and launched at the golden bell following Philip’s movements!

Clang, clink!

In an instant, metallic sounds of sword energy slashing on the golden bell filled the air. However, the golden bell seemed unaffected by the attacks. With the terrifying suppressive power, it bore down on Philip’s head!

Clang!

The golden bell fell to the ground and imprisoned Philip inside. The tiles on the floor shattered and dust billowed.

Kirk sneered, looked at Chip next to him, and said, “Hmph, brat, you asked for it. In that case, I’ll keep you here for a few days to curb your arrogance!”

Silva and the others had long since moved away from the battle area.
