

The First Heir Chapter 3081

Chapter 3081

Shane smiled and said, "It's very simple. I want you to open the stargate for us."

Hearing this, Philip immediately refused. "You must be dreaming. I can't open the stargate at all. It's guarded by several half-steps to the other shore. Besides, I don't know how to open the stargate either."

Shane laughed and said, "Oh, Philip, I really don't know what to say about you. You're the key to opening the stargate. Otherwise, why do you think the Lovelace family would go through such pains to lead you to Cochly Mountain and bring you here to see me?"

He was the key to opening the stargate?

Philip frowned.

Seeing that, Shane sneered and said, "It seems that they've kept a lot of things from you. Well then, let me tell you the secret about the stargate today..."

"The stargate is a gateway from this world to the other shore. You can see it as a sealed door left behind by some supreme powerhouses back then in order to block the two worlds. The stargate has prevented the invasion from the other shore but has also completely sealed this world and ruined many civilizations..."

"The current civilization is nothing but a small part of the past civilization.

"Opening the stargate will open the gate to the other shore. Gaining more civilization and expanding our world is the lofty goal that the Lovelace family has been seeking..."

"And you! Philip Clarke! You are the key to the stargate because you have blood from that world flowing in your body. Haven't you noticed it at all?"

Hiss!

Philip was dumbfounded upon hearing this.

He had blood from the other shore flowing in his body? How was this possible?!

"I don't know what you're talking about!" Philip said coldly.

Shane smiled and said, "Philip, why do you think the Clarke family has a door different from other stargates? Why is that unique to your Clarke family? Haven't you thought about it at all?"

Thump.

Philip's heart trembled. He had not seen the Clarke family's door yet.

"That's because the Clarke family's door is an exclusive passage for the Clarke family to that world! The Clarke family came to this world from the other shore! The Clarke family is an outcast from the other shore, traitors from the other shore!"

Boom!

The words exploded in Philip's mind!

The Clarke family came from the other shore? Outcasts and traitors?

No! Impossible!

Philip's eyes were scarlet, and he roared angrily, "Bullsh*t! Shane Lovelace, even if you want to anger me, this method is too low! Today, I'm going to take Wynn away!"

With that said, the fire chimera mark appeared between Philip's eyebrows. At the same time, the golden mark of the White Marsh glowed faintly, and jade-like luster appeared on his chest too.

Seeing that, Shane frowned and said, "Then how do you explain the few marks of the royal family from the other shore in your body?"

"Why are they so close to you? Why did your father open that door and enter the other shore back then but close it again after that?"

"You know what?! Because your father has long known about it. Your father was worried that once the door is opened, the Clarke family from the other shore will come to this world and kill all of you!"

Chapter 3082

Shane's every word exploded in Philip's mind and made him grim.

This was absolutely impossible!

"That's bullsh*t! You're just trying to confuse me and make me angry!" Philip said solemnly, and the red flames on his body were about to explode!

Shane snorted and said, "Philip, why should I lie to you? If you don't believe me, you can ask your father. Ask him what the origin of your Clarke family is and where your Clarke family's door came from! Once the news spreads to the outside world, I believe it'll cause a commotion."

"The richest Clarke family actually came from the other shore. How will others view the Clarke family? And how will you face the world?"

Philip fell silent. He clenched his fists, punched Shane, and said, "Shut up!"

Boom!

This punch did not hit Shane because Wynn stepped forward and stood in front of Shane. Philip had to retract his punch.

He looked at Wynn in confusion and asked, "Why?"

Wynn looked at Philip with tears in her eyes and said, "Philip, he's telling the truth..."

"No! No way! He's lying to me, and he's also lying to you. The Lovelace family is plotting a grand scheme. This is their method to deceive the world! How could the Clarke family come from the other shore?!" Philip roared.

Shane smiled and said, "Philip, I know what you're thinking. You may not believe it, but eventually, you'll face this reality. In fact, several big figures know the secret that the Clarke family originated from the other shore..."

"However, in the face of Roger's strength, no one dares to resist. Do you really think that everyone in the world bows down to your father? Do you really think everyone listens to the Clarke family?"

"Philip, to tell you the truth, the forefathers of the Lovelace family also came from the other shore to this world. We originate from the same source, so why should we be rivals? As long as you're willing to help me, the grudges between the Lovelace and Clarke families can be forgotten. After all, you're my cousin's husband. In terms of seniority, I should address you as my brother-in-law..."

"Philip, the best outcome for both our families is to join forces, unify this world, and return to the land of the other shore. You should think it over carefully."

Philip frowned, stared at Shane sternly, and said, "Even if everything you said is true, so what? I was born in this world and belong to this world! As far as I'm concerned, the other shore has invaded the human race, and I must step forth and put a stop to it!"

"Shane, forget your wishful thinking. I'll never collude with you, not my father nor the Clarke family!"

Hearing this, Shane frowned, shook his head, and said with a sneer, "Ignorant and stubborn, just like your father! The Clarke family hails from the other shore, and your roots are there too. Do you want to betray your forefathers and become a disloyal and unfaithful descendant?"

"This world is too backward and full of a bunch of foolish people. What's the worth of protecting them? If we join forces, this world will be at our fingertips!"

"The stargate is the passage that leads to the other shore from this world. As long as we open it, we can reunite with our families on the other shore, and they'll definitely agree to our return to the family. That's our home and the place we should protect!"

Facing Shane's loud reprimand, Philip was calm and indifferent. He said, "That's your home, not mine! In my lifetime, I'll fight for this world because this is my home!"

With that said, Philip looked at Wynn seriously and said, "My home is where she and my children are. The Clarke family will never betray the human race!"

"Fool!" Shane shouted angrily and moved to slap Philip.

Boom!

Philip met his attack with a punch. The two attacks collided, and a huge energy storm erupted!

Chapter 3083

However, the two held back with their attacks. Otherwise, this cave would have collapsed!

"Since you refuse to work with me, I won't force you, but you must complete the task of opening the stargate for the Lovelace family. Otherwise, Wynn will stay in the Lovelace family for the rest of her life!" Shane said coldly.

This was a warning!

Philip scowled and said, "If the Lovelace family dares to do this, I'll obliterate you!"

"Hahaha..." Shane sneered and said, "You don't have the strength and qualifications yet. With your current strength, it's a fool's errand to want to obliterate the Lovelace family."

Philip's expression darkened as he said, "The day will come."

Shane scowled as a trace of killing intent flashed in his eyes, but he finally held back and said, "The chance has been given to you. You should make the right choice."

Philip said coldly, "The stargate will be opened in a month, and enough talents will be selected to enter the other shore for training. Hasn't your Lovelace family heard about this?"

Shane smiled and said, "Of course, we have."

"Then why do you need me to open the stargate?" Philip asked.

Shane replied, "Because we want to open the stargate in advance and send the people of the Lovelace family to the other shore."

"In advance?" Philip frowned and said, "I can't do that, and I can't get to the stargate either."

Shane smiled and said, "Don't worry. I'll make the arrangements. For the sake of your wife and children, you should think about it carefully. Send the guest out!"

With that said, several guards walked over.

Philip's expression darkened.

He looked at Wynn and said, "Are you sure you don't want to leave with me?"

Wynn shook her head with a smile on the corner of her mouth. She took a few steps forward, hugged Philip tightly, and said, "Phil, trust me..."

After doing this, Wynn turned around and left with Shane. Philip was also taken out of the cave.

After leaving the cave, he was sent back to the training camp dormitory by the guards.

Back in the dormitory, Philip's expression was very ugly, but he held a note tightly in his hand. It was stuffed by Wynn when she hugged him in the end.

Fennel and the others already knew that Philip went out. They gathered around nervously and asked, "Did you see Wynn?"

Philip nodded, looked at the note in his hand, opened it, and saw beautiful handwriting.

[Phil, I'm sorry. Please forgive me. I can't leave the Lovelace family for the time being. But don't worry, the Lovelace family won't do anything to me. You must remember that no matter how the Lovelace family coerces you, you mustn't do anything for them. They want to make use of you and invoke the anger of everyone in the world against the Clarke family. Don't fall into their trap.]

After reading this, Philip's face darkened.

A flame appeared in his hand and burned the letter to a crisp.

Then, Philip took a deep breath, got up, and walked out of the dormitory.

“Where are you going?” Fennel chased after him and asked.

“I want to look for Marquis Fulmore to enter the stargate,” Philip said coldly.
