

The First Heir Chapter 3106 - 3110 -

Chapter 3106

Hearing Christian's words, Philip scowled, and a chill flashed in the corner of his eyes.

This was practically asking him to release Levi as though nothing had happened.

"Christian, do you really think I'd agree to this?" Philip said coldly, and his face became more solemn.

Christian smiled slightly and said, "We're the branch of the Clarke family, after all. Coming from the same source, we mustn't forget our roots. Levi is young and lacks the experience to think things through. What he did today was completely reckless. I'll make him reflect upon this."

"Do you really think self-reflection is enough to cover up the branch family's intention to rebel against the Clarke family? Christian, your thinking is too simple..."

"The branch family is so ambitious. How can I condone such a threat by my side?" Philip said coldly, his attitude very firm and transparent.

Christian frowned slightly, shook his head helplessly, and said with a sigh, "What are your conditions, then?"

Philip said, "The branch family is to remove all guard forces, which will be taken over by the guards of the main family..."

"In addition, the branch family is not allowed to be involved in the Clarke family's core businesses, and you have to hand over half of your assets to the main family for management."

"Impossible! You're dreaming! By doing this, you're driving us to our graves!" Levi immediately roared frantically.

Christian glared at Levi fiercely before he turned to Philip and said, "I can agree to your conditions."

Philip frowned.

He did not expect Christian to agree so indifferently.

Hearing this, Levi was dumbfounded and said, "Father, what did you say? You actually agreed? What's the difference between the branch family and insects, then?"

“Yes, Lord Chieftain. If we agree to this, the branch family will completely lose all power!”

“Lord Chieftain, please think twice!”

Clatter!

The elders of the branch family knelt at this moment.

Philip’s frown became deeper because he could tell that all members of the branch family refused to yield to the main family.

Such an existence must be weakened as soon as possible, even destroyed!

Christian shouted angrily, “Enough! I’ve made up my mind. Say no more! The branch family has belonged to the Clarke family right from the beginning! I won’t pursue your actions before this, but if anyone dares to have any unruly thoughts from now on, don’t blame me for being ruthless!”

Crack!

After saying that, the tiles under Christian’s feet shattered and cracked.

In an instant, the elders of the branch family fell silent.

Christian looked at Philip and said, “Are you satisfied now?”

Philip frowned.

He knew this was all he could do for today.

Otherwise, if he aroused Christian’s anger, it might cause greater conflicts.

“Christian, I hope you remember your words today! If I find out that the branch family has any treacherous thoughts, I’ll destroy the entire branch family without hesitation!”

With that said, Philip turned around and left with the Griffin Army.

Seeing Philip’s departing back, Christian’s face slowly darkened.

“Father, why did you bow down to him? You’re the chieftain of the branch family, a pseudo realm of the other shore! Why are you so afraid of Philip Clarke?!” Levi could not figure it out, his face full of resentment and puzzlement.

Chapter 3107

Christian glanced at Levi and said, “You really don’t know?”

“I don’t,” Levi said indignantly.

Christian said, “Do you think that I can do whatever I want on Arcadia Island just because I’m now in a pseudo realm of the other shore? Do you think I can take over the Clarke family just because Roger Clarke isn’t on Arcadia Island?”

“Levi, you’re still too young... Roger is a very scheming person. Of course, he’d have known about the branch family’s opposition and made necessary arrangements. Everything was done to test the bottom line of the branch family. If we rebel against the Clarke family today, in less than an hour, the entire branch family will cease to exist in this world.”

After Christian finished speaking, Levi said in horror, “Will Roger really dare to take action against the branch family?”

“You don’t know him, but I do!”

Christian said as he looked into the distance. “He’ll never allow a threat to exist, including his brothers of the same family.”

“However, now the branch family has to hand over all the guard forces and half of our assets to the main family. We can no longer resist the main family,” Levi said.

Christian took a deep breath and said, “The gecko can sacrifice its tail to survive. The branch family is simply handing over our resources to survive. We have time to recover slowly.”

After that, Christian patted Levi on the shoulder and said, “You have to learn to be more tolerant.”

“Father!” Levi called out.

Christian turned to leave. He said, “I’m leaving. All of you should watch your steps.”

With that said, Levi saw Christian’s figure fading before his eyes. In an instant, he had walked out for several miles.

“Philip Clarke! The main family! I’ll never forget today’s shame!” Levi clenched his fists angrily.

On Philip’s side, after he left the branch family, he returned to the white castle.

His mothers were waiting in the hall of the castle at the moment.

When they saw Philip coming back, they asked, “Phil, how’s everything? What happened at the branch family?”

Philip smiled and said, "Fourth Mother, don't worry. The problem has been resolved. From now on, all guard forces of the branch family will be taken over by the main family, and the branch family will also give up half of their assets to us."

Hearing this, Hazel Eva was shocked, then surprised.

She said, "Are you sure?"

Nadia Sawyer also walked over and asked suspiciously, "Why did the branch family agree so easily? It's not their style."

Philip's face darkened. He shook his head and said, "I don't know either, but Christian agreed in person."

"Christian?"

Aria Tsar walked over with a frown. She said, "Did he leave the forbidden area?"

Philip nodded, his expression becoming solemn. He said, "His strength has reached the pseudo realm of the other shore."

'Pseudo realm of the other shore...' Aria was even more worried and said, "Why would he do this?"

Philip said, "Perhaps he's afraid of Father."

Aria fell silent. After a long time, she nodded and said, "It's possible, but your father isn't on Arcadia Island now. To Christian, taking over the Clarke family is as easy as lifting a finger."

Philip said with a smile, "Maybe Father is already prepared, and Christian is aware of that, so he dares not act recklessly."

Aria nodded and did not dwell on this topic. She asked, "What are you going to do next?"

Philip said, "I'll take care of things on Arcadia Island as soon as possible, and then I'll go to Emperor Kai's underground palace."

Chapter 3108

"Emperor Kai's underground palace?" Aria was full of confusion and asked, "What will you do there?"

Philip said, "I can't tell you yet."

Aria frowned but did not ask further.

She then said, "Since you and your father won't say anything, we won't ask either. Emperor Kai's underground palace is now guarded by the Imperial Palace. If you want to enter, you need a pass."

Philip frowned. "A pass from the Imperial Palace?"

Aria nodded and said, "But don't worry, I can get this pass for you."

Philip said, "Okay..."

Then, he suddenly said, "Third Mother, do you know where the door of the Clarke family is?"

Hearing this, Aria's expression immediately became tense and solemn. She asked, "Why are you asking this?"

"I want to take a look," Philip said.

Aria frowned, looked at the other two ladies, and said to Philip, "We can't approach the Clarke family's door at all. Only the bloodline of the Clarke family can. It should be in the underground hall of the ancestral hall."

"The ancestral hall?"

Philip nodded and left the white castle, ready to go to the ancestral hall.

In the hall, Aria looked at Philip's departure with worry in her eyes.

Hazel walked over and asked, "Third Sister, will he be alright? The old master isn't here now. Is it too early for Philip to approach the Clarke family's stargate?"

Aria pondered briefly and said, "That's his choice and the Clarke family's fate."

With that said, Aria left the castle.

On Philip's side, he arrived at the ancestral hall and looked at the memorial plaques of his forefathers. Especially when he saw the memorial plaque of the grandmaster, Philip knelt, bowed, and said, "Grandmaster, Little Monkey is here to see you..."

After kneeling for a while, Philip got up and walked to the back of the ancestral hall.

It was a fairly large yard surrounded by green plants with a stone gate. The main family's guards standing nearby.

Seeing Philip, the guards knelt on one knee and said, "Welcome, Young Patriarch."

Philip nodded, motioned them to get up, and said, "Open the stone gate."

Hearing that, the guards immediately opened the stone gate.

A guard stepped forward, took out a wooden box, handed it to Philip, and said, "Young Patriarch, the patriarch told us to hand this to you. He said you'd definitely be here..."

Philip took the wooden box with a frown and wondered what his father had given him.

Without delay, Philip opened the wooden box, which contained a test tube with blood and a short note.

[Phil, I knew you'd come here to see for yourself one day. This is something I prepared for you. Take it with you, go down, and have a look. Pour the blood in the test tube onto the stone slate of the stargate.]

The content was very brief. Philip frowned, thought for a while, and walked down the stone steps behind the stone gate. The stone steps were long and deep.

After walking for a long time, Philip finally saw the end.

It was an underground hall surrounded by eternal lights, which looked very secluded.

Eight large pillars were supporting the top of the main hall, and each large pillar was engraved with extraterrestrial beasts and patterns that should not appear in this world. The pillars exuded an ancient vibe as if they had traveled through the ages.

Philip walked along the middle through the stone pillars and arrived at the most central area, which was a high square altar. It was surrounded by four golden dragons made of pure gold with their heads guarding the altar.

A broken stone slate was found on the altar, which was full of obscure lines and patterns. The slate was dark red.

With one glance, Philip felt an unprecedented and powerful vibe!

This slate was made of the same material as the stargate below Cochly Mountain, but the aura was obviously stronger. Moreover, various powers of rules hovered around, forming circles of dark red light surrounding the slate.

When Philip approached, he found that the circles of light surrounding the slate turned out to be obscure symbols and characters.

Philip was amazed and reached out to touch those symbols, but his hand passed through them.

Chapter 3109
A lighting effect?

Then, Philip looked at the slate.

The slate was about one square meter, and it seemed to be broken. It looked as though several pieces were put together. There were some fine lines on it.

After looking at it carefully, Philip found that the patterns on the slate did not seem to belong to this era but something from long ago. Some creatures were extinct in history, and there were some civilizations that Philip could not fathom.

Philip stretched out his hand and slowly placed it on the slate. Suddenly, the slate glowed with a dark red luster, and the surrounding characters spread out in an instant, looking extremely mysterious.

They shrouded the space within three meters, including Philip.

The lines and patterns on the slate began to come alive, slowly floating up from the slate. In front of Philip's eyes, the progress of a civilization that he could not comprehend began to play.

In front of him, the extraterrestrial beasts and people pictured on the slate moved around, and the scenes were imprinted in Philip's mind.

Everything happened in the blink of an eye. When Philip came back to his senses, these things in front of him had disappeared and the slate had returned to normal, but the characters floating around were still there.

Did he trigger something?

Thinking of this, Philip opened the test tube containing blood in his hand and poured it over the slate.

The moment the blood soaked into the slate, it exploded with shocking power and a terrifying glow!

Boom!

A dark red beam of light suddenly shot out from the stone slate, passed through the underground hall, and appeared in the outside world!

In an instant, a dark red beam of light that soared to the sky appeared behind the ancestral hall of Clarke Manor. It pierced through the clouds and formed a cloud vortex over Clarke Manor!

Looking down from the sky above Arcadia Island, this dark red beam of light was very huge. Hundreds of nautical miles away, one could see this terrifying dark red beam of light stirring up the surroundings.

The moment this dark red light beam appeared, the country shook. Even the powerhouses of the West were alarmed!

Several powerhouses a half-step to the other shore suddenly appeared on the coastline of the country, looking in the direction where the dark red beam of light appeared in the sea!

Imperial Palace...

The Imperial Preceptor was the first to fly into the sky. He stood above the Imperial Palace, his golden dragon robe rustling in the wind!

With wise eyes, he starred in the direction of Arcadia Island from a distance, looked solemnly at the dark red beam of light that appeared, and muttered, "It has finally appeared!"

Chapter 3110

This dark red beam of light was seen even by the satellites in outer space. The storm was like a giant pillar in the sky.

Far away in the sacred city of the West.

Zeus was sitting on his throne at the moment, and the sacred sword behind him suddenly shook violently, shining brightly. He jolted and got up. In a flash, his figure appeared above the sacred city.

He looked up and saw a dark red layer of clouds on the far horizon and a dark red beam of light as thick as a finger!

"What the...?" Zeus's eyes darkened and flickered chaotically.

In an instant, his figure disappeared from above the sacred city. At the same time, satellites all over the world began to intensively monitor this huge beam that appeared in the sea.

For a while, all intelligence and tactical departments of various countries sprang into action!

In the country near the coastline, more than a dozen supreme powerhouses were gathered at this moment. Some were old friends, while others were alerted by the dark red beams of light and came out of their seclusions.

They were the most powerful forces in the country, 13 powerhouses a half-step to the other shore!

There were also two pseudo realms to the other shore that also appeared on the coastline at this moment. Their appearance caused the 13 powerhouses a half-step to the other shore to back away.

A pseudo realm to the other shore was an existence that transcended a half-step to the other shore. One pseudo realm to the other shore could easily take on three half-steps to the other shore. Their appearance undoubtedly reflected the gravity of this matter.

Everyone stared at the place where the dark red light beam appeared in the sea, but no one dared to approach on a whim. That was because they knew that territory belonged to the Clarke family of Arcadia Island.

If they appeared there, it would undoubtedly be a declaration of war against the Clarke family!

“Is the stargate of the Clarke family finally going to be opened again?” A half step to the other shore said worriedly at this moment.

“I’m not sure. From the looks of it, it doesn’t seem as strong as the opening of the stargate back then. Maybe someone accidentally triggered something...” Another old man a half step to the other shore replied solemnly.

“No matter what, we have to stand on guard here. If anything untoward happens, we have to work together,” Marquis Fulmore stood at the forefront at this moment and said to the other four marquises around him.

The four marquises nodded.

The other half steps to the other shore each had their own agenda and did not respond to Marquis Fulmore’s words.

At the same time, these half-steps to the other shore and the two pseudo realms to the other shore who did not reveal their true faces looked up to the sky one after another.

The figure wearing a golden dragon robe was walking in the sky. With just a few steps, he appeared next to the dark red beam of light.

“It’s the Imperial Preceptor!” a half-step to the other shore exclaimed in surprise.

The others looked over with solemn expressions.

The five marquises breathed a sigh of relief. Since the Imperial Preceptor had taken action, there was no need for them to worry. They just needed to guard the coastline. Thus, the five marquises instantly formed a strong line of defense.

They stared at the remaining powerhouses and warned coldly, "Everyone, don't cross the line! Otherwise, don't blame us for killing today!"

The half-steps to the other shore frowned and looked at the five marquises.

They said coldly, "Five marquises, don't be nervous. We're just looking."

"I hope so," Marquis Fulmore said coldly.

On Philip's side, he was dumbfounded when he saw the stone slate that suddenly dazzled with a dark red light!
