

The First Heir Chapter 3111 - 3120 -

Chapter 3111

On the slate, blood flowed continuously along the lines and covered it entirely. The symbols and patterns on the slate also seemed alive at this moment, looking very agile. Then, the slate dazzled more brightly and the light shrouded Philip.

At that moment, the scene in front of Philip's eyes changed. He seemed to see a stone door with starlight appearing in front of him. The stone door was carved with stars of the galaxy and all living things and creatures of the world.

He walked over, reached out, and pushed open the stone door.

Creak!

The stone door was pushed open by Philip, and everything in front of him was replaced by white light.

When he got used to the white light, he realized that the world in front of him was a vast starry sky. Hundreds of millions of stars twinkled in the starry sky, and there was a long river of chaos.

Philip stood under the starry sky and felt everything around him.

The silence was as if nothing had changed.

That peace was something Philip had never experienced before.

He pointed with a finger, and a star came rushing toward him, stopping in front of him. In his eyes, he witnessed the birth of this star, its growth, and its destruction in this starry sky.

Philip saw the growth of all things in the galaxy and the extinction of civilization.

Was this the growth of all things?

Philip was bewildered. He kept pointing at the stars, watching their birth and destruction.

Suddenly...

In Philip's sight, a big hand appeared at the end of the endless starry sky, grabbed a star field, and changed the rules and development of that star field. That power was something Philip could not comprehend.

What existence could actually sever the trajectories of the stars and change the power of the rules of the world?

Philip was flabbergasted!

Was this the prophet?

The existence that went beyond his father?

Only such an existence could possess such mighty power.

Philip had no clue how long he stayed in this starry sky. When everything in front of him disappeared, all the stars turned into beams of light and merged into Philip's body!

As every beam of light entered his body, Philip could feel that some kind of power in his body was constantly awakening and growing. Finally, he saw red fine lines appearing on his arm. The lines contained boiling blood!

Boom!

At that moment, Philip roared to the sky. A blood-red mark similar to the sun appeared between his eyebrows. Red lines spread out from this mark and covered Philip's whole body.

All the blood in Philip's body was boiling!

After that, he seemed to have transformed into a giant that stood in the sky. With a raise of his hand, he could change the trajectory of the stars and even destroy a galaxy.

Philip looked at his palm in disbelief and horror!

Was this the power of the Clarke family's bloodline?

The bloodline power that could kill the royal family?

While in a trance, Philip looked up and saw a pair of huge stern eyes looking at him in the starry sky. Then, the huge arm that appeared before suddenly grabbed him with a tremendous power of destruction as if wanting to destroy him!

Chapter 3112

In the face of this overwhelming and terrifying force, Philip could not resist at all.

This destructive force was extremely powerful, far beyond Philip's comprehension. It seemed that this hand could destroy tens of thousands of stars, even this starry sky.

What a mighty force!

Philip watched helplessly as the giant palm with monstrous destructive power grabbed at him. Suddenly, when the palm approached him, Philip's blood began to boil, and a strong fighting spirit also ignited in his heart.

He soared into the sky and fought with the giant palm!

At that moment, an invincible and valiant spirit surged in Philip's heart. This was the power of his bloodline, his divine physique that refused to lose to anyone!

Boom!

Philip punched the giant palm in the starry sky!

This punch contained the power of tens of thousands of stars from all around. His fist soared into the sky with a terrifying force that could crush the starry sky and blasted toward the palm.

In an instant, tens of thousands of stars exploded in the collision and shattered into pieces.

The shock wave formed between the two rippled and swept across the starry sky. At that moment, the surrounding galaxy seemed to be turned upside down. The giant palm withdrew from the sky.

A cold and mighty voice hummed lightly and said, "Oh? The Divine Wilderness Physique?"

Immediately after, the huge eyes swept over the starry sky and locked onto Philip!

"The land of sinned blood..."

With that said, those eyes slowly disappeared from this starry sky. It was as if the power of the rules of this starry sky did not allow such a powerful existence.

Philip was grim. He could feel the power of the blood in his body burning and boiling constantly. After a while, Philip's bloodline power was back to normal. He stood in this starry sky and everything in front of him returned to clarity.

When he came back to his senses, he returned to the underground hall.

The slate that emitted a dark red luster still had the lines and patterns imprinted on it. The circles of red characters from the surroundings poured into his body. Spots started appearing on the slate too.

Suddenly, Philip felt a powerful force pouring into his body continuously. It was a force that he could not control.

A black-gold luster glowed on his chest and formed a vortex that continuously absorbed the power from the slate. At the same time, the golden White Marsh imprint on Philip's arm, the three-headed snake imprint on his chest, and the imprint of the fire chimera that suddenly appeared between his eyebrows began to frantically absorb the power from the slate!

At this moment in the underground hall, endless turbulent power and the power of rules poured into Philip's body continuously. He was like a vessel that kept consuming!

In the outside world, the dark red beam of light disappeared from Arcadia Island in a flash.

The Imperial Preceptor stood outside Arcadia Island with his hands behind his back. With a frown, his pair of golden eyes stared closely at the changes on Arcadia Island!

He could feel the powerful force in the air forming a raging vortex that constantly poured into the ancestral hall of Clarke Manor.

"Has it begin?" the Imperial Preceptor muttered under his breath.

At this moment, a powerful figure rushed over from the sea. The raging power carried by this figure was no weaker than the power of the Imperial Preceptor.

Chapter 3113

"Zeus?!" The Imperial Preceptor frowned and stared at Zeus who just appeared before him.

Zeus also looked at the Imperial Preceptor and Arcadia Island below.

He said, "Is this your choice?"

The Imperial Preceptor answered, "It's his choice."

Zeus was silent. Holding the golden lightning spear in his hand, his eyes became very solemn. He said, "Can he lead the human race and the world out of this predicament?"

The Imperial Preceptor shook his head and said, "I don't know, but he's the best candidate..."

"If he fails, what awaits us will be destruction. You know this very well," Zeus said coldly.

The Imperial Preceptor smiled and said, "So what? Would you rather sit back and do nothing?"

Zeus said coldly, "Is it your plan to put the hope of the human race on a little boy who hasn't grown up? Aren't you too reckless?"

The Imperial Preceptor laughed and said, "He can surpass all of us. This is his potential."

"So what? If he goes to the other shore and betrays the human race and our ancestral land, what will you do then?" Zeus asked coldly.

The Imperial Preceptor's face darkened, then he said, "That's impossible!"

"I won't allow any unstable factors to exist. I want to see for myself!" Zeus said coldly and was about to barge into Arcadia Island.

The Imperial Preceptor bellowed, and a majestic force suddenly surged up from his body. He said, "How dare you?!"

Boom!

A golden wave like an ocean blasted at Zeus. A blow from the other shore!

Zeus frowned, turned into a streak of golden lightning, and disappeared from the spot, reappearing several nautical miles away!

At the same time, the Imperial Preceptor gave chase and said solemnly, "Zeus, this is my territory. If you dare to cross the line, I can't keep you here!"

Zeus scowled and glanced at the coastline. He sensed 13 half-steps to the other shore and two pseudo realms to the other shore. If it really came to a fight, he had no chance of winning.

At this moment, a black-gold beam of light soared into the sky above Arcadia Island and disturbed the clouds, which formed a vortex that rolled and surged!

Boom!

A figure surrounded by three light balls of gold, white, and red rose into the sky and hovered above Arcadia Island.

The golden light was the White Marsh, the white light was the three-headed snake, and the red one was the fire chimera. At this moment, the three little balls roared to the sky and circled Philip in three directions, constantly absorbing the energy and the power of the rules of the world and feeding it back to him at the same time.

Philip's whole body was covered with blood-red lines. It was the bloodline power of the Divine Wilderness Physique!

His eyes twinkled like stars, his aura was like a rainbow, and his body surged with tremendous power.

The three little guys around him suddenly turned into three very huge shadows and appeared in three directions around Philip.

The White Marsh stomped on the sky, the snake stirred up the sea, and the chimera burrowed into the earth!

These three very huge and extremely ferocious shadows were like sacred beasts in the wild.

Philip's aura continued to soar. From the strength in the middle stage of the seventh zone, he broke into the late stage!

The supreme powerhouses a half-step to the other shore and pseudo realms to the other shore near the coastline, as well as other strong beings in the country, perceived the changes in this world. Everyone focused their attention on the figure that appeared above Arcadia Island.

"Is he about to reach a half step to the other shore?"

Chapter 3114

Everyone stared at the figure above the sea as the overwhelming energy and the power of rules poured into Philip's body.

Suddenly...

Grandmaster Turner made a move!

"How dare you?!" Marquis Fulmore bellowed angrily, rushed forward immediately, and blocked his path!

Boom!

In an instant, a fight broke out!

Several remaining half-steps to the other shores attacked the other four marquises at the same time. In a flash, several battlefields broke out near the coastline.

Eight powerful beings a half-step to the other shore fell into battle and triggered an apparition. The remaining five half-steps to the other shore stood motionless on the spot as if those battles had nothing to do with them.

Among them, Benny Larson and Alliance Master Yarn stood with their hands behind their backs, looking in the direction of Arcadia Island.

Alliance Master Yarn said solemnly, "Do you think he can breach the realm of a half-step to the other shore?"

Benny's face darkened as his fingers tweaked in a prediction.

Finally, he shook his head helplessly and said with a sigh, "It's beyond the scope of my prediction. The power of the rules of heaven and earth around him is interfering with all possibilities of prediction..."

Alliance Master Yarn scowled and asked, "You said he could save the Yarn family. How much longer do I have to wait?"

Benny said, "It's almost time."

On the other hand, the three masked powerhouses a half-step to the other shore who were concealing their true appearances looked at each other. There was a symbol of the Pearly Gates on their collars.

People of the Heavenly Court!

Those who could appear here must be the three Great Heavenly Kings!

In another direction, the two pseudo realms to the other shore who had never made an appearance looked at the sea indifferently, paying attention to the Imperial Preceptor and Zeus. They were ready to assist the Imperial Preceptor at any time.

At this moment...

A majestic vibe appeared in the world, which swept over the sea and spread all around. In an instant, the three shadows surrounding Philip rushed into his body.

Boom!

An aura that soared into the sky enveloped Arcadia Island.

Philip opened his eyes, which turned from golden to white and red before finally turning black. With his every move, he could control everything in this world!

This was the power of the rules of heaven and earth!

Philip's stern and cold eyes swept around. He instantly gained insight into the 13 half-step powerhouses near the coastline. At that moment, the eight people stopped fighting and stared intently in Philip's direction.

This aura...

A half step to the other shore!

He had really reached that level!

And... He was only in his 20s!

Chapter 3115

A powerful half-step to the other shore in his 20s!

Grandmaster Turner was the first to back away, and he signaled his companions with his eyes.

“Grandmaster Turner, since you’re here, why leave?” Philip suddenly bellowed.

As he raised his hand, a chimera fist with tremendous energy pressure blasted at Grandmaster Turner. Philip was currently at the peak of breakthrough, and his combat power was unfathomable!

Grandmaster Turner had noticed this and chose to retreat.

“Philip, how dare you?!” Grandmaster Turner shouted angrily.

Seeing that Philip dared to kill him when he had only just broken through, he was really angry!

Boom!

In an instant, he raised his hand and his fingers turned into huge claws that grabbed Philip!

Crack!

The space shattered!

The red chimera fist collided with Grandmaster Turner’s attack, and a terrifying energy fluctuation broke out, setting off huge waves dozens of meters high in the nearby sea!

Grandmaster Turner staggered back hundreds of meters by this punch. He could not believe that he was beaten back by this attack.

The other powerhouses a half-step to the other shore also looked solemn and stunned!

Philip had just reached this level, but he could already suppress Grandmaster Turner.

“What a letdown!” Philip said blandly.

His remark infuriated Grandmaster Turner, who roared, “Kid, don’t be arrogant! Go to hell!”

With that said, Grandmaster Turner surged with amazing combat power and destructive power of the rules. He attacked Philip.

That damned arrogant child dared to brag like this!

Philip looked at Grandmaster Turner who surged with a terrifying aura and smiled lightly. He transformed into a flaming chimera humanoid and attacked Grandmaster Turner.

“Explode!” Philip roared.

Two extremely powerful pillars of fire exploded from his fists like cannons and fired at Grandmaster Turner.

Grandmaster Turner frowned, raised his hands, and formed a green barrier in front of him. Two fire pillars bombarded the green barrier and sky-high flames exploded.

Grandmaster Turner roared angrily. His other hand turned into a terrifying green dragon claw, which fell from the sky and grabbed Philip.

Philip raised his head, and his eyes darted around. He jumped into the air and transformed into a fierce red sword light!

Poof!

The red sword light pierced through the giant dragon claw that fell from the sky and brought forth a gush of blood!

“Argh!” Grandmaster Turner cried out as a bleeding hole appeared in the palm of his hand.

He glared at the burning man standing across and began to frantically absorb the power of the rules of heaven and earth. Then, with a roar, he turned into a green dragon and charged at Philip.

Philip hovered in the air, his eyes full of fighting intent as he looked at the incoming roaring green dragon.

The green dragon opened its huge jaws. Its face was ferocious, and mucus sprayed from its mouth. The dragon scales on its body turned into dagger-axes and fired at Philip. Philip crossed his arms and spread them out with a loud roar!

Whoosh!

In an instant, fireballs fired from Philip’s body and slammed into the dagger-axes formed by those dragon scales!

The sky was engulfed with teeming red fireballs and green dagger-axes.

In an instant, Philip faced the attack head-on. He turned into a ball of fire, raised his right fist, and punched the huge green dragon's head.

Boom!

This punch broke off a horn!

At the same time, Philip jumped up and sat on the green dragon's back. In an instant, dragon roars engulfed the sea!

The green dragon that was Grandmaster Turner tossed around and roared above the sea.

Philip sat on its back and smashed its huge head with one punch after another. Every punch would bring forth blood and dragon scales.

Roar!

Endless lightning power poured from the dragon's mouth and scattered over the sea!

"Go to hell!" Philip roared as his last punch fell.

The green dragon howled and fell from the air to the sea with a large swath of blood.

Philip jumped up, and a chimera sword appeared in his hand. He raised his sword and rushed toward the dying green dragon!

"Slash!"

Buzz!

The chimera sword glowed and slashed the green dragon in half!

Chapter 3116

Swish!

In the air, the chimera sword cut the green dragon in half. Blood sprayed into the sea.

The green dragon transformed back into Grandmaster Turner. He floated in the sea with wounds all over his body, especially on his stomach where he was slashed by the sword.

He was dead!

A powerhouse a half-step to the other shore died on the sea in the hands of Philip Clarke just like that!

He was only in his 20s. He actually killed a powerhouse a half-step to the other shore.

Near the coastline, all the supreme powerhouses a half-step to the other shore fell silent.

Too strong!

The young patriarch of the Clarke family was actually so powerful. One sword killed the green dragon. He just killed Grandmaster Turner who was a half-step to the other shore!

Above the sea, Philip had returned to his normal state. He looked coldly at Grandmaster Turner's body that was floating in the sea and watched as he was slowly engulfed by the waves. Then, he raised his eyebrows and scanned the coastline with stem cold eyes that twinkled like the vast galaxy.

"Gentlemen, do you plan to enter the sea into the Clarke family's territory?"

Philip stood proudly, raging with a monstrous fighting spirit. His threatening vibe after killing a half-step to the other shore with one sword was still there.

The remaining dozen half-steps looked at each other at this moment.

Four of them suddenly soared into the sky, surrounded Philip, and shouted sternly, "Junior, you're too arrogant! How dare you kill Grandmaster Turner?!"

"An ignorant child who has just set foot in a half-step to the other shore is already so arrogant! In the future, you're bound to run rampant without paying any heed to us!"

"Today, we'll teach you a lesson and let you know that there's a bigger world out there!"

With that said, the four half-steps were about to rush in and kill Philip!

"How dare you?!"

Suddenly, Marquis Fulmore and the other four marquises flew into the sky and stood next to Philip.

"Wayward King! Are you going against this country?" Marquis Fulmore looked at a vivacious old man across from him.

The old man was dressed in rough linen, but his face was ruddy and his spirit was strong like a sword unsheathed. Wayward King was a powerhouse in the late stage of a half-step to the other shore

Back in those days, he entered the West alone and killed two half-steps. Roger Clarke once commented that no one in the same realm could surpass him.

The old man stood with his hands behind his back, and his dormant aura distorted the power of the surrounding rules. That was the symbol of power!

On the other side of the sky, two pseudo realms of the other shore wearing masks glanced over.

One of them said, "Wayward King is very strong and about to break into our level."

"Yeah, it's a pity that he doesn't have pure intent," the other person replied.

Wayward King said coldly, "Marquis Fulmore, you're no match for me. Today, I'll kill this rebellious child and avenge Brother Turner!"

Marquis Fulmore scowled and said, "Wayward King, where do you think this is? We're in the country next to the sea that belongs to the Clarke family! If you take action against Young Patriarch Clarke here, aren't you afraid of offending that person?"

Wayward King's expression darkened, and the image of that person appeared before his eyes, mighty and imposing.

Chapter 3117

However, after a brief silence, a chill flashed in Wayward King's eyes.

He said, "We know that he won't appear here! There are strange movements in the stargate of Cochly Mountain now, and that person is standing on guard there. He can't be bothered with things here!"

Hearing this, Marquis Fulmore's face became very dark!

This was the top secret of Cochly Mountain, but Wayward King actually knew about it. There were traitors in Cochly Mountain!

"So, are you determined to attack?" Marquis Fulmore's tone was solemn, and there was fighting intent in his eyes.

The Wayward King snorted coldly and said, "Five marquises, if you want to protect him, I'm afraid you'll have to pay!"

Marquis Fillmore said coldly, "In that case, let's do it!"

Boom!

In an instant, four half-steps including Wayward King charged at the five marquises.

An earth-shattering fight broke out again!

Seeing this, Philip also rushed in and joined forces with Marquis Fulmore against Wayward King.

Wayward King was certainly worthy of being the strongest half-step to the other shore. He raised his hand and a crack in space slashed at Philip.

The power of space rules!

This crack in the space that contained enough power to devour everything burst apart in front of Philip.

Philip threw a chimera fist at it, but when facing the space crack, the chimera fist was devoured. The next moment, another space crack appeared behind Philip. The chimera fist thrown by Philip just now blasted on his back and sent him flying.

The Wayward King snorted coldly and said, "Hmph! Kid, you're too young to act so arrogantly in front of me!"

After saying that, the Wayward King raised his hand, and a space crack appeared all around Philip.

Philip frowned and glanced around. Surging wind vortexes appeared in the crack and extremely sharp wind blades slashed at Philip.

Philip raised his hands. Flames quickly burst out from his arms and formed a layer of chimera armor!

Clink!

Teeming wind blades slashed the chimera armor and rendered it full of cracks!

Seeing this, the Wayward King scowled and roared, "You're courting death!"

Boom!

In an instant, the cracks became larger, and the wind blades became sharper and stronger.

Seeing this, Marquis Fulmore rushed forward and raised his hand. A snow mountain appeared out of nowhere and crashed into Wayward King.

The scene was spectacular!

A snow mountain fell from the sky upon Wayward King.

Wayward King's face darkened, and he stopped his attacks, his clothes all tattered. Then, he raised his hand and aimed at the snowcapped mountain that was suppressing him!

Buzz!

The world started to shake. Tremendous energy and the power of rules surged all over Wayward King, instantly tearing a huge crack above his head.

This crack was the size of a town. The huge snow mountain fell into the crack and was slowly engulfed. In the end, the crack swallowed the entire snow-capped mountain.

A layer of cold sweat dotted Wayward King's forehead. He stared at Marquis Fulmore coldly and said angrily, "You're courting death!"

Having said that, Wayward King raised his hand and grabbed Marquis Fulmore.

Poof!

The space suddenly distorted, formed a palm, and grabbed Marquis Fulmore fiercely.

Marquis Fulmore sneered, waved at the sea with both hands, and said, "Up!"

Splash!

In an instant, six dragons formed by sea water soared into the air with huge waves, roaring and pouncing on Wayward King.

Philip saw the opportunity. His body was covered by flames again as he turned into a chimera humanoid and rushed toward Wayward King in a red streak of light!

Chapter 3118

This time, Philip saw the timing of Wayward King's attack and made his move.

Bang, boom!

In the air, the chimera fists thrown out by Philip turned into balls of fire and formed a sea of flaming lotuses that engulfed Wayward King.

Wayward King was constrained by Marquis Fulmore's attack and had no means to fight Philip. He glared around furiously, and his body surged with raging energy and the power of rules.

“Junior! You’re courting death!” Wayward King roared.

Suddenly, his face darkened and his eyebrows twitched. In that instant, a crack mark appeared between his eyebrows. It was a symbol of the power of his rules!

Crack!

Wayward King raised his hand and slashed. A space crack as deep as the abyss appeared between him and Philip.

In that instant, Philip vaguely saw a corner of the starry sky and a continent that he had never seen before in the abyss that exuded the vibe of a great desolate land. It was a futuristic city full of tall buildings, mechas, spaceships, and space orbits!

Where was this?

Philip frowned and saw the endless sea of fire being engulfed by the abyss-like crack. Then, another space crack appeared above Philip’s head!

Fire poured out like a waterfall, engulfing Philip in an instant!

Philip bathed in the sea of fire, but he was unscathed as though he was bathing in holy light. That endless sea of fire was fully absorbed by him! Immediately after, Philip charged out and fought.

He noticed that Wayward King was only suited for long-range attacks. He used his power of rules to continuously form spatial cracks to attack his opponents.

In that case, close combat would be his weakness!

Seeing Philip’s fast approach, Wayward King scowled and said with a sneer, “Everyone thinks that I’m only good at long-range attacks, but few know that close combat is my strongest trump card!”

With that said, a loud bang was heard. Wayward King’s aura suddenly soared, reaching the peak of a half step to the other shore.

At that moment, his aura was like a vast sun in the sky, so bright that no one dared to approach it.

Boom, bang!

In an instant, Wayward King took dozens of punches from Philip. At the same time, he quickly counterattacked and fought Philip above the sea!

The sea immediately surged and the tremendous energy pressure blasted by the two set off huge waves dozens of meters high.

Boom!

Suddenly, someone fell into the sea from the air like a cannonball. A huge wave hundreds of meters high was blasted into the sea with a bang!

Splash!

Philip was smacked into the sea and sank hundreds of meters. In his line of sight, several figures were fighting furiously above the blue seawater.

Seeing Philip being blasted into the sea, Marquis Fulmore rushed over and fought Wayward King.

“Marquis Fulmore, do you really want to fight me for the sake of that kid?” Wayward King asked coldly while fighting.

Marquis Fulmore merely said, “You’ve crossed the line and your actions can’t be condoned!”

“Hmph! Marquis Fulmore, you’re underestimating me!” Wayward King said solemnly, and an earth-shattering force suddenly exploded and overwhelmed Marquis Fulmore.

The peak of a half step to the other shore was the strongest existence in that realm. Marquis Fulmore felt the pressure when facing Wayward King. For a while, he was beaten down and struggled to find an opportunity to counterattack.

At this time, a huge vortex suddenly appeared in the sea!

Chapter 3119

The vortex continued to expand and sucked in all the seawater around it. After that, the powerhouses a half step to the other shore fighting in mid-air looked at this vortex on the sea.

A drop of red appeared in the middle of the vortex, which continued to grow until the entire whirlpool became red sea water. That was the power of the flame, which affected the sea!

A figure stood in the center of the vortex. It was covered in burning flames that reflected all the surrounding seawater red.

Swoosh!

Suddenly, the burning figure raised its head sharply and stared intently with red eyes at Wayward King in the air.

At that moment, everyone felt unprecedented pressure, and there was a very strong force that was affecting the surrounding power of the rules.

Wayward King looked down at the red figure in the sea. His brows twitched, and the corners of his eyes froze. Suddenly, he felt a sense of crisis!

How could this be?

Philip was just in the early stage of a half step to the other shore.

How could he exude such strong killing intent?

Rumble!

Suddenly, the flaming man soared into the sky. A swirling fiery red ocean wave like a red sea dragon followed behind him and rushed at Wayward King together with Philip.

Roar!

The flaming sea dragon roared into the sky and spewed out countless flame spikes from its mouth, stabbing Wayward King like a storm.

Wayward King frowned and cursed inwardly. He quickly backed away and raised his hands at the same time, ready to tear apart a space crack in the air. However, the storm of flaming spikes was too fast.

Wayward King barely had time to tear open a tiny space crack when the endless flame spikes reached him.

As a last resort, Wayward King gave up the space crack and raised his arms to form an air barrier in front of him.

Bang, boom!

Countless flame spikes bombarded the air barrier formed by Wayward King!

Some stabbed him from the sides and disappeared in the air. It lasted for half a minute before all the flame spikes in the sky were gone. The air barrier in front of Wayward King had long shattered.

In everyone's sight, his clothes were burned to tatters and his body was covered in wounds all over.

“Brat, I’m going to kill you with my bare hands!” Wayward King was in a furious frenzy, and his eyes flushed red.

In an instant, a powerful force erupted and tore open hundreds of space cracks around Philip!

Countless wind blades appeared in these space cracks, which carried tremendous power that could directly kill a half-step to the other shore in the early stage, and fired at Philip!

Philip frowned, and a huge chimera appeared behind him. This chimera immediately put on a layer of metallic armor and shielded Philip inside its body!

Clang, Clink!

Rapid wind blades slashed at the metallic armor of the giant chimera and produced sounds like popping corn.

After a while, the metallic armor was slashed into pieces. The chimera armor on the giant chimera’s body also faced the risk of being destroyed completely as it resisted the attacks from Wayward King!

Chapter 3120

Roar!

The giant chimera roared fiercely at Wayward King as flames surged on its body.

Seeing this, Wayward King scowled and said, “No wonder you could kill Grandmaster Turner. To reach the level of a half-step to the other shore at your age, it’s simply unheard of, not to mention the fact that you can withstand my attacks. If I allow you to grow, you’ll become a major headache for me in the future! Today, I’m going to end you!”

With an angry shout, Wayward King crossed his arms, and a square white space structure appeared in his palms!

“Square Cage!” Wayward King shouted angrily, raised his hand, and threw the square white space structure into the air!

Buzz!

All of a sudden, the square space structure rapidly enlarged and covered the battlefield.

“Imprison!” Wayward King shouted angrily again as he pointed at Philip, and the square space structure shrouded Philip.

Buzz!

Philip was trapped inside, and the square space structure started shrinking with a hand motion from Wayward King, compressing the inner space.

Philip could feel a strong sense of oppression following the compression of the surrounding space. This sense of oppression rendered Philip and the giant chimera behind him motionless. That was because the surrounding space seemed to have been solidified due to the pressure.

Roar!

The giant chimera roared and struggled to break free from the cage, but it was futile. The square space continued to shrink and compress!

Wayward King laughed and said, "Brat, I'll let you have a taste of my Square Cage. In a while, you'll be crushed into a pool of blood, stripped away by space, and completely disappear from this world!"

"Wayward King, how dare you?!" Seeing this, Marquis Fulmore attacked Wayward King with all his strength!

However, Wayward King spread his other hand open, and another similar cage trapped Marquis Fillmore inside.

"Marquis Fulmore, take a good look at how he's going to die in my hands!" Wayward King said coldly.

With that said, he clenched his right hand, and the cage that trapped Philip shrank again with a loud hum!

Crack!

The giant chimera began to show signs of collapse. Philip was also under tremendous pressure, and the flames all over his body blazed. However, he seemed to be trapped in this space at the moment, unable to move. He mustered all his strength but could only raise his arm slightly.

Bang, boom!

In an instant, fireballs shot out from Philip's palm like cannonballs, bombarding the space walls of this square cage. However, it was futile. This space was very solid!

"Stop wasting your efforts. The space wall of this square cage is formed by the overlapping and extrusion of various space layers. Only a pseudo realm to the other shore can break free," Wayward King said very confidently.

Philip did not give up and struggled to raise his right arm. A chimera sword appeared in his hand, and he angrily slashed the walls of the cage.

Poof!

A flaming sword light slashed on the wall and made a crack, but it was quickly restored.

Wayward King sneered and clenched his right hand again.

Buzz!

In an instant, the square space structure shrank again into the size of a truck. The giant chimera behind Philip shattered and turned into nothingness!

Chapter 3121

Only Philip remained in the space structure now, his flesh deformed by the compression. The flames on his body were also distorted by the space.

Seeing this, Wayward King sneered and was about to clench his hand again.

He said, "Junior, go to hell!"

Buzz!

The spatial structure of the square cage shrank again, ready to return to its origins. However, at that moment, a bright white light flashed on Philip's chest.

The imprint of the three-headed snake on his chest flickered and the tremendous power of spatial rules exploded from Philip's body. In an instant, everything within a few miles radius was shrouded in an unusual power of the rules!

Just for a moment, the powerhouses a half-step to the other shore felt the power of rules that did not belong to this world, which formed an effect of suppressing their realm like a tide. Fortunately, as half steps to the other shore, their realms had only fallen to the seventh zone.

Even so, this was dangerous enough!

Wayward King was no exception. The power of rules in his body dropped rapidly in that instant to the seventh zone.

"What the hell?" Wayward King watched in shock as Philip broke free of the square space structure of the cage!

Then, a flash of chimera sword with mighty sword intent slashed from the sky at him.

“Slash!” Philip roared.

The power of this sword was enough to destroy the world.

Wayward King watched as the chimera sword with mighty sword intent slashed at him. His face flushed red, and he angrily fought back with all his might. However, his strength had dropped to the seventh zone now and he could not exert the power to stop the sword attack!

Boom!

The sword turned into a sea of fire that engulfed Wayward King. He flew out and spat several mouthfuls of blood!

Philip stood still and looked at Wayward King who was seriously injured by the sword.

He sighed helplessly. After all, Wayward King was at the peak of a half-step to the other shore. Even if his strength was suppressed by the three-headed snake to the seventh zone, Philip’s attack still failed to kill him.

Wayward King was sent flying by the sword, and one arm was cut off. It was dripping with blood!

He glared at Philip angrily, his eyes blazing. He roared, “Brat, I’ll pay you back for this arm!”

With that said, Wayward King turned to leave. He could not remain here. That unusual power of the rules had suppressed his realm. If he continued to fight like this, he would die for sure!

Philip wanted to give chase, but Marquis Fulmore stopped him and said, “Don’t chase after losers!”

Of course, Philip understood this concept. Besides, the special power of rules disappeared at this moment.

The other half steps to the other shore were shocked when they saw Wayward King’s arm being cut off, and they also quickly fled the battlefield.

Peace was restored at sea.

Benny Larson and Alliance Master Yarn flew over at this moment and glanced at Philip.

The former said, “You didn’t let us down...”

Philip turned around, looked at Benny, and said, "Court Master Larson, you're here too..."

Benny smiled and said, "This isn't a good place to talk. Should we head to Arcadia Island?"

Philip nodded and said, "Sure..."

In an instant, several powerhouses a half-step to the other shore landed in Clarke Manor.

Chapter 3122

As for the two pseudo realms to the other shore powerhouses, they left the sea area with the Imperial Preceptor.

Their target was Zeus!

Clarke Manor, the main family's main hall.

Philip entertained the five marquises, Benny Larson, and Alliance Master Yarn.

The other powerhouses a half-step to the other shore had already left when Wayward King escaped.

"Marquises, thank you for your help," Philip said.

Several marquises sat on the chairs and said with a smile, "You don't have to do this, Young Patriarch Clarke. Now that you're on the same level as us and as the young patriarch of the Clarke family, you don't have to stand on ceremony."

Philip said, "You're my elders..."

Hearing that, they said no more. Then, Philip turned to Benny and Alliance Master Yarn.

He asked, "Court Master Larson, Alliance Master Yarn, why are you here?"

Alliance Master Yarn was very worried about the Yarn family's affairs. He got up and asked, "Have you seen the Clarke family's stargate?"

Philip said, "Yes, I have..."

"A broken slate?" Alliance Master Yarn asked.

Philip frowned and asked, "How do you know that the Clarke family's stargate is a broken slate?"

Hearing this, Alliance Master Yarn looked bright and excited.

He said, "Sure enough, as expected!"

With that said, Alliance Master Yarn bowed to Philip in front of everyone and said, "Young Patriarch Clarke, I beg you to save the Yarn family!"

Hearing this, several marquises sighed helplessly, but Philip looked in puzzlement at Alliance Master Yarn and said, "Alliance Master Yarn, what is this about?"

Benny said at this moment, "Philip, the slate of the Clarke family's stargate is related to the future and survival of the Yarn family..."

"What do you mean?" Philip asked.

Alliance Master Yarn sighed and said, "The Yarn family are descendants of Emperor Kai. We reached our peak during Emperor Kai's reign, but this honor only lasted for decades. After the death of Emperor Kai, the Yarn family suffered backlash from the rules of heaven and earth..."

"We were cursed by a very unusual power of the rules. All members of the Yarn family can only live up to 40 years old."

Hearing this, Philip frowned and said, "Aren't you doing well now?"

Alliance Master Yarn sighed and said, "That's because the Yarn family blessed me with all the luck by using the power of the entire family. We used some things left behind by our predecessors to fight against that curse, which allowed me to break through to a half-step to the other shore and gave me a chance to prolong my life..."

"But now, I only have a few years left to live, and I've exhausted all the luck of the Yarn family. If we can't find a way to break the curse, the Yarn family will become history, and the bloodline of Emperor Kai will also disappear from this world."

Hearing this, Philip finally understood. He asked, "But what has the fate of the Yarn family got to do with the Clarke family's stargate?"

Alliance Master Yarn looked at Philip seriously and said, "Because Emperor Kai once left a stone painting that depicted a stone slate, which has the power to break the curse..."

"Emperor Kai once obtained that stone slate but lost it again later. Over the years, the Yarn family has been searching for it. We finally discovered that the Clarke family's stargate came from the same source with that slate."

At this point, Alliance Master Yarn looked at Philip seriously and said with a bow, "Young Patriarch Clarke, please save the Yarn family!"

Philip had a hard time deciding and looked at Benny and the five marquises.

Emperor Kai once obtained another stone slate that came from the same source as the Clarke family's stargate?

Chapter 3123

At this moment, Marquis Fulmore said, "Philip, the Yarn family has done a great job in protecting the human race. For thousands of years, the Yarn family has been fighting at the forefront of the human race. Even more so, Emperor Kai was an upright and powerful being..."

"Without his unification of the world or his suppression of the extraterrestrial creatures from the other shore, perhaps the human race would have ceased to exist long ago."

Benny added, "Philip..."

Before Benny said his piece, Philip said, "Emperor Kai was kind to me. I'm willing to help the Yarn family."

With that said, Alliance Master Yarn was so excited that he was about to kneel. He said, "Thank you, Young Patriarch Clarke!"

Philip grabbed Alliance Master Yarn and said, "Alliance Master Yarn, we may have had some conflicts before, but everything is in the past now. We should fight together to protect the human race."

Alliance Master Yarn said, "You're right, Young Patriarch Clarke. In the past, the Alliance wanted to get some benefits from you, but now, the Alliance will follow you and obey your orders!"

Hiss!

Several marquises gasped.

No one expected Alliance Master Yarn to give up the Alliance to Philip and the Clarke family.

Philip quickly helped Alliance Master Yarn up and asked, "How can I help the Yarn family?"

Alliance Master Yarn said, "According to the stone painting left behind by Emperor Kai, the people of the Yarn family need to get close to the slate and let the power of the slate change the curse on them, that is, the special power of the rules."

Hearing this, Philip's face darkened. He said, "But my father told me that only a member of the Clarke family can approach the Clarke family's stargate..."

Alliance Master Yarn said, "Rest assured, Young Patriarch Clarke. We don't need to get too close. Just on the periphery will do."

Philip nodded and said, "Okay."

Then, Philip thought of something and asked, "Alliance Master Yarn, did Emperor Kai leave behind anything regarding the underground palace?"

"The underground palace?" Hearing this, Alliance Master Yarn frowned and said with a sigh, "Even the Yarn family can't enter the underground palace. Because without Emperor Kai's Token, any forced entry will awaken the guardian warriors in the underground palace!"

"Guardian warriors?" Philip frowned.

Alliance Master Yarn nodded and said, "A half-human half-corpse existence that's like a spirit body. They were all soldiers under Emperor Kai's command when they were alive..."

"They fought and killed all their lives. They have strong hostility and killing intent! They fought for Emperor Kai when they were alive and are now guarding the underground palace for Emperor Kai after their deaths... Their strength should not be weaker than the seventh zone! Among them, there are also three guardian warriors a half step to the other shore, and their combat power is unfathomable."

"Three guardian warriors a half step to the other shore?" Philip murmured.

Fortunately, he had Emperor Kai's Token. If he really fought with such an existence, his chances of winning would be low. They were warriors when they were alive, and they turned into guardian spirits after death, which was enough to show their strength.

"Alliance Master Yarn, in a few days, I'll go to the underground palace to get a weapon of Emperor Kai's," Philip said.

Alliance Master Yarn was taken aback and asked, "You want to enter the underground palace? What weapon?"

Philip took out Emperor Kai's Token and said, "This is Emperor Kai's Token. During an encounter, Emperor Kai asked me to take his Caelum Sword to protect the human race. Although I don't know why, I feel that I may be able to learn the truth after entering the underground palace..."

“Caelum Sword? You want to take the Caelum Sword?” Alliance Master Yarn’s breathing became rapid.

“What’s wrong?” Philip asked.

Alliance Master Yarn took a deep breath, looked at Philip earnestly, and said, “The Caelum Sword is the supreme treasure of the human race handed down by the Human Emperor back then. It’s a sword that can command the world, smash the stargate, and destroy the sun and moon!”
