

The First Heir Chapter 3131 - 3140

Chapter 3131

Philip was amazed and quickly said, "A little smaller..."

Caelum Sword fumed with white smoke all over as if it were very unhappy but still turned smaller like the size of a palm.

Philip smiled as he stretched out his hand, and Caelum Sword hovered above his palm. Philip cautiously and respectfully put Caelum Sword in his pocket and said, "Please bear with it, Miss Caelum..."

Then, Philip glanced at the golden black coffin and walked up to it. He knelt and bowed several times.

He then got up and said, "Emperor Kai, I'll be taking Caelum Sword away. I'll visit you again next time..."

With that said, Philip turned to leave. However, suddenly, the golden black coffin swayed a little, and the stars in the starry sky above changed their trajectories.

At the same time, in the Yarn family's manor far away. The golden statue of Emperor Kai that held a sword to rule the world glowed with a bright golden light, and the frightened servants in the ancestral hall knelt and bowed to it.

At the same time, in front of the stargate at Cochly Mountain, Roger Clarke, who had been standing there for a while, suddenly felt something at this moment. As if traveling through time and space, his eyes saw a certain figure.

"Have you succeeded?" Roger asked.

The figure glowed with a golden aura, and his face was obscured. He said with a majestic tone, "I'll be waiting for you there!"

Roger frowned and said, "Thank you."

At the same time, in the sacred city far in the West, Zeus returned to his palace.

At this moment, those creatures imprisoned beneath the sacred city went into a frenzy as if there was a presence that threatened their existence.

Zeus frowned, turned into a flash of lightning, and traveled through space and time. He saw a figure's back that was enough to crush a world walking toward the long river of time.

This figure's back was very imposing as if the power of one person was enough to rule the world.

"The Human Emperor?!" Zeus stood up suddenly, his eyes full of horror!

Why did the aura of the Human Emperor appear in the long river of time and space?

"No!"

This presence was unlike the Human Emperor. It was much fainter. However, those vibes had surpassed Zeus' power!

The realm above the other shore was the prophet. This supreme figure in front of him had achieved the path of the prophet!

How was this possible?

Back to Philip's side. After a brief silence, he bowed to the golden black coffin before he turned around and walked out of the hall.

After he walked out of the hall, he found that everything in front of him looked very real. The army of millions was very lifelike as they charged forward!

Fighting intent burst from Philip's eyes, and his blood boiled as if he were in battle!

After a while, he walked down the steps to Benny and Alliance Master Yarn.

"So, did you get it?" Benny asked.

Philip nodded and took Caelum Sword out of his pocket.

Chapter 3132

Benny and Alliance Master Yarn looked at the small Caelum Sword in Philip's hand.

"Is that Caelum Sword?" Alliance Master Yarn was a little agitated yet doubtful.

Why was Caelum Sword so small?

Philip smiled and made a tossing motion. The small Caelum Sword hovered in the air, and the former said, "Miss Caelum, please get bigger."

Swish!

Caelum Sword instantly returned to its original appearance, which made Benny and Alliance Master Yarn widen their eyes in shock. Caelum Sword was full of imposing sword energy that even the two of them found it difficult to resist!

So strong!

So this was Emperor Kai's Caelum Sword!

"Young Patriarch Clarke, what did you call it just now? Miss Caelum? This is just a sword, isn't it?"

Alliance Master Yarn asked doubtfully at this moment, sounding awkward as he mentioned the name.

Buzz!

In an instant, Caelum Sword spun around a few times as if it were very angry. The tip of the sword bent over and stared at Alliance Master Yarn before it wrote angrily on the floor, "Old man, I'm much older than you. You should call me Aunt, alright! Hey, you actually have the bloodline of Little Kai in your body. Although it's very faint, it's not bad."

Alliance Master Yarn and Benny were stunned at the moment!

Caelum Sword was actually proficient in writing.

Could it be a sword spirit?

Awesome!

Alliance Master Yarn's face paled and flushed rapidly. At his age, he had never been embarrassed like this.

'Aunt?'

However, Caelum Sword was indeed passed down from Emperor Kai's era, so Alliance Master Yarn had no choice but to bow and say, "Aunt."

"Hmph!" Caelum Sword carved that word on the floor!

After that, Alliance Master Yarn said with a flushed face, "Aunt, did you just say that I have Emperor Kai's bloodline in me?"

Caelum Sword wrote on the floor nonchalantly: "That's right, but don't let your thoughts run wild. Your bloodline is so faint that it can almost be overlooked. In your lifetime, I'm afraid your strength has reached its peak. I can't believe that Little Kai's descendants are so unbecoming."

After pausing for a while the sword wrote next sentences, "I've made a mistake. If I had known earlier, I should have forced Little Kai to make me a lot of dolls so that I could choose carefully. What a pity. That boy, Hai, was a piece of trash. Soo wasn't bad, but he died too early."

Caelum Sword muttered to itself while writing on the floor. Alliance Master Yarn and Benny looked at each other when they saw that scene.

It was fortunate that they had good self-control, or they would have been scared to death by now!

Philip said, "Okay, that's enough..."

Caelum Sword stopped, turned into the size of a palm, and was stuffed into Philip's pocket again.

Benny and Alliance Master Yarn also smiled. They looked at Philip and asked, "What else did you see in the main hall?"

Philip frowned and said, "A golden black coffin guarded by four divine beasts and a star map."

Hearing that, Benny's face became a little ugly as he muttered to himself, "A golden black coffin guarded by four divine beasts and a star map. What was Emperor Kai trying to do?"

"What's wrong?" Philip asked.

Benny shook his head and fiddled with his fingers in a prediction. He said, "I don't know. I just have a strange feeling that what you mentioned just now seems like a magic circle."

Chapter 3133

"A magic circle?"

Both Philip and Alliance Master Yarn took a deep breath and became a little nervous.

Benny said, "That's right, I seem to have seen this magic circle somewhere before. No, I have to go back. I can't help feeling that there's a great secret in it!"

With that said, Benny left the underground palace. Philip and Alliance Master Yarn followed suit.

The three separated outside the underground palace. Benny returned to the Gentlemen Court, while Alliance Master Yarn and Philip returned to the Clarke family.

Philip had retrieved Caelum Sword, so he needed to recuperate in the Clarke family for a while to fortify his strength.

According to Alliance Master Yarn, although he had now stepped into the realm of a half-step to the other shore, his advancement was too fast. He relied largely on external forces, so his foundation was not solid. Thus, Philip needed to strengthen his abilities.

His target was the Dragon Transformation Pond of the Clarke family, of course!

The Dragon Transformation Pond was located in the back mountain of the Clarke Manor with only one stone bridge leading to it.

Philip walked over the stone bridge and entered the back mountain alone.

There was an artificial pond in the back mountain with blue water and nine faucets in the shape of dragon heads as the water inlet. The pond was surrounded by lush greenery full of vitality.

Wearing a light silk shirt, Philip walked into the Dragon Transformation Pond and sat in the center.

At that moment, the life force of the pond water began to flow continuously through Philip's skin and into his body, swimming in his veins.

Gradually, Philip's body was covered with a light blue sheen, and the imprints on his eyebrows, chest, and arms also began to absorb the vitality of the pond water.

In the surroundings, an imperceptible power of rules formed a vortex and slowly poured into Philip's body.

At that moment, Philip felt as if his body was dry land that was being nourished by rainwater. The rainwater kept pooling together before finally turning into a stream that slowly irrigated the dry land.

In the end, the stream slowly merged into a river, and finally into a vast ocean!

In his mind, Philip continued to evolve the combat skills and special imprint abilities he had learned along the way!

He discovered that the power of kingship seemed to be sealed after he reached a half step to the other shore. That should not have happened. When the grandmaster fought back then, he used the power of kingship of the other shore, which was extremely powerful.

With that thought in mind, Philip continued to use the power of rules and life force that poured into his body to constantly stimulate his ability and the source of kingship power in his body.

However, Philip discovered that the five sources of kingship power seemed to be sealed on top of the vast ocean, motionless. A large amount of the power of rules kept crashing into the seal barrier but was unable to break through.

This made Philip's brows break out in a layer of cold sweat.

How could this be?

Philip refused to admit defeat and kept at it for three days in a row, but the five sources of kingship remained motionless.

On the fifth day, a loud crack suddenly rang in Philip's body. In Philip's mind space, he stood proudly above the ocean and watched one of the seals of the sources of kingship breaking in front of his eyes.

It took him five days to break the seal of one of the sources of kingship power!

At that moment, a red streak of light turned into a ball of fire and entered Philip's body, which formed red flaming wings on the fire chimera mark between Philip's eyebrows.

Chapter 3134

In an instant, Philip felt a very hot surge of warmth in his body. This surge spread from between his eyebrows to his whole body. All the veins and blood in his body became excited at this moment.

Philip's body tensed, and the flame chimera mark with wings between his eyebrows became brighter and brighter!

"Argh!" Suddenly, Philip raised his head and roared angrily.

An extremely bright and hot flame exploded from his body, which morphed into the shadow of a chimera.

Poof!

The chimera spread its wings. A pair of flaming wings with scales unfolded from Philip's back!

Swoosh!

Philip fluttered his wings and flew into the sky, soaring up to thousands miles. He was like a flame chimera spreading its wings soaring in the sky!

Boom!

With a raise of his hand, Philip smacked out streaks of red light that bombarded the sea and caused a storm in an instant.

After a while, Philip restrained the raging fire on his body. He smiled lightly and felt exhilarated as his body surged with warmth.

Poof!

He raised his hand, and a flame burst out from the palm of his hand. It seemed as if it had a mind of its own. Philip controlled the flame and transformed it into various forms.

His control of the fire attribute became more refined. Just like this, Philip practiced his fire attribute. Before this, he only used it in battle and rarely trained like this.

In the next few days, the surrounding of the Dragon Transformation Pond was filled with a scorching aura. There was a faint red sheen in the air too.

Rings of fire appeared on the surface of Philip's body, wrapping around him like a flaming eggshell.

Suddenly, a soldier wearing the Legion of Sovereign armor rushed over briskly outside the Dragon Transformation Pond.

Standing outside the Dragon Transformation Pond, he glanced at Philip who was immersed in a trance-like state and waited anxiously on the side. After a while, the captain of the Griffin Army hurried over.

Seeing the general of the Legion of Sovereign waiting outside, he asked in a low voice, "Is the Young Patriarch not out yet?"

The general shook his head.

The captain stepped forward, approached the edge of the Dragon Transformation Pond, and glanced at Philip in the pool before silently retreating.

He said to the general of the Legion of Sovereign, "You stay here and guard over him. I'll go back and deploy the manpower."

"Okay!" the general nodded in response.

Then, the sound of clattering armor gradually drifted away.

At this moment, Clarke Manor was shrouded in a somber atmosphere.

An emergency line of defense was being deployed in the whole Clarke Manor.

The Clarke family's guards were deployed under the leadership of the captains and several madams. Members of the Legion of Sovereign guarded the entrance of the back mountain in an orderly manner. Members of the Griffin Army closely guarded the Clarke family's ancestral hall.

That was because this was the only route to the back.

In front of the ancestral hall, Aria was dressed in a purple-gold phoenix robe with a phoenix crown on her head. She had a dignified manner and a cold face. Glancing around the ancestral hall, she asked the captain of the Griffin Army, "How is it?"

Hazel and Nadia stood next to Aria. They were also wearing phoenix robes, but compared to Aria, they looked less fabulous.

The captain knelt on one knee and said, "Third Madam, the young patriarch is still in retreat and won't be coming out for the time being."

Hearing that, Aria's face darkened as she frowned. She glanced at the ancestral hall and said, "You may continue guarding here."

After that, Aria turned around and left with the two madams.

On the way, Hazel asked worriedly, "Third Sister, don't we need Phil to come out and preside over the situation?"

Nadia added, "If Phil isn't around, I'm afraid no one will concede..."

Aria snorted coldly and said, "With me around, no one can bully the great Clarke family!"

In the main hall of the Clarke family's white castle, three uninvited guests sat there at this moment. With stern faces and arrogant expressions, these three people kept looking around at the huge hall of the Clarke family.

They wore long platinum robes with gold trimmings at the edges and a golden crest embroidered with gold thread of the pearly gates.

They were people of the Heavenly Court. Moreover, they were the Heavenly Kings of the Heavenly Court.

They exchanged a glance with each other.

Chapter 3135

At this moment, Aria led the others through the main entrance and said with a smile, "Gentlemen, I wonder what brings you to the Clarke family today."

The three Heavenly Kings with different demeanors looked at Aria coldly at this moment.

One of the younger-looking men, about 40 years old, said with a bit of arrogance and dissatisfaction, "Aria Tsar, is there no one else in the Clarke family to speak to us but you?"

Hearing this, Aria narrowed her eyes and said with a smile, "Heavenly King Woods, you must be joking. The young patriarch of the Clarke family is in seclusion right now, so I'm in charge of all affairs for the time being."

"Hmph!"

An old man in his 60s with a thin face and unfathomable eyes looked at Aria with a side-eye. He snorted and said in a throaty voice, "A temporary person in charge? Even with the three of us here, the young patriarch of the Clarke family refuses to come out of his seclusion to welcome us?"

As soon as he said that, an extremely powerful aura exploded from the old man. The peak strength of a half step to the other shore!

This aura swept across the hall and struck fear in the servants and guards of the Clarke family.

Aria also felt the pressure as vast as the ocean on the old man. The other party was making a move on her!

Aria clenched her fists tightly, withstood the pressure from the old man, and said, "Heavenly King Berkley, you must be joking. It's just that the young patriarch of the Clarke family is in a critical period of his seclusion and can't come out. I hope for your kind consideration. If you have a message, just tell me and I'll definitely pass him the message."

Calvin Berkley snorted coldly and said, "That's unnecessary! Today, we're here to tell you that the Heavenly Court will be taking over this country again, and the Clarke family must obey us. Otherwise, the Heavenly Court will definitely take action against the Clarke family!"

Hearing this, Aria frowned and said, "Heavenly King Berkley, what do you mean by that?"

"I've made things clear enough. Back then, the Clarke family could only develop with the support of the Heavenly Court and several others. Now that the Heavenly Court wants to take over the country again, the Clarke family must obey us!" Calvin said angrily.

“That’s right! Since the young patriarch of the Clarke family isn’t here, you may sign the agreement on his behalf.”

The young Heavenly King Woods took out an agreement and threw it to Aria with an indisputable look on his face.

Aria did not even read the agreement and simply refused. She said, “Heavenly Kings, I’m sorry to disappoint you. The Clarke family will not submit to anyone, let alone the Heavenly Court!”

“Outrageous!”

“Aria, you’re courting death!”

“Does the Clarke family want to suffer destruction in the hands of the Heavenly Court?!”

In an instant, the three Heavenly Kings stood up in anger, and their auras swept over the hall without mercy, spreading to the entire Clarke Manor!

Chapter 3136

The pressure from the three Heavenly Kings filled the hall in an instant. Everyone could hardly withstand the fierce aura from the three Heavenly Kings at this moment.

Especially Calvin Berkley, who stared at Aria with stern cold eyes. He said, “Aria, since the young patriarch of the Clarke refuses to come out today, you shall sign the agreement on his behalf!”

This was a blatant threat. He was forcing Aria’s hand!

Three powerhouses a half-step to the other shore were enough to shake the whole country!

Aria frowned, her face cold as she said, “Heavenly King Berkley, you’re too presumptuous! This is the Clarke family, not your Heavenly Court! I’m the third madam of the Clarke family, and you, Calvin Berkley, should give me due respect! Besides, my last name is Tsar. Do you really want to go against me?”

Calvin seemed to have expected Aria to say this.

He chuckled and said, “Aria, do you think the Imperial Preceptor is so free to deal with such things? Besides, do you think Imperial Palace is in any position to point fingers at the Heavenly Court?”

A cold snort rang in the hall.

Aria’s face was very dark as she clenched her fists tightly.

The three Heavenly Kings of the Heavenly Court chose to break into the Clarke family at this time with such a forceful attitude. They seemed to be using this opportunity trying to get something

As the third madam of the Clarke family, now that Roger was away and Philip was in retreat, she had to shoulder this heavy responsibility!

“Outrageous!” Aria scolded angrily, her eyes became extremely cold.

She said, “Heavenly King Berkley, if you insist on crossing the line, my brother will definitely not spare the Heavenly Court! Besides, when my husband returns and finds out what the Heavenly Court has done, do you think you can still exist in this world?”

Hearing that, the three Heavenly Kings turned grim, but immediately after that, they looked at each other and said with a smile, “Aria, we know what you’re thinking, but the Heavenly Court isn’t to be underestimated either! Even Roger wouldn’t dare to set foot in the Heavenly Court on a whim because we have a solid foundation!”

Hearing that, Aria’s face darkened.

Then, Heavenly King Berkley walked toward Aria and said coldly, “Now, do you agree or not?”

While speaking, Calvin’s aura of a half step to the other shore swept over Aria and the others.

Rumble!

With every step, Calvin’s aura became stronger.

Aria was a delicate woman with hardly any strength. Being pressured by Calvin’s aura at this moment, she felt as if a big mountain was weighing on her.

“Calvin Berkley, how dare you?!” Aria was shaking all over, her face full of anger.

Calvin said coldly, “Hmph! How dare this little girl disrespect me? You’re courting death!”

After that, Calvin raised his hand and smacked Aria!

Boom!

However, at this moment, another figure a half step to the other shore appeared at the entrance and threw a slap that collided with Calvin’s attack.

Calvin staggered several steps back by this attack. His eyes and face turned grim.

“Who is it?!” he shouted angrily, looking toward the door.

Someone walked over with his hands behind his back and said, “The Heavenly Court really has the guts to kick up a fuss in the Clarke family...”

Alliance Master Yarn walked into the hall at this moment, his aura raging all over. He stared angrily at Heavenly King Berkley and the others.

Calvin frowned. When he saw Alliance Master Yarn, he sneered and said, “So, it’s the master of the Alliance. I didn’t expect you to stand up for the Clarke family.”

Alliance Master Yarn looked at Calvin and the others sternly before he nodded slightly to Aria. He said, “Leave this to me...”

After that, he took a step forward, stood with his hands behind his back, and said indifferently, “Three Heavenly Kings, what brings you here?”

Calvin and the other two Heavenly Kings looked at each other with dark faces.

Chapter 3137

“What? Is Alliance Master Yarn now a vassal of the Clarke family? Do you want to interfere with the affairs of the Heavenly Court?”

The young Heavenly King Woods stepped forward and stood with Calvin.

Alliance Master Yarn laughed and said, “Young Patriarch Clarke has been kind to the Yarn family, so the Clarke family’s affairs are the Yarn family’s affairs...”

With that remark, the three Heavenly Kings fell silent.

Alliance Master Yarn’s forceful words really made it a little difficult for them.

However, Heavenly King Woods snorted and said, “Alliance Master Yarn, do you mean to fight against the Heavenly Court? As far as I know, the Yarn family is already at the end of their rope. Today, the Yarn family has almost been reduced to nothing. If you do this, you’ll only bring destruction upon the Yarn family, so I advise you not to do things that you shouldn’t do.”

“Hmph!” Alliance Master Yarn snorted coldly and said, “Lionel Woods, you may stop with your advice. If you think that you three Heavenly Kings are capable of forcing the Clarke family, just go ahead.”

Hearing this, Heavenly King Wood scowled.

Strong energy pressure and the power of rules surged from his body.

He shouted coldly, "Alliance Master Yarn, you brought this upon yourself!"

Boom!

With that said, Heavenly King Woods struck Alliance Master Yarn with a palm which turned into a huge black claw that had the power to tear everything apart. However, Alliance Master Yarn's expression was indifferent.

He raised his hand and slapped his palm out. A golden wave of air destroyed the black claw.

Bang!

At the same time, Heavenly King Woods was knocked back by this attack.

He looked nervously at Alliance Master Yarn in surprise and said, "Are you at the peak of a half-step to the other shore?"

Alliance Master Yarn smiled lightly and said, "Do all of you want to come at me together?"

"Damn it!"

"Arrogance! Alliance Master Yarn, even if you're at the peak of a half step, your odds of winning are very low against the three of us!"

"Let's see how strong you are!"

In an instant, the three Heavenly Kings fought with Alliance Master Yarn out of the hall and into the sky!

Rumble!

The sky above Clarke Manor was suddenly filled with violent energy and the power of rules.

Four figures fought in an earth-shattering battle!

The whole sky was covered with thick dark clouds.

Alliance Master Yarn, who was at the peak of a half-step to the other shore, fought against the three Heavenly Kings of the Heavenly Court.

For a while, the battle outcome could not be determined!

Boom!

Suddenly, a huge golden shadow of an emperor appeared in the sky.

Emperor Kai!

His every move carried the aura of a king that shook the world!

Boom!

Alliance Master Yarn raised his hand, and the golden shadow behind him waved his hand. In an instant, tens of thousands of heavenly soldiers appeared in the sky like a tide and swept over the three Heavenly Kings of the Heavenly Court!

Emperor Kai's fury stained thousands of miles with bloodshed. This was Emperor Kai's energy pressure!

The three Heavenly Kings had no choice but to dodge, struggling to resist and defend.

Chapter 3138

Rumble!

In an instant, this area was shrouded in the might of the royal family.

In the sky, that golden shadow wearing a golden robe raised his hand and commanded tens of thousands of soldiers to attack the three Heavenly Kings. The mighty soldiers swarmed like a torrent with terrifying energy fluctuations.

The three Heavenly Kings had to join forces and fight together!

Buzz!

The huge pearly gates appeared in the sky!

The pearly gates were extremely spectacular and magnificent, forming a magic circle in an instant. They swept over the tens of thousands of soldiers.

The sky was filled with a destructive energy vortex. Tens of thousands of soldiers charged at the pearly gates, while bursts of white dazzling light flashed from above the gates, constantly suppressing those soldiers.

A while later, both the pearly gates and the soldiers perished.

In the sky, the three Heavenly Kings glared at Alliance Master Yarn and shouted, "Alliance Master Yarn, are you really going to oppose us?"

Alliance Master Yarn stood with his hands behind his back, looked at the three people indifferently, and said, "I've never fought the Heavenly Kings of the Heavenly Court before. Today, let's see what the Heavenly Court, with its long history, has in store for me."

With that said, Alliance Master Yarn took the initiative to attack. With tremendous energy pressure all over, he charged at the three Heavenly Kings.

"Insolence!"

"Kill him!"

"Go to hell!"

In an instant, the three Heavenly Kings were furious and attacked Alliance Master Yarn!

Boom!

Heavenly King Woods waved his hand, and a shadow of a demon king appeared behind him, raging with black demonic energy. When he raised his hand, a demon sword slashed at Alliance Master Yarn.

Alliance Master Yarn sneered and said, "The Demon King Sword. Your Woods family has studied this forbidden art very well..."

Heavenly King Woods snorted coldly and said, "Old geezer, cut the crap and go to hell!"

Boom!

The demon king shadow behind Lionel Woods slashed the huge Demon King Sword with monstrous demonic energy at Alliance Master Yarn.

The Demon King Sword seemed as if it could cut the sky!

Alliance Master Yarn did not hesitate. With a roar, he raised his hand, and the palm of his hand crackled with the power of lightning. He raised his hand and a thunderbolt struck the Demon King Sword.

Crack!

The sky was filled with thunder and lightning. Several gigantic thunderbolts cut through the sky and bombarded the Demon King Sword!

Boom!

A terrifying energy pressure exploded.

Lionel staggered back, and the demon king shadow behind him became angrier and more rampant.

“10 slashes in a row!” Lionel roared angrily, raised his hand, and slashed out 10 swords.

This overwhelming Demon King Sword stirred the thick dark clouds in the sky like a storm with monstrous demonic energy and lashed out at Alliance Master Yarn again.

10 slashes in a row!

A normal half-step to the other shore could hardly resist this attack. However, Alliance Master Yarn raised his eyebrows and his body surged with majestic golden waves.

“Five mountains!” Alliance Master Yarn roared angrily, and the surging energy in his body triggered a worldly apparition.

The dark clouds behind him seem to form a half-body, roaring in the sky. The dark clouds formed two arms, picked up a huge mountain, and went up against the 10 slashes of the Demon King Sword.

Chapter 3139
Rumble!

This overwhelming battle scene was enough to shock everyone.

In the sky, the figure formed by the dense dark clouds with a mountain in its arms suppressed Heavenly King Woods. In an instant, the 10 sword slashes were destroyed!

Poof!

Heavenly King Woods spat out a mouthful of blood and was knocked thousands of feet away by the mountain.

Bang!

Calvin soared into the sky and hundreds of long swords appeared behind him.

He pointed at the Alliance Master Yarn in the sky and roared angrily, “Sword Dragon!”

Buzz!

Hundreds of long swords behind him turned into a sword dragon, soaring in the sky and roaring as they rushed at Alliance Master Yarn.

This sword dragon contained monstrous sword intent.

Alliance Master Yarn frowned, raised his arms, and grabbed two lightning dragons from the sky, which raged with the power of lightning as they rushed at the sword dragon.

Crack!

Two dragons crackling with lightning were blasted at the sword dragon.

Clang!

Clatter!

All the power of lightning bombarded the sword dragon, and the long swords shattered in an instant. In the sky, the sword dragon quickly shattered and disintegrated.

Calvin scowled. He roared angrily, his body surging with endless energy and the power of rules. In an instant, a huge sword thousands of feet tall appeared in the sky!

This giant sword seemed like it had fallen from the sky. In the depths of the dark clouds, the dazzling sword tip appeared, and the huge sword body was slowly revealed.

“Alliance Master Yarn, since you broke my sword, you can have a taste of my Heavenly Sword!” Calvin said in a cold voice and slashed with the sword in his hand.

That gigantic Heavenly Sword fell from the sky toward Alliance Master Yarn. It was very fast and powerful. The Heavenly Sword turned red from friction and produced a streak of red light!

Alliance Master Yarn raised his eyebrows with a solemn look on his face. He felt unprecedented pressure from this Heavenly Sword.

This Heavenly Sword had the power to kill a powerhouse at the peak of a half-step to the other shore!

Suddenly, Alliance Master Yarn’s aura soared to its limit. Then, he raised his hands and roared angrily at the Heavenly Sword that fell from the sky. “Let’s see how powerful the Heavenly Sword of the mighty Heavenly King Berkley is!”

In an instant, Alliance Master Yarn looked as if he was supporting the sky as he resisted the sword that fell from the sky!

Boom!

The Heavenly Sword fell and was blocked by Alliance Master Yarn above his head. However, at that moment, the power of the Heavenly Sword suppressed Alliance Master Yarn from mid-air.

He quickly fell to the ground, and his arms were bent, but the might of the huge Heavenly Sword was undiminished.

All the veins in Alliance Master Yarn's body bulged, and the clothes on his upper body were also ripped apart by the sword energy of the Heavenly Sword.

"Argh!" Alliance Master Yarn roared angrily, his eyes glowing with golden light.

His body was enveloped by the power of rules. At that moment, the faint bloodline of Emperor Kai in his body was stimulated and a powerful force exploded!

Boom!

Alliance Master Yarn stopped three feet above the ground. The ground was shattered by the impact of the Heavenly Sword and formed a cracked circle.

From a distance, Alliance Master Yarn resisted the Heavenly Sword single-handedly, looking like an ant on the tip of the sword.

Above Arcadia Island, the huge upright Heavenly Sword simply stopped in the air. If the sword fell, the entire Arcadia Island would be destroyed!

Chapter 3140

On Arcadia Island, the huge Heavenly Sword enveloped the entire island with great sword energy. The sword was hundreds of feet tall like a towering building above Clarke Manor on Arcadia Island.

Alliance Master Yarn mustered all his strength and unleashed his aura before he could barely catch the Heavenly Sword that fell from the sky.

At that moment, Alliance Master Yarn's arms were scorched red by the tip of the Heavenly Sword. His skin was cracked, and his veins were all severed. However, the faint Emperor Kai bloodline in his body exploded with a lot of life force at this moment, quickly healing the wounds on his arms and body caused by the sword energy of the Heavenly Sword!

In the next moment, Alliance Master Yarn roared up to the sky, and his arms exploded with a violent force that could shake the world. He stopped the huge Heavenly Sword and slowly pushed it toward the sky.

From a distance, Alliance Master Yarn could be seen holding up the huge Heavenly Sword of several hundreds of feet and slowly pushing it into the sky.

Three feet!

Six feet!

30 feet!

The Heavenly Sword was slowly pushed up!

In Clarke Manor, tens of thousands of the Clarke family's guards and members of the Clarke family showed respect and admiration when they saw the figure in the sky holding up the Heavenly Sword.

Such an imposing sight would surely be included in the history of the Clarke family. An outsider opposing three Heavenly Kings of a half step to the other shore for the Clarke family!

Boom!

The huge Heavenly Sword slowly rose into the air.

Calvin's face turned cold, and his expression became extremely ferocious.

"Damn it! Alliance Master Yarn, you're asking for it! Even if you can handle one Heavenly Sword, can you take on the second?!" Calvin roared angrily and tore his clothes off suddenly.

With hands clasped together, his thin body exploded with tremendous energy and the power of rules!

Calvin's thin body swelled up and became a strong physique. His decadent demeanor from before also vanished instantly.

Seeing Calvin's state at this moment, the remaining two Heavenly Kings shouted, "Heavenly King Berkley, are you crazy? Why ruin yourself for the sake of Alliance Master Yarn?"

"Heavenly King Berkley, don't do this! If this second Heavenly Sword falls, the entire Arcadia Island will sink. At that time, Roger will definitely destroy the Heavenly Court!"

"Calvin, stop!" The two Heavenly Kings shouted angrily, but Calvin paid no heed at all!

At this moment, only Alliance Master Yarn remained in his sight.

"Heavenly Sword! Descend!" Calvin roared angrily, pointed his hands to the sky, and made a gesture of falling.

Rumble!

At that moment, Calvin's endless power of rules dashed into the sky.
